

TRACY ENDS HIS LIFE

Oregon Bandit, Brought to Bay in a Field, Cheats His Pursuers by Shooting Himself.

LEAVES LONG AND BLOODY RECORD

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 6.—Harry Tracy, the notorious outlaw who, with David Merrill, escaped from the Oregon penitentiary at Salem on June 9, after killing three prison guards, killed himself early this morning after being wounded by the rifle of one of a posse in pursuit. Tracy was surrounded in a wheat field near Fellows, a station on the Washington Central railroad about fifty miles west of Spokane, last night. Word was sent back to Davenport, the county seat, and a large number of armed men hurried to the scene.

The posse, under Sheriff Gardner, opened fire on the outlaw, and one bullet pierced his right leg between the knee and thigh. About twenty minutes after being wounded the shot himself with one of his revolvers and his body was found this morning after daylight. The revolver with which he killed himself was grasped tightly in his right hand.

A RUNNING BATTLE.
Tracy was hunted down by a posse of Creston citizens. Surrounded, he engaged in a running battle with his pursuers. His leg was broken by a bullet and an artery bled profusely.

He crept into a wheat field and tried to tie up the artery. Becoming desperate he put his revolver to his head and fired a bullet into his brain. At daylight this morning his body was found, already cold.

After baffling the officers of two states, after a wonderful flight of nearly 400 miles across Oregon and Washington, Tracy was hunted down by four citizens about 2 o'clock. They were working on the information of the Gold Finch youth who had been forcibly made the companion of behind the barriers. He seemed to be in the greatest good humor and evidently was delighted to get back. Despite a few drops of rain which fell, he drove out with the top of the carriage down. His face was perpetually lighted up with a smile of satisfaction and he looked anything but an invalid. The prince and princess of Wales and their children drove over to Buckingham palace from York house, and, just before their majesties arrived, they appeared on the palace balcony and were loudly cheered by the crowds outside. The demonstration increased as the king approached and after their majesties had entered the palace the crowd sang "God Save the King" several times.

COMMUTES LIFE SENTENCE.

Washington, Aug. 6.—Information has been received at the war department that Pedro Capua, a native Filipino, was convicted by a military commission at Tanauan, Batangas, P. I., of complicity in the murder of Second Lieut. Paul D. Stockley, Twenty-first infantry, in Batangas province in January, 1900, and was sentenced to be hanged. It was alleged that Capua was a member of a party which killed the American officer by stonings and pistol shots. General Chaffee commuted the sentence of Capua to imprisonment at hard labor for thirty years.

OIL STEAMER ASHORE.

Philadelphia, Aug. 6.—The German tank steamship Burgermeister Peterson, bound from this city for Stockholm, went ashore on the Pennsylvania side of the Delaware river at the foot of Fulton street, Chester, today. The steamship is in command of Captain Thopprich and is loaded with about 1,275,000 gallons of oil. The pilot of the big tanker mistook the furnace light of the tide water steel company for the range light and ran the Burgermeister Peterson on the flats. She is apparently not damaged.

WOMAN INJURED AT FUNERAL.

RACKING HORSES CAUSE A CRASH AT CEMETERY.

Aged Mrs. Sorg Bruised, Glass in Funeral Car Broken and Several Hacks Damaged.

Just as the funeral procession of Mrs. Josephine Sorg reached the Catholic cemetery this morning there occurred an accident in which serious consequences were narrowly averted.

The team of horses drawing the wagon in which the pall bearers had ridden suddenly started to back. Immediately behind was the funeral car of Henry Schone & Co. and in order to avoid the carriage bearing backward upon them the hearse team also moved backward.

The movement of the head team started the horses all along the line to step backward. The vehicles were close together and the tongue of the first hack crashed through a glass panel at the rear of the funeral car, but did not reach the casket. Behind the car was the hack containing the bereaved husband, his children and his aged mother, and the pole of the next hack in line crashed through the rear of the Sorg hack, painfully bruising the aged lady.

By this time all the horses had been quieted and no further damage ensued. Mrs. Sorg was not seriously injured and remained until the close of the burial service.

CONFERENCE OF NEGROES.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 6.—The Negro Young People's Christian and Educational congress, said to be the largest gathering of negroes ever held in this country, opened this afternoon in the agricultural building at Piedmont park with an attendance estimated at 5,000 delegates. The opening session was largely devoted to addresses of greeting, welcoming speeches being made by Governor Allen D. Candler, of Georgia, and Mayor of Livingston Mims, of Atlanta. Fraternal greetings were extended by other distinguished white men of the city and state, representing white societies friendly to the negro. Bishop Wesley J. Gains, of the A. M. E. church, spoke on the purposes of the congress.

CLARA BARTON RETURNS.

ONE BANDIT SLAIN

MET DEATH IN TRAIN ROBBERY
ON THE BURLINGTON.

HOLD-UP NEAR SAVANNA, ILL.

TRAIN ONE OF THE FINEST IN THE WORLD.

EXPRESS MESSENGER GAME

CLAIMS TO HAVE FIRED SHOT THAT KILLED ROBBER.

Mt. Carroll, Ill., Aug. 6.—A daring and successful train robbery occurred at Marens, on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railway, five miles north of Savanna about mid-night. The fine vestibuled passenger train of eleven coaches, Conductor Emerson in charge, was flagged at the little station and six masked men boarded the engine.

The engineer and fireman obeyed the imperative orders and the robbers at once uncoupled the engine and express car from the train and ran them a quarter of a mile up the track. They then blew up the express car with dynamite, ran the engine north a distance of a mile from Hanover and the locomotive becoming dead, the robbers abandoned it and escaped.

ONE BANDIT KILLED.

One of the highwaymen was killed, being shot above the eye and also in the leg. He met instant death while in the engine and his body was dumped to the ground by his companions as they sped away. The express messenger, Byll, claims to have done the shooting. The dead was done quickly, the trainmen and passengers making no defense. Six sacks of money were secured, but the amount is not known. The passengers were not molested.

There was no way of telegraphing news of the hold-up and a flagman walked back and gave the alarm. A special train of citizens and several policemen at once proceeded to the scene, but as the track runs along the Mississippi and the country is well adapted to a successful flight, the robbers easily escaped.

THE WORK OF EXPERTS.

The work was evidently that of experts as they went at it coolly and methodically. The train attacked is one of the finest in the world and usually carried considerable money, which must have been known by the highwaymen. The dead robber was a stranger in this vicinity. He was a middle-aged man and well dressed.

In his pocket was found an Iowa Central mileage credential from Grinnell to Gilman, Iowa, issued in the name of A. L. Jacobs.

Four explosions were required to complete the destruction of the safe and the car was badly wrecked. The robbers were eight in number, all masked. They evidently were railroad men, one being a good engineer. Messenger William Byll fired five shots at the robbers, but without avail, and an attempt was made to blow him up in his car.

WOULD HAVE DITCHED TRAIN.

The bandits had arranged to ditch the entire train of nine heavily-laden coaches, had not the signal to stop been heeded. Several passengers in the buffet car, including the porter, were held prisoners during the struggle to crack the safe. It is thought the dead robber was killed by a comrade by mistake. The body was put on the tender and run by the others a short distance and then thrown into the weeds.

Official announcement was made by the officials of both the Burlington road and the Adams Express company today that a purse of $1,000 would be made up by the two companies and given to Express Messenger Byll for his bravery.

THE ENGINEER'S STORY.

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 6.—The Burlington train, No. 47, which was held up near Lucas, arrived here at 10 o'clock and during a twenty minutes stop for breakfast Engineer John E. Mooney, of Minneapolis, told a vivid description of the hold up. He said: "The robbers stopped the train by swinging a white light. As soon as it stopped two men jumped into the cab and covered us with revolvers. One of them told the fireman to cut off the engine. After this was done the man who was pointing a gun at my head, told me to pull the engine up away, and I ran her up a half mile. Then they ordered me to jump off and we walked back towards the train, where we were joined by the express messenger and another robber. They took us to the rear of the buffet car and told us to sit there. One of the robbers left us. They worked for an hour blowing open the safe and finally brought the engine down again and all of them got aboard it. A few feet from the train they told me to jump off and run, which I most assuredly did. They ran the engine up seven miles and left her dead."

Mr. Mooney believes that the robbers killed one of their own number, either purposely or accidentally. Several shots were fired, some by the robbers and the rest by the express messenger. The dead man was dumped off a short distance from where the affair occurred, the robbers having taken his body on the engine when the start away was made.

Mr. Mooney says that all of the men wore masks, but that while one was holding a gun in his face, the handkerchief which concealed his entire face, except the eyes, fell off, and that he managed to get a good look at him. He could identify him, he says, as the young man had a sandy complexion, was about five feet, eight inches in height and wore good clothes. The express car had two holes blown into the bottom and was left at East Dubuque. It is believed that the five bags of money only contained $2,500.

THE OFFICIAL VERSION.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Following is the official account of the robbery, issued by the general manager of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railway:

"Train 47 was held up last night about 11:30 at South Switch, Marcus, about ten miles north of Savanna, Ill. The switch was turned for passing track and the train flagged. The two head cars, consisting of a mail and express car and a composite car, were cut off and taken to the north switch, where the safe in the express car was blown open with dynamite and contents taken, after which the engine was cut off by the robbers and started north. As the robbers left, the express messenger fired at them. One robber was found dead about one mile north of Marens and his body was given over to the coroner. At least six men were concerned in the robbery. So far as is known only $2,000 in silver was secured. None of the crew was hurt and none of the passengers molested. The express end of the rified car was badly damaged."

WILL DENOUNCE MEAT TRUST

RETAIL BUTCHERS' ASSOCIATION IN SESSION.

Favor Resolutions Against the Trust, but Differ as to the Form It Should Have.

Washington, Aug. 6.—The National Retail Butchers and Meat Dealers' Protective association today adopted resolutions recommending that the eastern, middle and southern states offer inducements by bounty or any other means for the upbuilding of the industry in those sections. Resolutions also were adopted favoring the repeal of the present bankruptcy law as a hardship on small business men, and extending thanks to Attorney General Knox and to Attorney General Davies, of New York, for their injunction proceedings against the so-called beef trust.

A resolution denouncing the alleged trust was introduced, but action was deferred until tomorrow. There was a long discussion on the subject. All the speakers were in favor of the purpose of the resolution and the only point of difference was as to the form of expression. The delegates will spend the afternoon and evening at a barbecue. The election of officers will occur tomorrow.

PRESIDENT FORBES HERE.

Robert Forbes, of Duluth, Minn., is in the city in the interest of the Consolidated Copper company, more than two hundred stockholders of which reside in Fort Wayne. This is the company which owns about 1,250 acres of valuable copper lands in Canada, and but recently bonded a small portion of the property to a Chicago concern for about $1,000,000. Development is going along on other portions of the holding, and stockholders are confident their investment will prove unusually profitable.

Miss Jessie Herman, of 22 West Woodland avenue, charmingly entertained a company of young people at her home last evening in honor of Miss Flora Steelman, of Crestline, Ohio. A guessing contest contributed largely to the enjoyment of the evening, and in it Miss Ethel Wetzel won the prize. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

NO NEW DISORDER AT SHE

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 6.—Daniel J. Sweeney, a watchman in the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company at their Bliss colliery in Hanover township, was found dead in a field in Hanover township this morning. He quit work at midnight and was followed by a score of men. The men were making threats and Sweeney was afraid of them. He took refuge in a saloon and waited there for some time. After he thought the crowd that followed him had disappeared he left for his home. This was the last seen of him alive. The supposition is that the men who followed him from the mine were lying in wait for him and when he approached the spot where they were hiding they assaulted him with pick handles and beat his brains out.

LAY IN A POOL OF BLOOD.
The body lay in a pool of blood. One of the arms was also broken, apparently by a blow from a club. The murderers were determined to make sure of their work. The nearest house is several hundred yards from the scene of the crime, but one of the inmates thought he heard the cry of murder about 2 o'clock this morning. The county detective is now at work on the case. It is said the coal company will offer a reward of $1,000 for the detection of the murder.

GOFF DECIDES AGAINST S

Clarksburg, W. Va., Aug. 6.—Judge Goff this afternoon in a lengthy opinion decided the habeas corpus case against the miners and agitators and remanded them to the custody of the marshal and sheriff and they will be removed to Parkersburg to serve the balance of their sentences. The judge said the only

ASSAULTS WIFE THEN S

Lyman Allen, Veteran of Civil War,

Was Drinking.

After having brutally assaulted his wife, and while a physician was ministering to her sufferings, resulting from the husband's blows, Lyman Allen, 58 years of age and residing at 744 West Superior street, ended his existence shortly after 9 o'clock Tuesday evening by swallowing carbolic acid. Allen died in twenty minutes after drinking the poison. The wife is not seriously injured.

Allen was a veteran soldier and the family moved to Fort Wayne some years ago from Delphos, Ohio. It is said the wife did much toward supporting the family by her own hard work. The evidence in the distressing case as secured by the county coroner, Dr. W. W. Barnett, who was summoned immediately after Allen's death, is to the effect that the husband had been drinking quite heavily for several days and had been very quarrelsome. Last evening, the coroner discovered, Allen went to his home and demanded from his wife money with which to purchase additional liquor.

KNOCKED HER DOWN.
The woman stated that she had no money, and this angered the man who was already under the influence of liquor. The evidence secured by Dr. Barnett shows that he struck her viciously, knocking her to the floor. Then stepping to a cupboard Allen took a bottle which contained some face preparation, poured out the contents and, as he was leaving the house, the wife asked what he intended to do with it. Allen replied that he was going to get some medicine, and left without further words. A son summoned Dr. A. K. Hammond to attend his mother, and the physician, on his arrival, found the suers. He commanded the farmer to lead his horse to the barn and re- mained under cover, moving toward shelter. When near the stable he broke and dashed inside. He quick- ly reappeared, rifle in hand, and started on a dead run. Turning on the two men nearest him the desperado fired two shots, but without his usual luck, neither bullet taking effect. Without wait- ing for further fighting, Tracy made a dash down the valley leading south from the barn and headed for the brush.

THE PURSUIT BEGINS.

In an instant the man hunters were off in pursuit, firing as they ran. Coming to a rock, Tracy dodged behind it, and resting his gun on the rock began a fusillade. Eight shots in all were fired by the outlaw, not one hitting its mark. Seeing he was not succeeding, he bolted for a wheatfield close by. At the edge of the field he stumbled, falling on his face and crawled into the grain on his hands and knees.

It was growing dark and the pur- suers, not daring to move in closer, decided to surround the place and wait for daylight. In the meantime Sheriff Gardner, with Policemen Stauffer and Gemmein, of Spokane; Jack O'Farrell, of Davenport, and other reinforcements, had arrived on the scene, and they went into camp around the field during the night. Shortly after Tracy disappeared a shot was heard from the direction of the wheat field. No investigation was made, however, until this morn- ing. As soon as dawn came, an en- trance was made into the wheat field.

FIND TRACY'S BODY.

Tracy's dead body was found lying amid the grain, with his face turned toward the sky. His left hand thrown over his head held a revolver, which had inflicted the death wound. The thumb of his hand was on the trigger of the pistol. His right hand, thrown across the lower part of his body, firmly grasped the barrel of the famous rifle. Death was inflicted by a revolver held close to the forehead. The top of his head was badly shat- tered.

Two bullet wounds in the left leg showed the cause of the man's despondency. One shot had broken the leg between the ankle and the knee. The other cut the tibial artery, which of itself was sufficient cause for death.

TRACY'S RECORD.

Harry Tracy escaped from the Ore- gon state penitentiary at Salem on June 9 in company with David Mer- rill, after killing four men, Frank W. Ferrell, R. T. Jones and B. E. Tiffany, guards, and Frank Ingraham, a con- vict, who tried to prevent his flight. On June 28 Tracy killed Merrill near Napavine, Wash., shooting him from behind, and leaving his body in the forest, where it was found on July 15. On July 3, near Seattle, in a fight with a posse, Tracy shot and killed Charles Raymond, a deputy sheriff; E. E. Bresse, a policeman, and mortally wounded Neil Rawley, who died on the following day, and wounded Carl Anderson and Lou Seafire, newspaper reporters.

MANY FEATS OF DARING.

Tracy committed many feats of daring during his flight, in the course of which he eluded various pos- ses when apparently surrounded, and held up numerous farmers, whom he forced to furnish food and clothing, and by threats of murdering their families, compelled them to cover up his tracks. Perhaps his greatest show of daring was displayed on July 2, at South Bay, near Olympia, when he held up six men and forced four, including Captain Clark, of a large gasoline launch, to embark with him on Puget sound and pilot him up stream for ten hours.

In 1897 Tracy murdered Valentine Hoge, a Colorado cattle man, and William Strong, a boy, in the same state. A total reward of $5,600 was offered for his arrest, Governor Mc- Bride, of Washington, offering $2,500 for his capture, dead or alive. The state of Oregon offered $3,000 and a brother of one of the guards killed at the penitentiary offered $100. The reward for Merrill's cap- ture amounted to $1,500, which has been claimed by Mrs. Wagoner, the berry picker, and her son, who found the body near their home.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

DODGE.

Mrs. Ella Dodge died late Tuesday afternoon at her home, 511 West Berry street, after an extended ill- ness. She was the wife of Dr. Ar- thur Dodge, the well known veteri- nary surgeon, and had been an invalid for the past three years. Since De- cember she had been confined to her bed.

Mrs. Dodge was 51 years of age. She was born at Buffalo, N. Y., and at the age of eleven years came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, to Fort Wayne, and this city has been her home continuously since that time. Her marriage to Dr. Dodge occurred thirty years ago, and her life has been an exemplary one. Mrs. Dodge was a devoted member of Trinity Episcopal church, and pre- vious to her illness was active in charitable and religious work. Pos- sessed of a cheerful, helpful dispo- sition, she made many friends and was held in the highest esteem by all her acquaintances. Surviving are the husband and an only brother, who resides at Lafayette.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOUND BRIDE AT THE ALTAR

ABOUT TO BE WEDDED TO AN- OTHER MAN.

Harry Mossman Arrived in Time to Stop the Ceremony and Win Charming Widow.

The marriage some weeks ago of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mossman, now living at Hillsdale, Mich., had a stormy and romantic prologue in this city that has just been made public. His bride was Mrs. Grace Merriman, a young and handsome widow, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Geary, of Coessee.

It appears that the young lady's parents desired her to marry a Bluff- ton man, despite her fondness for Mossman, and she reluctantly con- sented. The marriage was to occur at a residence on Thompson avenue in this city, Rev. Mottschman was present to officiate, and the guests were assembled. Just at this juncture Mr. Moss- man appeared upon the scene, and this event quickly decided the bride- to-be. She simply announced that she would not wed the Bluffton man, and the ceremony for which guests were waiting did not occur. Mr. Mossman and Mrs. Merriman went to Michigan and were married, and it is said the bride's parents have duly forgiven her.

REHEARSE CORONATION.

London, Aug. 6.—The first com- plete dress rehearsal of the corona- tion ceremony was held in Westmin- ster abbey today. The participants included all the chief actors in the ceremony save their majesties. The king's company of grenadier guards was posted at the abbey annex and the peers and peeresses and the royal party all assumed their robes in the dressing room in the annex. The gorgeous coronation carpet and tap- estries were uncovered and the pro- cection and the entire ceremony except the anointing were gone through with. The proceedings lasted an hour and a half.

KAISER'S YACHT WINS.

Cowes, Aug. 6.—The weather was gloomy today for the royal yacht squadron's racing. Emperor Wil- liam's Meteor III and Myles B. Ken- nedy's Sybarita started eastward over the Queen's course in a match race. Both yachts carried jackyard- ers and every stitch of canvas was spread. A rain squall almost en- tirely hid the contestants from view soon after start. The Sybarita led at first, but the Meteor won the race. The chief race of the day was for the emperor's cup, in which the Meteor was not entered.

WHITECAP OUTRAGES.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 6.—A special to the Times from Harrodsburg, Ky., says:

Thirty masked men mounted on swift horses and heavily armed caused a reign of terror in the neigh- borhood of Perryville, ten miles from this city, last night, and severely flogged William Goodnight, George Russell and Wallace Bottom, resi- dents of that section.

CHOLERA'S RAPID SPREAD.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 6.—Cholera is spreading in Manchuria with alarm- ing rapidity. The deaths at Harbin on the eastern China railway num- ber between 100 and 130 daily, chiefly Chinese. It is feared the ep- idemic may reach Irkutsk and Vlad- ivostok. The Russian sanitary precautions are wholly inadequate.

The Y. P. C. U. of Calvary U. B. church will give an ice cream social Friday evening on the lawn in rear of the church.

WILL MANUFACTURE CANDY

NEW COMPANY BEING FORMED IN THIS CITY.

Messrs. Thomas Lau, Joe Heit and

Joe Miller at Head of the New Concern.

Within a few months an independ- ent candy manufactory will be in operation in this city and a company is now being formed by several gen- tlemen who have had considerable experience in the business. They are Messrs. Thomas Lau, Joseph Heit and Joseph Miller, of the Fox bakery, and they have tendered their resignations, to take effect in ten days.

A number of prominent business men will be stockholders in the new company and the financial backing will be ample. It is the intention to capitalize the concern at not less than $25,000 and probably consid- erably above that figure. The concern will manufacture candy exclusively, and will not enter the bakery busi- ness, as announced in the morning paper.

A number of very desirable loca- tions are in view, but no definite action with regard to selecting a building will be taken until after an organization is effected. Nearly all the required stock has been sub- scribed and a meeting of stockhold- ers will be held soon when a com- pany will be formed. The factory will be equipped with the most up- to-date machinery and at the start will give employment to about twenty-five people.

IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

Charles Salzbrenner, who owns the property at 1227 Summitt street, has filed an affidavit in Bullermann's court charging John McNamara with malicious trespass. Salzbrenner is a young man, recently married, and McNamara was his tenant. After his marriage the owner notified his tenant that he wanted possession of the property for his own use, but McNamara refused to get out. Yes- terday, however, he made prepara- tions to move and in moving de- spoiled the property, according to the affidavit, to a considerable extent. He gathered up a lot of bricks and hurled them through the windows, smeared the sides of the house with mud and damaged the property in other ways. Salzbrenner filed an affidavit and Constable Langley was entrusted with its service. He went to the premises and who told McNa- mara was in an adjacent saloon. He went there and found McNamara in a barber's chair, next door to the saloon, and according to the state- ment as made by the constable to Justice Bullermann, he was very drunk. When he attempted to serve the warrant, the constable says, two policemen interposed and said that he was already under arrest for the same offense and that the affidavit was in the municipal court. The constable thereupon desisted and did not take the man into custody. Sub- sequently investigation showed to the constable that there was no ac- tion filed elsewhere and The Sentin- el's investigation shows that there is no affidavit against the man in the police court. Justice Bullermann this afternoon issued a warrant for McNamara's arrest and placed it in the hands of the sheriff.

WILL ABANDON MINES.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 6.—William Stein, the mining inspector for this district, announced today that four of the Reading collieries and the Law- rence colliery, belonging to the Shear estate, of Pottsville, have been permanently abandoned, at a loss of $300,000 each, or a total loss of $1,500,000. Mr. Stein says there are thirty-six collieries in his district and he estimates that only fourteen of these are in condition to immedi- ately start should the strike now be de- clared off. The others would take anywhere from one to four months to put in condition. He says the aban- donment of these collieries will throw out of employment about 2,000 miners. The abandoned Reading col- lieries are the Kohninor, Preston No. 3, Bear Run and East Bear Ridges. Failure to operate the pumps is the cause of the trouble.

IMMIGRANTS ARE DETAINED.

New York, Aug. 6.—About thirty of the passengers on the disabled schooner Notice from Cape De Verde Islands for Providence, which was towed to this port yesterday, are not mentioned on the manifest and the immigrant authorities have detained them at Ellis Island during an in- vestigation. Some months ago a warning was sent out that immi- grants were being smuggled to this country in small vessels from the Cape Verde Islands.

COTTAGERS WILL MEET.

A meeting of cottagers and others interested in the Venetian Night celebration will be held at Spring

Beach hotel on Saturday evening at 7:30. The reports of the different committees will be presented and other business in connection with the celebration will be transacted. A full attendance is desired at this meeting.

JAPAN GETS MARCUS ISLAND.
New York, Aug. 6.—News has been received here, says a World dispatch from Yokohama, that Japan has won the race for possession of Marcus Island, supposed to contain valuable deposits of guano. The cruiser Kasagi has returned to Tokyo after landing a small detachment of marines on the island to hold the place until the question of ownership shall have been definitely settled by diplomatic correspondence between the United States and Japan. When the Kasagi started back, Captain Rosehill, the American who left Honolulu for Marcus Island, had not arrived.

NATAL NEEDS FARMERS.
Pieternaritzburg, Natal, Aug. 6.— An important report made by the surveyor-general and director of agriculture estimates that 10,000 white farmers are necessary in order to enable Natal to supply her own agricultural needs and declares that preference should be given to small farmers willing to work with their own hands. The report recommends the leasing of government lands at rentals equal to 3 per cent of their unimproved value and also advocates assisted immigration and grants of money to encourage agricultural development along various lines.

Arthur Wagner, of Huntington, one of the excursionists to Winona, had a narrow escape from being killed at the south depot yesterday.
Wagner stepped off the train as it was being transferred to the Pennsylvania road, and as it was pulling out he attempted to board one of the last cars while the train was going at a pretty good speed. The young man caught the grab-irons, but was thrown under the steps. By a herculean effort he succeeded in drawing himself up to the steps and out of danger. He was quite painfully bruised.

SWEET BREATH
When Coffee Is Left Off.
A test was made to find if just the leaving off of coffee alone would produce an equal condition of health as when coffee is left off and Postum
Food Coffee used in its place.
A man from Clinton, Wis., made the experiment. He says: 'About a year ago I left off drinking coffee and tea and began to use Postum.
For several years previous my system had been in wretched condition.
I always had a thickly furred, bilious tongue and foul breath, often accompanied with severe headaches. I was troubled all the time with chronic constipation, so that I was morose in disposition and almost discouraged.
At the end of the first week after making the change from coffee to Postum I witnessed a marvelous change in myself. My once coated tongue cleared off, my appetite increased, breath became sweet and the headaches ceased entirely. One thing I wish to state emphatically, you have in Postum a virgin remedy for constipation, for I certainly had about the worst case ever known among mortals and I am completely cured of it. I feel in every way like a new person.
During the last summer I concluded that I would experiment to see if the Postum kept me in good shape or whether I had gotten well from just leaving off coffee. So I quit Postum for quite a time and drank cocoa and water. I found out before two weeks were past that something was wrong and I began to get coarser as of old.
It was evident the liver was not working properly, so I became convinced it was not the avoidance of coffee alone that cured me, but the great value came from the regular use of Postum.'

LOOP DUMPED HIM.
London, Aug. 6.—The American bicyclist, Diavlo, who fell at the Aquarium last night while "loping the loop," passed a good night at Westminster hospital, to which he was taken after the accident. It is expected that he will recover.

THERE YOU ARE.

Heat Exhaustion.
Thousands of people, every summer, get into a condition so unhealthy that any over-exertion on a hot day brings on faintness, and, in some cases, absolute collapse.
BLOOD WINE immediately relieves such a condition, tones up the whole system, and, by aiding the digestion, builds up a strength capable of resisting heat. For sale by ly, strikers should be re-their constitutional rights, but it is poor law and poorer administration of it that cannot or does not reach and deal with law-breaking when committed by corporations as well as by laborers.

"Eighty per cent. of the population here are foreigners and 8,000 to 10,000 are anarchists," was the statement of Inspector General Miller, of the Pennsylvania militia, speaking of the strike situation at Shenandoah, where the troops are now stationed to preserve order.
Continuing, General Miller said that the Lithuanians "fear neither man nor God" and have no regard for law or order. They are disturbing elements, the militia officer declared, ready at all times for trouble and utterly beyond control of President Mitchell or any other of the Mine Workers' officers. Doubtless this is true. But how came this class of foreigners into the mine region? They are of the sort the immigration laws are intended to bar out. Unless the laws are relaxed they cannot come into this country. The mine operators in their greed have scoured Europe for cheap labor and the elements that make trouble in Pennsylvania are brought over because they can be got to work for less than American labor or the better class of immigrants will accept. They are ignorant and supposedly easier to herd like brutes and more insensible to the hardships of their conditions than the others. Finally they learn the nature of the impositions of which they are the victims and become apt pupils in the strike. Then the trouble begins. Sheriff's officers and the militia are called to awe them by show of force or to shoot them down, and the people of the state pay the cost of it. Meanwhile the stream of corruption pours undiminished into the citizenship of the country.
It is this class of labor with which the mine operators will attempt, under protection of the law officers and the militia, to reopen the mines the strikers have deserted. The immigration laws can stop the further supply of this scum of the old world.
Why is it not done?

NEW HAVEN FOLKS GO AFLOAT

TRACTION SYSTEM TIED UP BY A STRIKE.
Four Hundred Conductors and Motor-men Refuse to Work—Crowds Show Disorderly Spirit

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 6.—The Fair Haven and Westville Railroad company, operating and controlling all trolley traffic, local and suburban, within a radius of ten miles of this city, found its entire system practically tied up this morning as a result of a strike of its four hundred conductors and motormen.
The men demand changes and reforms in methods of administration.
The officials of the company have thus far refused to yield. Meanwhile the public are walking.
The action of the strikers is mainly due to the refusal of the company's officials to reinstate 27 discharged employees, whose dismissal the men say, was solely because of their identification with the work of organization. Coupled with this demand for reinstatement of discharged help is another demand which insists upon less arbitrary treatment and reforms of abuses which are claimed to be intolerable.
Yesterday by the direction of a newly formed union of trolley men a committee undertook to present to the company these demands in formal shape. They were not recognized and at a subsequent meeting it was decided to strike. There is no disturbance on the streets. A heavy rain is falling.
The company at 10:15 o'clock started out of six cars from the barn. Two police men were carried to each car.
The strikers themselves are orderly, but the crowds which had gathered in considerable numbers, hooted and jeered at the conductors, motormen and policemen aboard the cars.

FORGE PLANT DESTROYED.

Erie, Pa., Aug. 6.—The plant of the Erie Forge company was totally destroyed by fire today. The concern manufactured heavy iron and steel forgings and was the only one of its kind in this section. One hundred men are thrown out of work and the loss is estimated at over $50,000, with only $15,000 insurance. It was crowded with work, having orders ahead for eight months. Preparations to rebuild will be commenced immediately.

upon the part of the discharged employees led to the murder.
The local coal operators say they now fear a reign of terror will spread over the coal region and that the state militia will be kept busy in many parts of the strike territory.

A NIGHT OF QUIETUDE.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 6.—The sentries on duty around camp and the soldiers stationed at different parts of the town on provost guard duty reported everything quiet during the night. Some of the guardsmen said they heard several shots during the night, but could not locate them.
Two companies of the Eighth regiment are on guard in the town. One is located at the eastern end, where last week's riot occurred, and the other is at the southern section, where the foreigners have been making trouble for the local police.
There was a little disorder in Mahanoy City late last night. A junk vender from Harrisburg, who had been seen near a colliery, was suspected of being a deputy and was set upon by a number of men. He escaped up the mountain and sought refuge with a colony of Roumanian Jews. Fearing an attack Isador Lubiski, one of the Hebrews, dashed down the mountain over an unre-quented road to get help from the Mahanoy City police. When he reached the town he was arrested for fast driving. He was fined $5, but not being willing to pay, he was sent to jail for twenty-four hours. Later he paid the fine and made known to the authorities through an interpreter why he was driving so recklessly. The fine was then remitted.
The suspected deputy was also placed in jail for the night for safekeeping.
Capt. Frederick A. Snyder, aide-de-camp to Brigadier General Gobin, today completed a comprehensive military map of this section of the anthracite coal region. Besides showing the railroads, wagon roads, streams, etc., it gives the location of every colliery.

RIOTERS ARRESTED.

Joseph Dambrowski, for whom a warrant was sworn out on the charge of rioting, surrendered himself today to the local authorities and furnished bonds for his release. Dambrowski had been shot in the foot. He said he accidentally received the wound while standing in the door of a saloon.
Magistrate Shoemaker said today that friends of the rioters who were taken to Pottsville yesterday will institute habeas corpus proceedings to have the men released. The magistrate gave a hearing today to William Stopnitz, who was arrested late Saturday night on suspicion of having been one of the party that threw stones into the Eighth regiment camp. He was held in $500 bail on the charge of assault and battery.

Captain Roberts, in charge of the coal and iron police at Packer No. 4 colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal company, today surrendered himself to the local authorities. He is charged with being implicated in the alleged attempt to kill Peter Remus, a non-union miner. Roberts furnished bail.

FOREIGNERS ARE DRILLING.

Brigadier General Gobin, in speaking of the conditions at Shenandoah, said that Shenandoah for its size is more thickly populated than the tenement district of New York city.
The sanitary conditions are bad and the manner in which the people live here would not be tolerated in large cities. General Gobin said he had heard that many of the foreigners who have seen service in European armies are secretly drilling and are being instructed by ex-officers from the armies of Russia, Germany and Austria. General Gobin describes these officers as "degenerate heirs of noble sires."

GETS BRIDE IN FORT WAYNE

DR. MICHAEL GUTSCHER, OF LARWILL, MARRIED HERE.

Proprietor of Famous Sanitarium
United in Marriage to Mrs.
Ella Nickelson.

This morning, at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs.
Stoddard McBride, 319 West Williams street, Rev. E. W. Allen, pastor of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ, performed the ceremony that united in marriage Dr. Michael Gutscher, of Larwill, Ind., and Mrs.
Ella Nickelson.
There were no guests save the members of the bride's family and a few intimate friends.
Dr. and Mrs. Gutscher left today for Larwill, where for the present they will reside. Later they will return to this city and take up their residence in the old Sanford Rich homestead, corner of Lewis and Har-ison streets, which is but extensively altered and greatly beautified.

Dr. Gutscher is famous throughout the country as proprietor of the Gutscher sanitarium at Larwill, in Whitley county, and scores of Fort Wayne people have been his patients.

BROUGHT NEW CAR IN.

The first of the Fort Wayne and Southwestern Traction company's new cars, No. 302, was brought to the city last evening for a trial run, but will not be placed in regular service until the others now at Huntington are completely equipped. The new cars are identical in size and color with the cars now in use, but they are provided with a lavatory and a compartment for baggage and express.

AN INTERESTING SITUATION

UNITED STATES CALLED TO PRO-TECT BRITISH SHIP.

Colombian Revolutionary Vessel May Seize British Vessel Quite and Impress Her.

Washington, Aug. 6.—A very interesting situation has developed at Panama which may result in a call upon the United States to protect British interests there. Several days ago the governor of Panama requested Commander Potter, of the United States gunboat Ranger, to leave the harbor and go in search for the Colombian war ship Boyaca, which was supposed to be in distress either through a breakdown of her machinery or from having fallen in with one of the revolutionary vessels.

Permission was granted from here for the Ranger to do so. But yesterday Commander Potter reported that he would not go to sea because of the appearance off the harbor of a revolutionary ship. Today he cabled that he had been informed that the governor of Panama contemplated seizing the British vessel Quito and there being no British warship at Panama he asked for instructions as to what course to pursue. The presumption at the navy department is that the appearance of the revolutionary war vessel off the harbor alarmed the government authorities and having no ship at hand to meet her they proposed to press the Quito into service, possibly for the purpose of arming her and sending her out to meet the insurgent vessel.

When the property of one nation is threatened in this fashion in the absence of a war ship of that particular country, it is customary for a war ship of a friendly nation, when appealed to, to protect the property of the country requesting aid, but it is not proper for a war ship of one country to proffer protection unless formally requested to do so. Instructions to this effect were immediately sent to Commander Potter and if the British consul at Panama should appeal to the Ranger for assistance to prevent the seizing of the Quito, Commander Potter would be expected to adopt the same method to prevent seizure which he would if the Quito were an American ship.
The situation is considered critical.
If Commander Potter's information as to the contemplated action of the authorities should prove to be correct.

Captain Potter's dispatch relative to the expected seizure of a British steamer was communicated by the naval authorities to the state department, as it was thought to involve the possibility of international complications. The state department had received no direct advices from Consul Gudgeon, but as a matter of courtesy the information contained in Captain Potter's dispatch was communicated to the British charge d'affaires, Percy Maikes, who is now at Bar Harbor. No response from the British charge had been received during the early part of the day.
The text of Commander Potter's cablegram follows:
"Am informed government contemplates seizing the British steamer Quito. Request instructions regarding action if any. No British man-of-war here."

THE KAISER IN RUSSIA.

Reval, Russia, Aug. 6.—Emperor William of Germany arrived in the roadstead today. The shipping in the harbor was brilliantly decorated with bunting and garlands and a spacious reception hall, lavishly furnished, had been erected on the quay. The Russian merchant squadron anchored in the harbor was dressed with flags.
The czar on the imperial yacht Stand-art sailed early to meet Hohenzollern and the German emperor was transported to the Standart, which returned to port with the two emperors aboard, followed by the Hohenzollern and the German cruisers Prinz Helm-rich and Nympha. The Standart passed down a line of Russian warships, which fired salutes and manned aides.
Mrs. A. L. Randall is quite ill at the Randall cottage in Rome City.

Senator—Let me have yesterday's Congressional Record.
Pago—Yes, sir, but it's a little early to be reading, sir.
Senator—Yes, I know; but I want to see what I said in that speech of mine yesterday.

THE WRONG MEDICINE.

Patient—Say, doctor, that stuff you prescribed for me would kill a mule.
Doctor—Oh! Then I guess I'd better change it.

BASE BALL

In contra-distinction to the games of the previous day, those of yesterday were marked by indifferent hitting, loose fielding and ragged scores. The great Mathewson was groomed for a big fight and what he was expected to do to Pittsburgh yesterday had kept the papers busy for a week. Pittsburgh got on its mettle and played without an error, touching Mathewson for 7 hits and shutting Mr. Freedman's gang of mutineers off from the home plate for nine consecutive innings. New York made only two hits off Tammehille, who made Mathewson look like a plugged nickel. In the American league there was absolutely nothing doing. Four games were played, to be sure, but neither one of them was interesting enough to be featured in anything. In the American association there were some great doings yesterday—doing which knocked several pairs and kinds of socks off the championship aspirants from Indianapolis. Yesterday morning Indianapolis and Louisville were tied for first honors and this morning Indianapolis is away back sitting down. Louisville won handily from Milwaukee, and Kansas City, right across the creek from bleeding Kansas, mopped up the greensward with Indianapolis in both games of a double-header. Other games were of the ordinary kind. The aggregate attendance was: National league, four cities, 8,769; American league, four cities, 7,898; American association, not including St. Paul, 3,300. The results are appended:

BREAKS AUTOMOBILE RECORD.

New York, Aug. 6.—W. K. Vanderbilt has broken the automobile records for a mile and almost for a kilometre, according to a Paris dispatch to the New York American. He drove the car used in the Ardennes circuit races. The course was along the road between Ables and St. Arnaud, flying along the mile in 28 2-5 seconds and the kilometre in 49 2-5 seconds. The kilometre time has been beaten only by two-fifths of a second. The previous world's record for one mile by an automobile was held by Henri Fournier. It was made in a record competition held under the auspices of the Long Island Automobile club over the Coney Island boulevard between Prospect Park and Coney Island, Brooklyn, on Nov. 16 last. The daily a dead level. The mile was electrically timed in 51 4-5 seconds, a rate of 69 1/2 miles an hour. Other records for a mile are: Train, 32 seconds; horse, 1 minute, 35 1/2 seconds; bicycle, 57 4-5 seconds (Murphy) behind locomotive, and running record 4 minutes, 12 3/4 seconds.

IN NORTHERN INDIANA.

South Whitley is to have a free library. Nathaniel Moorehouse, 74 years of age and a pioneer resident at Goshen, died on Tuesday. Majenica, a little town near Huntington, is negotiating for a home telephone system. William Henry Gregg, of Bluffton, a veteran of the civil war, is dead at the age of 60 years. Eighty Hartford City young men are waiting to be mustered into the Indiana national guard as a military company. Arthur Griffith, the Milford mathematical prodigy, is in jail at Reed City, Mich., accused of failing to pay a board bill. Mrs. John Shaffer, of Huntington, married June 24, now sues for divorce, alleging that her husband has brutally choked her and has threatened to kill her. Mrs. George Telfer, 60 years of age, residing in Clearcreek township, Huntington county, took her first ride upon a railroad train Tuesday when she accompanied the Sunday school excursion to Winona. An Albion man named McDonald, riding his wheel in the country east of that town Monday morning, was sandbagged by three thugs, relieved of $10 in cash, a note for $60 and a bank book. It was some time before the victim recovered from the blows administered by the thugs. Percival G. Turner, a Goshen insurance agent, won $2,000 offered by a Boston book concern for the nearest guess to the actual number of immigrants to arrive in the United States during the year ending June 30. Turner's guess was 316,372, while the actual number was three less.

Huntington township, in which the city of Huntington is located, has voted a subsidy of $78,500 to the proposed Dayton, Union and Huntington railroad, projected to run from Union City through Portland, Montpelier and Van Buren, to Huntington, and probably to Benton Harbor, Mich. The majority for the subsidy was 907 votes.

William McNabb, a farmer in Wilmington township, DeKalb county, has a drove well that is a reliable barometer for that neighborhood. Twenty-four hours previous to a rain the water in the well turns to a milky color and during settled weather the water is clear and of a good quality. Mr. McNabb says that whenever the water turns milky it never fails to rain within twenty-four hours.

BIG THEATRICAL COMBINE.

New York, Aug. 6.—It is reported that a combination has been formed by managers and owners of burlesque theaters and road companies controlling thirty-six houses in the United States and a like number of traveling organizations. The Empire, Northwestern and Eastern circuits are said to have joined the merger. President Curtin, of the Amalgamated Burlesque Managers' association, is quoted as having said: "Five million dollars will represent the amount of capital involved. Clean, funny shows will be the attractions at the theaters of our class this season." A list of the cities in which houses are controlled follows: New York, five; Chicago, three; Boston, Philadelphia and Brooklyn, two each, and one in Baltimore, Washington, Jersey City, Paterson, Newark, Providence, Springfield, Mass.; Albany, Troy, Rochester, Toronto, Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Louisville, Cincinnati and Pittsburg.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—After an easy opening all grains took on a steady tone. September wheat started 1/4c to 3/8c down at 68 1/2c to 69c on favorable harvesting weather and liberal receipts. Cables were comparatively firm and a moderate demand from commission houses and a leading elevator put prices up to 69 1/2c to 69 3/4c, where they hung steadily early. December was a trifle stronger than September. Harvesting was reported under way in the spring country as far north as middle Minnesota and southern North Dakota. Local receipts were 367 cars, 7 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 82 cars, making a total for the three points of 449 cars against 357 last week and 353 a year ago.

Very fine crop prospects with estimates for 64,000,000 bushels of wheat from Missouri against only 31,000,000 bushels last year, depressed September wheat to 68 1/2c to 69c. Covering and good export sales at low prices brought a reaction and September closed steady, a shade lower, at 69c.

September corn started 3/8c to 1/2c down at 55 1/2c to 55 3/4c on lower cables and favorable crop reports. December was offered freely at the opening, but the very light receipts—21 cars—and the steadiness in wheat brought a rally to 56 1/2c.

Marked weakness developed in corn. The Missouri crop report indicated a total yield of nearly 300,000,000 bushels against last year's shrunken yield of 64,000,000 bushels. September broke excitedly to 54 1/2c, but covering, especially by St. Louis, brought a partial rally. September closed weak, 1 1/4c down, at 54 1/2c.

Cash oats were weak here today on underselling east by Indiana and Ohio. This with the fair weather worked small receipts and kept prices steady. September opened a shade lower to a shade higher at 31 1/2c to 32c, sold at 32 1/4c and steadied near 32c. Receipts were 89 cars. Provisions had good support from packers. The hog market was steady and aided in an upturn. September pork started 2 1/2c up at $16.07 1/2 and sold at $16.95; September lard 2 1/2c up at $10.87 1/2 and September ribs 7 1/2c up at $10.55, sold at $10.50 and touched $10.57 1/2.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows: Wheat—Aug., 69 1/2c; Sept., 69c; Dec., 68c; May, 70 3/4c to 70 1/2c. Corn—Aug., 58c; Sept., 54 1/2c; Dec., 42 1/2c to 42 3/4c; May, 40 1/2c. Oats—Aug., 28c; new, 33 1/2c; Sept., 28c; new, 31 1/2c to 32c; Dec., 27 1/2c; new, 30 1/4c to 30 3/4c; May, 31c. Pork—Aug., $16.87 1/2; Sept., $16.95; Oct., $17.02 1/2; Jan., $15.77 1/2 to $15.80; May, $15.00. Lard—Aug., $10.75; Sept., $10.85; Oct., $10.30; Nov., $9.70; Dec., $9.35; Jan., $8.85; May, $8.62 1/2. Ribs—Aug., $10.45; Sept., $10.50; Oct., $10.22 1/2; Jan., $8.20.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Cattle—Receipts, 15,500, including 2,000 westerns; market steady. Good to prime steers, $8.00 to $8.85; poor to medium, $4.75 to $7.80; stockers and feeders, $2.50 to $5.25; cows, $1.50 to $7.57 1/2; heifers, $2.50 to $6.50; canners, $1.50 to $2.50; bulls, $2.25 to $5.00; calves, $2.50 to $7.25; Texas fed steers, $3.25 to $5.30; western steers, $5.00 to $6.50. Hogs—Receipts today, 24,000; tomorrow, 20,000; left over, 3,134; market steady. Mixed and butchers, $6.75 to $7.75; good to choice heavy, $7.50 to $7.85; rough heavy, $6.80 to $7.45; light, $6.75 to $7.50; bulk of sales, $7.20 to $7.65. Sheep—Receipts, 20,000; sheep and lambs sold, lower. Good to choice wethers, $3.50 to $4.00; fair to choice mixed, $2.50 to $3.60; native lambs, $3.75 to $6.00.

BUTTER, CHEESE AND EGGS.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Butter—Market steady; creameries, 16 to 19 1/2c; dairies, 15 to 18 1/2c. Cheese—Market steady; twins, 10 1/2c to 10 3/4c; dairies, 10 1/2c to 10 3/4c; young Americas, 10 1/2c to 11c. Eggs—Market weak, 16c.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 6.—Opening changes were narrow and without significance in representative stocks. After the execution of a sprinkling of opening orders the ticker practically came to a standstill. Sloss-Sheffield advanced 1 1/2 and Hocking Coal 1 3/4.

Several stocks developed strength and caused some hardening of prices in sympathy. Sugar was in large demand at an advance of 2 points. Texas and Pacific rose aggressively 2 1/2. Gains reached 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 in the Hocking Valley stocks, Louisville and Atchison. American Express jumped 3 points. The gains were not firmly held, Hocking Coal reacting a sharp fraction, Hocking Valley 1 1/4 and Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie preferred lost a point.

The market turned heavy and dull when signs of depression showed in at lost a point. St. Louis and San Francisco 3/4, Anaconda 2 1/2 and American Express reacted 2. Consolidated Gas advanced 1 1/2 and People's Gas and Chicago and Alton a large fraction.

HIS AUTHORITY IS SMALL.

"The statement in the Star the other day that the president meant to further discipline Lieutenant General Miles by reducing his power," remarked an old war veteran to a Star reporter last night, "would be amusing if it were not actually pathetic. Nominally and ostensibly in command of the army of the United States, General Miles has no voice whatever in the control or conduct of military affairs.

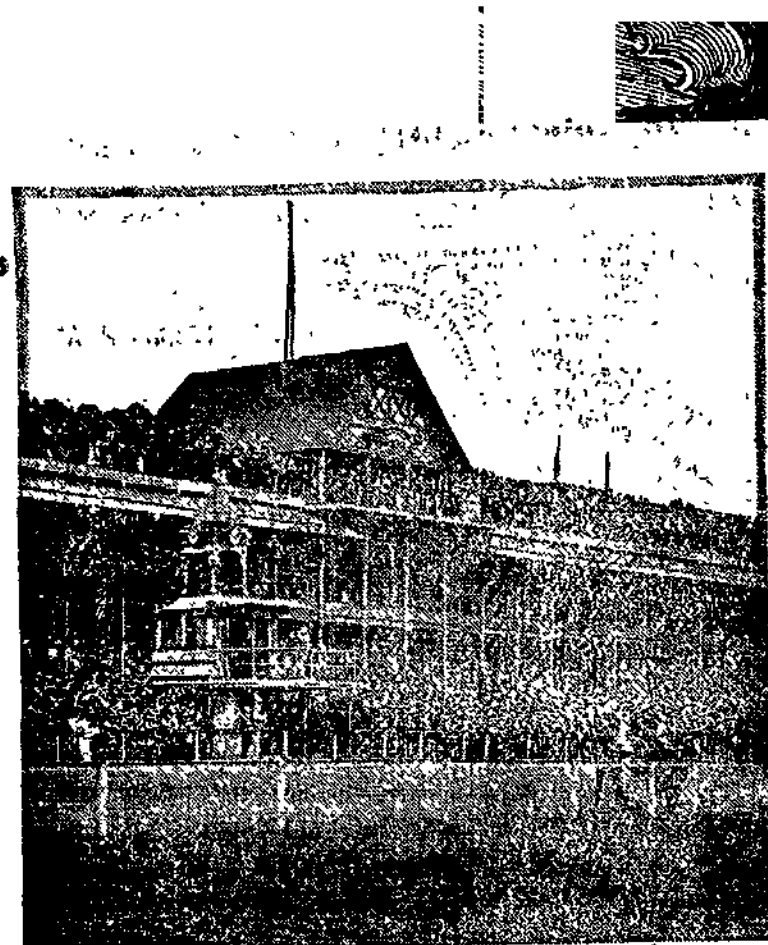

"Although it is true that all general orders to troops and all special orders to officers and men are issued by command of Lieutenant General Miles, it is also true that they are issued in conformity with the army regulations and entirely without regard to his wishes in the matter. His power in military matters is practically confined to the direction of the routine work performed by the members of his staff and the few clerks and messengers attached to headquarters of the army. He has independent control of their movements and duties to a certain extent, but over no one else in the military establishment and is powerless to order a single soldier from one station to another without the approval of the war department as represented by the secretary of war or the assistant secretary.

"Probably his most important function at this time is in connection with the board of ordnance and fortifications, of which he is president ex officio. The independent powers of that board are exceedingly limited. All its actions involving changes of policy or large expenditures of money are subject to the approval of the war department.

"Looking at the case from a purely military standpoint, the powers of General Miles can hardly be reduced without eliminating the few inconsequential powers he now possesses. All the same, I think most of the older officers of the service are gratified that the president has concluded to allow him to round out his service on the active list."—Washington Star.

DIDN'T KNOW EVARTS.

How William M. Evarts was once shut out of his own room is related in one of the Philadelphia Times' "Tales Worth Telling." Here is the yarn: "Evarts, even when he lived in Washington as President Hayes' secretary of state, was notoriously unkind with regard to his clothes, and looked like anything else than the nation's brilliant attorney. His hat, in particular, was a woeful bit of attire, and made him look like an actor 'made up' for Marks in 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.' Evarts on one occasion registered in a Philadelphia hotel of the first class about 8 o'clock in the evening and immediately went out. Returning a few hours later, he stepped to the desk for his key and found the

AN EXCITING FINISH AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

The second meeting of the Coney Island Jockey club for 1902 will be held at Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., in August, immediately after the close of the Saratoga season, and the last great races of the year will then be run. The meeting will open with the Futurity handicap, which always attracts thousands of spectators. The grand stand at the famous old "course by the sea" is the finest building of its kind in America. It accommodates 11,000 persons. On its roof are seats and boxes from which a magnificent view may be had of the steeplechase, turf and dirt courses. The first meeting at Sheepshead Bay this season attracted the largest crowds known in the history of American racing.

FIND THE PILOT.

"Oh! Charlie, is it not beautiful to wander through these green fields together and realize that we are—"

"Evarts—Mr. Evarts," said the secretary of state briskly to the clerk. "Why, sir," responded the clerk, "I didn't like the looks of the man who called to see him, and didn't think a man of Mr. Evarts' importance would care to be bothered by a shabby old panhandler like that." The explanation that soothed the secretary of state was ingenious—rather than truthful.

MRS. HULDA JAKEMAN

Wife of President Jakeman of Elders of the Mormon Church, Salt Lake City, Utah, Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound For Women's Periodic Pains.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Before I knew of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I dreaded the approach of the time for my menstrual period, as it would mean a couple of days in bed with intense pain and suffering. I was under the physicians' care for over a year without any relief, when my attention was called to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by several of our Mormon women who had been cured through its use. I began its systematic use and improved gradually in health, and after the use of six bottles my health was completely restored, and for over two years I have had neither ache or pain. You have a truly wonderful remedy for women. Very sincerely yours, Mrs. HULDA JAKEMAN, Salt Lake City, Utah.

—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

Just as surely as Mrs. Jakeman was cured just so surely will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills.

Mrs. Pinkham advises sick women free. Address, Lynn, Mass.

MACHINERY DEAL

BASS COMPANY BOOKS SOME GOOD ORDERS.

WILL EQUIP STEAM PLANT

FOR WABASH SCREEN DOOR WORKS AT MINNEAPOLIS.

A. P. WOOD HAS RESIGNED

QUITS FACTORY TO TAKE UP COLLEGIATE COURSE.

The Bass works, which are always busy, promise to be even more busy in the near future if orders are filled within the time limit. Some of the departments, particularly the machine shop and blacksmith shop, are in operation day and night and still they are unable to keep abreast of the orders that are daily coming in. Yesterday J. E. Noble, one of the salesmen for this department, secured a nice contract from the Wabash Screen Door company, the machinery to be delivered at Minneapolis, Minn., when completed. It calls for a complete steam plant, consisting of a 22x48 Corliss engine of 370 horse power, three 70x18 horizontal boilers of 150 horse power each, stacks, fronts, etc. Mr. Noble also secured a contract from Rev. Father Oechtering yesterday, which calls for a 100 horse power boiler for heating purposes in the new St. Mary's Catholic school building. A twenty-four foot rope wheel left the works today for Bessemer, Col., consigned to the Colorado Fuel and Iron company.

GROCERS AND BUTCHERS.

If the plans of the Grocers and Butchers' association, of Grand Rapids, do not miscarry, the Grand Rapids and Indiana road will be called upon tomorrow to handle a crowd from Grand Rapids to Kalamazoo. The occasion is the annual excursion of the grocers and butchers of Grand Rapids and they propose to make it the greatest of all similar events given by the association. So far arrangements have been made for three trains.

WILL LOAD ENGINES HEAVY.

Instructions have been given Yardmaster Oliphant, in this city, and Yardmaster Watterson, in Stony Island, to endeavor to load each outgoing big engine with 1,200 tons of live or 1,500 tons of dead freight. These engines can move that amount of tonnage with ease and it costs no more to work them to their capacity than to run them over the road with a light train. There are ten of these big engines on the western division of the Nickel Plate, running between this city and Stony Island, and they are doing good work.

SEVERAL UNFORTUNATES.

John Edelman, of the Pittsburgh car machine shop, had the misfortune to get some emery in his eyes yesterday and is off duty in consequence. No serious results are apprehended. W. M. Repine, Thomas Williams, Samuel Dunbar, Philip Lorder and J. R. Spalding are sick. They are Pittsburgh employees also.

ROME CITY EXCURSIONS.

There were two excursion trains to Rome City this morning, one coming from the Lake Erie and Western and consisting of five coaches and one baggage car and carrying about 200 people, and the other from Kalamazoo with seven coaches and a baggage car and carrying 300 people. The train from the south was in charge of Conductor Billy B. Evans and Engineer John Abercrombie and the train from Kalamazoo was in charge of Conductor Murphy and Engineer Blake.

A. P. WOOD RESIGNS.

A. P. Wood, one of the most promising young electricians of the city, will sever his connection with the Fort Wayne Electric works this evening. He will take a trip east, visiting Buffalo, Niagara Falls and New York, returning here about September 1. On the 15th Mr. Wood will enter Purdue college to complete his studies. He has had complete charge of the large arc testing room at the electric works for several weeks and his management of that work demonstrated an ability and knowledge of electricity rarely possessed by persons much older. Mr. Wood leaves tonight for Niagara on the Wabash excursion train, and will be accompanied on the journey by Ed Fisher, Joseph Ganz and Joseph Schwartzkopf, also employees of the electric works.

HEAVY TRAVEL WESTWARD.

Travel westward yesterday was even more heavy than that to the north, which is something out of the ordinary at this season of the year. All of the Fort Wayne roads report big ticket sales to points west and the Pennsylvania yesterday sold twenty-one tickets reading to Minot, N. D. This was the largest party to any one point, but there were several others bound for other points that numbered ten and upwards.

CROWDS GATHER AT SCENE.

All of today an ever changing crowd witnessed the work of moving the Pennsylvania office building, which commenced at 1 o'clock yesterday and is rapidly progressing. This is a new feature in Fort Wayne and it excites wonder and interest. At the rate the building is moving, it will reach its destination some time tomorrow. No cracks have appeared in the walls or interior partitions and none are expected by the contractor who has charge of the work.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Blacksmith John Rupp has recovered from his recent illness.

Nickel Plate Engineer Frank Telly has taken a week's lay off and will go to the lakes.

Freight handlers in Buffalo have received an increase of three cents per hour in their wages.

J. C. Winans, passenger agent of the C. H. & D., is at Troy, Ohio, in the interest of the company.

Engineer L. M. Pfeiffer and his daughter are preparing for a visit with relatives in Kalamazoo, Mich.

The new station of the Erie, the Big Four and the Hocking Valley at Marion, Ohio, was opened yesterday.

Three cars loaded with raw silk from the Pacific coast were a part of Pennsylvania train No. 6 this morning.

A large picture of the Twentieth Century limited has been taken when the train was moving ninety miles an hour.

Julius H. Kamm, a tinner at the Pittsburgh shops, went to Chicago this morning to stay two or three days.

Machinist Adam Collis, who was sick three or four days, reported for work at the Pittsburgh shops this morning.

Engineer John Gray, of the Cincinnati Northern road, is visiting his father, John W. Gray, of St. Joe boulevard.

Fishman J. Williams, of the Nickel Plate, has gone to his father's farm, near Kendallville, to remain until September 1.

Callor William Smart and Switchman Frank Grimme, of the Nickel Plate, are fishing in the vicinity of Claypool today.

Helena is to have a new union station to cost $100,000, and soon as completed the Great Northern trains will run into it.

J. J. Wall, private secretary of President Caniff, of the Nickel Plate, accompanied by his wife, is on an extended eastern trip.

Two forty-five-horse power motors left the electric works this morning for Elmira, N. Y. T. Briggs & Co. were the purchasers.

Firemen Bloom and John Hollenkamp, who were laying off several weeks, reported for work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

The Santa Fe management, after a thorough trial, has given instructions to equip all its passenger engines with electric headlights.

Conductors Ogden Pierce and Harry Overholser, of the Nickel Plate, have returned from St. Louis, where they went Saturday to visit a friend.

Passenger Engineer Tony Kelker is at the throttle of a Pennsylvania engine again, having recovered from the injuries received last week.

Frank Howard, general foreman of the car department of the Wabash, was in the city yesterday looking after affairs in that department.

Charles Brehm, employed in the car wheel department of the Bass foundry, had a leg injured yesterday by a wheel falling upon him. The accident was caused by a fellow laborer, who lost control of the wheel he was handling. Brehm was taken to his home, 1524 Winter street.

J. W. Hilgeman, a construction man, has returned from Dundee, Wis., where he installed some electric machinery for the electric company.

Bluffton contributed 108 persons to the throngs that made up the excursion party into this city, over the Lake Erie and Western road, last Sunday.

Miss Margaret Higgins, daughter of Engineer Higgins, of the Pittsburgh, will leave in a day or two for Warsaw, where she will visit friends a week.

Mr. Gallert, tinner at the Pittsburgh shops, and his family went to Lima, Ohio, this morning to attend the funeral of a relative who died in that city last night.

On the Pennsylvania lines mileage books to the amount of 12,500,000 miles are used monthly. It is claimed that no other road can make as good a showing in this way.

Mrs. Crawford Griswold, who came from Winona to attend her husband during the term of disability caused by an accident, has returned to the family cottage at the resort.

F. M. Young and Frank O'Brien, machinists, resigned their positions at the Wabash shops last night. It is understood that they have secured employment at the Western Gas works.

Thomas J. Gibson, a colored dining car porter on the Wabash, is in jail in Lafayette, charged with assault and battery on Conductor Joseph Wolf. The assault was made last Saturday.

The United Brethren church at Grover Hill had an excursion to the Dayton Soldiers' home yesterday. About 200 people were in the party and the trip was made over the C. H. & D. road.

G. W. Mills, of the Packard Organ company, was one of the twenty-five or thirty passengers out of this city last night for the west. He was bound for Salt Lake City and went via Chicago.

Daniel Petgen, foreman of the tin and copper shops of the Pittsburgh, is in Chicago today on business for the company. During Mr. Petgen's absence Gus Gruber has charge of the department.

Councilman William Hecay appeared at the Pittsburgh machine shops for duty this morning. He was injured Monday, but aside from a temporary disfigurement is little worse for the accident today.

A. C. Hackius, of the auditing department of the Fort Wayne Electric works, has gone east on a vacation. He will visit in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, the Thousand Islands and the Adirondacks before he returns home.

Captain H. Stoll has received notice of the appointment of G. C. Baker as inspector of police, on the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh. Baker was captain of police on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh road.

Harry E. Baum, notice of whose acceptance of a position at the Electric works was made several days ago, has concluded to quit railway work permanently. He resigned his position at the Nickel Plate yesterday.

The St. Louis Railway club has established a fund to be known as the Purdue University scholarship fund, the purpose of which is to maintain a student at Purdue University, the amount to be paid being $250 per annum.

The target at the railway exercise on Hanna street failed to lock yesterday afternoon when it was hoisted to allow Wabash train No. 6 to pass. It dropped down as the train was passing the point and was torn from its fastenings.

The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton company brought in 295 people from Findlay and points this side of that city. The excursionists went directly to Robinson park, where they are having a good time. The train consisted of five cars.

Engineer J. Q. McClellan, who was taken sick in Chicago last Sunday, is recovering and took Pennsylvania train No. 37 out this morning. Tomorrow he will go to Rome City to remain three or four days, hoping to regain complete health by the outing.

An official of the Pullman company states that it required thirty-five Pullman cars to carry the people who went from Indiana to California on the Knights of Pythias excursion. This is an unprecedented movement and regular business is also very heavy.

The Pullman company has adopted a rule which makes the porter on its cars a sort of a "spotter" on the conductor. The porter is now required to take up a certain kind of ticket from each passenger and these must correspond with the tickets taken up by the conductor.

Tony Hoffman and George Zeigler, employees of Rhinesmith & Simonson, are sick.

Hon. J. H. Bass went to St. Louis last night on business connected with his foundry.

The Bass boiler shop resumed work this morning, after a shut down for repairs.

The Knights of Pythias, of Bellevue, Ohio, had an excursion into Cleveland, over the Nickel Plate yesterday.

A dispatch from Peru says that the general shops of the Cincinnati, Richmond and Muncie road will be established at that place.

Electrical Engineer A. C. Davis has returned from Altoona, where he spent several days in the interest of the Pennsylvania company.

The Wabash has issued a time card in convenient shape for hanging on a wall, which is one of the most explicit, comprehensible time cards ever gotten out. A single glance at it will give the contemplating traveler the desired information, without putting him to the trouble of hunting up some wiser one to explain the card, as is the case with some time cards.

The Lake Erie and Western road, which brought into this city over 1,000 excursionists last Sunday, had the biggest business of the season in that way on that date. The Indianapolis Journal says: "The company had two special trains to Sandusky and the same number to Michigan City, and to other points the usual number of excursions. With the company's large passenger equipment and what it could borrow, fully 500 people could not be accommodated."

WOULD CHANGE THE ROUTES

THE MAYOR TALKS OF TRACTION EXTENSIONS.

Meets With Board for Discussion of the Franchise—Opposed to a North Side Belt Line.

The board of works and the mayor held an informal conference last night and discussed street car matters as they are now presented. There was nothing done in the way of making a formal presentation to the joint committee to meet on Friday night, but many points in connection with the general situation were discussed. Mayor Berghoff said to The Sentinel that he adhered to his original views, but that he thought material changes would be presented to the Friday night's committee and conference for consideration. He believes that a route embracing the line suggested, south on South Wayne avenue, back ascending as far south as Organ avenue, and from there east to Hoagland avenue and then south again to Johns avenue and then east to Calhoun street, would be recommended and insisted upon. This line, he says, will give to the people south of Leith street a service that they will not get under the plan proposed to extend to Calhoun street line south only as far as Leith street, and from there east. On other propositions the mayor is less decided. He says that he thinks that a southeastern opening should be left for interurbans coming from that direction, but frankly admits that the lines contemplated under the construction plan will practically "box up" the town. "I don't want to box up the town," said the mayor, "but I do want to see those extensions built, and I believe in the parallel system. I know it will cut off entrances in the southwestern part of the city, but I think that Lafayette street can be saved for a southeastern entrance. Lafayette street, of course, parallels Hanna, but I think that when we all get together, we can let a loophole out in that corner. No; I have nothing to say about the northeast corner of the city. That matter will be taken up and an extension out on Huffman street to the city limits will give the people up there all they are asking for. The city has no right to encourage or anticipate any extensions beyond the limits. No, sir, I do not think that a belt line extending from Huffman street over Runion avenue or any other street, to connect with the West Main street line near the cemetery, is feasible. The traction company is through with belt lines and I don't approve of them."

CANCEROUS ULCERS

Are in many respects like other ulcers or sores, and this resemblance often proves fatal. Valuable time is lost in fruitless efforts to heal the sore with washes and salves, because the germs of Cancer that are multiplying in the blood and the new Cancer cells which are constantly developing keep up the irritation and discharge, and at last sharp shooting pains announce the approach of the eating and sloughing stage, and a hideous, sickening cancerous sore begins its destructive work.

No ulcer or sore can exist without some predisposing internal cause that has poisoned the blood, and the open discharging ulcer, or the festering sore on the lip, cheek or other part of the body will continue to spread and eat deeper into the flesh unless the blood is purified and the Cancer germs or morbid matter eliminated from the circulation.

S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all decaying effete matter. It has great antitoxin and purifying properties that soon destroy the germs and poisons and restore the blood to its natural condition. And when pure blood is carried to the ulcer or sore the healing process begins, the discharge ceases and the place heals over and new skin forms. S. S. S. is a strictly vegetable blood purifier containing no mercury or minerals of any description.

If you have an ulcer or chronic sore of any kind, write us about it, medical advice will cost you nothing. Books on Cancer and other diseases of the blood will be sent free.

"FORCE"

OR is a little word, but gigantic in possibilities.

Success, happiness, practically all of the good things of life, depend on good health.

Most of the failures, the woes of life, rest their origin and continuance in bad health. The possibilities represented by the OR in "Good Health or Bad Health," certainly are gigantic, aren't they? Proper food, more than any one other thing, represents the difference between good health or bad health.

Any physician will tell you that a proper mixture of the whole of the wheat and barley malt is pre-eminently a proper food, one that builds normally, tones evenly, nourishes sufficiently every organ of the body.

"FORCE" is composed of the whole of the wheat and barley malt scientifically combined in the form of a delicate, crisp flake. It cannot lose its good qualities in faulty cooking, for it is ready to be put on the table when it reaches the house.

There's another OR worth considering—a hot kitchen fire, on a hot summer day, OR in the kitchen fire.

ALL PULL THEIR WEAPONS
FURTHER TROUBLE IS LOOKED FOR SHORTLY.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 7.—Jim Highpeach and Brooks Carter were killed, John Carter is supposed to have been seriously wounded, and a man of the name of Richmond was shot through the wrist today in a fight in Jackson county resulting from an old feud between the Carter and Lynch families of that section. The fight occurred in the country store of Brooks Carter, where Brooks and his brother John, Jim Highpeach and Boyd and Leslie Lynch and several others had gathered. The talk drifted to the election and a dispute arose between the Carter and Lynch factions. One of the men was seen to reach for his pistol and a general fight ensued, in which guns and pistols were brought into action. Brooks Carter and Highpeach were instantly killed and Richmond was shot through the wrist. John Carter, who is supposed to have been seriously wounded, ran off after the shooting, threatening vengeance. The Lynch brothers are under arrest. Further trouble is anticipated.

KILLS FATHER IN QUARREL.

Vienna, Ill., Aug. 7.—W. D. Ragsdale, a merchant and farmer of West Vienna, was shot and killed yesterday at his farm eight miles west of Vienna by his son, S. C. Ragsdale. The father and son previously had trouble about the management of the farm owned by the father and tilled by the son.

The father went yesterday to make a contract with his son for the wheat crop, but the young man refused to sign. The father then demanded possession of a team, but when he started to drive off the premises the young man ran into the house, secured a revolver and, returning, opened fire on the father, shooting him five times, killing him almost instantly.

After the shooting young Ragsdale went ahead with his work about the place and gave orders that a sack of salt be laid on the body of the father with the intention of preserving while it lay in the sun awaiting the arrival of the coroner. He made no effort to evade arrest.

THOUSANDS HEAR CONCERT.

A crowd estimated at from 4,000 to 5,000 people gathered at Reservoir park last evening to hear the concert by the Wolf band. Wolf Bros. provided the entertainment for the benefit of their customers living on the south side, and to judge from the crowd and the applause each number received the concert was greatly enjoyed. Prof. Met gave a violin solo and G. Louis Wefel sang. A few of the residents living on Reservoir square decorated their houses with Japanese lanterns and added to the beauty of the scene.

PAULDING DEFEATS CELINA.

At Dolphos, Ohio, yesterday the Paulding All-Professionals defeated the Celina team by a score of 2 to 1. The game was played for a purse of $200 and was umpired by the sheriff of Van Wert county. Next Sunday at League park the Pauldings will play the Shamrocks and Bobbins and Tieman will form the Fort Wayne battery. Paulding has defeated the Columbian Giants early in the season.

INJUNCTION SUITS GO OVER.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—The hearing of the forty-five injunction cases that have sprung out of the attempt to corner July oats, has been postponed for one week. Over thirty lawyers appeared in court today and wrangled over a continuance. After a conference of Judges Chytrous and Chetlain, who issued the injunctions, it was decided that the former should hear all the cases.

HEADQUARTERS CHANGED.

The headquarters of the Fort Wayne Fair association have been moved from the Commercial club rooms to the office of Coroner Barnett, on the northeast corner of the ground floor of the court house. Arrangements for the fair are progressing rapidly and a large number of applications for exhibit space are being received.

IT WAS A RECORD BREAKER.

Charles Bultemeyer, a prominent farmer near Bingen, Adams county, on Wednesday hauled to the Hoagland elevator of S. Bash & Co., a load of eighty-three bushels of Alsike clover seed, for which he received the sum of $481.50. The seed was hauled in a single wagon, with one team of horses, and elevator men say it breaks the Adams county record, for it is believed that no previous load of grain ever hauled there brought so large a sum of money.

PRESIDENT TALKS POLITICS AT SAGAMORE HILL.

Congressman Overstreet Discusses the President's Coming Visit to Indiana.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 7.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt arrived at Sagamore Hill soon after 7 o'clock this morning. The Sylph reached the bay late last night, but no attempt was made to land her passengers. The trip from Block Island sound was made without incident.

The president had a number of guests at luncheon today. Senator Platt, of Connecticut; Mr. Phelps, secretary to the governor of Connecticut, and Mr. Clark, of the Hartford Courant, came to talk over the political situation in their state with the president. Representative Jesse Overstreet, of Indiana, one of the members of the congressional campaign committee, discussed with the president the political situation generally so far as it relates to the congressional elections in the fall. He talked to the president, too, regarding the latter's proposed visit to Indiana in September. Senator Stewart, of Nevada, discussed briefly with the president some western matters in which he is interested. Others present were Gen. John Clarkson, of Iowa; Representatives James S. Sherman and Lucien N. Littauer, of New York, and former State Senator John Laughlin, of Buffalo.

TRYING TO SETTLE STRIKE.

New York, Aug. 7.—A. B. Youngson, assistant grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who was sent here from Cleveland, Ohio, by Grand Chief P. M. Arthur, to endeavor to adjust the difficulty between the motormen and engineers of the Manhattan Elevated railroad and the officials of that system, arrived here today and met the representatives of the railroad employees. Representatives of the firemen were also present. Word was received today that Charles Wilson, vice grand master of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, was on his way here from Peoria, Ill. Just prior to the beginning of the conference Mr. Youngson said: "Chief Arthur will not come here and I will have sole charge of this matter. I believe that if the railroad company treats the men in a conciliatory way the differences can be easily settled."

JAMES ENGLISH VERY ILL.

James English is critically ill at his home, No. 2528 Lafayette street, and fears are entertained that he cannot recover. Mr. English has been at Winonsa for some time, but a few days ago was taken very ill with dysentery. His son, Dr. C. H. English, was hurriedly summoned from the city and has been in constant attendance on his father ever since. Mr. English was brought home last evening.

TRANSFERRED TO THIS CITY.

Logansport Reporter: A. S. Roberts, formerly editor of the Journal, now engaged in the insurance business as district representative of the Inter-State Assurance company, has been appointed district manager of the company with headquarters at Fort Wayne. He will have charge of the entire northern part of the state and will move to his new home during this month.

MARK UNFAIR MEN.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 7.—The throwing of stones at the troops was repeated early this morning. This time the attack was not made on the camp, but against the provost guards stationed at the Pennsylvania railroad station, near one of the foreign colonies in the southern part of the town. Brig. Gen. Gobin had been requested by the town authorities to send a company of men to that locality, because of the disorders that had been occurring there. Company A, of the Eighth regiment, under Captain Garver, was on duty there all night and early this morning the column of the regiment said the company was greeted by a shower of stones, which came from the top of the hill overlooking the railroad station. The captain immediately placed a detail of men in the vicinity of the houses from which the stones were thrown. No one was captured, as the offenders had escaped before the soldiers reached the top of the hill. Last night an intoxicated coal and iron policeman wandered into the camp and became disorderly. He was placed in the guard tent and this morning was released. A number of strikers heard of the incident and formed a picket line around the camp, waiting for the man to leave the place. They followed him down the Mahanoy City road, but as there were a number of soldiers in the vicinity, the strikers did not molest him, and they soon disappeared. The governor's troop of cavalry took a practice march about fifteen or twenty miles through the Mahanoy valley today.

Everything is quiet in the region today.

WILL CUT OFF EARS.

Rev. Charles Edwards, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, and formerly state president of the Young Men's Bible society, said today that the young men in his congregation, which is made up principally of mine workers, have informed him that foreigners have determined to cut off an ear of every man who returns to work so that they will forever be marked as "unfair workmen." Mr. Edwards says his young men are in a position to know and he believes the story. The foreigners think this is the easiest method for preventing attempts to break the strike.

STRIKERS ARE RIOTOUS.

Tamaqua, Pa., Aug. 7.—Today about 300 strikers, mostly foreigners, patrolled the streets of Summit Hill, and made an effort to force all workmen to return to their homes. For a time the town was in a riotous state. Non-union men were compelled to flee for safety, while those who were captured were roughly handled. Sheriff Gombert, of Carbon county, says he is unable to prevent these frequent outbreaks and General Gobin, the commander of the detachment of the National Guard, stationed at Shenandoah, has been advised of the situation. The Lehigh Coal and Navigation company is now running coal through breakers Nos. 4 and 12 and is shipping a train of coal a day to the market. On Monday, it is said, the company will commence cutting coal at the No. 12 mine.

WILL APPEAL TO PRESIDENT.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 7.—President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, in an interview with a representative of the Associated Press today said, with reference to the decision of Judge Goff in the habeas corpus proceedings against the miners in West Virginia: "The only thing to do now is to make an appeal to President Roosevelt for the pardon of the men in jail and this will probably be done at once."

THE KAISER AND THE CZAR.

Reval, Russia, Aug. 7.—It was nearly midnight when Emperor William returned to the Hohenzollern after having witnessed the night gun practice of the Russian fleet by flashlight. Earlier in the evening he entertained the czar at a state dinner on the Hohenzollern, and their majesties subsequently proceeded to the Standart, where they viewed the brilliant electric illuminations of both fleets. This morning the czar and Emperor William went on board the Russian flagship Minin and proceeded to sea, where they witnessed the fleet's evolutions. They returned to the Standart for luncheon.

WILL TAKE EXAMINATION.

William Nutting, who has been spending several weeks at Clear Lake, will return home tomorrow and on Monday will take the examination for entrance to Annapolis naval academy. Mr. Nutting was appointed several weeks ago by Senator Beveridge and is one of six who will take the examination. Mr. Nutting is a student at the high school and his many friends are confident that he will pass the examination.

CORPORAL O'BRIEN ARRESTED

PHILIPPINE SOLDIER MUST ANSWER FOR PERJURY.

Made Serious Charges Against Officers of Army in Testimony Before Committee.

North Adams, Mass., Aug. 7.—Following the arrest of Corporal O'Brien at his home here after midnight last night, on the charge of perjury in his testimony before the senate committee on the Philippines, it was decided by the United States authorities to take the soldier to Pittsfield for a hearing before United States Commissioner Wood. The start for Pittsfield was made during the forenoon. From the moment of the arrest O'Brien was kept continually under the eye of the Washington detective, who took the corporal in custody under authority of a bench warrant of the supreme court of the District of Columbia.

REMAINED TO JAIL.

Pittsfield, Mass., Aug. 7.—A brief hearing was given Corporal O'Brien before United States Commissioner Wood here this afternoon, the charge being perjury. After consultation of counsel, the case was postponed until tomorrow to await some definite settlement as to bail. O'Brien's father was the only one present at the hearing besides the officials and counsel. After the postponement the defendant was taken to the house of correction here, where he will remain until tomorrow's hearing.

WHAT O'BRIEN SWORE TO.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 7.—R. T. O'Brien, formerly corporal of company M, Twenty-sixth infantry, United States volunteers, was indicted by the grand jury here last Monday, but the proceedings were kept secret pending his arrest. The action is based on testimony given before the senate committee on the Philippines May 19, last, in which he severely arraigned the moral conduct of certain officers and enlisted men. Senator Lodge, chairman of the committee, shortly after this testimony, called the attention of the attorney general to O'Brien's statements and United States District Attorney Gould was directed to investigate. The case was then given to the grand jury. O'Brien probably will be tried in the criminal court here early in the autumn and District Attorney Gould will personally conduct the case for the government. The witnesses named in the indictment are Fred H. McDonald, captain company H, Twenty-sixth infantry; Frank A. Cook, major of the same regiment, and Charles S. Riley. The indictment sets out that O'Brien, in his testimony, "swore, declared and deposed falsely, corruptly, knowingly, maliciously and contrary to his oath," to tell the truth.

A GRATIFYING INTEREST.

There is a gratifying interest manifested by Fort Wayne merchants and manufacturers in the industrial parade on the opening day of the fall festival, Monday, August 25. A large number have already sent responses saying they will be represented in the parade, which promises to be the finest ever seen here. The parade will form at 10 o'clock that day. The children's parade on Tuesday will also be a splendid feature. The children will meet on Court street at 9 o'clock in the morning and before starting will receive free tickets entitling them to entrance to the festival grounds. There is a great demand for tickets in the automobile drawing and they have been placed on sale in all the stores of the city and in barber shops and similar places.

EXCITING SCENES

EXPULSION OF SISTERS FROM SCHOOL NEAR BREST.

CROWD MENACES SOLDIERY

SCHOOL ENTERED FORCIBLY BY TROOPS.

SISTERS ARE SENT FORTH

MAN WHO PICKED THE LOCK THREATENED BY CROWD.

Brest, France, Aug. 7.—Exciting scenes occurred today at the expulsion of a number of sisters from their school at Landerneau, near here. A special train conveyed detachments of soldiers to Landerneau, where a body of gendarmes had been mobilized already. A large crowd assembled at the school and surrounded the soldiers in front of the school. When the commissary of police arrived, accompanied by a locksmith, the people protested vigorously, shouting: "Long live the sisters and liberty," "Down with the ministry," "UNDER HORSES' HOOFES." Women threw themselves to the ground in front of the horses of the gendarmes. The commissary ordered the sisters to open the school door. They refused and the locksmith picked the lock and broke windows, amid denunciations of the crowd. The commissary ordered the sisters to leave the school, which they did, leaning on the arms of the towns-women, and accompanied by the priests and thousands of people, they marched to a church, where they sang a hymn. A large crowd followed the gendarmes to the railroad station, shouting "Death to the locksmith." The man was protected by the military.

Similar scenes are expected in other villages of Finisterre where the decree against unauthorized schools is to be put into execution. A priest at Folgoet urged women to kneel in front of the school in order to stop the gendarmes. EXCITEMENT REIGNED. The soldiers and gendarmes reached Landerneau at 4 o'clock in the morning, but watchers already had given the alarm. The whole population of the town was intensely excited and hurried to the school. At one time when the crowd broke the military cordon the commissary ordered the drums to be beaten twice as a preliminary to charging the crowd and bloodshed was feared. Emile Villiers, member of the chamber of deputies for Finisterre, who is a conservative, intervened and appealed to the people to be calm. Vidomte Lagatins, leader of the opposition, cried: "You can arrest me; my ancestors died on the scaffold and I deem it an honor to be arrested for this noble cause." After the expulsion of the sisters the crowd again became so threatening that the commissary ordered the troops to charge, but the intervention of M. Villiers induced the people to disperse. A few women were hurt in the disorder.

The commissary at Crozon tried to expel the sisters from a school, but the gendarmes were unable to force their way through the crowd and the attempt was abandoned. PAPAL DELEGATE NOT NAMED. Rome, Aug. 7.—The appointment of a papal delegate to the Philippines is still undecided. The only change in the situation is that there is now a greater prospect of Mgr. Guidi's selection. Mgr. Guidi himself informed the Associated Press correspondent today that his nomination had not been officially decided upon as yet.

A dispatch from Rome on Aug. 2 said that the delay in naming an apostolic delegate for the Philippines was caused by the desire of the papal authorities to appoint an American prelate. This dispatch said that should the American prelate decline the offer the most likely candidate was Mgr. Guidi. The Italia on Aug. 5 said that Mgr. Guidi had been appointed to the office.

SCRAMBLE FOR RELICS.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 7.—When the sheriff, with the body of Tracy, drove through Davenport, hundreds of people followed up the street and crowded about the wagon. By the time the wagon reached Stone's morgue the streets were crowded and from every corner could be heard "Three shouts for Lincoln county." The town was wild. The morgue doors had to be closed and the crowd was asked to stand back. Several persons were allowed to see the body, and then trouble began. Every one wanted a relic, and in a short time nothing was left but the body. Some one even picked up the bloodstained handkerchief which had been used by Tracy to keep from bleeding to death. Many locks of the desperado's hair were carried away and in some places his head had been made bald. His trousers were cut into strips and before they were divided they were cut into smaller pieces. Many of Tracy's cartridges were divided among the members of the posse and those that could get at the buckskin bag.

TWO CASES OF SMALLPOX.

City Sanitarian Macheth reports two new cases of smallpox, the patients being Sophia Zigel, aged fifty-two, and Harry Zigel, aged forty-seven, members of the family of the young man who has been very sick at 1145 Hanna street.

WILL FIGHT SOUTHWESTERN

WABASH WILL DO SOME RATE CUTTING.

Promises to Give the Interurban a Hot Fight for Patronage—Mr. Thompson Talks.

"The Wabash railroad will declare war to the knife on the Fort Wayne and Southwestern when the latter begins operations on the Wabash end of its line next Sunday," says the Wabash Plain Dealer.

"District Passenger Agent R. G. Thompson of the Wabash, who has advocated the most aggressive policy against the Southwestern, which has cut deep into the local revenues of the Wabash between Fort Wayne and Huntington, said today to a Plain Dealer representative that General Passenger Agent Crane had concluded to take vigorous action, and that henceforth no quarter would be given."

"I am now getting out the advertising for the first big cut," said Mr. Thompson to the Plain Dealer. "Our rate between Wabash and Fort Wayne on Sundays has always been seventy-five cents. Beginning next Sunday it will be sixty cents, the tickets good for one day, and on all our fast trains. We are running five trains each way daily, which is about as much as a traction line can give in the way of service, and we can handle passengers between Wabash and Fort Wayne in fifty-six minutes, as against two hours and fifty-six minutes on the interurban. If the sixty-cent rate is not considered low enough, we may in time make it forty cents, or, if necessary, twenty-five cents, for the round trip, a rate the traction people cannot meet, even if the crowd goes to it, for they have not the equipment. Last Sunday we had 141 passengers out of Fort Wayne for Southwestern Traction company stations, which proves we are getting our share of the travel. The Southwestern is now making a seventy-five-cent round trip rate from Huntington to Fort Wayne. From Wabash, on the same basis, it must make a round trip rate of $1, at which figure it won't get much patronage. We shall in time probably reduce our every-day round trip rate from Wabash to Fort Wayne to seventy-five cents, and if the interurban goes us better, we shall make further cuts. We propose to give the new line all the fight it wants and I predict it will be ready to cry quits before another summer is gone."

CONNELL TRIED FOR ASSAULT

ADMITTED THAT HE STRUCK HIRSCHFELDER.

Says He Acted in Self-Defense—The Court's Decision Reserved—

News of the Police.

The event at police court this morning was the trial of James Connell, charged with feloniously assaulting Henry Hirschfelder two weeks ago with murderous intent. The incident was exploited in the newspapers at the time and occurred on East Washington street, about 10:30 at night. After hearing all the evidence; occupying more than two hours in its delivery, Judge Dreihel-bias took the case under advisement until tomorrow morning.

The occurrence was one in which Henry Hirschfelder, a laborer, was struck by a man, part of a party of nocturnal celebrants, who were having a good time, mixed with beer and other concomitants, in the east end. At first it was thought that a murder had been committed, but later it appeared that the affair was nothing but a convivial scrap. Hirschfelder was picked up on East Washington street in an unconscious condition and was taken to Hope hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from a severe scalp wound and some concussion. Later he was taken to his home and the case was continued from time to time, pending his ability to appear in court. He appeared this morning and a lengthy introduction of evidence and more testimony ensued.

James Connell, the defendant on the stand, made no denial of having struck the plaintiff, and said that he struck him on the jaw and with his naked fist. The plaintiff endeavored to show that he had been struck by Connell with some instrument or weapon, a foot or more in length, which the defendant had drawn from his pocket, and that the blow was delivered on his head. Two or three lady witnesses who were entirely disinterested and who had been summoned by the state, testified that they had seen the occurrence and that they did not think that any weapon had been used, and that they were in a position to have seen if any weapon had been used; it was their opinion that the blow was by the hand or fist, and that it was planted on the lower part of the face or the upper part of the chest. They saw the plaintiff fall over and thought that he had struck his head on the street curbing; they were quite positive that no weapon had been used. They testified further that they had seen the party of which Connell was a member on their way home from a church social, and that, although they were afraid of them in a general way, that when they hurriedly passed them, before the fracas, they were not interrupted nor accosted, but that on the contrary the party seemed to quiet themselves until after they had passed. Hirschfelder gave an account of his whereabouts from early in the evening until the time of the scrap, and said that he had drunk a number of beers, but was not drunk. The defense attempted to show that Hirschfelder had been drinking all night, that he was naturally quarrelsome and that he had provoked the quarrel. Without going into the details of all the testimony, it appears that there was a scrap of some kind and that while Connell, who admits to having struck the man and who was one of the party of convivial spirits, says that he struck Hirschfelder in self-defense and only after he had tried to avoid a fracas. The question the court has under consideration is hinged upon a point in the statutes and a decision of the supreme court.

Samuel Byerly was arrested on a charge of trespassing on the Pennsylvania company's property after being warned to get off. He refused and was taken in. This morning he took a jail sentence of eleven days.

THE MAN WITH THE DOG.

There's the man with the hoe and also the man with the dog and the man with the dog has the worst of it at this writing. The man with the dog in this instance is Peter Young and the performances of Peter and the dog have been a matter of much comment among northsiders and, according to the statements of the aforementioned northsiders, also of much disaster in the poultry yard. Mr. Young is accused of owning a trained dog, the training being especially directed to seizing neighbors' chickens by the neck and quietly conducting them into Mr. Young's game bag. The police have been looking for Mr. Young for several weeks and finally cornered him last evening, dog and all. They could not make a criminal case against the dog and as Peter had done none of the thieving they could not well make a case against him. The tax duplicate came to the rescue in the emergency and showed that Mr. Young officially did not own a dog, although he claimed the dog as his property. Accordingly an affidavit was placed against him charging him with harboring a dog not listed for taxation. The evidence and admissions were conclusive and a fine of $5 and costs was assessed. This, with all the trimmings, resulted in a mittimus calling for an incarceration of sixteen days, dog and all.

POLICE NOTES.

A false alarm of a big fight on the corner of Lafayette and Lewis streets attracted the patrol wagon and several officers last night. There was nothing doing on the corner when the wagon arrived.

A vicious bulldog, supposed to be situated at 2811 Calhoun street, is reported to the police as being a dangerous character.

A lad of about 8 years, a son of Conductor George McCormick, of the Nickel Plate, living on Jackson street, either fell or was thrown from Main street car No. 116 last evening, at about 6:30, near the Jackson street intersection. Officer Thomma picked up the boy and had him sent to his home. The boy was hurt some, but not seriously and insists that the conductor, whose name is Rhinehart, threw him from the car. The father of the boy is in communication with the prosecutor today and is proposing criminal proceedings.

Miss Alma Kampe, of the Gas company offices, leaves today for a visit at Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Emma Converse, of Chicago, is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Faelber.

The Ladies of the Grace Reformed Church will give an Ice Cream Social at the Market Square tomorrow evening.

ing him with harboring a dog not listed for taxation. The evidence and admissions were conclusive and a fine of $5 and costs was assessed. This, with all the trimmings, resulted in a mittimus calling for an incarceration of sixteen days, dog and all.

Raymond Striker, arrested yesterday for breaking the glass in a fire alarm box, was fined $1 and costs and sentence was suspended during good behavior.

POLICE NOTES.

The police were called last night to investigate a fight at the Keever saloon on East Columbia street, at which a fusillade of beer glasses was reported to be one of the principal features. When the officers arrived there was no disturbance and no arrests were made.

A false alarm of a big fight on the corner of Lafayette and Lewis streets attracted the patrol wagon and several officers last night. There was nothing doing on the corner when the wagon arrived.

A vicious bulldog, supposed to be situated at 2811 Calhoun street, is reported to the police as being a dangerous character.

A lad of about 8 years, a son of Conductor George McCormick, of the Nickel Plate, living on Jackson street, either fell or was thrown from Main street car No. 116 last evening, at about 6:30, near the Jackson street intersection. Officer Thomma picked up the boy and had him sent to his home. The boy was hurt some, but not seriously and insists that the conductor, whose name is Rhinehart, threw him from the car. The father of the boy is in communication with the prosecutor today and is proposing criminal proceedings.

Miss Alma Kampe, of the Gas company offices, leaves today for a visit at Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Mrs. Emma Converse, of Chicago, is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Faelber.

The Ladies of the Grace Reformed Church will give an Ice Cream Social at the Market Square tomorrow evening.

FRANK C. WOOD PASSES AWAY.

DEATH CAME AT HOPE HOSPITAL LAST NIGHT.

Widely Known and Popular Citizen

Was Ill But a Few Days—Other Mortuary Matters.

Frank C. Wood, widely known from his long connection with the Coombs hardware house, and whose every acquaintance was a warm and steadfast friend, died at Hope hospital at 11:50 o'clock Monday night. Mr. Wood's illness was but a brief one, and his death will come as a profound shock to countless friends who have watched with genuine solicitude his brave battle with disease in a conflict that from the first offered but little hope.

While on a trip for his firm, Mr. Wood was taken ill at Delphos, O., on Wednesday, and returned to his home at 933 Grace avenue Thursday evening a very sick man. During the night marked symptoms of appendicitis, complicated with peritonitis, first became apparent, and the patient was removed to Hope hospital Friday morning where a surgical operation was performed. It revealed a condition even more serious than anticipated and the attending physicians were able to hold out but little hope for his recovery. The complications rendered a second operation imperative, and this was performed Monday morning as the last resort. Though his suffering the patient was brave, cheerful and hopeful, but exhausted nature could not withstand the encroachments of disease and death was victor in the struggle.

Mr. Wood was a native of Fair Chance, Pa., 45 years of age, and came to Fort Wayne in 1880. He entered the employ of the J. M. Coombs hardware house, remaining until the house went out of business in 1893. When E. H. Coombs organized the present house Mr. Wood accepted a position there and has remained continually with that firm. He occupied an important position with the house and was regarded as one of the most valuable men in this line of trade. He possessed rare executive ability and an attractive personality that won friends rapidly and retained them steadfastly. No man was held in higher regard by his acquaintances.

Two years previous to his coming to this city Mr. Wood was united in marriage in Pennsylvania to Miss Maggie E. Hertzog, who survives him, together with two sons, Brown F. and Edgar L., and a daughter, Mabel E., all of whom reside at home. Harry M. Wood, the Fort Wayne soldier, who was killed in the massacre at Balangiga, Island of Samar, in September last, was another son, and the death of the young man bore heavily upon the father during the closing months of his life. Mr. Wood's aged parents are yet living in Pennsylvania, and there are several brothers and sisters. Edward Wood, a traveling salesman, well known in Fort Wayne, is a brother of the deceased.

The funeral services will be held from the residence, 933 Grace avenue, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. N. Field will officiate and the interment will be at Lindenwood. The pall bearers selected are William Lawson, J. M. Henry, G. B. Saylor, W. E. Doud, H. L. Askew and H. W. Stirk.

Mr. Wood was a member of the National union and carried life insurance to the amount of $4,000 in that fraternity.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Lewis.—Funeral services or Mrs. Nancy Lewis will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 528 West Main street. Rev. Preston officiating.

Brake.—Funeral services of Ulrich Brake will be held Wednesday morning at 8:30 from the residence, 1820 Maumee avenue, and at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic church.

THE WALLACE CIRCUS BANDS.

For several seasons the Great Wallace Show has featured the musical portion of its entertainment. Mr. Wallace fortunately secured the celebrated "Bronson's Cornet Band" for a term of years. The director of this band is Prof. E. Z. Bronson, a prominent composer and an author of band music. Having been raised on music from his childhood and having had years' experience with the leading bands of the country, in serving in the capacity of First Assistant Director with Sousa, he is fully prepared to handle his fifty-four musicians with the Wallace Circus in a most satisfactory manner.

All who have seen the Wallace Shows know that the Bronson Cornet Band is one of the most prominent and attractive features any circus can have. For forty-five minutes preceding each performance, from the center of the stage, the band will render a program of the highest grade of classical and popular music. In Fort Wayne, Ind., on Monday, August 11th, the date of the exhibition of the Great Wallace shows in this city. d&w

Oregon Bandit, Brought to Bay in a Field, Cheats His Pursuers by Shooting Himself.

LEAVES LONG AND BLOODY RECORD

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 6.—Harry Tracy, the notorious outlaw who, with David Merrill, escaped from the Oregon penitentiary at Salem on June 9, after killing three prison guards, killed himself early this morning after being wounded by the rifle of one of a posse in pursuit. Tracy was surrounded in a wheat field near Fellows, a station on the Washington Central railroad about fifty miles west of Spokane, last night. Word was sent back toavenport, the county seat, and a large number of armed men hurried to the scene.

The posse, under Sheriff Gardner, opened fire on the outlaw, and one bullet pierced his right leg between the knee and thigh. About twenty minutes after being wounded he shot himself with one of his revolvers and his body was found this morning after daylight. The revolver with which he killed himself was grasped tightly in his right hand.

A RUNNING BATTLE.
Tracy was hunted down by a posse of Creston citizens. Surrounded, he engaged in a running battle with his pursuers. His leg was broken by a bullet and an artery bled profusely.

He crept into a wheat field and tried to tie up the artery. Becoming desperate he put his revolver to his head and fired a bullet into his brain. At daylight this morning his body was found, already cold.

After baffling the officers of two states, after a wonderful flight of nearly 400 miles across Oregon and Washington, Tracy was hunted down by four citizens about 2 o'clock. They were working on the information of the Gold Finch youth who had been forcibly made the companion of the Oregon convict for over twenty-four hours at the ranch of L. B. Eddy, on Lake creek, about three miles from Fellows, a station on the Washington Central railway. The party made all possible haste in getting to the ranch.

SAW THE FUGITIVE.

When within a few hundred yards of the farm they encountered Farmer Eddy mowing in one of his fields. While engaging him in conversation they saw a man issuing from the barn door.

"Is that Tracy?" asked one of the party.

"It surely is," replied Eddy.

The party separated, Lenter and Smith accompanying Eddy in the direction of the barn, while the other two men swung around to the other side. Two of the men-hunters stepped behind the barn on a slight eminence, from which they could watch everything that went on, and Eddy continued on, up to the door. Tracy came from the barn again and began helping his host unditch the horses. He carried no rifle, although he had his revolvers in place.

The fugitive finally saw the men carrying rifles and turned sharply to Eddy and said:

"Who are those men?"

"I don't see any men," said Eddy.

GOT INTO THE BARN.

Tracy pointed out the two men on the hill. Eddy informed his companion who the men were and the outlaw made a leap for the barn door. The pursuers stepping a bit closer, commanded "Hold up your hands." The outlaw jumped behind Eddy and first placed the farmer and then his horse between himself and the pursuers.

behind the barriers. He seemed to be in the greatest good humor and evidently was delighted to get back. Despite a few drops of rain which fell, he drove out with the top of the carriage down. His face was perpetually lighted up with a smile of satisfaction and he looked anything but an invader. The prince and princess of Wales and their children drove over to Buckingham palace from York house, and, just before their majesties arrived, they appeared on the palace balcony and were loudly cheered by the crowds outside. The demonstration increased as the king approached and after their majesties had entered the palace the crowd sang "God Save the King" several times.

COMMUTES LIFE SENTENCE.

Washington, Aug. 6.—Information has been received at the war department that Pedro Capua, a native Filipino, was convicted by a military commission at Tanauan, Batangas, P. I., of complicity in the murder of Second Lieut. Paul D. Stockley, Twenty-first infantry, in Batangas province in January, 1900, and was sentenced to be hanged. It was alleged that Capua was a member of a party which killed the American officer by stones and pistol shots. General Chaffee commuted the sentence of Capua to imprisonment at hard labor for thirty years.

OIL STEAMER ASHORE.

Philadelphia, Aug. 6.—The German tank steamship Burgermeister Peterson, bound from this city for Stockholm, went ashore on the Pennsylvania side of the Delaware river at the foot of Fulton street, Chester, today. The steamship is in command of Captain Thropprich and is loaded with about 1,275,000 gallons of oil.

The pilot of the big tanker mistook the furnace light of the tide water steel company for the range light and ran the Burgermeister Peterson on the flats. She is apparently not damaged.

WOMAN INJURED AT FUNERAL

RACKING HORSES CAUSE A CRASH AT CEMETERY.

Aged Mrs. Sorg Bruised, Glass in Funeral Car Broken and Several Hacks Damaged.

Just as the funeral procession of Mrs. Josephine Sorg reached the Catholic cemetery this morning there occurred an accident in which serious consequences were narrowly averted.

The team of horses drawing the wagon in which the pall bearers had ridden suddenly started to back. Immediately behind was the funeral car of Henry Schone & Co. and in order to avoid the carriage bearing backward upon them the horses team also moved backward.

The movement of the head team started the horses all along the line to stop backward. The vehicles were close together and the tongue of the first hack crashed through a glass panel at the rear of the funeral car, but did not reach the casket. Behind the car was the hack containing the bereaved husband, his children and his aged mother, and the pole of the next hack in line crashed through the rear of the Sorg hack, painfully bruising the aged lady.

By this time all the horses had been quieted and no further damage ensued. Mrs. Sorg was not seriously injured and remained until the close of the burial service.

CONFERENCE OF NEGROES.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 6.—The Negro Young People's Christian and Educational congress, said to be the largest gathering of negroes ever held in this country, opened this afternoon in the agricultural building at Piedmont park with an attendance estimated at 5,000 delegates. The opening session was largely devoted to addresses of greeting, welcoming speeches being made by Governor Allen D. Candler, of Georgia, and Mayor Livingston Mims, of Atlanta. Fraternal greetings were extended by other distinguished white men of the city and state, representing white societies friendly to the negro. Bishop Wesley J. Gains, of the A. M. E. church, spoke on the purposes of the congress.

CLARA BARTON RETURNS.

New York, Aug. 6.—Miss Clara Barton, president of the American Red Cross, who attended the International Red Cross at St. Petersburg last May, was a passenger on the steamship Pennsylvania, which arrived today from Hamburg.

ONE BANDIT SLAIN

ON THE BURLINGTON.

HOLD-UP NEAR SAVANNA, ILL.

TRAIN ONE OF THE FINEST IN THE WORLD.

EXPRESS MESSENGER GAME

CLAIMS TO HAVE FIRED SHOT

THAT KILLED ROBBER.

Mr. Carroll, Ill., Aug. 6.—A daring and successful train robbery occurred at Marcus, on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railway, five miles north of Savanna about mid-night.

The fine vestibuled passenger train of eleven coaches, Conductor Emerson in charge, was flagged at the little station and six masked men boarded the engine.

The engineer and fireman obeyed the imperative orders and the robbers at once uncoupled the engine and express car from the train and ran them a quarter of a mile up the track. They then blew up the express car with dynamite, ran the engine north a distance of a mile from Hanover and the locomotive becoming dead, the robbers abandoned it and escaped.

ONE BANDIT KILLED.

One of the highwaymen was killed, being shot above the eye and also in the leg. He met instant death while in the engine and his body was dumped to the ground by his companions as they sped away. The express messenger, Byll, claims to have done the shooting. The deed was done quickly, the trainmen and passengers making no defense. Six sacks of money were secured, but the amount is not known. The passengers were not molested.

There was no way of telegraphing news of the hold-up and a flagman walked back and gave the alarm. A special train of citizens and several policemen at once proceeded to the scene, but as the track runs along the Mississippi and the country is well adapted to a successful flight, the robbers easily escaped.

THE WORK OF EXPERTS.

The work was evidently that of experts as they went at it coolly and methodically.

The train attacked is one of the finest in the world and usually carries considerable money, which must have been known by the highwaymen. The dead robber was a stranger in this vicinity. He was a middle-aged man and well dressed.

In his pocket was found an Iowa Central mileage credential from Grinnell to Gilman, Iowa, issued in the name of A. L. Jacobs.

Four explosions were required to complete the destruction of the safe and the car was badly wrecked. The robbers were eight in number, all masked. They evidently were railroad men, one being a good engineer. Messenger William Byll fired five shots at the robbers, but without avail, and an attempt was made to blow him up in his car.

WOULD HAVE DITCHED TRAIN.

The bandits had arranged to ditch the entire train of nine heavily-laden coaches, had not the signal to stop been heeded. Several passengers in the buffet car, including the porter, were held prisoners during the struggle to crack the safe. It is thought the dead robber was killed by a comrade by mistake. The body was put on the tender and run by the others a short distance and then thrown into the weeds.

THE ENGINEER'S STORY.

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 6.—The Burlington train, No. 47, which was held up near Lucas, arrived here at 10 o'clock and during a twenty minutes stop for breakfast Engineer John E. Mooney, of Minneapolis, told a vivid description of the hold up. He said: "The robbers stopped the train by swinging a white light. As soon as it stopped two men jumped into the cab and covered us with revolvers. One of them told the fireman to cut off the engine. After this was done the man who was pointing a gun at my head, told me to pull the engine up ways, and I ran her up a half mile. Then they ordered me to jump off and we walked back towards the train, where we were joined by the express messenger and another robber. They took us to the rear of the buffet car and told us to sit there. One of the robbers left us. They worked for an hour blowing open the safe and finally brought the engine down again and all of them got aboard it. A few feet from the train they told me to jump off and run, which I most assuredly did. "They ran the engine up seven miles and left her dead."

Mr. Mooney believes that the robbers killed one of their own number, either purposely or accidentally. Several shots were fired, some by the robbers and the rest by the express messenger. The dead man was dumped off a short distance from where the affair occurred, the robbers having taken his body on the engine when the start away was made.

Mr. Mooney says that all of the men wore masks, but that while one was holding a gun in his face, the handkerchief which concealed his entire face, except the eyes, fell off, and that he managed to get a good look at him. He could identify him, he says, as the young man had a sandy complexion, was about five feet, eight inches in height and wore good clothes.

The express car had two holes blown into the bottom and was left at East Dubuque. It is believed that the five bags of money only contained $2,500.

THE OFFICIAL VERSION.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Following is the official account of the robbery, issued by the general manager of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railway:

"Train 47 was held up last night about 11:30 at South Switch, Marcus, about ten miles north of Savanna, Ill. The switch was turned for passing track and the train flagged. The two head cars, consisting of a mail and express car and a composite car, were cut off and taken to the north switch, where the safe in the express car was blown open with dynamite and contents taken, after which the engine was cut off by the robbers and started north. As the robbers left, the express messenger fired at them. One robber was found dead about one mile north of Marcus and his body was given over to the coroner. At least six men were concerned in the robbery. So far as is known only $2,000 in silver was secured. None of the crew was hurt and none of the passengers molested. The express end of the filled car was badly damaged."

WILL DENOUNCE MEAT TRUST

RETAIL BUTCHERS' ASSOCIATION IN SESSION.

Favor Resolutions Against the Trust, but Differ as to the Form It Should Have.

Washington, Aug. 6.—The National Retail Butchers and Meat Dealers' Protective association today adopted resolutions recommending that the eastern, middle and southern states offer inducements by bounty or any other means for the upbuilding of the industry in those sections. Resolutions also were adopted favoring the repeal of the present bankruptcy law as a hardship on small business men, and extending thanks to Attorney General Knox and to Attorney General Davies, of New York, for their injunction proceedings against the so-called beef trust.

A resolution denouncing the alleged trust was introduced, but action was deferred until tomorrow. There was a long discussion on the subject. All the speakers were in favor of the purpose of the resolution and the only point of difference was as to the form of expression. The delegates will spend the afternoon and evening at a barbecue. The election of officers will occur tomorrow.

PRESIDENT FORBES HERE.

Robert Forbes, of Duluth, Minn., is in the city in the interest of the Consolidated Copper company, more than two hundred stockholders of which reside in Fort Wayne. This is the company which owns about 1,250 acres of valuable copper lands in Canada, and but recently bonded a small portion of the property to a Chicago concern for about $1,000,000. Development is going along on other portions of the holding, and stockholders are confident their investment will prove unusually profitable.

Miss Jessie Herman, of 22 West Woodland avenue, charmingly entertained a company of young people at her home last evening in honor of Miss Flora Steelman, of Crestline, Ohio. A guessing contest contributed largely to the enjoyment of the evening, and in it Miss Ethel Wetzel won the prize. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

MINE WATCHMAN SLAIN

Daniel Sweeney Found Weltering in His Own Blood Near Nanticoke--Feared for His Life.

NO NEW DISORDER AT SHENANDOAH

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 6.—Daniel J. Sweeney, a watchman in the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company at their Bliss colliery in Hanover township, was found dead in a field in Hanover township this morning. He quit work at midnight and was followed by a score of men. The men were making threats and Sweeney was afraid of them. He took refuge in a saloon and waited there for some time. After he thought the crowd that followed him had disappeared he left for his home. This was the last seen of him alive. The supposition is that the men who followed him from the mine were lying in wait for him and when he approached the spot where they were hiding they assaulted him with pick handles and beat his brains out.

LAY IN A POOL OF BLOOD.

The body lay in a pool of blood. One of the arms was also broken, apparently by a blow from a club. The murderers were determined to make sure of their work. The nearest house is several hundred yards from the scene of the crime, but one of the inmates thought he heard the cry of murder about 2 o'clock this morning. The county detective is now at work on the case. It is said the coal company will offer a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderers.

The murdered man told the superintendent of the mine where he was employed that some of the strikers had spoken to him last week and advised him that it did not look right to see him going to work and that if he was wise he would quit at once. Sweeney said he needed employment as his family was in want. The next day another delegation of men met him on his way to work and told him if he did not quit work he would be sorry. Sweeney said these warnings worried him, but he resolved to continue at work. There is much indignation over the cold-blooded murder as the dead watchman was well liked.

NO CLUE TO ASSAILANTS.

At strike headquarters in this city a statement was given out to the effect that an investigation had been made of the killing of Watchman Sweeney at the Bliss mine, but there was no evidence to show that strikers had committed the crime. It is said the dead watchman, who was at one time foreman of a mine at Nanticoke, had discharged some employees who made threats at the time that they would get even with him. The strike leaders think revenge

GOFF DECIDES AGAINST STRIKERS

Clarksburg, W. Va., Aug. 6.—

Judge Goff this afternoon in a lengthy opinion decided the habeas corpus case against the miners and agitators and remanded them to the custody of the marshal and sheriff and they will be removed to Parkersburg to serve the balance of their sentences. The judge said the only question was as to the jurisdiction and that the guarantee trust company of New York was entitled to a standing in court and it was not absolutely necessary for the fuel company to be made a party to the suit. The decision is a great disappointment to the miners and their counsels say no other action can be taken at present, at least.

ASSAULTS WIFE THEN SUICIDES

Lyman Allen, Veteran of Civil War, Takes Carbolic Acid and Dies---Evidence That He Was Drinking.

After having brutally assaulted his wife, and while a physician was ministering to her sufferings, resulting from the husband's blows, Lyman Allen, 58 years of age and residing at 744 West Superior street, ended his existence shortly after 9 o'clock Tuesday evening by swallowing carbolic acid. Allen died in twenty minutes after drinking the poison. The wife is not seriously injured.

Allen was a veteran soldier and the family moved to Fort Wayne some years ago from Delphos, Ohio. It is said the wife did much toward supporting the family by her own hard work. The evidence in the distressing case as secured by the county coroner, Dr. W. W. Barnett, who was summoned immediately after Allen's death, is to the effect that the husband had been drinking quite heavily for several days and had been very quarrelsome. Last evening, the coroner discovered, Allen went to his home and demanded from his wife money with which to purchase additional liquor.

KNOCKED HER DOWN.

The woman stated that she had no money, and this angered the man who was already under the influence of liquor. The evidence secured by Dr. Barnett shows that he struck her viciously, knocking her to the floor. Then stepping to a cupboard Allen took a bottle which contained some face preparation, poured out the contents and, as he was leaving the house, the wife asked what he intended to do with it. Allen replied that he was going to get some medicine, and left without further words. A son summoned Dr. A. K. Hammond to attend his mother, and the physician, on his arrival, found the woman bleeding from the face and mouth as the result of injuries. While Dr. Hammond was at work with the patient Allen returned, glanced in at the rear door, saw the physician, and at once turned to walk toward the barn. Within a short time Allen, from his position in the yard, called for the physician to come to him. Dr. Hammond, incensed at the brutality of the man, replied: "If you want to talk to me, come into the house."

HEARD ALLEN CALL.

A few minutes later a noise was heard as of a body falling, and the son, Jacob Martin, who hurried in that direction, found his father lying prostrate upon the walk. Fumes of carbolic acid were plainly distinguishable, and beside him lay an empty bottle which had contained the drug. The son carried his father into the house and placed him upon a couch, where Dr. Hammond at once began the attempt to counteract the effects of the poison. Allen's mouth and throat were fearfully burned, and the antidotes administered by the physician were powerless to save him. Allen died in twenty minutes after having swallowed the dose.

Allen served with credit for four years in the civil war as a member of the Sixth Ohio battery. His surviving relatives include the widow, a daughter, Mrs. Maggie Rollins, and two sons, Jacob and William Allen. Last week the father went to Delphos and had the remains of his mother disinterred and transferred to another cemetery there. He returned to Fort Wayne Sunday evening.

The funeral services will be held from the residence Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The interment will be at Lindenwood.

KING EDWARD AGAIN IN LONDON

British Monarch Returns to His Capital and is Royally Welcomed by Great Crowds---is Looking Well.

London, Aug. 6.—The royal yacht Victoria and Albert, with King Edward on board, left Cowes at 1:30 this afternoon for Portsmouth. The harbor station at Portsmouth was reached shortly after 2 o'clock. A special train, to convey his majesty to London, awaited his arrival at Portsmouth.

The royal yacht bearing the king was moored alongside the dock yard jetty at Portsmouth. Two Japanese warships fired salutes and were followed by all the commissioned ships in the harbor. The king was officially received at the landing place by Admiral Sir Charles Frederick Hotham and General Sir Baker Crewd Russell. A guard of honor was mounted on the dock yard jetty.

The king entered the royal special after the exchange of a few words with the officials gathered on the platform. The departure from Portsmouth was made at 3:40 and it was expected that the run to London would be made in two hours, no reduction of the schedule time being contemplated, as was done when the king was taken to Portsmouth after the operation. The train which was preceded by a pilot engine, reached Victoria station at 5:30 p. m. The Victoria station was decorated in honor of his majesty's home coming. Free access was allowed the public except to the platform reserved for his majesty.

The king left the train without assistance and entered an open carriage, which started after a few minutes' delay for Buckingham palace.

He looked extremely well. Repeatedly he bowed his acknowledgment of the cheers by the crowd at the station, and he shook hands heartily with various friends who greeted him on the platform and to whom he waved adieu on entering his carriage. He appeared to be in excellent spirits. The decrease in his weight caused by the operation gave him an appearance of greater height. He stood up in his carriage and bowed repeatedly in response to the cheering throngs on the route to the palace. The queen and Princess Victoria rode in the carriage with the king and two nurses followed in the next carriage.

Although a rain, which had been falling, had scarcely stopped, his majesty insisted upon using an open carriage on the way to Buckingham palace, the entire route of which was well lined with enthusiastic cheering crowds.

FIT FOR THE ORDEAL.

Judging by appearance the king not only will be able to go through the coronation ceremonies, but will be perfectly capable of performing all functions of the service without discomfort. His return to London was accomplished without any ill effects and his first public appearance since his operation delighted even those who had the most serious apprehensions with regard to the king's condition. The group of railway officials and a few court functionaries who awaited the train exhibited many signs of uneasiness which were not lacking among the crowds which jammed the approaches to the Victoria station, in which a squad of lieutenants had been placed. A four-horse royal carriage, with red-coated outriders, was drawn up to await the arrival of the train. The king, accompanied by the queen and Princess Victoria, stepped out of the car and walked across a crimson cloth on the platform some twenty yards to his carriage. The queen and Princess Victoria entered the vehicle and the king followed, apparently without difficulty, and four royal servants placed rugs about his knees. The king stood up straight as if he had never had an illness in his life, took off his hat and bowed to friends on the platform and to the crowds

SUMMER COLDS

Produce Chronic Catarrh.

Mrs. Henriette C. Olberg, Albert Lea, Minn.

Mrs. Henriette C. Olberg, superintendent of the Olin and Hump Exhibition at the Omaha Exhibition, writes from Albert Lea, Minn., as follows:

"This spring I contracted an aggravating cold, having been exposed to the damp weather. Catarrh of my throat and head followed, which persisted in remaining, notwithstanding I applied the usual remedies.

"Reading of the merits of Peruna in the papers, I decided to try it and soon found that all that has been said of your medicine in such cases is true.

"I am very pleased with the satisfactory results obtained from using Peruna, am entirely well, and consider it a most valuable family medicine."

HENRIETTE C. OLBORG.

Summer colds require prompt treatment. They are always grave, and sometimes dangerous. The promptness and surety with which Peruna acts in these cases has saved many lives. A large dose of Peruna should be taken at the first appearance of a cold in summer, followed by small and repeated doses. There is no other remedy that medical science can furnish, so reliable and quick in its action as Peruna.

Address The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio, for a free book entitled "Summer Catarrh," which treats of the catarrhal diseases peculiar to summer.

sners. He commanded the farmer to lead his horse to the barn and remained under cover, moving toward shelter. When near the stable he broke and dashed inside. He quickly reappeared, rifle in hand, and started on a dead run.

Turning on the two men nearest him the desperado fired two shots, but without his usual luck, neither bullet taking effect. Without waiting for further fighting, Tracy made a dash down the valley leading south from the barn and headed for the brush.

THE PURSUIT BEGINS.

In an instant the man hunters were off in pursuit, firing as they ran. Coming to a rock, Tracy dodged behind it, and resting his gun on the rock began a fusillade. Eight shots in all were fired by the outlaw, not one hitting its mark. Seeing he was not succeeding, he bolted for a wheatfield close by. At the edge of the field he stumbled, falling on his face and crawled into the grain on his hands and knees.

It was growing dark and the pursuers, not daring to move in closer, decided to surround the place and wait for daylight. In the meantime Sheriff Gardner, with Policemen Stauffer and Gummel, of Spokane; Jack O'Farrell, of Davenport, and other reinforcements, had arrived on the scene, and they went into camp around the field during the night.

Shortly after Tracy disappeared a shot was heard from the direction of the wheat field. No investigation was made, however, until this morning. As soon as dawn came, an entrance was made into the wheat field.

FIND TRACY'S BODY.

Tracy's dead body was found lying amid the grain, with his face turned toward the sky. His left hand thrown over his head held a revolver, which had inflicted the death wound. The thumb of his hand was on the trigger of the pistol. His right hand, thrown across the lower part of his body, firmly grasped the barrel of the famous rifle. Death was inflicted by a revolver held close to the forehead. The top of his head was badly shattered.

Two bullet wounds in the left leg showed the cause of the man's despondency. One shot had broken the leg between the ankle and the knee. The other cut the tibial artery, which of itself was sufficient cause for death.

TRACY'S RECORD.

Harry Tracy escaped from the Oregon state penitentiary at Salem on June 9 in company with David Merrill, after killing four men, Frank W. Ferrell, R. T. Jones and B. F. Tiffany, guards, and Frank Ingraham, a convict, who tried to prevent his flight. On June 26 Tracy killed Merrill near Napavine, Wash., shooting him from behind, and leaving his body in the forest, where it was found on July 15. On July 3, near Seattle, in a fight with a posse, Tracy shot and killed Charles Raymond, a deputy sheriff; E. E. Breeze, a policeman, and mortally wounded Neil Rawley, who died on the following day, and wounded Carl Anderson and Lou Seafrite, newspaper reporters.

MANY FEATS OF DARING.

Tracy committed many feats of daring during his flight, in the course of which he eluded various posesses when apparently surrounded, and held up numerous farmers, whom he forced to furnish food and clothing, and by threats of murdering their families, compelled them to cover up his tracks. Perhaps his greatest show of daring was displayed on July 2, at South Bay, near Olympia, when he held up six men and forced four, including Captain Clark, of a large gasoline launch, to embark with him on Puget sound and pilot him up stream for ten hours.

In 1897 Tracy murdered Valentine Hoge, a Colorado cattle man, and William Strong, a boy, in the same state. A total reward of $5,600 was offered for his arrest, Governor McBride of Washington, offering $2,500 for his capture, dead or alive. The state of Oregon offered $3,000 and a brother of one of the guards killed at the penitentiary offered $100. The reward for Merrill's capture amounted to $1,500, which has been claimed by Mrs. Waggoner, the berry picker, and her son, who found the body near their home.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

DODGE.

Mrs. Ella Dodge died late Tuesday afternoon at her home, 511 West Berry street, after an extended illness. She was the wife of Dr. Arthur Dodge, the well known veterinary surgeon, and had been an invalid for the past three years. Since December she had been confined to her bed.

Mrs. Dodge was 51 years of age. She was born at Buffalo, N. Y., and at the age of eleven years came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, to Fort Wayne, and this city has been her home continuously since that time. Her marriage to Dr. Dodge occurred thirty years ago, and her life has been an exemplary one. Mrs. Dodge was a devoted member of Trinity Episcopal church, and previous to her illness was active in charitable and religious work. Possessed of a cheerful, helpful disposition, she made many friends and was held in the highest esteem by all her acquaintances. Surviving are the husband and an only brother, who resides at Lafayette.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

Wood.—Funeral services of Frank C. Wood will be held from the residence, 333 Grace avenue, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FOUND BRIDE AT THE ALTAR

ABOUT TO BE WEDDED TO ANOTHER MAN.

Harry Mossman Arrived in Time to Stop the Ceremony and Win Charming Widow.

The marriage some weeks ago of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mossman, now living at Hillsdale, Mich., had a stormy and romantic prologue in this city that has just been made public. His bride was Mrs. Grace Merriman, a young and handsome widow, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Geary, of Coesee.

It appears that the young lady's parents desired her to marry a Bluffton man, despite her fondness for Mossman, and she reluctantly consented. The marriage was to occur at a residence on Thompson avenue in this city. Rev. Mutschman was present to officiate, and the guests were assembled.

Just at this juncture Mr. Mossman appeared upon the scene, and this event quickly decided the bride-to-be. She simply announced that she would not wed the Bluffton man, and the ceremony for which guests were waiting did not occur. Mr. Mossman and Mrs. Merriman went to Michigan and were married, and it is said the bride's parents have duly forgiven her.

REHEARSE CORONATION.

London, Aug. 6.—The first complete dress rehearsal of the coronation ceremony was held in Westminster abbey today. The participants included all the chief actors in the ceremony save their majesties. The king's company of grenadier guards was posted at the abbey annex and the peers and peeresses and the royal pages all assumed their robes in the dressing room in the annex. The gorgeous coronation carpet and tapestries were uncovered and the procession and the entire ceremony except the anointing were gone through with. The proceedings lasted an hour and a half.

KAISER'S YACHT WINS.

Cowes, Aug. 6.—The weather was gloomy today for the royal yacht squadron's racing. Emperor William's Meteor III and Myles B. Kennedy's Sybarita started eastward over the Queen's course in a match race. Both yachts carried jackyarders and every stitch of canvas was spread. A rain squall almost entirely hid the contestants from view soon after start. The Sybarita led at first, but the Meteor won the race. The chief race of the day was for the emperor's cup, in which the Meteor was not entered.

WHITECAP OUTRAGES.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 6.—A special to the Times from Harrodsburg, Ky., says: Thirty masked men mounted on swift horses and heavily armed caused a reign of terror in the neighborhood of Perryville, ten miles from this city, last night, and severely flogged William Goodnight, George Russell and Wallace Bottom, residents of that section.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

The county commissioners today were engaged in auditing and allowing bills.

James M. Robinson et al. sue Amanda Ruhl et al. to recover $275 on a mechanic's lien.

Marion E. Griswold has commenced suit against William C. Heckman on a note for $150.

CHOLERA'S RAPID SPREAD.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 6.—Cholera is spreading in Manchuria with alarming rapidity. The deaths at Harbin on the eastern China railway numbered between 100 and 130 daily, chiefly Chinese. It is feared the epidemic may reach Irkutsk and Vladivostok. The Russian sanitary precautions are wholly inadequate.

The Y. P. C. U. of Calvary U. B. church will give an ice cream social Friday evening on the lawn in rear of the church.

NEW COMPANY BEING FORMED IN THIS CITY.

Messrs. Thomas Lau, Joe Heit and Joe Miller at Head of the New Concern.

Within a few months an independent candy manufactory will be in operation in this city and a company is now being formed by several gentlemen who have had considerable experience in the business. They are Messrs. Thomas Lau, Joseph Heit and Joseph Miller, of the Fox bakery, and they have tendered their resignations, to take effect in ten days.

A number of prominent business men will be stockholders in the new company and the financial backing will be ample. It is the intention to capitalize the concern at not less than $25,000 and probably considerably above that figure. The concern will manufacture candy exclusively, and will not enter the bakery business, as announced in the morning paper.

A number of very desirable locations are in view, but no definite action with regard to selecting a building will be taken until after an organization is effected. Nearly all the required stock has been subscribed and a meeting of stockholders will be held soon when a company will be formed. The factory will be equipped with the most up-to-date machinery and at the start will give employment to about twenty five people.

IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

Charles Salzbrener, who owns the property at 1227 Summit street, has filed an affidavit in Bullermann's court charging John McNamara with malicious trespass. Salzbrener is a young man, recently married, and McNamara was his tenant. After his marriage the owner notified his tenant that he wanted possession of the property for his own use, but McNamara refused to get out. Yesterday, however, he made preparations to move and in moving despoiled the property, according to the affidavit, to a considerable extent. He gathered up a lot of bricks and hurled them through the windows, smeared the sides of the house with mud and damaged the property in other ways. Salzbrener filed an affidavit and Constable Lindsey was entrusted with its service. He went to the premises and who told McNamara was in an adjacent saloon. He went there and found McNamara in a barber's chair, next door to the saloon, and according to the statement as made by the constable to Justice Bullermann, he was very drunk. When he attempted to serve the warrant, the constable says, two policemen interposed and said that he was already under arrest for the same offense and that the affidavit was in the municipal court. The constable thereupon desisted and did not take the man into custody. Subsequently investigation showed to the constable that there was no action filed elsewhere and The Sentinel's investigation shows that there is no affidavit against the man in the police court. Justice Bullermann this afternoon issued a warrant for McNamara's arrest and placed it in the hands of the sheriff.

WILL ABANDON MINES.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 6.—William Stein, the mining inspector for this district, announced today that four of the Reading collieries and the Lawrence colliery, belonging to the Shafter estate, of Pottsville, have been permanently abandoned, at a loss of $300,000 each, or a total loss of $1,500,000. Mr. Stein says there are thirty-five collieries in his district and he estimates that only fourteen of these are in condition to immediately start should the strike now be declared off. The others would take anywhere from one to four months to put in condition. He says the abandonment of these collieries will throw out of employment about 2,000 miners. The abandoned Reading collieries are the Kelmur, Proctor No. 3, Bear Run and East Bear Ridge. Failure to operate the pumps is the cause of the trouble.

IMMIGRANTS ARE DETAINED.

New York, Aug. 6.—About thirty of the passengers on the disabled schooner Notice from Cape Verde Islands for Providence, which was towed to this port yesterday, are not mentioned on the manifest and the immigrant authorities have detained them at Ellis Island during an investigation. Some months ago a warning was sent out that immigrants were being smuggled to this country in small vessels from the Cape Verde Islands.

COTTAGERS WILL MEET.

A meeting of cottagers and others interested in the Venetian Night celebration will be held at Spring

Beach hotel on Saturday evening at 7:30. The reports of the different committees will be presented and other business in connection with the celebration will be transacted. A full attendance is desired at this meeting.

JAPAN GETS MARCUS ISLAND.

New York, Aug. 6.—News has been received here, says a World dispatch from Yokohama, that Japan has won the race for possession of Marcus Island, supposed to contain valuable deposits of guano. The cruiser Kasagi has returned to Tokyo after landing a small detachment of marines on the island to hold the place until the question of ownership shall have been definitely settled by diplomatic correspondence between the United States and Japan. When the Kasagi started back, Captain Rosehill, the American who left Honolulu for Marcus Island, had not arrived.

NATAL NEEDS FARMERS.

Pietermaritzburg, Natal, Aug. 6.—An important report made by the surveyor-general and director of agriculture estimates that 10,000 white farmers are necessary in order to enable Natal to supply her own agricultural needs and declares that preference should be given to small farmers willing to work with their own hands. The report recommends the leasing of government lands at rentals equal to 3 per cent of their unimproved value and also advocates assisted immigration and grants of money to encourage agricultural development along various lines.

The young man caught the "grab-irons," but was thrown under the steps. By a heroic effort he succeeded in drawing himself up to the steps and out of danger. He was quite painfully bruised.

A test was made to find if just the leaving off of coffee alone would produce an equal condition of health as when coffee is left off and Postum Food Coffee used in its place.
 A man from Clinton, Wis., made the experiment. He says: "About a year ago I left off drinking coffee and tea and began to use Postum. For several years previous my system had been in wretched condition. I always had a thickly furrowed, bilious tongue and foul breath, often accompanied with severe headaches. I was troubled all the time with chronic constipation, so that I was morose in disposition and almost discouraged.
 At the end of the first week after making the change from coffee to Postum I witnessed a marvelous change in myself. My once coated tongue cleared off, my appetite increased, breath became sweet and the headaches ceased entirely. One thing I wish to state emphatically, you have in Postum a virgin remedy for constipation, for I certainly had about the worst case ever known among mortals and I am completely cured of it. I feel in every way like a new person.
 During the last summer I concluded that I would experiment to see if the Postum kept me in good shape or whether I had gotten well from just leaving off coffee. So I quit Postum for quite a time and drank cocoa and water. I found out before two weeks were past that something was wrong and I began to get coarser as of old. It was evident the liver was not working properly, so I became convinced it was not the avoidance of coffee alone that cured me, but the great value came from the regular use of Postum."

Eugene Field's

Views on Ambition and Dyspepsia.

"Dyspepsia," wrote Eugene Field, "often incapacitates a man for endeavor and sometimes extinguishes the fire of ambition." Though great despite his complaint Field suffered from indigestion all his life. A weak, flat stomach can't digest your food. It needs rest. You can only rest it by the use of a preparation like Kodol, which relieves it of work by digesting your food. Rest soon restores it to its normal tone.

IS A SHAM FIGHT

LIGHT ON THE REPUBLICAN ANTI-TRUST WAR.

NEW CAMPAIGN TEXT-BOOK

THE VOLUME PROVES A DIS- TINCT DISAPPOINTMENT.

BABCOCK DEFENDS COMBINES

ALLEGED TRUST-SMASHER IN STRANGE ROLE.

Washington, Aug. 6.—In view of President Roosevelt's aggressive opposition to trusts, the republican text book for the campaign of 1902 is a most disappointing publication. Copies of the text book have been received in Washington for review. There is nothing in it to indicate that the recent Iowa convention expressed any republican trust sentiments. As Mr. Babcock, who talked more about throttling the big trusts than any other republican, is chairman of the republican congressional committee, the campaign text book issued by the committee will be read with surprise. Much space is devoted to the remarkable prosperity of the country, all of which is attributed to the benign influence of the protective tariff. A general introduction tells what the republican party promised and what it has done. The announcement is made that nearly all of its presidents have come from the west, not excepting "the present chief executive, who, as the child of New York, was early adopted by the west as a cowboy and hunter to make him as typically western as any of his predecessors."

With this foundation laid, the republican hand book begins to talk about protection and what it has accomplished for the country. "Restoration of good times under republican policies and legislation" is the sub-head for the first chapter devoted to "Protection and Prosperity." In the order named these features are discussed: "Business activity under protection," "Value of products increased," "Advance in wages, due to the stimulation of production and manufacturing," "Increase in farm values," "Activity in manufacturing," "Foreign trade." All of this, according to Mr. Babcock's text book for republican spellbinders, is the direct result of a protective policy. Some ten pages are then devoted to "The American invasion of Europe," all of which protection is declared to be responsible for. Some classic writer contributes an article on "The Man With the Hoe."

"The man with the hoe is the man with the dough," says this facile writer, and staggering figures are presented to show that the hay crop and the potato crop and the wheat crop and all the other products of the farm have brought fabulous sums of money because of protection.

"A DEFENSE OF TRUSTS." Under the head, "Labor Conditions Under Republican and Democratic Rule," the first mention of trusts is made. "Trusts and Labor" is the theme discussed and in his presentation the report of Prof. Jenks, of Cornell university, the trust expert of the United States industrial commission, is submitted. This report is a wonderful defense of trusts from the labor standpoint. Here is a quotation from the text book which Mr. Babcock, the alleged trust-buster, has prepared for republican committees and orators: "The United States department of labor published in its bulletin for July, 1900, the results of a careful investigation of forty-one trusts and industrial combinations, the investigations covering among other subjects the dates of formation, capitalization, amount and character of stocks and bonds issued, profits, wages, number of employees, and prices before and after the combination, etc. As far as statistics are available the report shows in general a greater number of persons employed and higher wages paid in the same establishments after the combination than before. The report shows that in fourteen establishments giving returns, nine show an increase in the average wages of superintendents and foremen, four show a decrease and in one there was no change. In seven cases out of fourteen the wages of traveling salesmen increased, in two they decreased and in one they remained the same. In two cases no traveling salesman had been employed by the companies entering into the combination, whereas after the combination was made such men were put to work. In one case in which traveling salesmen had been employed by the separate companies their services were dispensed with after the combination. The average annual wages of skilled laborers have increased in ten cases and decreased in two. The average wages of unskilled labor have increased in ten cases, decreased in one and remained the same in one after the combination. Taking the employees as a whole, the results show that out of twelve cases reporting there had been an increase of wages in nine cases and a decrease in three."

To emphasize the blessings of the trusts this sentence is run in italics:

In all lines, taking together all the establishments which have reported, there has been a decided increase in the number of employees, and in all cases with the exception of travelling salesmen there has also been an increase in the amount of wages paid.

If trusts were working such a benefit to the laboring men of the country as indicated in this report, it would appear surprising that the republican party would interfere with them.

BOTH PARTIES ON TRUSTS.

Further over in the text book is found a chapter devoted to trusts and an explanation of the attitude of the two great parties. The attitude of the democratic party is declared to be that of constant agitation, with no restrictive legislation; that of the republican party to such restriction as will prevent arbitrary advance in prices or reduction in wages through exclusive control, but not the destruction by legislation or injury by fictitious agitation of legitimate enterprises through great manufacturing systems by which production is cheapened, prices of manufactures reduced and permanency of employment assured.

The text book points out that the democrats began their investigation of the trust question in the Fifty-fifth congress, when a committee examined 100 witnesses and took 1,000 pages of testimony, but made no recommendations because no agreements could be reached. It says the republican party has recognized the limitations of the federal legislature in dealing with institutions which are of exclusive state origin, and not due to any legislation by congress or executive act in the administration of federal laws. The only power the federal government has to reach these trusts or corporations is where they cross the state lines and touch inter-state or foreign commerce. The republican party has tried to enact laws that would prevent the trusts from interfering with inter-state commerce.

The laws enacted in republican states and by congress, together with the steps taken by President McKinley and President Roosevelt, to restrict unlawful combinations, are set forth. That part of President Roosevelt's message dealing with the subject of trusts is reproduced and a chapter is devoted to an effort to prove that "free trade England is the home of trusts." Statistics showing the prosperity of the country are presented in an effective way, and the remainder of the book is devoted to a discussion of the Philippine question and the war record. There is a forcible defense of the army and much of the important testimony before the Philippine committee is republished.

FOUR WIVES; ONE HUSBAND.

Madison, Ind., Aug. 6.—Four young women, residing variously in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, are named Mrs. John Brandon. One man, where whereabouts is unknown, is said to be the husband of the quartet. John Brandon formerly was a building contractor in Lima, Ohio, and later lived in this city. He is said to have married young women, abandoning each soon after the honeymoon. His first wife now resides at Lafayette, Ohio. His second wife was Miss Daisy Spangler, nineteen years old, and resides with her parents at 620 Harlan street, Indianapolis. Wife No. 3 was Miss Bertie Brasler, of this city, eighteen years old, and is now with her parents here. Wife No. 4 was Miss Myrtle Carpenter, of Springfield, Ill. The four marriages are said to have occurred within two years and the four deserted young women think that it is possible they are not the only victims, as Brandon has disappeared. The parents of the four girls have employed detectives to locate Brandon.

PASSING OF MR. ASPLIN.

Capt. Allen Douglass this morning received a letter from a brother of William Asplin, the Scotchman who was arrested here a few weeks ago for trying to get money under false pretenses and who was sent to jail for a short term. The letter corroborates everything that Asplin said about himself except his resources. He is of good stock and of most estimable connections and the family is wealthy, but the aforesaid William has got all there is coming to him, and in cold language, registered at about 20 below, he has been "run down" by the genealogical gardener. The advice delivered to Captain Douglass is that he be let severely alone. Asplin is now in South Chicago, working in a slaughter house or a brewery, or something of that kind.

SECURE NEW HALL.

The Fraternal Assurance Society of America has secured Flick hall in which to hold regular meetings and the new hall will be used by the society for the first time next Thursday evening. At that time there will be a social meeting and an attractive program will be carried out. The society, which is one of the largest in the city, will meet every Tuesday night.

HE USED A RAZOR

FORT WAYNE MAN TRIES SUICIDE AT COLUMBIA CITY.

WILLIAM MILES WILL LIVE

THOUGH HE CUT FOUR GASHES IN HIS THROAT.

HE WILL NOT DISCUSS IT

YOUNG MAN WAS EMPLOYED AS A STREET PAVER.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Columbia City, Aug. 6.—William Miles, about 25 years of age, who says his home is on Cass street in Fort Wayne, made a desperate attempt to end his life in this city last night. He slashed his throat four times with a razor, but will recover. Miles has been employed as a street paver and boarded at the Goss restaurant, occupying sleeping apartments above it. For several days he had been indulging heavily in liquor, but on Tuesday his appearance indicated that he was sobering off, though fearfully unstrung from the effects of his experience. At 10 o'clock Tuesday evening he entered the Goss restaurant, seated himself at a table and began muttering, "They're after me," "They'll get me," and similar phrases. Acquaintances thought a drink of liquor might assist in restoring his nervous equilibrium, and procured it for Miles, but he refused steadfastly to drink it. Finally at 11 o'clock the proprietor of the restaurant induced Miles to go to bed and escorted him to his room.

At 5 o'clock this morning the clerk at the restaurant found Miles seated upon a rear stairway of the building some distance from his room, pale and exhausted, his clothing literally soaked with blood, which streamed from several gashes upon his neck. In the bed in Miles' room was another pool of blood, while the carpet of the room indicated that after having slashed his throat with a razor in bed, Miles had crawled out and lain for a time upon the floor.

Dr. Linville was hurriedly summoned to attend the injured man. He found four gashes upon the throat, three directly across the larynx and another and deeper wound at the right side of the throat, but not sufficiently deep to reach the jugular vein. Eighteen stitches were necessary to close the gaping wound, none of which are regarded as serious, and the man will undoubtedly recover. Dr. Linville believes the cutting was done about 1 o'clock this morning. Miles is being cared for at his room, but he declines to discuss the affair in any of its phases. His friends in Fort Wayne were notified of the attempt at suicide.

David Miles, a sidewalk contractor, lives with his son Thomas in the rear of the little home at 1415 Cass street, but neither were at home when a reporter for The Sentinel called there today. From persons in the vicinity, however, it was learned that Mr. Miles has a son William, who has worked at street paving, though the young man has not lived at home for several months. It is believed he is the man who made the attempt upon his own life at Columbia City today.

DAMAGED BY CLOUDBURSTS

HUERFANO COUNTY, COL. IS HEAVILY DELUGED.

Four Cloudbursts in Succession and Railroad Bridge Have Been Washed Away.

Denver, Col., Aug. 6.—News reached this city today that an enormous amount of damage was caused in Huerfano county, Col., yesterday by storm. So far four cloudbursts have been reported. The first occurred five miles west of Walsenburg, on the Denver and Rio Grande, and swept away the 100-foot railroad bridge at that point. The second came down a short distance west of LaVeta and swept away the railroad bridge. The third occurred at Huerfano station, twenty-two miles north of Walsenburg. The big iron railroad bridge at that point was wrecked and carried down stream and a long stretch of track was washed out, allowing nine freight cars to go into the ditch. The fourth came down near Santa Clara, eighteen miles south of Walsenburg. Several houses were washed from their foundations and much other damage was done. The water from the Santa Clara cloudburst flowed into Deer creek and turned that stream into a raging torrent, carrying away all bridges across it. No trains are expected to reach Walsenburg until tomorrow. The Rio Grande company has already started repair work.

CONSIDER CHURCH MATTERS

CATHOLIC FEDERATION HAS EXECUTIVE SESSION.

Resolutions of Public Moment Will Be Introduced—Bishop McFaul on Friar Question.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Routine business occupied the time of the morning session of the convention of the American Federation of Catholic societies here today. The convention went into executive session, heard reports of committees on credentials and appointed other committees. Delegates are largely taken up with questions of grave church and civic relations and say they will introduce a number of resolutions of public moment. The question of alleged discrimination against the Catholics in Indian missions is to be discussed, probably at the same time that the convention gives consideration to the question of the Spanish friars in the Philippines. Delegates also have been instructed to seek to formulate a policy for Catholic education. Some of the members of the convention favor working for a pro rata sharing of public school funds to be used for the parochial school.

BISHOP McFAUL'S ADDRESS.

At the evening meeting Bishop McFaul was the principal speaker and directed his attention to the treatment of the friars and the school question in the Philippines. The bishop said in part: "The calm, intelligent observer must admit that some of the statements made in the public press regarding the situation in the Philippines are either incorrect or exaggerated. There was, nevertheless, a very substantial foundation of truth in most of the reports, which amply justified the strictures made upon those accountable for the abuse of power. No one is foolish enough to admit that in affairs of so important a nature mere denials are conclusive, particularly when made by interested parties. We had already been warned to be on our guard by previous contradictions of reports which were afterwards proved true and found worse than at first suspected. When the news arrived that the Catholic churches in the Philippines were 'desecrated and looted, officers of high rank in the army attempted to refute the charges, yet the destruction and looting of those sacred edifices are now so certain that claims for damages to ecclesiastical property will be accepted by the government."

"Reports, too, of the frightful spread of drunkenness and immorality after the occupation of Manila by the American army were vigorously assailed. Is there now any one who has the audacity to question their truth? Since then we have all heard of the 'water cure,' and the murderous orders issued by an American general. The perpetration of these outrages were not known for a time; they were, however, so flagrant that it was impossible to keep them from the knowledge of the public. The introduction alone of the public school system was just cause for alarm."

The speaker then declared that the federation is deeply interested in obtaining just treatment for the friars in the Philippines, who had suffered, he declared, under so many cruel calumnies. Bishop McFaul charged that in selecting school teachers for the Philippines discrimination had been practiced against the Catholics. Of a total of 907 teachers who, he said, had been sent to the islands, but eighteen or nineteen were Catholics. "The impression has gone abroad," the bishop said, "that America is furnishing educational facilities to the Philippines for the first time, and that the people were in a state of dense ignorance. This is another calumny. During centuries the friars dwelt with the tribes of the Philippines, and it is to them that they are indebted for whatever they possess of education and religion. They are a chaste and a pure people, unaware of many of the vices of civilization until American soldiers occupied their soil."

FRIARS SOLD THEIR LANDS.

Rome, Aug. 6.—According to information received by the Vatican, almost all the real estate belonging to Spanish friars in the Philippines, was sold before American occupation to syndicates and corporations duly registered and legally recognized, headed by Americans living in New York. It is alleged by the same authority that although the friars held some shares in these corporations, they do not own controlling interests. The Vatican is surprised at this information, in view of Governor Taft's proposition to buy the friars' lands, which apparently are no longer in their control. It is considered remarkable that Governor Taft, fresh from the Philippines, was not aware of the situation.

Resolutions of Public Moment Will Be Introduced—Bishop McFaul on Friar Question.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Routine business occupied the time of the morning session of the convention of the American Federation of Catholic societies here today. The convention went into executive session, heard reports of committees on credentials and appointed other committees. Delegates are largely taken up with questions of grave church and civic relations and say they will introduce a number of resolutions of public moment. The question of alleged discrimination against the Catholics in Indian missions is to be discussed, probably at the same time that the convention gives consideration to the question of the Spanish friars in the Philippines. Delegates also have been instructed to seek to formulate a policy for Catholic education. Some of the members of the convention favor working for a pro rata sharing of public school funds to be used for the parochial school.

BISHOP McFAUL'S ADDRESS.

At the evening meeting Bishop McFaul was the principal speaker and directed his attention to the treatment of the friars and the school question in the Philippines. The bishop said in part: "The calm, intelligent observer must admit that some of the statements made in the public press regarding the situation in the Philippines are either incorrect or exaggerated. There was, nevertheless, a very substantial foundation of truth in most of the reports, which amply justified the strictures made upon those accountable for the abuse of power. No one is foolish enough to admit that in affairs of so important a nature mere denials are conclusive, particularly when made by interested parties. We had already been warned to be on our guard by previous contradictions of reports which were afterwards proved true and found worse than at first suspected. When the news arrived that the Catholic churches in the Philippines were 'desecrated and looted, officers of high rank in the army attempted to refute the charges, yet the destruction and looting of those sacred edifices are now so certain that claims for damages to ecclesiastical property will be accepted by the government."

"Reports, too, of the frightful spread of drunkenness and immorality after the occupation of Manila by the American army were vigorously assailed. Is there now any one who has the audacity to question their truth? Since then we have all heard of the 'water cure,' and the murderous orders issued by an American general. The perpetration of these outrages were not known for a time; they were, however, so flagrant that it was impossible to keep them from the knowledge of the public. The introduction alone of the public school system was just cause for alarm."

The speaker then declared that the federation is deeply interested in obtaining just treatment for the friars in the Philippines, who had suffered, he declared, under so many cruel calumnies. Bishop McFaul charged that in selecting school teachers for the Philippines discrimination had been practiced against the Catholics. Of a total of 907 teachers who, he said, had been sent to the islands, but eighteen or nineteen were Catholics. "The impression has gone abroad,"

the bishop said, "that America is furnishing educational facilities to the Philippines for the first time, and that the people were in a state of dense ignorance. This is another calumny. During centuries the friars dwelt with the tribes of the Philippines, and it is to them that they are indebted for whatever they possess of education and religion. They are a chaste and a pure people, unaware of many of the vices of civilization until American soldiers occupied their soil."

FRIARS SOLD THEIR LANDS.

Rome, Aug. 6.—According to information received by the Vatican, almost all the real estate belonging to Spanish friars in the Philippines, was sold before American occupation to syndicates and corporations duly registered and legally recognized, headed by Americans living in New York. It is alleged by the same authority that although the friars held some shares in these corporations, they do not own controlling interests. The Vatican is surprised at this information, in view of Governor Taft's proposition to buy the friars' lands, which apparently are no longer in their control. It is considered remarkable that Governor Taft, fresh from the Philippines, was not aware of the situation.

BASE BALL

In contra-distinction to the games of the previous day, those of yesterday were marked by indifferent hitting, loose fielding and ragged scores. The great Mathewson was groomed for a big fight and what he was expected to do to Pittsburgh yesterday had kept the papers busy for a week. Pittsburgh got on its mettle and played without an error, touching Mathewson for 7 hits and shutting Mr. Freedman's gang of mufteers off from the home plate for nine consecutive innings. New York made only two hits off Tannishille, who made Mathewson look like a plugged nickel. In the American league there was absolutely nothing doing. Four games were played, to be sure, but neither one of them was interesting enough to be featured in anything. In the American association there were some great doings yesterday—doing which knocked several pairs and kinds of socks off the championship aspirants from Indianapolis. Yesterday morning Indianapolis and Louisville were tie for first honors and this morning Indianapolis is away back sitting down. Louisville won handsily from Milwaukee, and Kansas City, right across the creek from bleeding Kansas, mopped up the greensward with Indianapolis in both games of a double-header. Other games were of the ordinary kind. The aggregate attendance was: National league, four cities, 8,769; American league, four cities, 7,890; American association, not including St. Paul, 3,800. The results are appended:

BREAKS AUTOMOBILE RECORD.

New York, Aug. 6.—W. K. Vanderbilt has broken the automobile records for a mile and almost for a kilometre, according to a Paris dispatch to the New York American. He drove the car used in the Ardennes circuit races. The course was along the road between Ables and St. Arnaud, flying along the mile in 49.2-5 seconds and the kilometre in 29.2-5 seconds. The kilometre time has been beaten only by two-fifths of a second. The previous world's record for one mile by an automobile was held by Henri Fournier. It was made in a record competition held under the auspices of the Long Island Automobile club over the Coney Island boulevard between Prospect Park and Coney Island, Brooklyn, on Nov. 16 last. The course was straight away and practically a dead level. The mile was electrically timed in 51.4-5 seconds, a rate of 69½ miles an hour. Other records for a mile are: Train, 32 seconds; horse, 1 minute, 35½ seconds; bicycle, 57.4-5 seconds (Murphy) behind locomotive, and running record 4 minutes, 12¾ seconds.

IN NORTHERN INDIANA.

South Whitley is to have a free library.
Nathaniel Moorehouse, 74 years of age and a pioneer resident at Goshen, died on Tuesday.
Majenica, a little town near Huntington, is negotiating for a home telephone system.
William Henry Gregg, of Bluffton, a veteran of the civil war, is dead at the age of 60 years.
Eighty Hartford City young men are waiting to be mustered into the Indiana national guard as a military company.

Arthur Griffith, the Milford mathematical prodigy, is in jail at Reed City, Mich., accused of failing to pay a board bill.

Mrs. George Teller, 60 years of age, residing in Clearcreek township, Huntington county, took her first ride upon a railroad train Tuesday when she accompanied the Sunday school excursion to Winona.

An Alton man named McDonald, riding his wheel in the country east of that town Monday morning, was sandbagged by three thugs, relieved of $10 in cash, a note for $80 and a bank book. It was some time before the victim recovered from the blows administered by the thugs.

Perceval C. Turner, a Goshen insurance agent, won $2,000 offered by a Boston book concern for the nearest guess to the actual number of immigrants to arrive in the United States during the year ending June 30. Turner's guess was 316,872, while the actual number was three less.

Huntington township, in which the city of Huntington is located, has voted a subsidy of $75,500 to the proposed Dayton, Union and Huntington railroad, projected to run from Union City through Portland, Montpelier and Van Buren, to Huntington, and probably to Benton Harbor, Mich. The majority for the subsidy was 907 votes.

William McNabb, a farmer in Wilmington township, DeKalb county, has a drove well that is a reliable barometer for that neighborhood. Twenty-four hours previous to a rain the water in the well turns to a milky color and during settled weather the water is clear and of a good quality. Mr. McNabb says that whenever the water turns milky it never fails to rain within twenty-four hours.

BIG THEATRICAL COMBINE.

New York, Aug. 6.—It is reported that a combination has been formed by managers and owners of burlesque theaters and road companies controlling thirty-six houses in the United States and a like number of traveling organizations. The Empire, Northwestern and Eastern circuits are said to have joined the merger. President Curtin, of the Amalgamated Burlesque Managers' association, is quoted as having said: "Five million dollars will represent the amount of capital involved. Clean, funny shows will be the attractions at the theaters of our class this season." A list of the cities in which houses are controlled follows: New York, five; Chicago, three; Boston, Philadelphia and Brooklyn, two each, and one in Baltimore, Washington, Jersey City, Paterson, Newark, Providence, Springfield, Mass.; Albany, Troy, Rochester, Toronto, Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Louisville, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—After an easy opening all grains took on a steady tone. September wheat started ¼¢ to ½¢ down at 68½¢ to 68¾¢ on favorable harvesting weather and liberal receipts. Cables were comparatively firm and a moderate demand from commission houses and a landing elevator put prices up to 69¼¢@69½¢, where they hung steady early. December was a trifle stronger than September. Harvesting was reported under way in the spring country as far north as middle Minnesota and southern North Dakota. Local receipts were 367 cars, 7 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 82 cars, making a total for the three points of 449 cars against 357 last week and 353 a year ago.

Very fine crop prospects with estimates for 64,000,000 bushels of wheat from Missouri against only 31,000,000 bushels last year, depressed September wheat to 68¼¢@68½¢. Covering and good export sales at low prices brought a reaction and September closed steady, a shade lower, at 68¢.

September corn started ½¢ to ¾¢ down at 55½¢ to 55¾¢ on lower cables and favorable crop reports. December was offered freely at the opening, but the very light receipts—21 cars—and the steadiness in wheat brought a rally to 56½¢.

Marked weakness developed in corn. The Missouri crop report indicated a total yield of nearly 300,000,000 bushels against last year's shrunken yield of 64,000,000 bushels. September broke excitedly to 54½¢, but covering, especially by St. Louis, brought a partial rally. September closed weak, 1½¢ down, at 54¾¢.

Cash oats were weak here today on underselling east by Indiana and Ohio. This with the fair weather worked small receipts and kept prices steady. September opened a shade lower to a shade higher at 31½¢ to 32¢, sold at 32¼¢ and steadied near 32¢. Receipts were 89 cars.

Provisions had good support from packers. The hog market was steady and aided in an upturn. September pork started 2½¢ up at $16.07½ and sold to $16.95; September lard 2½¢ up at $10.87½ and September ribs 7½¢ up at $10.55, sold at $10.50 and touched $10.57½.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows: Wheat—Aug., 69¼¢; Sept., 69¢; Dec., 68¢; May, 70½¢@70¾¢. Corn—Aug., 58¢; Sept., 54¾¢; Dec., 52¼¢@52½¢; May, 40½¢. Oats—Aug., 28¢; now, 33½¢; Sept., 28¢; new, 31½¢@32¢; Dec., 27½¢; new, 30¼¢@30½¢; May, 31¢. Pork—Aug., $10.67½; Sept., $16.07½; Oct., $17.02½; Jan., $15.77½@15.80; May, $15.00. Lard—Aug., $10.75; Sept., $10.85; Oct., $10.30; Nov., $9.70; Dec., $9.35; Jan., $9.85; May, $8.62½. Ribs—Aug., $10.45; Sept., $10.50; Oct., $10.22½; Jan., $8.20.

Eggs—Market weak, 16¢.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 6.—Opening changes were narrow and without significance in representative stocks. After the execution of a sprinkling of opening orders the ticker practically came to a standstill. Sloss-Sheffield advanced 1½ and Hocking Coal 1¼.

Several stocks developed strength and caused some hardening of prices in sympathy. Sugar was in large demand at an advance of 2 points. Texas and Pacific rose aggressively and caused some hardening of prices in sympathy. Sugar was in large demand at an advance of 2 points.

The market turned heavy and dull when signs of depression showed in the local fractions. Brooklyn Trans-sit lost a point. St. Louis and San Francisco ¼¢. Anaconda 2½¢ and American Express reacted 2. Consolidated Gas advanced 1½ and People's Gas and Chicago and Alton a large fraction.

Bonds were quiet and firm.

HIS AUTHORITY IS SMALL.

"The statement in the Star the other day that the president meant to further discipline Lieutenant General Miles by reducing his power," remarked an old war veteran to a Star reporter last night, "would be amusing if it were not actually pathetic. Nominally and ostensibly in command of the army of the United States, General Miles has no voice whatever in the control or conduct of military affairs.

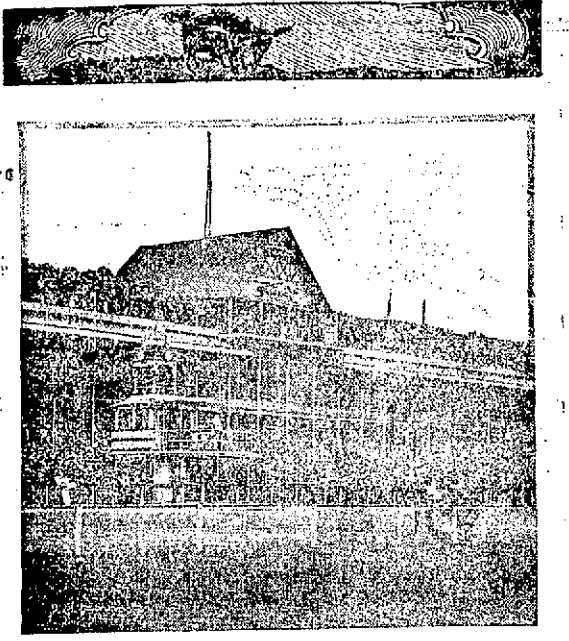

"Although it is true that all general orders to troops and all special orders to officers and men are issued in conformity with the army regulations and entirely without regard to his wishes in the matter. His power in military matters is practically confined to the direction of the routine work performed by the members of his staff and the few clerks and messengers attached to 'headquarters of the army.' He has independent control of their movements and duties to a certain extent, but over no one else in the military establishment and is powerless to order a single soldier from one station to another without the approval of the war department as represented by the secretary of war or the assistant secretary.

"Probably his most important function at this time is in connection with the board of ordnance and fortifications, of which he is president ex officio. The independent powers of that board are exceedingly limited. All its actions involving changes of policy or large expenditures of money are subject to the approval of the war department.

"Looking at the case from a purely military standpoint, the powers of General Miles can hardly be reduced without eliminating the few inconsequential powers he now possesses. All the same, I think most of the older officers of the service are gratified that the president has concluded to allow him to round out his service on the active list."—Washington Star.

DIDN'T KNOW EVARTS.

How William M. Evarts was once shut out of his own room is related in one of the Philadelphia Times' "Tales Worth Telling." Here is the yarn: "Evarts, even when he lived in Washington as President Hayes' secretary of state, was notoriously unkind with regard to his clothes, and looked like anything else than the nation's brilliant attorney. His hair, in particular, was a woeful bit of attire, and made him look like an actor 'made up' for Marks in 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.' Evarts on one occasion registered in a Philadelphia hotel of the first class about 8 o'clock in the evening and immediately went out. Returning a few hours later, he stopped at the desk for his key and found the night clerk had come on duty.

AN EXCITING FINISH AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

The second meeting of the Coney Island Jockey club for 1902 will be held at Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., in August, immediately after the close of the Saratoga season, and the last great races of the year will then be run. The meeting will open with the Futurity handicap, which always attracts thousands of spectators. The grand stand at the famous old "course by the sea" is the finest building of its kind in America. It accommodates 11,000 persons. On its roof are seats and boxes from which a magnificent view may be had of the steeplechase, turf and dirt courses. The first meeting at Sheepshead Bay this season attracted the largest crowds known in the history of American racing.

"Oh! Charlie, is it not beautiful to wander through these green fields together and realize that we are?"

"Absolutely alone?"—P2 !!!

"Evarts—Mr. Evarts," said the secretary of state briskly to the clerk. "Why, sir," responded the clerk. "I didn't like the looks of the man who called to see him, and didn't think a man of Mr. Evarts' importance would care to be bothered by a shabby old purveyor like that." The explanation that soothed the secretary of state was ingenious rather than truthful.

MRS. HULDA JAKEMAN

Wife of President Jakeman of Elders of the Mormon Church, Salt Lake City, Utah, recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for Women's Periodic Pains.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Before I knew of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I dreaded the approach of the time for my menstrual period, as it would mean a couple of days in bed with intense pain and suffering. I was under the physicians' care for over a year without any relief, when my attention was called to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by several of our Mormon women who had been cured through its use. I began its systematic use and improved gradually in health, and after the use of six bottles my health was completely restored, and for over two years I have had no more ache or pain. You have a truly wonderful remedy for women. Very sincerely yours, Mrs. HULDA JAKEMAN, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Just as surely as Mrs. Jakeman was cured just so surely will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills.

Mrs. Pinkham advises sick women free. Address, Lynn, Mass.

BASS COMPANY BOOKS SOME GOOD ORDERS.

FOR WABASH SCREEN DOOR WORKS AT MINNEAPOLIS.

A. P. WOOD HAS RESIGNED

QUITS FACTORY TO TAKE UP COLLEGIATE COURSE.

The Bass works, which are always busy, promise to be even more busy in the near future if orders are filled within the time limit. Some of the departments, particularly the machine shop and blacksmith shop, are in operation day and night and still they are unable to keep abreast of the orders that are daily coming in. Yesterday J. E. Noble, one of the salesmen for this department, secured a nice contract from the Wabash Screen Door company, the machinery to be delivered at Minneapolis, Minn., when completed. It calls for a complete steam plant, consisting of a 22x48 Corliss engine of 370 horse power, three 70x18 horizontal boilers of 150 horse power each, stacks, fronts, etc. Mr. Noble also secured a contract from Ray, Fisher & Ochsinger yesterday, which calls for a 100 horse power boiler for heating purposes in the new St. Mary's Catholic school building. A twenty-four foot rope wheel left the works today for Bessemer, Cal., consigned to the Colorado Fuel and Iron company.

GROCCERS AND BUTCHERS.

If the plans of the Grocers and Butchers' association, of Grand Rapids, do not miscarry, the Grand Rapids and Indiana road will be called upon tomorrow to handle a crowd from Grand Rapids to Kalamazoo that will number about 2,500. The occasion is the annual excursion of the grocers and butchers of Grand Rapids and they propose to make it the greatest of all similar events given by the association. So far arrangements have been made for three trains.

WILL LOAD ENGINES HEAVY.

Instructions have been given Yardmaster Oliphant, in this city, and Yardmaster Watterston, in Stony Island, to endeavor to load each outgoing big engine with 1,200 tons of live or 1,500 tons of dead freight. These engines can move that amount of tonnage with ease and it costs no more to work them to their capacity than to run them over the road with a light train. There are ten of these big engines on the western division of the Nickel Plate, running between this city and Stony Island, and they are doing good work.

SEVERAL UNFORTUNATES.

John Edelman, of the Pittsburg car machine shop, had the misfortune to get some emery in his eyes yesterday and is off duty in consequence. No serious results are apprehended. W. M. Repine, Thomas Williams, Samuel Dunbar, Philip Leuder and J. E. Spalding are sick. They are Pittsburg employees also.

ROME CITY EXCURSIONS.

There were two excursion trains to Rome City this morning, one coming from the Lake Erie and Western and consisting of five coaches and one baggage car and carrying about 200 people, and the other from Kalamazoo with seven coaches and a baggage car and carrying 300 people. The train from the south was in charge of Conductor Riley B. Evans and Engineer John Abercrombie and the train from Kalamazoo was in charge of Conductor Murphy and Engineer Blake.

A. P. WOOD RESIGNS.

A. P. Wood, one of the most promising young electricians of this city, will sever his connection with the Fort Wayne Electric works this evening. He will take a trip east, visiting Buffalo, Niagara Falls and New York, returning here about September 1. On the 15th Mr. Wood will enter Purdue college to complete his studies. He has had complete charge of the large arc lighting system at the electric works for several weeks and his management of that work demonstrated an ability and knowledge of electricity rarely possessed by persons much older. Mr. Wood leaves tonight for Niagara on the Wabash excursion train, and will be accompanied on the journey by Ed Fisher, Joseph Gaux and Joseph Schwartzkopf, also employees of the electric works.

HEAVY TRAVEL WESTWARD.

Travel westward yesterday was even more heavy than that to the north, which is something out of the ordinary at this season of the year. All of the Fort Wayne roads report big ticket sales to points west and the Pennsylvania yesterday sold twenty-one tickets reading to Minot, N. D. This was the largest party to any one point, but there were several others bound for other points that numbered ten and upwards.

CROWDS GATHER AT SCENE.

All of today an ever changing crowd witnessed the work of moving the Pennsylvania office building, which commenced at 1 o'clock yesterday and is rapidly progressing. This is a new feature in Fort Wayne and it excites wonder and interest. At the rate the building is moving, it will reach its destination some time tomorrow. No cracks have appeared in the walls or interior partitions and none are expected by the contractor who has charge of the work.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Blacksmith John Rupp has recovered from his recent illness.

Nickel Plate Engineer Frank Telly has taken a week's lay off and will go to the lakes.

Freight handlers in Buffalo have received an increase of three cents per hour in their wages.

J. C. Winans, passenger agent of the C. H. & D., is at Troy, Ohio, in the interest of the company.

Engineer L. M. Pfeiffer and his daughter are preparing for a visit with relatives in Kalamazoo, Mich.

The new station of the Erie, the Big Four and the Hocking Valley at Marion, Ohio, was opened yesterday.

Three cars loaded with raw silk from the Pacific coast were a part of Pennsylvania train No. 6 this morning.

A large picture of the Twentieth Century limited has been taken when the train was moving ninety miles an hour.

Julius H. Kamin, a tinner at the Pittsburg shops, went to Chicago this morning to stay two or three days.

Machinist Adam Collis, who was sick three or four days, reported for work at the Pittsburg shops this morning.

Engineer John Gray, of the Cincinnati Northern road, is visiting his father, John W. Gray, of St. Joe boulevard.

Fireman J. Williams, of the Nickel Plate, has gone to his father's farm, near Kendallville, to remain until September 1.

Caller William Smart and Switchman Frank Grimmer, of the Nickel Plate, are fishing in the vicinity of Claypool today.

Helen is to have a new union station to cost $100,000, and soon as completed the Great Northern trains will run into it.

J. J. Wall, private secretary of President Canfield, of the Nickel Plate, accompanied by his wife, is on an extended eastern trip.

Two forty-five-horse power motors left the electric works this morning for Elmira, N. Y. T. Briggs & Co. were the purchasers.

Fireman Bloom and John Hollenkamp, who were laying off several weeks, reported for work on the Nickel Plate yesterday.

The Santa Fe management, after a thorough trial, has given instructions to equip all its passenger engines with electric headlights.

Conductors Ogden Pierce and Harry Overholser, of the Nickel Plate, have returned from St. Louis, where they went Saturday to visit a friend.

Passenger Engineer Tony Kelker is at the throttle of a Pennsylvania engine again, having recovered from the injuries received last week.

Frank Howard, general foreman of the car department of the Wabash, is in the city yesterday looking after affairs in that department.

Charles Brehm, employed in the car wheel department of the Bass foundry, had a leg injured yesterday by a wheel falling upon him. The accident was caused by a fellow laborer, who lost control of the wheel he was handling. Brehm was taken to his home, 1524 Winter street.

J. W. Hilgeman, a construction man, has returned from Dundee, Wis., where he installed some electric machinery for the electric company.

Bluffton contributed 108 persons to the throngs that made up the excursion party into this city, over the Lake Erie and Western road, last Sunday.

Miss Margaret Higgins, daughter of Engineer Higgins, of the Pittsburg, will leave in a day or two for Warsaw, where she will visit friends a week.

Mr. Gollert, tinner at the Pittsburg shops, and his family went to Lima, Ohio, this morning to attend the funeral of a relative who died in that city last night.

On the Pennsylvania lines mileage books to the amount of 12,500,000 miles are used monthly. It is claimed that no other road can make as good a showing in this way.

Mrs. Crawford Griswold, who came from Winona to attend her husband during the term of disability caused by an accident, has returned to the family cottage at the resort.

P. M. Young and Frank O'Brien, machinists, resigned their positions at the Wabash shops last night. It is understood that they have secured employment at the Western Gas works.

Thomas J. Gibson, a colored dining car porter on the Wabash, is in jail in Lafayette, charged with assault and battery on Conductor Joseph Wolf. The assault was made last Saturday.

The United Brethren church at Grover Hill had an excursion to the Dayton Soldiers' home yesterday. About 200 people were in the party and the trip was made over the C. H. & D. road.

G. W. Mills, of the Packard Organ company, was one of the twenty-five or thirty passengers out of this city last night for the west. He was bound for Salt Lake City and went via Chicago.

Daniel Petgen, foreman of the tin and copper shops of the Pittsburg, is in Chicago today on business for the company. During Mr. Petgen's absence Gus Gruber has charge of the department.

Councilman William Hecsey appeared at the Pittsburg machine shops for duty this morning. He was injured Monday, but aside from a temporary disfigurement is little worse for the accident today.

A. C. Hachins, of the auditing department of the Fort Wayne Electric works, has gone east on a vacation. He will visit in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, the Thousand Islands and the Adirondacks before he returns home.

Captain H. Stoll has received notice of the appointment of G. C. Baker as inspector of police on the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg. Baker was captain of police on the Cleveland and Pittsburg road.

Harry E. Baum, notice of whose acceptance of a position at the Electric works was made several days ago, has concluded to quit railway work permanently. He resigned his position at the Nickel Plate yesterday.

The St. Louis Railway club has established a fund to be known as the Purdue University scholarship fund, the purpose of which is to maintain a student at Purdue University, the amount to be paid being $250 per annum.

The target at the railway crossing on Hanna street failed to lock yesterday afternoon when it was hoisted to allow Wabash train No. 6 to pass. It dropped down as the train was passing the point and was torn from its fastenings.

The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton company brought in 295 people from Findlay and points this side of that city. The excursionists went directly to Robison park, where they are having a good time. The train consisted of five cars.

Engineer J. Q. McCallan, who was taken sick in Chicago last Sunday, is recovering and took Pennsylvania train No. 37 out this morning. Tomorrow he will go to Rome City to remain three or four days, hoping to regain complete health by the outing.

An official of the Pullman company states that it required thirty-five Pullman cars to carry the people who went from Indiana to California on the Knights of Pythias excursion. This is an unprecedented movement and regular business is also very heavy.

The Pullman company has adopted a rule which makes the porter on its cars a sort of a "spotter" on the conductor. The porter is now required to take up a certain kind of ticket from each passenger and these must correspond with the tickets taken up by the conductor.

Tony Hoffman and George Zeigler, employees of Rhinestmith & Simonson, are sick.

Hon. J. H. Bass went to St. Louis last night on business connected with his foundry.

The Bass boiler shop resumed work this morning, after a shut down for repairs.

The Knights of Pythias, of Bellevue, Ohio, had an excursion into Cleveland, over the Nickel Plate yesterday.

A dispatch from Peru says that the general shops of the Cincinnati, Richmond and Muskego road will be established at that place.

Electrical Engineer A. C. Davis has returned from Altoona, where he spent several days in the interest of the Pennsylvania company.

The Wabash has issued a time card in convenient shape for hanging on a wall, which is one of the most explicit, comprehensible time cards ever gotten out. A single glance at it will give the contemplating traveler the desired information, without putting him to the trouble of hunting up some wiser one to explain the card, as is the case with some time cards.

The Lake Erie and Western road, which brought into this city over 1,000 excursionists last Sunday, had the biggest business of the season in that way on that date. The Indianapolis Journal says: "The company had two special trains to Sandusky and the same number to Michigan City, and to other points the usual number of excursions. With the company's large passenger equipment and what it could borrow, fully 500 people could not be accommodated."

THE MAYOR TALKS OF TRAC-

TION EXTENSIONS.

Met's With Board for Discussion of the Franchise—Opposed to a North Side Belt Line.

The board of works and the mayor held an informal conference last night and discussed street car matters as they are now presented.

There was nothing done in the way of making a formal presentation to the joint committee to meet on Friday night, but many points in connection with the general situation were discussed. Mayor Berghoff said to the Sentinel that he adhered to his original views, but that he thought material changes would be presented to the Friday night's committee and conference for consideration. He believes that a route embracing the line suggested, such as South Wayne avenue, the crossing as far south as Organ avenue, and from there east to Highland avenue and then south again to John avenuce and then east to Calhoun street, would be recommended and limited upon. This line, he says, will give to the people south of Leith street a service that they will not get under the plan proposed to extend the Calhoun street line south only as far as Leith street and from there east. On either proposition the mayor is less decided. He says that he thinks that a southeastern opening should be left for interurbans coming from that direction, but frankly admits that the lines contemplated under the constructed plan will practically "box up" the town. "I don't want to box up the town," said the mayor, "but I do want to see these extensions built, and I believe in the parallel system. I know it will cut off entrances in the southwestern part of the city, but I think that Lafayette street can be saved for a southeastern entrance. Lafayette street, of course, parallels Hanna, but I think that when we all get together, we can let a loophole cut in that corner. We have nothing to say about the northeast corner of the city. That matter will be taken up and an extension out on Huffman street to the city limits will give the people up there all they are asking for. This city has no right to encourage or anticipate any extensions beyond the limits. No, sir, I do not think that a belt line extending from Huffman street over Ranion avenue or any other street, to connect with the West

Main street line near the cemetery, is feasible. The traction company is through with belt lines and I don't approve of them."

CANCEROUS ULCERS

Are in many respects like other ulcers or sores, and this resemblance often proves fatal. Valuable time is lost in fruitless efforts to heal the sore with washes and salves, because the germs of Cancer that are multiplying in the blood and the new Cancer cells which are constantly developing keep up the irritation and discharge, and at last sharp shooting pains announce the approach of the eating and sloughing stage, and a hideous, sickening cancerous sore begins its destructive work.

No ulcer or sore can exist without some predisposing internal cause that has poisoned the blood, and the open discharging ulcer, or the festering sore on the lip, cheek or other part of the body will continue to spread and eat deeper into the flesh unless the blood is purified and the Cancer germs or morbid matter eliminated from the circulation.

S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all decaying effete matter. It

DIED IN THE PHILIPPINES.

B. F. Stansetter today received a cablegram from the Philippine islands announcing the death of his sister, Mrs. Ida DeMarr, wife of Lieutenant Robert DeMarr.

The death occurred August 1. Mrs. DeMarr had many friends in Fort Wayne, who will be deeply grieved to learn of her death. Lieut. and Mrs. DeMarr had resided in Colorado for about ten years, until the officer was sent with the Fort Logan troops to Manila over a year ago. Mrs. DeMarr joined her husband in May.

THE MAN WITH THE DOG.

There's the man with the hoe and also the man with the dog and the man with the dog has the worst of it at this writing. The man with the dog in this instance is Peter Young and the performances of Peter and the dog have been a matter of much comment among north-siders and, according to the statements of the aforementioned north-siders, also of much disaster in the poultry yard. Mr. Young is accused of owning a trained dog, the training being especially directed to seizing neighbors' chickens by the neck and quietly conducting them into Mr. Young's game bag.

The police have been looking for Mr. Young for several weeks and finally cornered him last evening, dog and all. They could not make a criminal case against the dog and as Peter had done none of the thieving they could not well make a case against him. The tax duplicate came to the rescue in the emergency and showed that Mr. Young officially did not own a dog, although he claimed the dog as his property. Accordingly an affidavit was placed against him charging him with harboring a dog not listed for taxation. The evidence and admissions were conclusive and a fine of $5 and costs was assessed. This, with all the trainings, resulted in a mittimus calling for an incarceration of sixteen days, dog and all.

POLICE NOTES.

The police were called last night to investigate a fight at the Keever saloon on East Columbia street, at which a fusillade of beer glasses was reported to be one of the principal features. When the officers arrived there was no disturbance and no arrests were made.

A false alarm of a big fight on the corner of Lafayette and Lewis streets attracted the patrol wagon and several officers last night. There was nothing doing on the corner when the wagon arrived.

A vicious bulldog, supposed to be situated at 2611 Calhoun street, is reported to the police as being a dangerous character.

A lad of about 8 years, a son of Conductor George McCormick, of the Nickel Plate, living on Jackson street, either fell or was thrown from Main street car No. 116 last evening, at about 6:30, near the Jackson street intersection. Officer Thomas picked up the boy and had him sent to his home. The boy was hurt some, but not seriously and insists that the conductor, whose name is Rühnert, threw him from the car. The father of the boy is in communication with the prosecutor today and is proposing criminal proceedings.

Miss Alma Kampe, of the Gas company offices, leaves today for a visit at Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Emma Converse, of Chicago, is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Fuelber.

The Ladies of the Grace Reformed Church will give an Ice Cream Social at the Market Square tomorrow evening.

CONNELL TRIED FOR ASSAULT

ADMITTED THAT HE STRUCK HIRSCHFELDER.

Says He Acted in Self-Defense—The Court's Decision Reserved—

News of the Police.

The event at police court this morning was the trial of James Connell, charged with feloniously assaulting Henry Hirschfelder two weeks ago with murderous intent. The incident was exploited in the newspapers at the time and occurred on East Washington street, about 10:30 at night. After hearing all the evidence, occupying more than two hours in its delivery, Judge Drab-biss took the case under advisement until tomorrow morning.

The occurrence was one in which Henry Hirschfelder, a laborer, was struck by a man, part of a party of nocturnal celebrants, who were having a good time, mixed with beer and other concomitants, in the east end. At first it was thought that a murder had been committed, but later it appeared that the affair was nothing but a convivial scrap. Hirschfelder was picked up on East Washington street in an unconscious condition and was taken to Hope hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from a severe scalp wound and some concussion. Later he was taken to his home and the case was continued from time to time, pending his ability to appear in court. He appeared this morning and a lengthy introduction of evidence and more testimony ensued.

James Connell, the defendant on the stand, made no denial of having struck the plaintiff, and said that he struck him on the jaw and with his naked fist. The plaintiff endeavored to show that he had been struck by Connell with some instrument or weapon, a foot or more in length, which the defendant had drawn from his pocket, and that the blow was delivered on his head. Two or three lady witnesses who were entirely disinterested and who had been summoned by the state, testified that they had seen the occurrence and that they did not think that any weapon had been used, and that they were in a position to have seen if any weapon had been used; it was their opinion that the blow was by the hand or fist, and that it was planted on the lower part of the face or the upper part of the chest. They saw the plaintiff fall over and thought that he had struck his head on the street curbing; they were quite positive that no weapon had been used. They testified further that they had seen the party of which Connell was a member on their way home from a church social, and that, although they were afraid of them in a general way, that when they hurriedly passed them, before the fracas, they were not interrupted nor accosted, but that on the contrary the party seemed to quiet themselves until after they had passed. Hirschfelder gave an account of his whereabouts from early in the evening until the time of the scrap, and said that he had drunk a number of beers, but was not drunk. The defense attempted to show that Hirschfelder had been drinking all night, that he was naturally quarrelsome and that he had provoked the quarrel. Without going into the details of all the testimony, it appears that there was a scrap of some kind and that while Connell, who admits to having struck the man and who was one of the party of convivial spirits, says that he struck Hirschfelder in self-defense and only after he had tried to avoid a fracas. The question the court has under consideration is hinged upon a point in the statutes and a decision of the supreme court.

Samuel Byerly was arrested on a charge of trespassing on the Pennsylvania company's property after being warned to get off. He refused and was taken in. This morning he took a jail sentence of eleven days.

THE MAN WITH THE DOG.

There's the man with the hoe and also the man with the dog and the man with the dog has the worst of it at this writing. The man with the dog in this instance is Peter Young and the performances of Peter and the dog have been a matter of much comment among north-siders and, according to the statements of the aforementioned north-siders, also of much disaster in the poultry yard. Mr. Young is accused of owning a trained dog, the training being especially directed to seizing neighbors' chickens by the neck and quietly conducting them into Mr. Young's game bag.

The police have been looking for Mr. Young for several weeks and finally cornered him last evening, dog and all. They could not make a criminal case against the dog and as Peter had done none of the thieving they could not well make a case against him. The tax duplicate came to the rescue in the emergency and showed that Mr. Young officially did not own a dog, although he claimed the dog as his property. Accordingly an affidavit was placed against him charging him with harboring a dog not listed for taxation. The evidence and admissions were conclusive and a fine of $5 and costs was assessed. This, with all the trainings, resulted in a mittimus calling for an incarceration of sixteen days, dog and all.

POLICE NOTES.

The police were called last night to investigate a fight at the Keever saloon on East Columbia street, at which a fusillade of beer glasses was reported to be one of the principal features. When the officers arrived there was no disturbance and no arrests were made.

A false alarm of a big fight on the corner of Lafayette and Lewis streets attracted the patrol wagon and several officers last night. There was nothing doing on the corner when the wagon arrived.

A vicious bulldog, supposed to be situated at 2611 Calhoun street, is reported to the police as being a dangerous character.

A lad of about 8 years, a son of Conductor George McCormick, of the Nickel Plate, living on Jackson street, either fell or was thrown from Main street car No. 116 last evening, at about 6:30, near the Jackson street intersection. Officer Thomas picked up the boy and had him sent to his home. The boy was hurt some, but not seriously and insists that the conductor, whose name is Rühnert, threw him from the car. The father of the boy is in communication with the prosecutor today and is proposing criminal proceedings.

Miss Alma Kampe, of the Gas company offices, leaves today for a visit at Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Emma Converse, of Chicago, is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Fuelber.

The Ladies of the Grace Reformed Church will give an Ice Cream Social at the Market Square tomorrow evening.

HAYTI NOW QUIET

REVOLUTIONARY OUTBREAK IS PRACTICALLY OVER.

REBELS HAVE LOST THE GAME

NO FURTHER DANGER OF SERIOUS DISTURBANCE.

WILL STOP CONTENTIONS

VENEZUELA AND COLOMBIA

WILL END QUARRELING.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Captain McCrea, of the gunboat Machias, today cabled the navy department that the outbreak in Hayti is practically over. The cablegram, which is dated Cape Haytian, Aug. 4, is as follows:

"After interviewing authorities aspect of affairs appears more satisfactory. Nationals are well armed. Rebels have been driven from critical positions. Little enthusiasm. No further danger of serious disturbances."

Captain McCrea requested permission to go to San Juan, Porto Rico, for coal. This was granted him and the Machias probably will come north unless there is another outbreak in Hayti.

PROMOTING GOOD WILL.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Negotiations have been opened in Washington for the establishment of an entente cordiale between the governments of Colombia and Nicaragua. Ministers Concha, of Colombia, and Corea, of Nicaragua, are carrying on the negotiations. The move grows out of the suspicion with which these two countries have viewed each other of late. Colombia has asserted that Nicaragua is responsible for much of the trouble on the Isthmus of Panama, that expeditions have formed on Nicaraguan soil and that the Nicaraguan court of Corinto is a base of revolutionary operation against Colombia. There have been strong intimations that Colombia would adopt counter steps by an invasion of Nicaraguan soil. Now, however, there are good prospects that the negotiations opened in Washington will lead to mutual explanations and apologies and an agreement by which each will rigidly respect the laws of neutrality and the rights of the other.

THE REIDS AT SAGAMORE HILL.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 4.—White-law Reid and Mrs. Reid were guests today of the president and Mrs. Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill. The arrived in the bay on the yacht Electric, owned by Elbridge T. Gerry, whose guests they were. The party landed about noon at the J. West Roosevelt pier and were driven to the president's country home. Later the three guests were joined by Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, who made the fourth guest at luncheon. Mr. Reid, who arrived from England on Saturday last, came to Oyster Bay to report personally to the president upon his trip to England. President Roosevelt is being overwhelmed with endorsements of candidates for the vacancy on the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia. Thus far he has intimated to no one whom he may appoint. He is going over all the papers in the case, his desire being to select a man whose appointment will command the general approval of the residents of Washington. The appointment probably will be made within the next ten days.

MAYOR JOHNSON WINS SUIT.

Cleveland, Aug. 4.—The circuit court today dissolved the injunction recently issued by Judge Caldwell restraining the city council from granting public service franchises, and especially those giving the low fare street railway company the right to use the streets. Mayor Johnson sought the injunction suit and as a result of his victory today the low fare lines will probably be constructed as soon as possible.

BUYS BRINSLEY BARN.

James Barrett, a farmer who has been residing near Leo, has just purchased the well known Brinsley feed barn, on Pearl street, taking possession Saturday evening. The transaction was negotiated through the agency of Ben R. Barva and the price paid for the property was $14,000.

HE NEARLY CAPTURED GRANT.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—Commodore Jos. E. Montgomery, the aged confederate naval officer, who nearly captured General Grant during the civil war, died here today at the home of his son, Dr. James Montgomery. Commodore Montgomery was born in Carrollton, Ky., in 1817, and from his youth until the war broke out was engaged in river traffic. At the battle of Mobile bay he played a conspicuous part. He also was in the engagements at Fort Pillow and New Orleans and at Memphis he lost his fleet. He was an intimate friend of Jefferson Davis. He lost his eyesight twelve years ago and since that time had lived in this city.

H. W. TEN BROEK VERY ILL.

H. W. Ten Brook, who has been spending several days at Macatawa park, Mich., is critically ill from an attack of gall stones and will be brought home some time during the week and taken to Hope hospital. It is very probable that an operation will be necessary. Mr. Ten Brook is superintendent of the local business of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company.

BULLET GRAZED HIS FACE

BARBER SHONDELL HAS VERY NARROW ESCAPE.

Revolver in Hands of Walter Dickens Discharged Accidentally, Ball Making a Blister.

A barber named Shondell, running a shop on the west side of Calhoun street, between Lewis and Douglas avenue, narrowly escaped being shot accidentally on Monday by a man named Dickens.

Dickens is an Englishman only a few weeks in this country and is employed as a waiter in Patterson's restaurant, near the south depot. He is the proprietor of a 38-calibre revolver, which he loaned to an employee of Shondell a day or two ago—for what purpose is not known—and he went to the barber shop this morning to get his weapon back. The borrower was not in, but the proprietor turned over the gun. Dickens wanted to see whether it was loaded. It was. While "monkeying" with it the weapon went off and the bullet from the exploded cartridge passed so close to Shondell's head that he can hear it singing yet. It passed through a partition of lath and plaster and was found in an adjoining room, and while it did not strike Shondell with sufficient force to break the skin, it raised a welt alongside his face, and had his head been just about two inches out of line the record would be more likely to read a fatal accident than a narrow escape.

ROOMMATE GOT HIS BRIDE.

Marion, Ind., Aug. 4.—The elopement of Miss Cora Minnick, of this city, and her marriage to Walter Thompson at Indianapolis Saturday was the climax of an odd romance. It was a case of love at first sight. Grant Mann, a local merchant, was engaged to Miss Minnick, and their wedding was to have been celebrated the coming week. Three months ago he introduced his fiancée to Thompson, who then resided here and was his roommate. Thompson became infatuated with her, and when he moved from this city to Waterloo, Iowa, he commenced a correspondence with her. He won her heart and hand, and her engagement to Mann was broken. After their marriage Thompson and his bride left for Iowa, where they will reside. Mann is broken-hearted and has gone to California, where he will endeavor to forget his lost love.

Grant Mann, formerly manager of the Manufacturers' shoe store on Calhoun street, this city, has lately been in business in Marion. He was married in this city a few years ago to the widow of a former well-known citizen deceased a number of years, but no one here has heard that they were divorced. It may be that Grant Mann mentioned in the dispatch is not the same, though many acquaintances here believe it is.

BACK IN THE HARNESS.

Thomas F. Bresnahan, who left the ranks of the newspaper workers some months ago to embark in the real estate and insurance business, has returned to the fold and has resumed his old position on the Journal-Gazette. The firm of Leedy & Bresnahan will be dissolved, and the senior partner, W. M. Leedy, will continue the business along the lines already established. The firm has been doing an excellent business, but Mr. Bresnahan prefers newspaper work, to which his tastes incline and for which he is admirably equipped both by education and training. His return to the ranks of the newspaper workers in Fort Wayne will be gaily welcomed.

VOTE CUBAN LOAN

HOUSE AT HAVANA PASSES A $35,000,000 BILL.

UNDER PLATT AMENDMENT

UNITED STATES MUST TAKE COGNIZANCE OF LOAN.

MAY HAVE TO INTERFERE

CIRCUMSTANCES OF CASE NOT YET DETERMINED.

Washington, Aug. 4.—The state department has received the following cablegram from Minister Squiers, dated Havana, Aug. 4:

"The house has passed bill authorizing loan thirty-five million; minimum rate of issue 90 per cent. Maximum interest 5 per cent., redeemable in forty years."

FALLS UNDER PLATT LAW.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Under the Platt amendment the United States is bound to take cognizance of every action of the Cuban government relating to loans. Article 2 of that amendment provides:

"That the government shall not assume or contract any public debt to pay the interest upon which, and to make reasonable sinking fund for the ultimate discharge of which the ordinary revenues of the island of Cuba, after defraying the current expenses of the government, shall be inadequate."

No computation has been made to ascertain whether or not the loan provided for in the bill which Minister Squiers refers to trespasses upon the provision of the Platt amendment, but it is presumed that the Cuban revenues can pay the interest and provide a sinking fund beside defraying the ordinary expenses of the government, as provided in the amendment. At the same time it will no doubt be found very difficult to interpret this particular provision as the question of revenues may fluctuate according to the conditions in the island.

It is known that the intention of article 2 was to prevent any extraordinary issue of bonds for the purpose of redeeming the bonds of the so-called republic previous to the Spanish-American war and the payment of large bounties to those who had taken part in the insurrection against Spain.

It was intended as a check upon the Cuban government in the matter of incurring indebtedness although it carries no provision indicating what would be the action of the United States should the Cuban government exceed the indebtedness prohibited by the amendment.

Neither is there anything in the amendment indicating what steps the United States would take to determine whether the indebtedness was beyond the proscription, or how it would prevent the incurring of such indebtedness.

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES PROTEST.

Meetings were held by the several local branches of the Catholic Benevolent league Sunday afternoon and resolutions were adopted protesting against the removal of the friars from the Philippines, and these resolutions will be forwarded to the proper authorities at once. The societies are of the opinion that the Taft commission intends to report in favor of forcibly ousting the friars and confiscating their property, should the pope refuse to remove them. The Catholic Benevolent league is very strong in the United States and probably every council will adopt resolutions similar to those adopted by the Fort Wayne societies yesterday.

CITED FOR CONTEMPT.

New York, Aug. 4.—Peter Powell, the complainant in the suit against the directors of the Northern Pacific railroad company to restrain them from turning over the stock of that company to the Northern Securities company, was today served at West Hurley, N. Y., with a citation to appear before Justice Lacombe on Wednesday and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court. The contempt proceedings were the result of the failure of George Alfred Lamb, counsel for Powell, to produce his client for examination before Special Examiner Maybie despite the fact that subpoenas have been served on Powell on three occasions within one week. Mr. Lamb has secured several postponements of the hearing on the ground that Powell was in ill health. In view of this order which was secured by counsel for the directors the hearing before Special Examiner Maybie was today adjourned until next Wednesday.

WON AT NEW HAVEN.

The base ball team composed of employees of the Western Gas Construction company defeated the New Haven Eagles by a score of 10 to 5 yesterday. The Eagles are one of the strongest amateur teams in this section of the country and the Western Gas boys' victory yesterday leads them to believe they are warranted in challenging any amateur team in the city, none barred.

EARTHQUAKE IN MONTANA.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 4.—A Helena, Mont., special to the Dispatch says:

"An earthquake, which lasted only two seconds, visited Missoula county last evening, causing some slight damage. At Bonner, a large dynamo was shaken from its adjustments. At Clinton the shock was quite severe, the operator reporting that several old buildings collapsed."

INJURIES RESULT FATALLY

GEORGE WAY MANGLED IN A THRESHING MACHINE.

Leg Drawn Into Machinery and Ground to Pulp—Accident Occurred Near Arcola.

George Way, employed as a farm hand on the farm of Elijah Graves, five miles north of Arcola, died at St. Joseph hospital at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning as a result of injuries received on Saturday evening while threshing. Way was 21 years old and his home was in Ashland, O.

In company with a number of farm hands living in that neighborhood Way went to the home of Matt Danner, adjoining the Graves farm, to assist in threshing. The men had about completed their work at 5 o'clock, and were throwing in the last few sheaves when the accident occurred. Way, who had been feeding the machine, was walking toward the engine on the side on which the belt was attached, and it is thought he stumbled and fell against it and in a moment he was whirled into the machinery. The engine was stopped immediately and Way was extricated, it being necessary to break the cylinder to do so.

Drs. Cuthall, Griser and Lindell were summoned and acting on their instructions a stretcher was made and the injured man was conveyed a distance of five miles to Arcola and put aboard a train for this city. Drs. C. B. Stemen and Macbeth met him at the depot with the ambulance and he was conveyed to St. Joseph hospital, but it was seen that nothing could be done and the injured man died a few hours later.

Way's left leg was terribly mangled, the flesh being ground to a pulp, while the bone was broken in several places and was exposed. There was also a deep gash in his abdomen. The injured man lost a great quantity of blood, and would have died much sooner had not saline injections been given.

The remains were shipped to Ashland Monday for burial. Way was a member of Dunfee lodge No. 765, I. O. F.; of Summit City Encampment No. 16, I. O. O. F., and of Queen Esther lodge No. 324.

LOCAL LINES.

Dr. E. W. Dodez is home from Buffalo, where he attended the national convention of dentists.

The six year old daughter of Henry Kissinger, of Harrison street, was bitten by a vicious dog Saturday.

Reuben W. Newton, of Chicago, formerly of this city, and Miss Meta Schloemilch, of Chicago, were united in marriage Saturday.

August Zigel, of Hanna street, who has been seriously ill from smallpox, is much improved and will soon be able to be about.

Mrs. Michael Hausbach, living at 705 West DeWald street, ran an ice pick through her hand Sunday. The physician cauterized the wound and it is thought no serious consequences will ensue.

D. O. McComb, who has been engaged as a school teacher in Pleasant township for the past eight years, has purchased the fixtures of the Hartman grocery and bakery on Broadway and will soon reopen the establishment.

Thomas Betts, foreman of the cutting room at the Paragon Waist factory, considers himself the champion fisherman of the season. After a half hour's battle Sunday morning, he succeeded in landing a small mouthed bass weighing five and one-quarter pounds.

TO REACH TOLEDO

PROBABLE TERMINAL OF NEW ELECTRIC LINE.

LIMA MEN HAVE IT IN VIEW

WOULD CONNECT FORT WAYNE AND BIG OHIO CITY.

JAMES MURDOCK PRESIDENT

OFFICERS OF THE FORT WAYNE, VAN WERT AND LIMA.

While gentlemen directly interested in the matter decline to discuss it, it is stated upon the most reliable authority that when the plans of the Fort Wayne, Van Wert and Lima Traction company are fully consummated, Fort Wayne and Toledo will be connected by an interurban electric railroad.

No announcement has been made of any intention upon the part of the new Lima company to construct a road farther than from Fort Wayne to Lima, but there are indications that the plans of the company comprehend a system much larger than that. Other gentlemen, said to be representing interests identical with that of the Fort Wayne-Lima company, are believed to be at work upon plans for securing the line from Lima to Toledo, and with the completion of the Fort Wayne line the two roads will probably be closely connected and operated by the same management.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Fort Wayne, Van Wert and Lima company in Fort Wayne yesterday officers were elected as follows:

President—James Murdock, Lafayette.

Vice President—Henry C. Paul, Fort Wayne.

Secretary and Treasurer—L. C. Neely, Lima, O.

The directory is made up of the following:

L. C. Neely, J. D. S. Neely, J. W. Kerr, W. H. Duffield and D. J. Cable, of Lima, O.; Henry C. Paul and Stephen B. Fleming, of this city; James Murdock and S. T. Murdock, of Lafayette, and S. R. Chapman, of Pittsburgh.

Officials of the company who were seen today were not inclined to discuss the question of an injunction restraining them from the use of East Berry street.

NAMED BIG COMMITTEE.

The Catholic Benevolent League of Indiana, at a joint meeting held last evening, decided to abandon its proposed excursion to Robison park, and began preparations for its annual pedro party to be given during October, either at Saengerbund hall or at Princess rink. The event is a stag party, and it is expected that fully six hundred guests will participate in the contests for the seventy-five prizes. The committee on arrangements is made up of G. W. Freilburger, J. N. Stein, M. H. Ackenbruck, J. F. Zurbuch, W. J. Lenhart, William Fry, J. B. Lassus, Ben Richter, Henry Huhn, Frank Witte, A. A. Goeke, H. P. Kennerk and Louis Tagtmeyer.

READY FOR KING'S RETURN.

London, Aug. 5.—All preparations have been completed for the return of King Edward to London tomorrow. The Victoria station has been brilliantly decorated. It is expected that his majesty's return to the capital will be marked by a great street demonstration en route to Buckingham Palace. The trip to London will be made on a royal special train, but there will be no invalid-chair or other special arrangement, as it is felt that his majesty is fully equal to the fatigue of the journey.

DEATHBED WEDDING FAILS.

Marion, Ind., Aug. 5.—Miss Edith Sweetser, daughter of George Sweetser, president of one of the large city banks, who was to have been married to Dr. B. C. Dale, a prominent physician, is dying of typhoid fever. Last night one of the most pathetic deathbed scenes was enacted that has ever been seen in the city.

Mr. Sweetser realized during the afternoon that the prospect of her recovery was improbable and she was unable to repress her grief that she could not marry her betrothed. Seeing this, Dr. Dale procured a license, a minister was called in and the ceremony began.

Just before the minister asked the questions which precede the solemnization sentence the girl, who had apparently gathered up all her energies beyond her strength, was seized with a profuse hemorrhage and in order to save her life instant remedies had to be resorted to, postponing the ceremony. The wedding will be celebrated if at any time the girl should get well enough to make the necessary replies, but the doctors fear she will be unable to do this. Miss Sweetser is one of the belles of the city and a leader in society.

UNDERTAKER VERY ILL.

William Scott, an undertaker near Zanesville, and one of the well known citizens of Allen county, is reported to be in a critical condition, and it is feared he cannot long survive. He has long been in feeble health.

AMBASSADOR WHITE RESIGNS.

Berlin, Aug. 5.—Ambassador White mailed his resignation to the United States several days ago. It is to take effect early in November.

PRAY FOR AN INJUNCTION

BERRY STREET RESIDENTS BEGIN THEIR FIGHT.

Set Forth Reasons Why the Court Should Prevent Building of the Fleming Line.

Last evening a suit setting out an extensive array of allegations and praying for an injunction was filed in the circuit court, the defendant being the city of Fort Wayne and the plaintiffs the residents and property owners—almost without exception—residing on East Berry street, between Barr and Monroe streets. The suit is for the prevention of the building of a street car line, locally and best known as the Fleming line, along the street in question, a franchise for which was recently granted by the board of works and subsequently approved by the mayor and city council and protected by the customary ordinances. The objections to a street railway on Berry street have been so often recited that they are now history and almost tradition and need not again be recounted in this connection. The new points raised in the proceedings just instituted are technical and perhaps novel. The most striking one is the allegation that the franchise provides for a crossing by the tracks of the street at the intersection of Berry and Monroe streets, when as a matter of fact it is endeavored to be shown there is no such intersection. The plats in the city engineer's office show that along the south side of the old canal bed, running from Hanna street to Lafayette, and following the course of the canal in its winding is a regular street, which is designated as Canal street; that Monroe street ends at Canal street and that Berry street ends at Canal street and per se, there can be no intersection of Monroe and Berry street, and therefore the city has given a franchise across a short stretch which really does not exist. This is one technical point upon which the remonstrators build very strongly. Others are that the grade of Monroe street toward the north is such as to make the operation of cars there dangerous; that the franchise does not provide for the time of day when cars shall be operated over the road and sets out many and all the usual objections to be found against the operation of an electric or other line at places where there is a strong sentiment against such operation. An injunction in general terms is asked for and August 15 will probably be the day set for the hearing of the arguments after the presentation of the facts.

LEASE COPPER PROPERTY.

There is a possibility that the local capitalists who invested in copper property in Parry Sound, Ont., will realize very handsomely on their venture. The company controls 1,260 acres, and 200 acres of this tract has been bonded to a Canadian company that guarantees to work the property and hold the ore in reserve a year as security. Among the Fort Wayne gentlemen who are interested in the venture are Messrs. B. D. Angell, Robert Millard, William F. Moeller, Henry Moeller, A. H. Perfect, J. A. Rossell, Louis Diether, Will Diether, Henry Hilgeman, John Brown, Fred Eckart, Henry Eckart, George Evans, John P. Evans, J. M. McKay and others.

SLIGHT FACTORY BLAZE.

Merely nominal damage resulted from a blaze in the Algier stove-pipe factory on East Lewis street at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The fire caught from sparks from one of the heaters in the place and was quickly extinguished.

SUCCEEDS JENNEY

NEW LIGHT AND POWER COMPANY IS FORMING.

EASTERN MAN IS TO HEAD IT

GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY IS THE PROMOTER.

CAPITAL STOCK IS $500,000

CHARTER OF OLD COMPANY IS SOON TO EXPIRE.

Within a very short time the Jenney Electric Light and Power company, which has for many years supplied Fort Wayne consumers with electric light and power, will pass out of existence. It will be succeeded by the Fort Wayne Light and Power company.

The new company is now being organized, and it is expected that articles of incorporation will be filed within a few days. The capital stock of the new company is to be $500,000, and while many of the details are yet to be arranged, it is said that an eastern man is to be made president.

The charter of the present Jenney company will expire within the next three or four years, and inasmuch as a controlling interest in the stock recently passed into the hands of the General Electric company, the big corporation which numbers the Fort Wayne Electric works among its holdings, it has been deemed advisable to form a new organization instead of getting a renewal of the charter of the present company.

The General Electric company is of course the chief promoter of the new company. W. P. Bonbright, one of the big company's prominent men from its eastern offices, has been in the city some time inaugurating the plan, announced some time ago, of installing a thoroughly modern lighting plant in Fort Wayne; one that will fittingly represent the possibilities of the company in electrical manufacture and equipment. It is quite probable that Mr. Bonbright may be chosen as president of the new Fort Wayne Light and Power company.

Men interested in the new company say more complete particulars are not yet ready for the public for the reason that much yet remains to be decided with reference to details. It is understood, however, that a number of new stockholders will be identified with the Fort Wayne Light and Power company by the time it makes its application to the city for a franchise.

SOUTHWESTERN EXPECTS TO START IT SUNDAY.

Trolley Wiremen Reached That Town Today—Great Interurban Business Yesterday.

The Southwestern Traction company expects to inaugurate its regular service into the city of Wabash on Sunday next. This was the announcement made by General Manager Nelson this morning.

The trolley wires are taken into that city today, and a day or two more will complete the overhead work. Ballasting is going forward rapidly at the west end of the line, and another force of workmen are hustling along the Wabash terminal of the electric line. It is probable that cars at irregular intervals will be run into Wabash by Thursday, but no attempt will be made to inaugurate a regular schedule until Sunday.

Yesterday came very near being a record-breaker for business along the interurban line, a total of 3,028 passengers having been hauled by the Southwestern Sunday. One extra car was in service between Huntington and the new park, Happy Hollow.

BATTLE WITH FANATICS.

Manila, Aug. 4.—Governor Bandholtz, of Tayabas province, has telegraphed Acting Governor Wright that the combined police forces of five towns attacked and defeated a force under Ruperto Rios, leader of a fanatical Filipino society. Many of Rios' followers were killed or wounded, but only a few of the police were hurt. The fight occurred near Antimanan. General Davis has arrived here from Mindanao and has had an extended conference with General Chaffee on the Moro situation.

IDOLIZED LEADER

MITCHELL HAS AFFECTIONS OF THE MINERS.

ADDRESSES IMMENSE THROG

SEVEN THOUSAND HATS DOFFED TO THE PRESIDENT.

SAYS STRIKE WILL BE WON

RIOTERS WORST ENEMIES OF THE STRIKERS.

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 2.—The first of the strikers' meetings planned to take place at the various strike centers was held yesterday afternoon in the Round woods. There were 7,000 strikers present from all part of the city and the adjoining towns, some locals having marched four miles to the meeting, headed by a band or drum corps and carrying flags and banners. National President John Mitchell, District President T. D. Nicholls, District Vice President Adam R. Ryscavage, District Secretary John T. Dempsey, Organizer Mortini Memolo and Sud-District President T. Phillips delivered addresses. Vice President Ryscavage spoke in Polish and Organizer Memolo in Italian.

The crowd enthusiastically cheered all the speakers and fairly went wild over Mitchell. When he was introduced to speak some one shouted "Hats off!" and although the sun's rays beamed down so intensely that many were carried from the crowd exhausted, every man in the vast assemblage bared his head and remained uncovered until his speech was concluded. Then the crowd surged about the platform and shook his hands until he himself was almost exhausted.

MITCHELL'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Mitchell's speech was brief and dealt only with the live issues of the fight. He said in part: "It has been said by some who are not your friends that the miners of the Scranton region are getting tired of the strike and are about to return to work. I come to find out if this is so. I want to know if you are going to return to work, dishonoring your organization and dishonoring yourselves."

Here the speaker was interrupted with cries of "Never, never," "No," "Don't you believe it," and the like. "If the strike is lost," continued Mr. Mitchell, "may God Almighty help the men, women and children who depend for their subsistence on the mining of anthracite coal. If the strike is lost you will pay the cost of the strike. I want to say that the anthracite miners won on strike themselves. They voted for the strike. It was not the officers of the United Mine Workers' union who called the strike. It will never end until you vote it ended."

"I want to appeal to men with means to refrain from applying for relief. Let the fund be used by those who are in absolute need of help. Be patient with your committees. Put your shoulder to the wheel and do your share of the work. Don't depend altogether upon your officers to win the fight. If we are to win we must all help. The one among you who violates the law is the worst enemy you have. No one is more pleased than the operators in the coal regions. I want our men to exercise their rights that inure to them under the laws, but I want that no man shall transgress the laws."

"The strike will be won. (Loud and prolonged cheers.) I have no more doubt about it than I have that I am standing here and addressing you. The operators are trying to make it appear that the strike is beginning to break up. There is a saying that those who come from afar can lie with impunity. At Shamokin the operators tell the strikers that the men at Wilkesbarre are returning, and at other places they tell them the men at Scranton are weakening. I fail to see any signs of weakening here. (Laughter and applause.)"

"This is possibly the last time I will talk to you, and I want you to listen to me. I want to impress on you the importance of winning this strike. If you win, as you surely will win, there will be no more strikes; there will be a basis of adjustment arrived at which will prevent strikes. If you lose the strike the operators will make you pay for their strike losses by reducing your wages. And if you lose the strike you lose your organization. I trust and hope and constantly pray you will stand as you did in 1900." (Cheers and cries of "We will.")

Before the handshaking episode had begun Chairman Phillips asked all who favored a fight to a finish to raise their hands. Every hand went up.

HISTORIC INCIDENT.

Twenty-five years ago yesterday, Aug. 1, 1877, 10,000 striking miners, who had been out for six months, met at this same Round woods, in almost the identical spot where yesterday's meeting was held, and with uplifted hands avowed that they would not return to work until their demands were granted. That afternoon occurred the memorable riot in Lackawanna avenue, when a company of hastily formed vigilantes killed two men, fired upon a procession made up of strikers from this and another mass meeting, who were bent upon burning breakers, and who had nearly killed Mayor McKune when he tried to halt them. A week later the miners went back to work without gaining any concessions and with their union disrupted.

As a precaution against a possible disorder a big squad of police was kept in reserve at headquarters and twenty patrolmen were stationed in the neighborhood of the Oxford colliery, which has resumed operations, and which was almost within sight of the mass meeting.

RELICS OF FAMOUS CHIEFS

INDIAN SOUVENIRS OWNED

NEAR HUNTINGTON.

Daughter of Chief LaFountaine Preserves Many Mementoes of Historic Ancestors.

An interesting collection of Indian relics, property once owned by some of the famous chiefs who were prominent in the earlier days about Fort Wayne, has been found near Huntington by L. P. Stapleford, who is active in the interest of the Allen County Pioneers' association, and Mr. Stapleford suggests that the county should arrange to purchase the old trophies, or at least provide for their exhibition in the court house on the occasion of the dedication.

These mementoes were owned by Chief Richardville and Chief LaFountaine and are now in possession of a daughter of the latter. The woman is Mrs. Engelmann, living near Huntington, and now possibly seventy-five or eighty years of age. Included in the collection are a monster rustic chair in which the chiefs sat, a rude clock of those days, several Indian implements of various kinds, and elaborate oil portraits of Chief Richardville and Chief LaFountaine.

It is believed the collection could be secured for historical or exhibition purposes with little difficulty.

STILL A MYSTERY.

Laporte, Ind., Aug. 2.—Sheriff Small today discovered additional evidence to show that Mrs. William Tolton, of Westville, who is mysteriously missing, as the result of which her husband is held on a charge of murder, had been seen going toward the Wabash station Monday morning in time to catch the 5 o'clock train. The conductor's report shows that two Westville-Chicago tickets were honored on that train. Harold and Roe Hill, who went to Chicago to visit the hospitals, returned yesterday, having been unsuccessful in their efforts to locate the missing woman.

The officers are not now working on the theory that Tolton murdered his wife, but that he sent her away, hoping she would never return. It is believed that Tolton knows more than he has told and that he can clear up the mystery if he is so disposed. Efforts to force a confession from him will be made. His latest story is that his wife has gone to her uncle, John Poldorfer, in Miller City, Ohio, but a telegram last night from him is to the effect that he has not heard of his niece in three years.

ARMOR PLATE DEFIES GUNS.

Washington, Aug. 2.—The navy people hope to offset the recent development in high explosives and armor-piercing projectiles by the army through a considerable improvement in the resisting power of the armor plating of a battleship. Lieut. Cleland Davis, attached to the naval ordnance bureau, has produced an armor plate which recently was tested at the proving grounds at Bethlehem and the results encourage the naval officers here to believe that the armor plate has again overtaken the gun in the never-ending struggle for supremacy. This plate is obtained by a novel process, carbon being driven directly into the surface of the hot plate by an intensely powerful current of electricity, the result being a face as hard as glass and of any thickness desired, supported by a tough back, which, it is claimed, cannot be cracked. The depth of the hardening is regulated by the length of time the current plays upon the plate. It is claimed that an average plate can be completely treated by electricity in five hours. Moreover, the plate is claimed to be a third lighter for the same resisting power, which means a great saving to constructors.

Blanket remonstrances have been filed against the five saloons in Liberty township, Wells county. The saloons will have to close.

DUTY TO ISLANDS

DR. SCHURMAN SPEAKS OF THE PHILIPPINE PROBLEM.

QUESTION OUT OF POLITICS

SAYS ANTI-IMPERIALIST VICTORY HAS BEEN WON.

THE MOROS MENACE TO ORDER

FORMER COMMISSIONER AT CHAUTAUQUA.

Chautauqua, N. Y., Aug. 2.—President Jacob Gould Schurman, of Cornell university, president of the first Philippine commission, delivered an address here today on the "Philippine Problem." President Schurman spoke in part as follows:

"The Philippine question has passed into a new stage, though the public seem unaware of it and the newspapers have not noticed it. Certain matters of great interest in the past have now been definitely eliminated. It is idle now to discuss the wisdom or the unwisdom of our acceptance of Spain's cession of sovereignty over the archipelago. The fact of our sovereignty is indisputably established both by the force of treaty and the force of arms. I was one of those who advocated leaving the archipelago in the enfeebled grasp of Spain; but the American people who made war on Spain for the emancipation of Cuba would not consent, so President McKinley felt, to leave the Philippines at the close of the war victims of the same oppression. Sentiment and enthusiasm were reinforced by jingoism, by optimism and by pious ignorance. But what boots it to pursue the matter farther? Whether by will or not, the Philippines are ours. The destiny of the Philippines is in our hands, and great as our responsibility may be to humanity and to Providence, our sovereignty itself is absolutely unimpeachable. So, too, we have no further concern with the government set up by Aguinaldo, nor with Aguinaldo himself. Both are issues of the past. Men may dispute whether that government represented the inhabitants of the Philippines or not. It certainly did not represent the Moros and heathens of the southern islands. And as far as I could make out in 1899, it did not represent the majority of the Christian inhabitants of Luzon and the Visayas. The Christian Filipinos have undoubtedly been drawn together by three years of fighting against the white man. But that fighting has gone on independently of Aguinaldo's Philippine republic, whose brief existence was entirely embraced within the year 1899. And, at that period, as I have said, it appeared to be less a national than a local organization."

AGUINALDO NOT AN ISSUE.

"Aguinaldo himself has on the one hand been branded as a brigand and, on the other, glorified as a George Washington. The time has not yet come impartially to appraise his character. Perhaps it may appear hereafter that he was an able and honest and patriotic champion of national independence, who was not at all scrupulous in the choice of means for the attainment of his ends, and who, besides, had his own full share of personal ambition and loss of place and power. Be that as it may, he is now a private citizen, and the unproven offenses once imputed to him are entitled to the generous oblivion with which the president's proclamation of amnesty formally invests his official acts. In his own country he is likely to be and remain a great influence. And it should be our policy to enlist that influence in support of the existing government. That any man or set of men in this country should go on denouncing and defaming him seems to me the height of unwisdom, to say nothing of its injustice. Let the past be forgotten. Let us think of Aguinaldo as an influential Filipino who may help us to shape aright the political destinies of his country."

LET THE PAST BE BURIED.

"Let the dead past bury its dead. The Philippine problem is no longer a question of the conduct of the army, or of a few men in the army; it is no longer a question of the character of Aguinaldo; it is no longer a question of the jurisdiction of the Philippine republic of 1899; it is no longer a question of the validity of American sovereignty over the archipelago or of the wisdom of the policy of assuming it. These are all issues of the past. The pacification of the archipelago, the official announcement of the termination of hostilities, the proclamation of amnesty and the substitution of civil for military control all bring us in sight of war problems. At the heart of them all I think you will find this question: What is to be the political status of the inhabitants of the Philippine islands? Or, more particularly, what is to be the political status of the 6,500,000 civilized and christianized Filipinos of Luzon and the Visayas?"

"If imperialism means government without the consent of the governed and anti-imperialism the contrary, then it must be asserted that in the first conflict of those forces over the government of the Philippines the anti-imperialists have won the day. After 1904, when the new Philippine legislature comes into existence, no bill can be enacted into law in the Philippines without the consent of the governed duly given by their representative legislative assembly. Meantime the act of congress creating that assembly secures to the Filipinos all the civil rights specified in the bill of rights of our own constitution except the right to carry arms (which is at present a prudent reservation) and the right to trial by jury (which is foreign to the laws and legal traditions and ideas of the Filipinos)."

NOT A POLITICAL ISSUE.

"I believe that President Roosevelt's attitude toward the Philippine question indicated in his first message to congress and in his Arlington speech, his punishment of army officers who have been proved guilty of cruelty toward Filipinos, and his constant support of a liberal and enlightened Philippine policy in general, combined with passage by congress of the Philippine civil government bill, will have the effect of eliminating the Philippines as a political issue for at least three or four years. Even those who favor independence cannot raise the question till that native legislative assembly has voiced the sentiments of the Filipinos on the subject and also demonstrated by wise and prudent use of the legislative powers it enjoys that it is fit to receive a larger grant of home rule."

"We have planted government with the consent of the governed in Asia. The Philippines are thus not a colony, but an incipient sister commonwealth. The colonizing nations of Europe pool-pool our experiment. Heaven grant that it may be a case of liberty enlightening the world. Certainly the grain of mustard seed will grow. Certainly the Filipinos will in time insist that the principle of the consent of the governed receive a broader and fuller application. But I repeat that their destiny is now in our hands. Their friends in America can do nothing but support their efforts. The Filipinos may, however, take confidence from the fact that the promise and potency of every political good is contained in the principle of the consent of the governed which has, germinally at least, been extended to them."

"Meantime and till after the inauguration of that Philippine assembly in 1904, the Philippines will disappear as an issue from American politics."

"What I have said of the 6,500,000 Christian and civilized Filipinos of Luzon and the Visayas does not apply to the remaining population of the archipelago—the 1,500,000 inhabitants of Mohammedan (Moros) and heathen tribes who inhabit Mindanao, Sulu, Basilan and Palawan. A strong external sovereignty must be exercised over these barbarous and savage tribes, of whom some four score are known and named. It is these people who may fairly be compared with the North American Indians. And unless we turned them over to some other strong power we should have to retain our sovereignty over them, even if we conferred independence upon the 6,500,000 Christian and civilized Filipinos of Luzon, the Visayas and the coasts of Mindanao. I may add that the circumstances that we have two such distinct and almost contradictory problems in the Philippines makes statements that are perfectly congruous appear to the uninitiated to be inconsistent and 'wobbling.'"

"Our army may have some trouble with the Moros and heathen tribes of the southern islands. American prospectors and traders will desire to press into the interior and the natives, apprehending the loss of their lands, will have recourse to arms in self-protection. Let our military authorities protect them against capitalistic exploitation, and our pressure upon them from the coast inwards should be so gentle and so gradual as not to provoke hostility or awaken suspicion."

"In the long run, of course, the Filipinos must be given either statehood in the American union or independence—an independence which may be actual and open like that of Cuba or actual and veiled like that of Canada. But till their native legislative assembly is organized in 1904, and for a few years thereafter, it can scarcely be a practical issue, and for the meantime the Philippines will disappear as an issue from American politics."

HARD COAL BOOSTED AGAIN.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Hard coal prices went up 10 cents a ton today, making an advance of 50 cents since April. Should the strike end it would be fully thirty days before the market here could be supplied with anthracite coal. No hard coal is being received and the stock on hand is not large. Prices now range from $6.90 to $7.15.

Carrie Nation will deliver a prohibition speech at Bluffton August 21.

TROOPS TO STAY

GOVERNOR STONE DECLINES TO WITHDRAW THEM.

THINKS IT WOULD BE UNSAFE

RAILWAY BROTHERHOODS TO AID STRIKERS.

WILL SET A NEW PRECEDENT

ALL REPORTED QUIET IN THE STRIKE REGION.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 2.—Governor Stone made the following reply today to the request of the officials of district No. 9 of the United Mine Workers, asking for the recall of the troops at Shenandoah:

"Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 2, 1902.—Miles Dougherty et al.: Yours of the 31st ultimo requesting the recall of the troops was duly received. Upon full consideration of the letter I am of the opinion that it would not be wise nor safe to withdraw the troops at present."

W. A. Stone.

The governor left this afternoon for Atlantic City to spend Sunday. He said he believed there would be no further trouble in the strike region. He will return to Harrisburg on Monday.

RAILWAY MEN TO AID.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 2.—In the absence of President Mitchell in Scranton, things were unusually quiet at strike headquarters today. A letter has been received from Grand Chief P. H. Morrissey, of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, in which he says it is the intention of all the brotherhoods to give the striking miners practical assistance at once. This said this is the first time in the history of the strike that an executive officer of the railroad brotherhoods has defined the position of the railway employees of the country.

The following official statement has been issued from strike headquarters:

"The anthracite region finds strikers firm and unyielding."

"West Virginia men are still firm. Judges Jackson and Keller have enjoined the strikers from doing anything save swimming, flying and sleeping."

"No signs of settlement in Michigan."

"West Pennsylvania strike still on, with the strikers firm and confident."

LEADERS COUNSEL PEACE.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 2.—President John Fahy, district number 9, United Mine Workers, who arrived here last night, held conferences today with the officers of the local miners' unions. Mr. Fahy, following out instructions from President Mitchell, is making every effort to have the striking mine workers maintain peace. In this connection he said today that all persons in or out of the organization who in any way violate the law are enemies of the union and that the organization will do all in its power to place such persons in jail. Local union 1509 held a special meeting today and will probably appoint a committee to maintain the peace.

Brig. Gen. Gobin had no information from the surrounding region of any trouble today, everything being reported extremely quiet. The general is maintaining rigid discipline in the camp. No soldier is permitted outside the line after taps.

Provost Marshal Farquhar has a large force of men on duty and as far as possible he is preventing the troops from mingling with the strikers. This precaution is being taken so that the militia cannot be held responsible for any outbreak that may occur. Additional soldiers who were not at home when the troops were called out, arrived today. Altogether there are a little over 1,400 men in the camp.

HABEAS CORPUS FOR MINERS.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Aug. 2.—Judge Nathan Goff, of the United States circuit court, yesterday issued a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of eight miners punished by Judge Jackson for contempt of court. This is the first step by the United Mine Workers to set aside the injunction and decision of Judge Jackson, and is regarded as an important victory for labor.

The petition was presented in behalf of Thomas Hagerty and other strike leaders sentenced to jail at Farkersburg by Judge Jackson for violation of the injunction issued by him. After hearing arguments Judge Goff granted the writ asked for by the miners and ordered the marshal to produce Thomas Hagerty and the other prisoners here for a hearing next Tuesday at 10 o'clock. The miners are jubilant.

PROBING DIAMOND ROBBERY.

Kokomo, Ind., Aug. 2.—Kokomo officers are at work on a diamond robbery in which a Chicago woman is accused of stealing jewelry valued at fully $700. Fred and Mrs. Heberl, of Chicago, have been boarding with Mrs. Charles Cline. Mrs. Heberl left for Chicago yesterday afternoon, and it was afterward found that a diamond brooch and several rings were missing, including a diamond wedding ring of Mrs. Cline's daughter, Mrs. Don Roach. Telegrams were sent to stop the woman, but she has not been located. Mr. Heberl is a cigar maker, and has been employed here. Mrs. Heberl's trunk was discovered at Logansport, but the missing jewels were not found.

ANTHONY MILLER ARRESTED

WILL BE RETURNED TO THE REFORMATORY.

Police Officers Drive to Country to Get Him, But Find Him in Town on Their Return.

Superintendent Gorsline and Detective Coling had a rather enjoyable experience Friday which, after all its funny phases, resulted in Anthony Miller being locked up in the station to await the arrival of an officer from the Jeffersonville reformatory to escort him back to his old quarters.

Miller was sent over from the circuit court about twenty-two months ago for from one to three years for robbing Potlitzer Bros.' fruit store. He proved a fair prisoner and four months ago was paroled and came back to Fort Wayne. He behaved like a true lady for about a month and then commenced running down at the heel. He ingratiated himself into the good graces of the landlady at the old Barnum resort near the mill track and became a trusty about the place. One pleasant morning Mr. Miller and $45 in cash disappeared simultaneously and although Miller and his cash were heard of afterwards neither was located after the complaint was made to the police. His failure to show up and report, of course, broke his parole and the Jeffersonville officials requested Superintendent Gorsline to endeavor to locate him and take him into custody. That assignment was one of Mr. Gorsline's ambitions for over two months, but no track of the festive and appropriative Mr. Miller could be found. Within a day or two the superintendent learned that a man answering Miller's description was employed as a farm hand about fifteen miles southeast of here and a few miles beyond Maples and later inquiry developed the fact that it was the identical man. Friday afternoon the superintendent and Detective Coling concluded they would take a little drive and hitching up the department livery they drove to the erstwhile habitation of Mr. Miller. They arrived at the farm house about 6 o'clock and were assured by the farmer that Jacob was his hired man. "But he been went to town dees mornin' unt he don't haf come back already. I don't know about dot, ain't it?" added the farmer. They learned which way Anthony would be likely to drive back on his way home and then the two officers proceeded to leisurely follow the route toward town indicated. They arrived in Fort Wayne about 10 o'clock entirely disgusted at the failure of their mission and stabled their horse. Before going home the two old sleuths dropped into Jackson's buffet to get a package of chewing gum and on coming out fell right into the arms of their uncle Anthony. He was jeffersonville was notified. A telegram from there announces that an officer will be here to take him back. He will now have about fifteen months to serve.

SPIRITUALISTS ELECT.

Anderson, Ind., Aug. 2.—The Indiana Association of Spiritualists elected the following state officers at Chesterfield yesterday afternoon: President, E. B. Chamness, of Alexandria; vice president, L. O. Edson, Hartford City; secretary, Miss Flora Hardin, Anderson; financial secretary, L. Waters, Hartford City; treasurer, Henry Bronnenberg, Chesterfield; trustees, J. M. Best, Winchester; P. B. Millepaugh, Anderson; H. J. Leonard, Alexandria, and Z. T. Mong, of Muncie. The contest for the presidency was lively. Dr. Hilligoss, of Anderson, and Judge J. H. Mook, of Bluffton, being the other candidates.

FAIR RECEIVES CHARTER.

The Fort Wayne Fair association has received its charter from the secretary of state, and the certificate of incorporation was filed for record with County Recorder Gillette today. Preparations for the fall exhibition are going forward rapidly, and much enthusiasm is being manifested in the project. Will Johnson, the assistant secretary, went to Huntington today on business for the association.

Twenty-three saloons are managing to find some business at Hartford City.

FAMILY TROUBLE IS AIRED

ENGINEER GOLDEN FREED IN POLICE COURT.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

At police court this morning Joseph J. Golden, a Grand Rapids engineer, was arraigned and tried for deserting his wife and child on a charge preferred by his wife, Jennie Golden, and after a trial lasting nearly two hours, was acquitted by Judge Dreihelms, who, in rendering his decision, intimated that the case seemed to be one of persecution rather than prosecution.

The parties to the case have been separated since last May and during the interim divorce proceedings have been instituted and dismissed, the superior court has ordered the defendant to support his wife, his wages have been tied up by a restraining order and a charge of failure to provide has been filed against him in a justice's court, all of which matters are now pending. The grocer with whom Mrs. Golden has been dealing was a witness for Mrs. Golden and proved so strong a witness for the defendant that the state endeavored to impeach him, but was ruled out by the court. The grocer testified that Mrs. Golden's credit on her husband's account had always been good at his store; that she bought a large quantity of goods last Saturday, which were charged to the defendant; that the defendant's attorneys had notified him to deliver goods to the plaintiff to any reasonable amount and charge them to the defendant, and that they would be paid for; that he had never refused to give the plaintiff provisions when asked for, and that her credit on her husband's account was good at his store for anything she could reasonably ask for. Mrs. Golden on the stand admitted that her husband, through his attorneys, had made her an offer to have her take all their personal furniture and belongings and $15 per month, and that she refused to accept the tender.

The defendant was then placed on the stand and he testified that he is an engineer (extra) and that his average wages during the past four years has been $64 per month. He paid the house rent, amounting to $10 per month; grocery and meat bills, running usually $20 to $30 per month; paid his own board at the other end of the road; provided clothing for his wife and child, and used up his wages in the support of his family, so that he was not even able to buy a suit of clothes for himself since a year ago last June. He produced receipts to show that he had paid court costs and attorneys' fees for his wife since his last pay day amounting to $33, and had paid the grocery bills for his wife since they separated, with the exception of the current bill, which he could not pay on account of the restraining order which his wife secured enjoining the Grand Rapids company from paying him the wages he has earned. He said he left home because he was virtually driven away. His wife for four months had refused to cook his meals and had thrown his clothing out of the house. He said that on more than one occasion, as he was going out on his run, she said to him: "Go you —, and I hope when you come back you'll be in a thousand pieces! If you get killed, don't ever let them bring you back here; I wouldn't sweep you out." He said that she had said that she wouldn't give him a drink of water to save him from perdition and that she hated the sight of him. Since their separation last May he had never failed to provide for her and her child and solemnly declared that the amount of money he earned was not sufficient to pay his wife's bills and that he had kept even because he had a mother. During the giving of this testimony the wife hung her head, and at its conclusion the prosecutor did not indulge in any cross-examinations. The judge then rendered his decision as above mentioned.

STEYN REACHES ENGLAND.

London, Aug. 2.—Former President Steyn, of the Orange Free State, arrived at Southampton today with his family on the steamship Carisbrook Castle. He was met by Messrs. Fischer, Wessels and Des Bruyn, the former Boer delegates. He will go to The Hague, where Former President Kruger will go from Utrecht to meet him Monday.

Mr. Steyn was too ill to bear the journey to London, although a special saloon-carriage had been attached to the regular boat train for him. His physician did not allow him to be interviewed by the press. Mr. Steyn sent word that he wished to express his thanks for the courtesies extended to him by the British authorities since the surrender, and for the care given him during the voyage. The former president was removed on a stretcher to the Dutch steamer Batavier III, which was moored close to the Carisbrook Castle. He will be landed at the Hook of Holland and conveyed in an ambulance to the cottage reserved for him near The Hague.

THE COURT NEWS.

After a short and strenuous session Judge Aiken adjourned court again last week and Wednesday returned to his retreat at Lake George. The next session of the superior court will be next Tuesday.

Mary Woodworth was given an order restraining her husband, James J. Woodworth, from disposing of any of his property pending divorce proceedings in which $2,000 alimony is asked for. Woodworth was mixed up in a case at police court Tuesday morning and later in the day Mrs. Woodworth commenced divorce proceedings against him through the law firm of Gilbert, Berghoff & Wood.

Henry Smead was granted a divorce from Josephine Smead, and Michael Dennis was divorced from Mary Dennis.

The short-time record on divorce cases, however, was probably made by Octavia Wamsbaugh against her husband, Michael Wamsbaugh. The case was filed after 1:30, went through the court and was disposed of and the record got back on the fee book before the clerk found time to get the suit on the entry docket.

The receiver in the case of Van Meter vs. Maunier filed his final report and was discharged, and a number of smaller matters were disposed of.

Frank Craig, who has been in jail in default of bond on complaint of Melissa Hiser, who charges him with illegitimate parentage, was last week released, having secured a bondsman. The case will be heard at the September term of the circuit court.

J. E. K. France has commenced suit against Lidel Pattee to recover on a note and mortgage for $150.

Last week Bertha Porter commenced a damage suit against Laura Revert, alleging slander and demanding judgment in the sum of $5,000. The alleged slander consisted in the making of statements by the defendant reflecting on the character and chastity of the plaintiff.

The cases of Cora Weaver and Emma Roy against J. J. Mills have been appealed from France's court to the circuit court. The defendant in the title is the proprietor of the Wayne hotel and the plaintiffs are servants who were in his employ.

Ex-County Clerk D. W. Souder was a caller at the court house after a long absence. Mr. Souder was unexpectedly called home last week by a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Souder, who Wednesday sustained a stroke of paralysis. She is much improved now and no serious results are anticipated. Mr. Souder is a traveling salesman for an artificial limb company and his territory lies almost exclusively in the province of Ontario. He will return to his field of labor on Monday.

Late last Thursday afternoon Melissa Hiser filed an affidavit against Frank Craig, alleging seduction and claiming damages in the sum of $2,000. The claim of the young woman is copious and interesting to the attorneys, refers to the living fruits of the intimacy extending over a period of several years and is bulwarked by a suit for paternity still pending in a justice's court.

The Fort Wayne, Van Wert and Lima Traction company Saturday last filed with County Auditor Ortleb a petition for a franchise to operate an interurban road through the county commencing at the eastern city limits on Pioneer avenue, leading out the lower New Haven road and going thence eastward through the county along the lines of the "Ridge road" and the "Van Wert road." This is simply the old cable route and the new Fleming route under a new name. The route and privileges asked for are identically the same. The company known as the "Cable" company and the "Lima Traction company," have transferred their interests to the new company and the new franchise is asked for simply to prevent possible future complications.

Effie Weibbaum has commenced divorce proceedings against Noah Weibbaum and asks for the custody of their children and alimony according to the judgment of the court. Judge O'Rourke granted a restraining order enjoining the defendant from disposing of any of his property, real or personal, before September 2. The complaint alleges cruelty, after stating that the parties have been married since 1887 and separated July 1, 1902.

Commissioner Orff went to Abbot township this afternoon to inspect a bridge which has been reported damaged by the recent rains. This bridge is on what is known as the Bash road and it was the intention of the commissioners to replace it with a new one next year.

Other matters presented to the commissioners was a batch of twenty-six applications for liquor license, this being the first day of the regular August term. There were no remonstrances and all the applications were favorably passed upon.

The school trustees of the school city of Fort Wayne filed their report with the county auditor today. The figures are identical with those filed with the common council some weeks ago, an abstract of which was made and printed at the time.

Zebulon Travis has commenced suit against David Kester to reform contract and enforce specifications therein.

Mrs. Lizzie Buschman has commenced suit in the superior court to set aside the will of her father, the late John T. Phillips. The action is directed against Frank Phillips, named as executor, and eleven other heirs. The complaint alleges that the disposition of the decedent's estate is not equitable and says that undue influence was used in having the will made as it stands.

Samuel Deems, of Kendallville, writes to Clerk Belot asking him not to issue a marriage license to William A. Deem and Bertha Kaylor. William A. Deem is presumably the writer's son, although the letter does not say so. There has been no application for a license from the parties designated.

POLITICAL LEADERS IN TOWN

DISTRICT COMMITTEES MEETING IN FORT WAYNE.

Democratic and Republican Chairmen Here to Canvass the Political Outlook.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Democratic and republican county chairmen from the various counties comprising the Twelfth district are holding meetings in Fort Wayne today to canvass the political outlook and arrange for the campaign skirmishing that will commence early in the fall.

The democratic chairmen are in conference with District Chairman S. E. Fleming and H. D. Stone, of Albion, who is a member of the advisory committee from the Twelfth district. The meeting is being held at the Wayne hotel, and those present in addition to Mr. Fleming and Mr. Stone are Chairman Cyrus Cline, of Steubenville; Chairman T. A. Hines, of DeKalb; Chairman J. W. Morr, of Noble; Chairman Fred Binder, of Whitley; Chairman H. P. Scherer, of Allen, and Editor Harry Gandy, of the LaGrange Democrat, who represents the LaGrange county chairman.

LEADERS IN CONFERENCE.

District Chairman Elmer Leonard summoned the republican county chairmen of the Twelfth district to the city for a conference over the political outlook and the meeting is being held at Mr. Leonard's office this afternoon. The chairmen present include Dr. J. W. Hays, of Noble; George Smith, of Lagrange; Fred Snyder, of Steubenville; N. T. Jackson, of DeKalb; B. E. Gates, of Whitley, and E. V. Harris, of Allen; Harry I. Park, of Kendallville, Twelfth district member of the state advisory committee, is also in attendance.

IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

Lizzie Hazzert files an affidavit against Harry Brockow for assault and battery in Huser's court.

Jennie Golden, of Melita street, has filed an affidavit in France's court charging her husband, Joseph Golden, with deserting her and her child.

In the case of the state against Harry Keever for carrying concealed weapons, tried before Bullerman Thursday, the justice after taking the case under advisement assessed a fine against the young man for $5 and costs. Keever appealed the case to the circuit court and filed a satisfactory bond. The other case against him for surety of the peace bond was dismissed.

It is probable that the McGaw-Ayers imbroglio, which went down through the line of justice's courts Thursday and day before, is now settled. McGaw Friday morning filed an affidavit against Ayers for carrying concealed weapons, which charge was dismissed by Justice Huser, after a reprimand to both men, who are printers and were friends. They shook hands in the justice's office and the incident closed then and there.

Justice France on Friday fined Mrs. Ora Taylor for assault and battery on Mrs. Ida Taylor, both living on Leith street. The evidence showed that the women had a pitched battle on the street. Later Mrs. Minnie Solway was arrested for provoking Mrs. Ida Taylor, and her case was continued until Monday.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

Joseph F. Becker and Katherine P. Pohl.

Joseph Killian and Tracy A. Darby.

Walter M. Gaskill and Ruth B. Diffendorfer.

Elias A. D. Chaney and Minnie L. Hamilton.

George W. Shonk and Elizabeth M. Dorsey.

Rev. L. D. Holiday, of Merom, Ohio, has been selected as pastor of the Christian church at Huntington.

A MADDENED MOB

AROUND JAIL CLAMORING FOR MURDERER'S LIFE.

NEGRO LIKELY TO BE LYNCHED

CRIPPLE CREEK FOLKS DEEPLY

STIRRED BY MURDER.

QUARRELED OVER A TRIFLE

NEGRO STABBED MAN WHO DEMANDED PAYMENT.

Cripple Creek, Col., Aug. 2.—A mob surrounds the county jail here, threatening to lynch John Randolph, a negro miner known as "Black Stratton," who today stabbed and killed William Wilkinson, a clerk employed by the Barwise Commission company.

The men quarreled over the payment for some nuts which the negro had taken from the store. Following the stabbing Randolph escaped to the hills, but was captured three miles southwest of Cripple Creek. After a two-hour chase he was placed in jail. A mob gathered and Chief of Police Burton, mounting the jail steps, begged the men to disperse. While the mob waited for a while it is believed Randolph will be lynched before nightfall. Wilkinson came here from Arkansas City, Kan., three years ago.

GIRLS ARE BECOMING EXPERT.

Prof. Bevans, of Indianapolis, is giving swimming lessons at Rome City, among his pupils being Miss Mae Fitzpatrick, daughter of Master Mechanic Fitzpatrick, of the Pennsylvania shops here, who, after two or three lessons swam 400 feet without assistance or the use of a life preserver. The young lady expects, within a few days, to dispense with the use of a boat between Spring Beach hotel and the boat landing at the depot by swimming across the lake. A number of other young ladies will surprise their friends in the art under the professor's excellent instructions.

WERE WEDDED SATURDAY.

Walter N. Gaskill, of Huntington, and Miss Ruth D. Diffendorfer, of Zanesville, were united in marriage at noon Saturday, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Asher S. Preston, at the parsonage of the Wayne street M. E. church. The young couple were accompanied by Mrs. Diffendorfer, of this city, a sister-in-law of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Gaskill will reside in Huntington, where the husband is employed as a railroad man.

ADDED AN ASSISTANT.

The city school board has added an assistant instructor in mathematics to the faculty of the high school, and Thomas McCormick has been appointed to the position. The young man is a son of Dr. McCormick, of this city, was valedictorian of the Fort Wayne high school class of 1897, and later graduated from Eiram college. He is admirably equipped for his new position and gives promise of filling the place most acceptably.

HAS TYPHOID FEVER.

Fred McCulloch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCulloch, who returned a few days ago from Hill school in very poor health, has now what is pronounced by the attending physician to be a typical case of typhoid fever. It was feared from the first that the ailment would develop into typhoid and today his physician says there is no longer any doubt of it, though there are reasons for the belief that the attack may not be a severe one.

TRACY SEEN AGAIN.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 2.—Harry Tracy, the Oregon convict, passed through Coulee City, Wash., last night, about 11 o'clock, and is reported to have been seen at Almira, the next station east, at 3 o'clock this morning. Coulee City and Almira are on the Northern Pacific, midway between Seattle and the Idaho state line. This would seem to confirm the report that Tracy is making his way to the "Hole-in-the-Wall" country, in Wyoming.

FARMER'S BARN BURNS.

The large barn upon the farm of William Witzgall, in Pleasant township, was totally destroyed by fire Friday night, together with practically all its contents. The fire occurred about 9 o'clock, and its origin is unknown. Only meagre reports of the blaze reached Secretary Kelsey, of the Farmers' Insurance company.

STEAMER STRIKES A ROCK.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 2.—A message to the customs officials here announces that the Norwegian steamer Blaamanden, Captain Amundsen, struck on White Point ledge, off Canso, in a dense fog today. No details were made known by the customs officers, aside from the statement that the steamer has a big cargo and a number of passengers. The customs department at Ottawa has been advised of the accident and has ordered officers to the scene, which is about four miles from Canso.

COUNTY FREE FROM IT.

"Allen county, outside the city of Fort Wayne, is free from smallpox," said the health officer, Dr. Carl Proegler, this morning. "Inside the city we are not quite so fortunate." The physician in attendance upon August Nagel, the Hanna street patient who has been critically ill with the disease, stated today that his patient was progressing nicely toward recovery, and is now able to sit up a portion of the time.

PREPARE FOR CORONATION

LONDON SEES RENEWAL OF ACTIVITIES.

Street Decorations are Being Replaced for the Royal Event One Week from Today.

London, Aug. 2.—New preparations for the coronation of King Edward next Saturday are proceeding rather mechanically. The erection of the familiar street barriers, the cleansing and decorating of the stands and the rehanging of decorations attract slight attention. Public interest in the actual proceedings, however, is rekindled by official assurance that the king is going on finely and that his majesty will be able to bear the fatigue of being crowned. The publication of the original arrangement, but the ceremonies in Westminster Abbey have been curtailed by the omission of the litany and sermon and by the recital of the recognition once instead of four times. A new series of rehearsals have begun at the abbey, with dignified movements and recitals, and these are far more impressive than anything connected with the street spectacle.

The city council of Westminster, in compliance with the king's wishes, have voted that no further expenditures be incurred in replacing the street decorations. The clubhouses which line a considerable portion of the route and most of the other buildings are being redecorated; the Canadian arch is being redressed with fresh specimens of Canada's agricultural products, and the Indian contingent is erecting an arch on Parliament street. The illuminations on coronation night will be largely as originally planned. The vicinity of the Bank of England, the Royal Exchange and the mansion house will be a blaze of electric lights, and the Strand, Trafalgar square, Whitehall, Pall Mall, St. James' square and Piccadilly will be gorgeous with illuminations, many of which will be displayed on Kitchener night, August 6, also.

This response was received within four hours after it was mailed and is reproduced simply as an indication of how the merchants are taking hold of the matter. It is believed that the industrial parade on the first day will be the greatest affair of its kind ever witnessed in Fort Wayne. The association has already engaged four bands for that day, to participate in the parade and as many more will be secured if they are required.

Tuesday has been set aside for the children. All children under the age of 12 will be admitted to the front gate of the enclosure absolutely free of charge. Special attractions suited especially for their appreciation will be provided and nothing will be left undone looking to the comfort and enjoyment of the little ones. For the paid shows a special rate will be made, cutting the price of admission exactly in half. Some days before a notice will be published notifying the children where to assemble and at about 12:30 a procession headed by and interspersed with several bands will start for the festival grounds. Policemen will be stationed at the street and railroad crossings so that their march will be uninterrupted and unattended by danger. Children too small to participate in the parade will be taken care of just the same and their comfort will be looked after by attaches of the exhibition.

LOCAL LINES.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grier, of Organ avenue—a daughter. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Clark, of 445 East Creighton avenue—a son. A new case of scarlet fever was reported from 1916 Johns street this morning.

Fred Albrecht, formerly of this city, is seriously ill from pneumonia at a hospital in Denver, Col.

W. E. Doud, of this city, has been named as the Twelfth district member of the Indiana Lincoln league organization committee.

A huge panther is at large in the woods near South Bend and has been seen by several farmers. The animal has killed two calves.

Bert Secord, who has been employed in the state insane asylum at Pueblo, Col., has returned home and has taken a position at the I. S. F. M. Y.

The Misses Gwen and Gertrude Traxler, Lucile Hench and Nellie Fisher spent Sunday in Shirley City, as the guests of Hon. Robert Shirley and family.

Civil service examinations will be held in this city August 25, 26 and 27 for applicants for positions as assistant examiner in the patent office, and for cadet in the revenue cutter service.

The pocketbook lost by Mrs. Dafforn, of Pleasant township, was found by William Dalman and returned to the owner. The purse contained $130 in gold and $250 in currency and notes.

John W. Woods and Miss Nora Teeple, of Geneva, eloped to Bryant Thursday night and were married by Rev. Aaron Worth. There was parental objection on account of the bride's age. Geneva and Portland police had been requested to intercept the lovers and they were stopped as they drove into Portland. It was too late; the marriage ceremony had already been performed.

PREPARING FOR CARNIVAL

HEADQUARTERS NOW A VERY BUSY PLACE.

The Program for the Week Promises to Be the Best Ever Given in This City.

Secretary Monning, of the Fall Festival association, together with Mr. Sargent, who represents the Gaskill-Mundy Carnival company, are the busiest two men to be found in Fort Wayne these days. Their quarters at rooms 1 and 2 in the Arcade building are like the far-famed hive of industry told about by Solomon or somebody. Typewriters, stenographers, messenger boys and willing and volunteer committeemen manage to keep the place going from morning to night. It is a big job to arrange for such a stupendous affair as will be given here during the week of August 25th, but at the rate things are progressing, there is no danger of disappointment or failure in any regard. Much of the detail work is lightened by the fact that the general entertainment was provided for in a bunch, when the Festival association engaged the Gaskill-Mundy Carnival company to give all the special attractions and insisted in the contract on having Mr. Sargent remain here to manage the production of the entertainments and give the association the benefit of his experience in arranging for the week of amusement. The gentlemen were very busy today, but found time to outline the following general program for the week commencing promptly at sunrise or before on Monday, August 25:

Monday has been designated as Merchants' and Manufacturers' day. This will be the inaugural day of the festival and it will be one of the most noteworthy of the week. It is the aim of the association to have no particularly "big day," but to make them all big days. On the first day the inaugural and general parade will be held. On this event the management has been busy and every merchant and manufacturer in the city has been solicited to turn out something for the parade. Invitations have been sent to nearly all, and those who have been missed will be reached later—because it is the purpose of the association to reach all. The first response to the invitation was received yesterday and read as follows:

"Fort Wayne, Ind.—To the Secretary of the Fall Festival association. Dear Sir: We shall be in the procession with our float and with our colors flying. Yours truly, 'A. W. Golden.'"

This response was received within four hours after it was mailed and is reproduced simply as an indication of how the merchants are taking hold of the matter. It is believed that the industrial parade on the first day will be the greatest affair of its kind ever witnessed in Fort Wayne. The association has already engaged four bands for that day, to participate in the parade and as many more will be secured if they are required.

Tuesday has been set aside for the children. All children under the age of 12 will be admitted to the front gate of the enclosure absolutely free of charge. Special attractions suited especially for their appreciation will be provided and nothing will be left undone looking to the comfort and enjoyment of the little ones. For the paid shows a special rate will be made, cutting the price of admission exactly in half. Some days before a notice will be published notifying the children where to assemble and at about 12:30 a procession headed by and interspersed with several bands will start for the festival grounds. Policemen will be stationed at the street and railroad crossings so that their march will be uninterrupted and unattended by danger. Children too small to participate in the parade will be taken care of just the same and their comfort will be looked after by attaches of the exhibition.

Wednesday will be farmers' day. Farmers' day has for a number of years been a day of some sort in Fort Wayne. There has scarcely been a summer that there has not been a "farmers' day" of some description. This idea will be followed by the festival association, and as on the other days, special attractions appropriate to the occasion will be provided. This will apply more particularly to the down town free attractions. They will be seen on almost every corner in the down town district. The program for these attractions will be made later, but they will be plentiful. They will not be continuous, because the average farmer wants a little time to do some trading when he comes to the city and he will be given the opportunity to do it without losing sight of any of the attractions. As an incentive for the farmer to come to town and see what his neighbor has been doing, the Fall Festival association has concluded to offer a singular prize. Ten dollars in gold will be given to the one bringing with him the biggest and best stalk of corn, and this competition is open to all farmers within a radius of fifty miles of Fort Wayne. The award will be made at the festival grounds at 1:30 on Wednesday, and the judges will be selected by the competitors themselves.

Thursday has been set aside as Fort Wayne day. Of course, every day will be Fort Wayne day, but this particular day will be more than that. Aside from extra street features, lasting all day, with plenty of music distributed around, there will be a gorgeous display of fireworks in the evening. The special committee appointed to prepare the program for this day has not yet made its report, but something out of the usual order is promised. With it all a request will be sent to the various manufacturers and shops to give employees the privilege of taking a half holiday in the afternoon.

Friday is Indiana day. The arrangements for Friday have not yet been completed and until they are no specific announcement will be made. The association is in correspondence with Governor Durbin to be present on that day with his full staff, and if the negotiations go through other prominent state dignitaries have agreed to come. There will be a military and civic parade and other big doings. The railroad companies have agreed to extend the excursion rates on that day to include all points within 150 miles of Fort Wayne.

Saturday will be labor day. Just two days later will come the genuine "Labor day," the one recognized everywhere as a holiday, and by making Saturday labor day at the festival there will be a continuous holiday from Saturday noon to Tuesday morning. Special invitations will be sent to the various trades unions in the city inviting them to help to make Saturday the banner day of the week, and committees will be solicited to assist in arranging a special program of free attractions down town for the afternoon and evening.

The above gives a general outline of the magnitude of the program for the week and each detail will be carried out to the last particular. As the minor points of the big affair are developed the public will be kept advised through the press of Fort Wayne.

SUICIDE FOLLOWS MURDER

SALT LAKE CITY MINING MAN SLAYS A WOMAN.

Dangerously Wounds Her Companion, Then Takes His Own Life—They Taunted Him.

Salt Lake, Utah, Aug. 2.—At the Salt Palace grounds early this morning J. C. McCaslin, a well known mining man of this city, shot and killed Lottie Russell, dangerously wounded Max Peters and then committed suicide by shooting himself through the head.

McCaslin, Miss Russell, Peters and another man whose name has not been learned, formed a party which attended the bicycle races. It is said that McCaslin had had trouble with his wife and had been drinking. Peters and Miss Russell are reported to have taunted him about his domestic troubles, whereupon he became enraged, drew a revolver and shot Miss Russell, who had started to run, through the back. Peters, who attempted to keep McCaslin from shooting the girl, was shot through the chest. McCaslin, after firing a shot at the other member of the party, placed the revolver to his right temple and fired a bullet through his head. He died an hour later. Peters is in a precarious condition, but it is thought he will recover.

Miss Russell was a waitress and recently came here from San Francisco.

SAW ELOPERS AT WOODBURN.

Berne, Ind., Aug. 4.—Fred Lohrer, of this place, is in receipt of a letter from Woodburn which states that Oliver Reynolds and Miss Julia Loser, who recently eloped from Decatur, drove up to the home of William Wetter, near Woodburn, and stopped there. The letter states that Mr. Wetter was not at home at the time the two arrived, but came to the house a short time later, and on seeing Reynolds, addressed him by name. At this Reynolds and Miss Loser whipped up the team of horses they were driving and started on a run toward the state line. The letter does not tell on what day this happened, but the reason they stopped was to secure something to eat. No further details are given, but it is the general opinion here that the couple were on their way to Decatur, where Reynolds' brother lives, and that they were driving part of the distance in order that they could not be easily traced.

A new case of scarlet fever was reported today from No. 1508 Walton avenue.

NEWSBOYS' FIELD SPORTS

FIRST ANNUAL MEET AT DRIVING PARK FRIDAY.

A. Smart and D. Martin Win the All-Around Prizes in A and B Classes Respectively.

The first annual field meet of the Newsboys' union was held at the Driving park Friday afternoon, and while the audience was not large, it was enthusiastic. A. Smart won the all-around in class A, with 33 points, Bolman being second with 25 points and Martin third with 17 points. In class B, D. Martin won the all-around, with 26 points; Krone was second, with 22 points, and Pauken was third, with 6 points. The results were as follows:

CLASS A.

50-yard dash—Smart, first; Stadler, second; A. Krone, third. Time, 7½ seconds.

LOCAL LINES.

Jarius Tilburg and brother, Nathan, of the Marion soldiers' home, left today for the north on a fishing expedition. Nathan Tilburg came here from Marion to attend a family reunion.

Judge S. M. Hench has just returned from a business visit to parts of southwestern Texas. The judge was much fatigued on his arrival here, having spent the entire time since Tuesday morning making the return journey. The floods in Texas greatly delayed trains and added numerous inconveniences to the trip.

Four entries have already been secured for the automobile race to be given in Huntington Saturday, August 16 in connection with the Caledonian field sports. Messrs. A. L. Randall, Harry Meyer and A. C. Alter, of this city, and Dr. White, of Laud, Ind., will contest, and it is expected that some of Huntington's automobilists will take part.

Matt Humphrey, a well known character about town, demented but harmless, was picked up by the police and taken to the police station for detention. Since the death of Mrs. O'Leary, his foster mother, several weeks ago, Matt has been a forlorn wanderer and is gradually becoming a nuisance. There is no place to detain him unless he be made a county charge, and in the event of being sent to the poor farm he would have to be locked up. There is some provision made for his support and the Fort Wayne Trust company is supposed to be his guardian. Superintendent Gorsline has reported his condition to the trust company, requesting that some provision be made for his care and for his retirement from the street.

Can it be—yet it cannot be—that Colonel Watterson has hung his blunderbuss over the fireplace and taken to the mint patch?

The democracy of North Dakota has hurled the embarrassment of a platform declaration by reaffirming all the platforms ever adopted by the democratic party. That should satisfy all factions.

Lord Kitchener believes that with the right kind of government South Africa may in good time be developed into a second America. Quite likely. John Bull can have the loan of J. P. Morgan any time he needs his services.

Mr. Tracy finds time hanging heavy on his hands and wants to rob a bank or hold up a train. What a painful reflection is this upon the officers who have been giving the bandit chase and comforting themselves that the fugitive was having a fairly lively time of it keeping ahead.

May Yohe who has pursued Captain Bradley Strong across the briny deep, now says she is willing to forgive and marry him. Again? Oh has Frau Strong merely been fooling herself as of yore? Meanwhile the captain proves hard to find and the suspicion gains ground that at last he is really on the run from the recent Lady Hope.

The grand jury at Chicago has evidently unearthed a new and rather startling phase of industrial warfare. A number of men belonging to a union now on strike have been indicted on testimony which is said to show that they employed a number of thugs at good prices to commit assault and battery on non-union workmen who had taken places of men on strike. The scale of prices, according to the grand jury report, is unique. It was a kind of sliding scale, based on the length of time the assaulted parties were disabled for work and ranged from about $5 up to $30. There is no record of the price paid for those permanently crippled nor of the price paid for those whose business subsequently to the assault was chiefly with the undertaker.

While there has been quite general public approval of the president's action in dealing with Gen. Jacob H. Smith, who issued the order to make Samar a howling wilderness and to slay all males "over ten years of age," there will be no little sympathy aroused for this officer who returns from the Philippines to find he has been retired in disgrace from active service. General Smith has spent his life since his youth in the service of his country. His career was distinguished and honorable up to the time he uttered the now famous "kill and burn" order. He is sixty-two years old, and broken in health by his service in the tropics and returns to his native land to be retired from the army with a dark cloud upon his name. Without condoning the barbarity of the order he gave his subordinates in Samar, we can at least pity the distress of this man, who was a brave fighter and a skillful officer.

There is a vein of humor in the application of the Chesapeake and Ohio Coal agency for an order to restrain the striking miners from engaging in unlawful conspiracies. Of course any conspiracy by miners or any others to interfere with the business of the complainant corporation is unlawful. The humor of the situation lies in the fact that it is a coal combination that seeks protection from a criminal conspiracy. It is well known that no coalition of coal mining interests has ever conspired to do unlawful acts. None has ever arbitrarily fixed the price of coal. None has ever sought to boost the price beyond the point of reasonable profit. None has ever sought to beat down wages of its overpaid and overfed miners. They are in business for the public welfare and any interference with their methods is worse than lawlessness. Some time, let it be hoped, there will be an administration and an attorney general and federal judges that will look upon all "unlawful conspiracies" from a common view point—upon conspiracies for the control of necessities (including coal) and the restraint of trade as well as upon associations of working men striving for decent conditions of toil and enough to live upon.

Mr. Bryan agrees with Kaiser William that J. Pierpont Morgan is a very dangerous citizen, but that has not surprised Pierp into letting go of anything large enough to get hold of.

The disorder at Shenandoah has subsided and the probability is that those strikers who took part in the riots are sorry enough. But the troops are there and there is not much likelihood that they will be removed until the strike is ended.

The chief trouble with Tracyism is that it encourages too many practitioners. Many cheap and probably at heart cowardly scoundrels find it easy to impose on the fears of people by proclaiming themselves the Oregon bandit. Assuming Tracy's name without Tracy's finesse and exquisite pistol practice will be likely to bring a few of the cheap imitators of the daring outlaw shortly to grass.

The conduct of the strikers ought not to be regulated one way or the other by General Gobin's severe order to the troops to shoot to kill when the militia camp is attacked by midnight marauders. The aim of the strikers should be to keep the peace for the sake of law and order. Violence and lawlessness by strikers is the beginning of the end of a strike.

The Michigan democrats have nominated for governor a man who has been a declared "gold-bug," though not a bolter in either of the last two national campaigns. The platform practically ignores national issues, which in Michigan, as in Pennsylvania, is a pretty sensible thing for a democratic convention to do in an "off year." That is not to say that Michigan is in any respect as badly off as Pennsylvania in the matter of state administration, but it is sufficiently under corporate domination and has had enough corruption to make a change desirable.

The foot-race swindle is older and almost as common as the gold-brick fraud, and the man nowadays who is not familiar with the method of it is benighted, indeed. It seems, however, that a little band of conspirators down in Springfield, Ill., has been beating the bull cliques of the Chicago grain pits at rapid money-making, having its lines with baited hooks stretched from the Illinois capital to the heart of Hoosierdom and the far confines of Iowa. It was an Indiana man who, after having his pockets dredged of about $5,000, saw the breaking of a great light and had inward convictions that he was "up against it." Arrests have followed and suckers with their wounds from the gaff yet bleeding have floundered up from various places of obscurity to tell what they know of the game and what the knowledge cost them.

Doubtless the striking coal miners in Pennsylvania could have engaged in no performance so pleasing to the mine operators as the violent indulgences at Shenandoah. The state troops are on the ground now, and there is nothing to prevent operation of the mines if miners can be got, and that probably will not prove specially difficult. It is the history of all great strikes that violence has been the most potent factor in the defeat of the strikers. Violence always wrests away from an industrial cause every substantial moral support, alienates the powerful element of public sympathy and brings the strikers face to face not with obdurate employers, but the law and its strong arm—constabulary and troops. Troops broke the Homestead strike and again the great mine strike of five years ago. If the outbreak at Shenandoah is a sample of what the strikers expect to do in the anthracite field, troops will soon put an end to the present strike. Last night's violence was a piece of fatal blundering that is appreciated and feared by none so much as by the officers and leaders of the miners' organization.

Now let the board of works and the traction company put the agreements between the council and traction company into a contract, sign it, send it to the council for approval and have an end of this long drawn out street railway dispute.

The most disquieting rumor to come across the water, since the announcement of King Edward's dangerous illness is to the effect that Richard Croker contemplates disposing of his English property and returning to New York.

The British consul at Manila has expressed an opinion upon the Gen. Jake Smith case and it reflects on the judgment of the president and secretary of war. But there is no way to get at him, save by the devious paths of diplomacy, great is the pity.

Use of the writ of injunction to "bust" a corner in grain is a new phase of the possibilities of that convenient legal instrument. Hereafter speculators who want to "welch" on contracts will not pray on their knees to the man who has the corner to show them mercy. They can pray standing up in court to a judge.

We have the Illinois, the finest battleship of the American navy, on the other side of the water to show off and the Machias, a dingy sort of gunboat, down at Cape Haytien, where a good stout warship just at present seems to be somewhat needed. A decent display of force in the neighborhood of Hayti might have a salutary effect.

A puma, or mountain lion, escaped from its cage at Bronx, one of the Long Island annexes of Greater New York, and is wandering around loose and unprotected. Such an ignorant, unsophisticated puma ought to know that on that same island the greatest of all the mighty hunters has his abode. Long Island is not small, but it is not large enough for a mountain lion and Teddy, the lion-hunter.

Senator Tom Platt has assured President Roosevelt that he shall have the solid New York delegation in the next republican convention without even the asking. As a sign of harmony this must be very comforting to the man at Sagamore Hill, but it has about as much solid import as though the "easy boss" had assured the president of his breakfast. Getting the New York delegation is probably the least of the president's troubles.

William C. Whitney declares he is out of politics and says "the trouble is the democrats have no issue and no man." Upon which it must be concluded Mr. Whitney regards things in general as going quite in the way they should go. Perhaps Mr. Whitney could find a man by beating up the bush in the vicinity of Princeton, N. J.—a man who likewise would be the issue. Mr. Whitney has accomplished things in politics before now and the present situation surely ought not to provoke him to sniff disdainfully.

The new Balfour government has received a sudden and wholly unexpected jolt, and there is considerable dismay in ministerial circles of Great Britain. The first bye election since the new ministry took the reins has resulted in the return of a liberal. North Leeds elects him by a majority that is a complete turnover. Of course this is the cause of immense disturbance of mind to the government, for it may be a forecast of a general disaffection of British sentiment from the party in power. The Boer war is ended, but the burdens it imposed remain, and the feelings which national sentiment have kept suppressed may now be given expression without any accompanying taint of disloyalty to a ministry prosecuting a war. There has been a revival of liberal activity and it may be that the Balfour ministry, which entered office with promise of a long and uninterrupted regime, will be but short-lived after all.

Discussing the platform of the Michigan democracy the Indianapolis Journal figures out that the Wolverine democrats have decided to make their campaign on state issues because of fear to make a fight on national issues, assuming that they dare not give prominence to imperialism, the trusts, tariff reduction or the general question of democratic harmony. In the same connection the Journal says the republicans of Indiana would be delighted to make the campaign in this state on state issues. The reasoning is not clear. Does the Journal mean it to be understood that the national issues, which it thinks make the republican party strong in Michigan, were better abandoned for state issues by the republican party in Indiana?

It is reported that King Edward is both anxious and determined to have his coronation at the end of this week to upset the superstitions and confound the superstitious. If the king manages to give a black eye to lugubrious prophecy he will be doing something worthy the ambition even of a king.

On the occasion of the presentation to him of a cane by a number of his employees, Senator Hanna took opportunity to repeat that the ambition of his life is to bring capital and labor into harmonious relations. Senator Hanna may have observed that about one hundred and fifty thousand anthracite miners are on strike and that the anthracite coal combine utterly refused to give them a hearing and pugnaciously declined to submit to arbitration. A man of Senator Hanna's prominence and influence whose consuming ambition is to put an end to industrial warfare should be able to find use for his steam in the present anthracite situation.

There is no doubt that the interests of Fort Wayne would be better served by construction of interurban electric lines from this city through those sections and to those towns and cities that are now without direct rail connection with Fort Wayne. For instance, the line projected through Maysville to Hicksville and on to Toledo would bring in direct contact with this city a very large, populous, productive and wealthy agricultural area that is now out of touch with us. We get some of the trade of that region, but an electric line would give us practically all of it. The same may be said with more force of the line projected between this city and Goshen. While this project has received much attention and a survey we believe is now actually under way, there does not appear to be much confidence that the line will be built. We would like to see Fort Wayne capitalists aggressively interested in these two projects. They mean more to this city than any other interurban lines that have as yet been promoted here.

There is prospect of mild dissension in the Catholic church in this country over the friar question in the Philippines. Archbishop Ireland reinforces his former utterances on this issue with a sermon in which he repeats and insists that the disposition of the issue may be safely left to the pope. He counsels Catholics to rely on the justice of the United States. On the other hand there is a very large element in the church in America that is wholly dissatisfied with the tendency of the American negotiations. This element is considering the question with considerable earnestness, not to say aggressiveness. So far as there has been any popular expression of sentiment on the question it is made fairly clear that the larger body of the Catholic church membership in the country is not satisfied with the course of the government. It is probable, however, that before negotiations are concluded and the question disposed of it will be found that the agreements are less objectionable than now seems the case.

The state statistician says the grain crops in Indiana this year will exceed in amount the crops of any previous year. That is the prospect at present with respect to corn and the wheat crop has certainly been most satisfactory. Statistician Johnson repeats his earlier estimate that the wheat yield of Indiana this year will be 40,000,000 bushels. This is a big yield, certainly, but does not equal the yield of each of three other years easily within memory. In 1889 it was 41,187,000 bushels, in 1891 it was 52,807,000 bushels and in 1894 it was 43,644,064 bushels. The corn crop, however, now promises an immense yield, probably the largest in the history of the state. The season has been most propitious for corn, save in the northwest portion of the state, where the land is low and flat and excessive rains have drowned the crop. At all events, the season has been one of prosperity for the farmers of the state, with not only fine yields in all grain crops, but good prices for the grain. All business will feel the good effect of it.

PERPLEXED BY MANY PLANS

PREPARATIONS FOR VENETIAN NIGHT CARNIVAL.

Rome City Cottagers Contribute a Wealth of Weird Suggestions to the Committees.

Rome City, Ind., Aug. 5.—Cottagers here are already active in the preparations for the annual fairy display known as Venetian night, to be given August 19, and when not oblivious in sleep or engrossed in prayer (not to mention Pedro, soot or keno), their heads are beehives of original and unique conceptions of illuminations, music and fiery aquatic parades.

It is impossible for the public to comprehend how much fretting, hurry, bustle and nonsense must be overcome each year before the festival can arise from a chaos of confused notions into a beautiful reality. Thus far the only definite action taken has been the selection of an admiral, and while all are "admirably" pleased at the selection of Jones, there was some friction on the subject, as a number of cottagers imagined that Jim Harper would lack superb in gold braid, while others thought that Captain Rohan, on account of his services in the war, knew better how to sport an admiral's hat; and still others imagined they detected epaulettes sprouting from the shoulders of E. M. Wilson.

Then come the committees. Fireworks—Fox is said to favor anything that will hiss, scream and explode, while McKay and Witt, in their modesty, are afraid that too much noise will alarm the denizens of Wolcottville.

Music—Landenberger is said to favor marching the band continuously over a tan-bark walk, playing, "Leaf by Leaf the Roses Fall," and nothing else. Curdes insists upon twenty-one trumpets to accompany the male quartet, "When the Trumpet Sounds and the Bullets Fly," but the band cannot scare up more than sixteen trumpets in the congressional district. Mohr, in his serious way, is undecided between Beethoven's funeral march and a batch of ragtime.

Decorations—Charlie Orr is said to favor dimity and muslin; Wing, who is decidedly fly, wants silk and satin, and Henry sticks for plain bunting and plenty of red fire.

Program—Ed France is supposed to favor parading in close view of the visitors, so as to enable all to see the various craft illuminations; Dreier is satisfied with anything that will please everybody, and Kenneth Larwill will join in any scheme that will give the Narrows a chance to show up.

Press—John Hayden is quoted as objecting to Mr. Wing chaining the press gang to a basket of champagne on top of the Wigwam water tower and fining them ten cents for each attempt to escape.

As to the general features, the ideas are numerous and striking. The idea, said to have been donated by Charlie Bond, of a mammoth fire balloon bearing an illuminated Rome City cottage through the clouds to heaven, under the guidance of Conductor Brokaw, is very striking and is popular upon the up-and-down smoking car. Another scheme is to float a great raft manned by ladies in costume representing the nations of the earth, the ladies to be selected by raffle from Allen and Noble counties at one cent per chance; fireworks and music to provide continuous excitement, and soda water and ice cream aboard for continuous nourishment. (Idea said to have been tossed in by Ronald Dawson.)

Pat McDonald is supposed to have been evolving the brilliant idea of sending up his friend, Will Breen, in a parachute balloon, and as the eminent barrister descends, clutching the ropes and comfortably seated on the horizontal bar, he is to recite to the up-gazing multitude the inspiring lines of Spenser's "Fairie Queen." It is superfluous to mention that Mr. Breen has not yet signified his intention of performing this feat.

By far the most popular idea is Mr. Fox's scheme to span the lake from Spring Beach to Peters' by a colossal and resplendent rainbow in fireworks. This is one of the most beautiful conceptions yet heard of, and yet it has its opponents. Herman Michael is said to regard it as too expensive; John Peters doubts that his island is of sufficient area to support the abutment. The color of the arch has aroused some national feeling. Pat McDonald wants it all green; John Suelzer, red, and Dan Bash, red, white and blue.

Even the duration of the spectacle has stirred up conflict. It is designed to blaze for an hour and a half, but Gilmartin insists that sixty-eight

GONE WITH CHILD

JANSEN OFFSPRING CANNOT BE FOUND.

ORDER OF COURT DISOBEYED

A NEW PHASE TO THE FAMOUS JANSEN-KROCK SUIT.

GRANDFATHER IN CONTEMPT

GENERAL NEWS GATHERED IN THE COURT HOUSE.

Mary Krock, late Mrs. Jansen, mother of Estella Jansen, a six-year-old girl who has been the object of sensational contention in the courts here, is believed to have taken her child and fled from the jurisdiction of Indiana courts. Out of this has grown a contempt case in the superior court for violation of Judge Aiken's order relating to custody of the little one.

This morning Judge Aiken issued an order, returnable forthwith, against Mary Krock, mother of the child; John Krock, Mary Krock's father, and others, to come into court and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt. Readers of The Sentinel are familiar with the salient features of this case.

Mary Krock married a man named Jansen and bore him a child, now about six years of age. Last year the mother secured a divorce in an Ohio court and was awarded the custody of the child, which meantime had been living with her grandmother, Elizabeth Jansen, of this city. When the mother called for the child its delivery was refused and then the mother commenced habeas corpus proceedings. The court awarded her temporary custody of the little one, who refused to accompany her mother and fought vigorously in the court room, in the court house and on the street. It was set up that the mother was of immoral character and not fit person to have custody of the little girl, and on a second hearing Judge Aiken remanded the child to the custody of her mother and grandfather, the latter John Krock, until August 1, when it was to be delivered to the custody of St. Vincent's Catholic orphan's home to remain until final disposition of the case was made, which disposition was to be contingent upon an investigation of the mother's fitness to control and rear her offspring. When the last order of the court was sought to be enforced it was found that both the mother and the child were missing. This statement of facts was presented to the court this morning, whereupon the contempt order was issued and Mr. Krock, sr., will probably be brought in this afternoon.

The sheriff's return made this afternoon indicates that the defendant, John Krock, is necessarily out of the city and will not return until tonight or tomorrow night. Judge Aiken thereupon continued the answer to the writ until August 15.

MUCH BUSINESS DISPOSED OF. Judge Aiken, who has been up at Lake George for a week or two trying to keep the fish from trampling down the grass in his front yard, returned to the city last evening and this morning sat in the superior court room and disposed of quite a miscellaneous grind of business. There were many motions and consequent rulings, answers to complaints, paragraphs and demurrers and not a few cases were actually disposed of.

In the case of Josephine Boehm vs. Barnett M. Boehm, a decree of divorce was granted to the plaintiff. The complaint alleged continued cruelty and habitual drunkenness. The parties had been married nearly thirty years and live in the Eighth ward.

Martha Duber was granted a divorce from Albert Duber. The divorce was by publication and was uncontested, the plaintiff showing that she had been abandoned for a period exceeding five years, during which the husband had not contributed to her support.

In the civil suit of John Poinsett vs. Julius J. Eme et al. on notes a judgment was rendered for the plaintiff in the sum of $343.42. The principal defendant is now in the penitentiary and in consequent the sureties are held for the amount of the judgment.

In the action of Catherine Fox vs. Samuel Musser et al. judgment was for the plaintiff to quiet title and cancel old mortgages on the property in dispute.

In the action of the Old National bank vs. Fred W. Sihler, the commissioner, S. L. Morris, appointed to sell certain stocks belonging to the defendant, today submitted his report. He reported that he had sold the stocks in litigation for the sum of $3,008, which report was accepted and the commissioner was discharged.

ANOTHER CONTEMPT CASE. Wallace W. Huntsman is also up against a contempt case. Last year he sued his wife, Susannah Huntsman, for divorce, but the defendant was granted the decree on her cross-complaint, together with $5 per month alimony for the support of their child, the custody of which was also awarded to her. A complaint sets out that Huntsman, who is in the bicycle business in this city, has failed to comply with the order and has not paid any money since last December. The court ordered him brought up forthwith to show cause why he should not be punished for failing to comply with the order of the court.

Judge Aiken will be in town today and tomorrow, but will adjourn his court this evening. He will return next week and will hold court Aug. 14, 15 and 16 to dispose of some matters which have been set for trial and others which will be arranged for trial on those dates.

The will of the late Elizabeth Pardo was filed today for probate. The testator devises all her property to her husband and to children by a former marriage.

The county commissioners were in session this morning transacting miscellaneous business, of which there was considerable, and tomorrow will devote themselves to the consideration of bills.

William Dooley et al. filed a suit in partition against J. Donahue, Patrick Twoomey, Cornelius Gearin and John A. Bushman were appointed commissioners to sell the real estate.

MEN WHO WILL BUILD IT.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 4.—(Special.)—The Ohio and Indiana Construction company, of Fort Wayne, was incorporated this morning with a capital stock of $600,000, to build and equip street railways. The directors are Henry C. Paul and Stephen B. Fleming, of Fort Wayne; Lemmon G. Neely, of St. Mary's, O.; S. T. Murdock, of Lafayette, and J. W. VanDyke, of Lima, O. The company's first work will be the construction of an interurban line eastward from Fort Wayne.

ADDITIONS TO BE BUILT

"COLONIA" AT THE I. S. F. M. Y. TO BE ENLARGED.

Two Wings to be Added to the Building and Engine House Will be Erected.

Two wings will be added to "Colonia," one of the I. S. F. M. Y. buildings, and an engine house to furnish steam heat for the big structure will be erected this year out of the $35,000 appropriated by the state legislature for new buildings at the last session. Fifteen thousand dollars of that sum has been expended in the erection of a building for women of child-bearing age, and the structure is about ready for occupation.

"Colonia" is situated on the state farm about a mile and a half north of the main buildings and several hundred of the children of the higher grade are domiciled there. The east wing will be of brick, two stories in height and will contain dormitories, day rooms and lavatories. The other addition will be built on the north side of "Colonia" and will contain dining room and sculleries.

An engine room will be built about a hundred feet in the rear of "Colonia," and will contain two large boilers. It will have a smoke stack fifty feet in height. The brick for the three buildings will be made at the institute brick yard. The additions will have accommodations for more than 100 extra children.

Contractor B. Borkenstein has completed the new building for feeble minded adult women, and the finishing touches are being put on the interior. It will be ready for occupation in about two weeks. The plans for the buildings are being made by Architect J. M. E. Riedel and bids for their erection will be received in about thirty days. Building operations will begin as soon as possible, and it is expected that the structures will be ready for occupation by December. The appropriation is available November 1st.

COMPANY HAS INCORPORATED.

At the office of Attorney Joseph M. Haley today articles of incorporation of the Superior Manufacturing company were signed up. The capital stock is $10,000 and the directors are Bernard Hedekin, Morton B. Tyger and Joseph M. Haley. The company started in business some time ago in quarters over the Powers laundry, at Main street and Maiden Lane, and are manufacturers of ladies' skirts, suits, jackets and shirt waists. The business has already passed the experimental stage and the demand for the goods has exceeded all expectations. With the incorporation is to come material additions to the factory, and altogether the outlook for the Superior is most encouraging.

IRELAND GIVES A WARNING

ARCHBISHOP PREACHES SERMON ON FRIAR ISSUE.

Catholics Told to Rely on Justice of United States—He Has Faith in Pope's Judgment.

St. Paul, Aug. 4.—Archbishop Ireland, preaching yesterday morning in the Cathedral, said:

"The Apostle Paul gives this counsel: 'Not to be more wise than it behooveth to be wise, but to be wise unto sobriety, and according as God hath divided to every one the measure of faith.' In the mind of the apostle things most excellent, if made use of in undue measure and without proper regard to circumstances of time and place, change into things perilous and hurtful. And this is undoubtedly what is happening in the case of the fiery zeal in defense of Catholic interests which seems to be coveting an explosion at the present time among certain classes of American Catholics. The interests of the church, it is said, are made to suffer at the hands of the government in its newly acquired dependencies, and the call to arms is sounded from the rostrums of Catholic societies and through the columns of Catholic papers, to the perturbation of the whole Catholic body, and, indeed, of the whole country.

TIME TO BE WISE.

"The moment has come to say to Catholics: Be wise, be zealous, unto sobriety, and according as God hath divided to every one the measure of faith, and such is the counsel I take the liberty to give to my hearers. Who are they who complain and protest and call upon Catholics to be up and doing? Are they those who might claim to represent the church in its general or even local interests? Bishop Blonck, of Porto Rico, openly rejoices that the American flag rather than the Spanish guards his diocese, and the hierarchy in Cuba are thanking God that church interests there were settled by the government of Washington before a Cuban parliament was allowed to sit down in Havana.

URGED TO CAUTION.

"Most cautious at all times must Catholics in America be not to stir up latent prejudice and smoldering animosities, of which, as experience teaches, there is no small share here and there in the community, and which but little provocation is needed to fan into fire and flame. Better often it is to endure some suffering than to give a pretext for opposition and social turmoil. Nothing is to be more dreaded in America than hatred and warring among citizens in the name of religion, and it behooves all classes to do their utmost to nurture and maintain peace and harmony; it behooves Catholics even more than others to be models of prudence and good will in this regard. The simplest approach among them to form a political party on the basis of religious interests would be fatal to those interests and fatal to public peace.

AMERICA IS JUST.

"Nor is public agitation necessary in America to redress grievances. Let justice be done to America; in no other country is there a government so fair-minded, so impartial, so willing to treat all classes of citizens with absolute justice as that with which we are blessed in America.

"And let Catholics be careful lest by imprudent agitation and repeated mistrust of the government of America they instill into the minds of many of their fellow citizens the notion that as Catholics they are disposed to form themselves into a people apart. The Catholic body will never prosper in America unless it be thoroughly imbued with the spirit of the country and with deep love for its welfare.

NOT FOR LAYMEN.

"As to matters in the Philippine islands, we cannot discuss them. They are for the time being put beyond our reach, since they are the subject of negotiations between the government of America and the sovereign pontiff. To take at the present such matters into our hands would be to mistrust the wisdom and the good will of the sovereign pontiff; it would be to treat with discourteous ingratitude the administration in Washington, and this, as true Americans, Catholics will not permit themselves to do. The logic of the situation in presence of strange complications for church and state, arising from a change of sovereignty in the Philippine islands, pointed to a mutual conference between the head of the church and a representative of the state as the proper and dignified way to a final peaceful solution. Leo XIII. saw this; Theodore Roosevelt saw this. Leo took the initiative, proposed the conference; the president and his advisers accepted the proposal. What more could have been done by the administration to prove its good will and sense of justice?

"Some people are born to clamor. Be it so, but we shall insist that they clamor in their own name and not in the name of the church in America, and for our own part we shall hold our souls in peace, leaving church interests in the Philippines to one who understands them at least as well as we do, and who will be as wise in disposing of them as we could well hope to be—Leo XIII."

THE INDIANA GRAIN CROPS

YIELD WILL BE ONE OF THE LARGEST IN HISTORY.

State Statistician Says Yield of Wheat Will be 40,000,000 Bushels This Year.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 6.—The grain yield of Indiana will probably exceed the totals of all previous years. Reports gathered by the Indianapolis News from bank officials and reports to the state statistician agree in that conditions were never more favorable than now for bursting granaries and continued prosperity.

B. F. Johnson, state statistician, says: "Except in a few counties in the northwest part of the state, where the corn has been drowned, Indiana has never seen such a crop. Even with the damage in the northwest, the crop will be far in excess of last year's, when 147,800,000 bushels were harvested. Where previously the yields have been running 20 to 30 bushels an acre, reports now indicate 30 to 50 bushels.

"The oats crop will be immense if it is threshed in shape. The acreage seems to be slightly below that of last year, but the total yield is well above it, probably over 44,327,360 bushels. Last year the crop amounted to 41,944,771 bushels. The danger is that the farmers will try to thresh their oats wet. They should allow the grain to remain in shock until it is dry before threshing.

"There is nothing new to lead me to change my estimate of 40,000,000 bushels for the wheat crop. The crop last year was 33,000,000 bushels and the year before over 6,000,000 bushels. About 60 per cent. of the wheat north of Indianapolis is in the shock. It should be treated as the oats—allowed to dry in the shock before threshing."

ALLEN COUNTY.

Wheat: Threshing in this county shows 25 to 40 bushels to the acre or an average of not less than 23 bushels to the acre. The yield will be 25 per cent. greater than that of 1901.

Corn: The crop is the best ever known except on very low lands. The yield for the county will probably be from 45 to 50 bushels and 40 per cent. better than last year.

Oats: Definite information as to crop is not obtainable, on account of effect of recent rains. Much of the crop is down and the results are doubtful.

The outlook for the future is bright and fall trade will be unusually good. C. H. Worden, Vice President First National Bank, Fort Wayne, Ind.

WHITLEY COUNTY.

Wheat: The threshing in this county has averaged about 16 bushels to the acre, but wouldn't like to venture to estimate the total yield, but it will be about 10 per cent. less than last year's and of rather uneven quality.

Corn: Can not give the acreage of this grain in this county, but on the high land the crop is in good condition. Last year's crop was short of a full crop, so that this year's will be about 110 per cent., or 10 per cent. more than an average year's crop.

Oats: Quite as much oats planted as last year, and the crop will probably yield 40 bushels to the acre, about the same as last year. The growth was large, but it was badly lodged and tangled and hard to save. Fall trade in this state will be about the average volume. F. H. Foustin, Columbia City Bank, Columbia City, Ind.

DEKALB COUNTY.

Wheat: Threshing in this county shows an average of twenty-two bushels to the acre, so that the estimated yield will be 800,000 bushels in the county, or 130 per cent. greater than last year.

Corn: There are 60,000 acres of it in this county, 95 per cent. of which is in good condition. It is estimated that the yield will be forty bushels an acre, or 200 per cent. greater than last year.

Oats: The probable yield for each of the 40,000 acres of oats in this county will be 60 bushels, or 130 per cent. greater than last year. The prospects for fall trade in Indiana are very good. Albert Robbins, Cashier Farmers' Bank, Auburn.

NOBLE COUNTY.

Wheat: Threshing in this county reveals the fact that there is a fair yield, but of poor quality; less than last year.

Corn: The crop is in good condition, and will no doubt be 30 per cent. greater than the crop of 1901.

Oats: The acreage of this grain is larger than that of last year and the crop will no doubt be greater, probably yielding forty-five bushels to the acre.

STRIKE SITUATION

TROOPS GUARD THE PEACE AT SHENANDOAH.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 5.—There were many rumors flying around the regions today of trouble in the camp and various parts of the region. The only disturbance that occurred, however, was at Girardville, six miles from here, where a workman coming from the Girard washery, operated by W. R. McCurt & Co., was shot in the leg and slightly injured. The injured man is James Caparelli, an Italian. He had been engaged at work which had been forbidden by the union and had been warned several times to quit. This morning on his way home he was met on the road by half a dozen unknown men who began to beat him. Caparelli ran and as he did so one of the men fired at him. Some of the buckshot hit him in the leg. He managed to walk to a physician's office and after having the shot extracted from his leg, he walked to the Lehigh Valley railroad station and boarded a train for Hazleton. Burgess Jones is investigating the assault.

During the night several shots were heard in Shenandoah between brigade headquarters and camp. This gave rise to a rumor that the camp was again being attacked, but an official investigation proved the rumor to be untrue. The provost marshal is making a searching investigation as to who did the shooting.

The cavalry took another dash across the country today, for exercise, this time going in the direction of Frankville. The region generally remains quiet.

APPLIES THE INJUNCTION.

Kittanning, Pa., Aug. 5.—Judge W. D. Patton, of Armstrong county, has continued as permanent the preliminary injunction granted by Judge Wallace, of Lawrence county, on petition of J. G. Beale, republican candidate for congress in this district, against William Little and others, representing the United Mine Workers of America, and the Monongahela and Carnegie brass bands, restraining them from parading on the streets of Leechburg for the purpose of intimidating miners in the employ of M. G. & J. G. Beale. Judge Patton did not hand down an opinion in the matter, simply announcing his decision at the opening of court.

MINERS WOULD NOT WORK.

Pottsville, Pa., Aug. 5.—The attempt to start Good Spring colliery was abandoned by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Co. today. All the collieries remain tightly closed and the ranks of the strikers are unbroken. Company officials do not regard prospects favorable for an early resumption.

ADD MILLIONS TO VALUATIONS.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 5.—The state board of tax commissioners, after listening to the representatives of corporations for ten days, all of whom asked reductions in their assessments, yesterday announced that it had increased by $9,179,045 the valuations upon which steam and electric railroads, telephone, telegraph, express, pipe line and transportation companies must pay taxes.

The total taxable value of the property of this class of corporations doing business in Indiana is put down by the board as $192,487,656, against $183,308,611 last year. The interurban electric roads and the telephone companies show the greatest increase. Where increases in railroad valuations were made it was chiefly due to increased mileage.

The assessment of the Monon was increased $400 a mile of main track, although the mileage is not increased. The Lake Erie and Western was increased $1,000 a mile of main track, with no increased mileage. The valuations of the Indianapolis Union railway and the belt companies remain unchanged. The Indianapolis Street Railway company is not credited with any increased mileage, but the assessment is increased $1,500 a mile of main track, the valuation being $32,000 a mile for 109.78 miles of track.

The wedding of Miss Helen Smyser, of this city, and Russel Hawkins, of New York, will be solemnized within a few days. The marriage was to have taken place October 14, but Mr. Hawkins' presence is necessary in London, Eng., in the interests of the Diamond Match company, so it was concluded to hasten the date. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Smyser. She is one of Fort Wayne's most charming and accomplished daughters and as a musician is more than usually gifted.

A MYSTERY STILL

NO NEW LIGHT SHED ON THE TOLTON CASE.

DEAF WOMAN IS ARRESTED

THINKS HER ADMIRER SLEW HIS WIFE.

WILL DRAG LAKE FOR BODY

GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Laporte, Ind., Aug. 5.—The mystery in the Tolton alleged murder case continues to deepen. Mrs. Cassie Dolphie, a deaf mute, who has been brought into the case by reason of the allegations that the Westville man murdered his wife in order that he might marry her, became alarmed over the situation and tried to escape, but did not succeed, being apprehended in Porter county and brought back. She is held on a warrant charging her with complicity in the alleged murder. She believes Tolton murdered his wife, but denies any knowledge of the actual commission.

Sheriff Small was at Westville and secured some letters which had been placed in the stove at the Tolton house, evidently for the purpose of burning them. The house was ransacked, but without the discovery of any incriminating evidence. The letters, which consist mainly of written conversations between Tolton and Mrs. Dolphie, throw but little light on the mystery. The feeling at Westville over the case is at fever heat and should the woman's body be discovered or some positive evidence be adduced showing that Tolton murdered his wife, nothing but a regiment of troops would be able to stop a mob from storming the county jail.

Tolton's past record is the strongest point against him. John Patro, of Westville, has told Sheriff Sam Small that Tolton came to his house at 1 o'clock Monday morning, and with drawn revolver demanded that he let him have $5. Mrs. Dolphie now admits that Tolton planned to run away with her. When she was asked what she thought about the report that Tolton had murdered his wife in order to marry her, Mrs. Dolphie said she believed he had killed his wife, but she did not see him do it. She would not admit that Tolton had arranged with her that after he had gotten rid of his wife he and she would go to Michigan City to live together.

The impression having gained ground that Tolton may have thrown the body of his wife into Clear lake, near Westville, Sheriff Small is making arrangements to drag the bottom.

BABE HANGS IN SWING.

Frankfort, Ind., Aug. 5.—A two-year-old child of Martin Unger, of this county, met death by hanging yesterday. The child climbed into a rope swing and, falling out, the rope was entangled about its neck, causing death by strangulation. It was discovered hanging in the swing by a four-year-old brother, who went to the house and told Mrs. Unger that his "brother was asleep in the swing." She followed the child into the yard and was horrified to find the babe dead.

STABS HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Tipton, Ind., Aug. 5.—What might have resulted in a cold-blooded murder was narrowly averted by the officers quickly responding to a call near the village of Tellersburg, west of this city, last evening. Albert Cloud, a young married man, came to this place early in the day and becoming intoxicated he returned home finding his wife absent. Cloud hastened to the residence of his father-in-law, Abe Bridget, and with a large knife in hand and without warning made an attack upon his mother-in-law, cutting her severely on the face, body and hands. Her husband, 70 years of age, appeared on the scene and flogged Cloud by a vicious blow with an ax. Sheriff Shulenburg and his deputy arrived in time to prevent further trouble. Cloud was seriously injured, but will recover. He was put under arrest and placed in jail.

DROWNS AT MICHIGAN CITY.

La Porte, Ind., Aug. 5.—Joseph Baron, aged 44, while bathing in the harbor at Michigan City Sunday night, was seized with cramps and drowned before assistance could reach him. His body was recovered yesterday by the life-saving crew. He was an important witness in the case against Joseph Koskoskie, who married Baron's daughter and who is in the county jail here on a charge of having attempted to murder his wife.

ENDS LIFE WITHOUT LOVE.

Muncie, Ind., Aug. 5.—After writing a note in which she admitted she never loved her husband nor her three children, Mrs. Michael Murphy, wife of a well-known resident, swallowed morphine and died a short time later. Mrs. Murphy was a well-known church woman, having been an instructor in the Avondale Methodist Episcopal church and Sunday school for years. Mr. Murphy claims that he always loved his wife, but at times suspected that she had not much devotion for him, although she was loyal to both him and the children. Church women will have charge of the services, which will be conducted from her church Wednesday.

MANGLED BY FREIGHT TRAIN.

Kokomo, Ind., Aug. 5.—Edward Mikels, aged 25 years, was killed by the cars, six miles west of here yesterday. He started to the Frankfort races on a freight car and fell under the wheels. The body was cut into hundreds of pieces and not enough fragments were found to fill a grape basket. The whole train passed over him. The remnants were brought home for interment. Mikels had his life insured a short time ago and before he left home yesterday morning he gave his brother $100 and his insurance policy, saying something might happen to him. He also kissed his mother good-by, which he had not done in years before.

SEES WIFE DRINK POISON.

Bedford, Ind., Aug. 5.—Mrs. Elmer Chambers, wife of Elmer Chambers, a lineman of the Central Union Telephone company, took poison with suicidal intent yesterday afternoon, while talking to her husband in the office of the telephone company. She sank to the floor, but was quickly taken to a doctor's office. Domestic trouble is said to have caused her to drink the poison.

WILL PAY OLD DEBTS.

Washington, Aug. 5.—A cablegram from Minister Squires at Havana, today, says the Cuban senate has passed a bill providing for the negotiation of a loan of $4,000,000, American gold, at a minimum rate of 90 per cent. of the value thereof, payable in a period not to exceed thirty years and at a maximum rate of interest of 5 per cent. Another bill providing for another loan of $35,000,000 of the same time limit, rate of issue and interest was passed. This is to provide for bonds to take care of the first loan and to pay the legitimate debts incurred in benefit of the revolution between February, 1895, and prior to September 19, of the same year, and to pay the wages of the liberating army during the same period. Twenty-three million dollars is fixed as the maximum for the last two named purposes.

LABOR DAY PICNIC.

The congregation of St. Peter's Catholic church is arranging a big picnic to be held in the school yard on Labor day. Prominent among the features of the day will be a contest for the most popular contractor in the congregation, between Philip Wyss, Michael Kinder and John Suelzer. The prize is a handsome wagon. In the evening the ladies will have a contest for a gold watch, between Mrs. Michael Widener, Mrs. John H. Hartman, Mrs. Joseph Schnee and Mrs. Frank Deck.

ADVERTISING CAR STARTS.

The City Bill Posting company this morning started up three bill posting gangs to put paper for the Fall Festival association. Over 20,000 pieces of paper are to be posted in the county alone and about half that number in the city. The affair will be the best advertised that has ever been given locally since the Centennial celebration in 1895. About 40 newspapers in territory contiguous to Fort Wayne are carrying the Fall Festival ads.

LOCAL LINES.

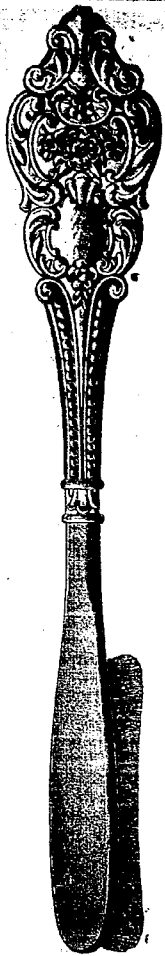

Counterfeit dollars and half dollars are in circulation at Peru.

Attorney H. F. Kennerk is home from a business visit in Indianapolis. Charles Brink, bookkeeper for Rhinesmith & Simonson, was rescued from drowning at Rome City Sunday by Albert Berghoff, son of Herman Berghoff.

Miss Ione McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. McKee, of Mobile, Ala., formerly of this city, will be united in marriage to George Tucker, of Charleston, N. C., within a few weeks.

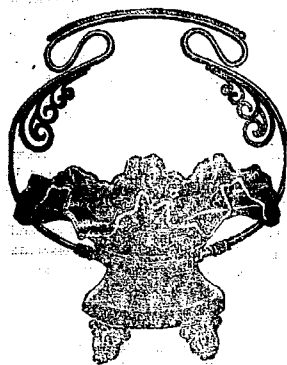

Charles H. Heckman, a heater, who has been employed at the Pittsburgh Blacksmith shop since January, 1900, handed in his resignation to Foreman G. A. Szink yesterday, with the information that he would return to his farm in Preble township, Adams county, to reside in the future. He has a fine farm of 160 acres.

Samuel Matthews, a farmer, drove to LaOtto Saturday evening, hitching his horse upon the street. At 9 o'clock it was discovered that the rig was missing, as was also a farm hand who had been in Mr. Matthews' employ. Marshals in all the surrounding towns were notified, and at midnight Marshal Henry, at Avilla, captured the rig, but while he was doing so the occupant took leg bail and made his escape.

TALK OF TRUSTS

REICHSTAG TARIFF EXPERTS

DISCUSS SUBJECT.

IN FEAR OF THE STEEL TRUST

AFRAID MORGAN MAY CAPTURE GERMAN MARKET.

TRUST PRINCIPLE ENDURING

COMMITTEE MAKING SLOW PROGRESS.

Berlin, Aug. 2.—The reichstag tariff experts find an inextinguishable mine to support any proposition, whether protective or of free trade character, in the American tariff and the enormous literature that has grown up around it.

Steel rails were considered by the tariff committee yesterday and among piles of debating material before the members were reports of American senate and house on the tariff. Count Von Posadowsky-Wehner, the imperial secretary of state for the interior, had a volume of the United States census before him and Herr Bernstein, the socialist leader, was armed with the testimony taken before the American trust committee, from which he quoted Henry O. Havemeyer, president of the American Sugar Refining Co., to the effect that the tariff was the mother of all trusts. Every speaker favoring the ten marks per ton duty on rails as provided by the bill alluded to the United States Steel corporation, averring that the domestic German market would be taken by that trust whenever sales in the United States languished.

Herr Bernstein, who is the most careful reasoner among the socialists, predicted the break down of the steel trust from over-capitalization and over-confidence of its managers. He had before him a copy of President Charles M. Schwab's recent declaration to the New Jersey courts on the company's financial position.

REFERS TO MORGAN.

The speaker said J. Pierpont Morgan was boldly operating on the great principle underlying future production, namely, the correlation of all elements on a colossal scale under one management.

Whether the steel trust was permanent or not, the principle on which it was founded would endure as a guide to the production of the future. If the trust came to a point where it had to sell steel at any price, it would disorganize international markets that ten marks a ton would not protect German makers; nothing short of prohibition would do that. Count Von Posadowsky-Wehner remarked that there was much truth in that statement.

The committee, partly on account of its peculiar make-up, progresses slowly with the bill and each of nine parties has a fixed number of representatives on the committee and can send any member the party pleases to committee meetings. The sum of 2,000 marks is allowed each member. Hence in order to give as many members of the reichstag as possible a slice of the funds, the representation is constantly changing. Only one or two representatives of each party are in continuous attendance and every newcomer makes a long speech.

TIN ROOSTER DID NOT CHANGE.

La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 2.—Henry Peterson, a farmer residing a short distance north of Verona, purchased from an agent a tin rooster which was guaranteed to turn six hours before each and every storm, thus giving him plenty of time to prepare for the blow. Storms came and went, but the rooster did not change color, and Peterson started an investigation in an attempt to recover the $30 check which he had given for the device. He found the check at the village bank. It had accomplished what the rooster failed to do. It had turned to $300. The swindler had not been apprehended.

CHILD STOLEN AND RESTORED.

Marion, Ind., Aug. 2.—Gypsies stole the three-year-old daughter of Henry Herman yesterday. Later the child was taken from the kidnappers by a friend of the family. Herman is a prominent glass manufacturer, and when he went to the lakes for an outing left the baby with her grandparents. The gypsies driving past yesterday morning kidnapped the child and drove south. They stopped at a saloon in south Marion, when the little girl was recognized by Mr. Wilson, who took her to his home. The gypsies were arrested and placed in the county jail.

DEVEY FOR TAMMANY CHIEF.

New York, Aug. 2.—Ex-Chief of Police Devey is after the leadership of Tammany Hall. His confidence in himself is sublime, and it is safe to say that he really believes he can fight his way to the powerful position of dictator of Tammany. The question, "What are you after?" was put to him plump and fair today. He deliberated for a moment before replying. "Now, sport, I'll just tell you what I'm after," he said, "and I'll tell it to you straight. What I'm after just now is to give the people of this district a leader. If I am going to be a leader of this district—and I think I will be, because I am exercising my money and going among the people with that object in view—I want to say that they can go as far as they like with me. I don't look to win by expending money alone. A good word often goes further than a dollar, and if the people think that I ought to go beyond this district I'll go. I have no ambition to fill Croker's shoes, as a lot of people have charged. His shoes are too big for me, and I'm not much stuck on cast-off footwear, anyhow. But there are enough cobbler in this town to make a new pair of shoes for a new man."

IN THE HANDS OF A MOB

CHARLOTTESVILLE CITIZENS ATTEMPT TO STOP CARS.

Result of Hancock County Guaranties—Seventy-five Armed Deputies on Guard.

Knightstown, Ind., Aug. 4.—The village of Charlottesville, five miles west of here, was in the hands of a mob for several hours last night and the sheriff of Hancock county, with seventy-five armed deputies, went to the scene. The trouble arose from an attempt to prevent the running of its cars by the Indianapolis and Eastern Traction company.

Recently a quarantine was established by Hancock county against this city on account of smallpox here. The traction company stopped running its cars until Saturday. When an effort was made to resume the people of Charlottesville stopped the second car, arrested the motorman and conductor and sidetracked the car.

Later other cars were run through the town and late Saturday night a car was assailed by a fusillade of shots from the guards and villagers, and C. M. Kirkpatrick, one of the directors, and several other passengers were hurt.

Traffic was resumed yesterday morning, but in the afternoon a car was stopped loaded with passengers, and later the sheriff of Hancock county, with armed deputies, was ordered to the scene to enforce the quarantine.

When the first car arrived the sheriff and deputies arrested the motorman and conductor.

The company learned last night that the mob had purchased dynamite and would blow up one of the bridges and part of the track before morning. A score of the company's men were armed and ordered to patrol the tracks.

It is expected that the quarantine will be lifted today, but the company is determined to run its cars and the mob and the sheriff are just as determined they shall not.

GET FRANCHISE IN COUNTY

FORT WAYNE AND LIMA LINE GIVEN GRANT.

Is Simply a Merger of Cable Grant With Fleming Interest.

The county commissioners were in session today and the most important proposition disposed of was the application of the Fort Wayne, Van Wert and Lima Traction company for a franchise according to the request filed with the county auditor last Saturday. The new franchise, as already stated in these columns, simply provides for a merging of the franchises already granted to S. B. Fleming and D. J. Cable, the latter's franchise covering a route through the county east of the city along the Van Wert and Ridge roads as far as the state line, and the former's right-of-way, principally through private lands from the eastern city limits to New Haven. With the application today came a resignation from Mr. Cable of all the rights he held under the previous grant, all of which were embodied in the new franchise. A few unimportant changes were made in the phraseology of the instrument and the limit for commencement of work was extended sixty days, although, as a matter of fact, some trivial effort at breaking ground was made prior to August 1, the date of the expiration of the old franchise. The new company is financed and the construction company will be ready to commence and prosecute operations with dispatch within a very few days.

E. B. Jones, living on rural route No. 3, brought to the city a branch less than eight inches long on which hung twelve very large plums of the yellow variety grown on his farm.

RACE FOR $50,000

BORALMA AND LORD DERBY AT CHARTER OAK TRACK.

LAWSON'S HORSE TAKES ONE

WINS FIRST HEAT EASILY IN 2:08 FLAT.

IMMENSE CROWD IS THERE

GREAT TROTTERS CONTEST FOR SUPREMACY.

Charter Oak Park, Hartford, Conn., Aug. 2.—In the great match race for $20,000 a side with $10,000 added, between Thomas E. Swatherson's Boralma and E. E. Smith's Lord Derby, the Lawson trotter won the first heat in 2:08.

Lord Derby had the pole, but lost in the first half mile. Coming down the stretch Lord Derby went into the air and it was Boralma's heat with ease.

Ten thousand people are witnessing the battle for supremacy between these two premiers of the trotting world and up to the beginning of the race Lord Derby was favorite in the betting.

The managers of the day's program had provided an afternoon full of sport for horse lovers. At 1:30 the first heat of three minor races were scheduled to start. These events were:

A 2:14 trot, purse $1,200; two in three; a 2:09 pace, purse $1,000, two in three; a 2:11 pace, purse $1,200, two in three.

It was planned to have these three events out of the way by 2:30 p. m., when the great race will be started.

THE CASH AT STAKE.

Lord Derby and Boralma were to race to settle the disputed question of supremacy and for an incidental consideration involving $50,000 of money. Mr. Swatherson and Mr. Lawson abided to the poster by the original agreement and let the wagers of $20,000 a side. To this $40,000 is to be added $10,000 of the gate receipts.

The horses were matched to trot five one-mile heats if necessary, the victory and fortune to go to the winner of the best three in five. In the matter of age and records there was little to choose between the horses. Lord Derby is seven years old and has a record of 2:06 1/4. Boralma is six years old and she has done a mile in 2:07.

"Ed" Geers is the driver of Lord Derby and Thomas D. Karsh sits in the sulky behind the Lawson horse. Frank Walker, of New York, was the starter chosen. Alexander Harrison, of Hartford, and A. E. Perrin, of Buffalo, are two of the judges. The third judge was not chosen until later in the day.

LORD DERBY FAVORITE.

It was evident early in the afternoon that the friends of Lord Derby were in a majority. He was selling at odds of $1,000 to $600 in the pools. Nearly every noted horseman in the country was in the throng of 5,000 or 6,000 people who had assembled at the park by 1 o'clock. It was expected that William C. Whitney would arrive in season for the big race.

John Roach, who represents Thomas W. Lawson, the owner of Boralma, conversed with Mr. Lawson over the telephone during the morning regarding the betting. Roach expressed great confidence in the ability of Boralma to win in spite of the odds against him in the betting.

In the 2:09 pace, Joe Pointer was selling choice against the field and in the 2:14 trot Ida Highland was the favorite.

At 2 o'clock it was estimated that there were 10,000 people in the park. A special train of six cars from New York brought a delegation of between 500 and 600, arriving here at 1:45.

The big race was considerably delayed by running of the 2:09 and 2:11 pace events. At 3 o'clock the betting was 2 to 1 in favor of Lord Derby.

LORD DERBY WON BIG RACE.

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 4.—Lord Derby won the great $50,000 race from Boralma at Charter Oak park Saturday afternoon. Lawson's horse trotted perfectly in the first heat and had no trouble in outfooting Lord Derby, the New York horse breaking on the homestretch. Lord Derby won the second heat, Boralma going up in the air on the homestretch when Marsh punished him with the whip. Boralma broke down in the third heat, and it was a walk-around for Lord Derby. After the heat it was seen that Boralma had injured his quarter badly, a tendon being cut, from which a quantity of blood flowed. Dr. Ingraham, a Hartford veterinarian, and Dr. Lee, Mr. Lawson's adviser in horse matters, examined the animal and their judgment was that he would not race again this season. Boralma was then withdrawn and Derby jogged a mile in 3:44 and was declared the winner of the purse. Lord Derby later went an exhibition mile with a runner in 2:08. In the contest the best mile was 2:08, and this was made by Boralma in the first heat.

GHASTLY "JOKE" ON WIFE.

Muncie, Ind., Aug. 2.—Mrs. Erasmus Johnson, wife of a local railroad man, donned widow's weeds a fortnight ago when she was told her husband had been killed in the east. When he walked into her home yesterday, sound and well, she promptly went into hysterics and later yielded to nervous prostration. Johnson said he had caused the report of his death to reach his wife "just for a joke."

NAUGHTY GIRLS GO TO JAIL

HAVE VERY PRETTY NAMES, BUT SOILED REPUTATIONS.

A Wyandotte Indian, Far From His Teepee is Sent Over for Vagrancy—Police Notes.

There was nothing particularly serious at police court this morning, although five cases were on the docket. May Pointexter and Grace Sterling were arrested and arraigned on a charge of prostitution. They are both young and neither was a stranger at the court room. Each pleaded guilty to the charge preferred and the judge, in consideration of the fact that they had been there before and warned, assessed a fine of $5 in each case, to which he peremptorily added a jail sentence of five days. In previous cases the girls were successful in having friends come to their rescue and paying their fines, but in this case they are both sure of a five-day term, to say the very least.

George Kling was charged with vagrancy. He was not a bad looking fellow, was fairly well dressed, but stated that he had just dropped into town and had not been here more than half an hour before he was arrested. He asked to be given a chance and agreed to get out of town immediately. The judge told him it would be impossible for him to get out in less than sixteen days unless he broke jail, and that settled it.

Henry Stand was the name submitted by the next prisoner. Stand is a thoroughbred Wyandotte Indian, whose home is in the Indian territory. He was found in the Wabash yards last Saturday afternoon and was ordered to leave. He refused to get away and later was arrested, a charge of trespass being slated opposite his name. He admitted that he was a trespasser when questioned by the court, and was not much disturbed when he was sent over for sixteen days. To The Sentinel he stated that he had been engaged with Krausmann's "Wild West" show, which stranded in the east several weeks ago. He is a rough rider, a lasso thrower and can do a few stunts in the war dance line; admits to being a good shot and has had considerable experience in the show business.

ness, and also has a tolerably fair conception of the difference between freshwater and ocean pop. His principal ambition right now is to get back to the hunting grounds in Indian territory. He will try to make a fresh start after his term expires.

Christ. Hess led a strenuous life on Saturday night and during the height of his strenuousness somebody hit him on the head with a beer bottle and then administered a few friendly kicks in his neck and abdomen. It was a simple fight and occurred near the Koehler settlement, in the south part of town, and "Fritz" Koehler is supposed to have administered at least a part of the punishment. The Koehler saloon was just straightened out in the license department last week and this bit of the belated celebration. Anyway, Hess, who got the worst of it, was the only fellow looked up, and Sunday his wife put up $11 for his appearance next morning. He failed to appear and the bond money was forfeited.

OPENS OFFICES NEXT WEEK

FORT WAYNE, VAN WERT AND LIMA COMPANY.

Final Details to be Arranged at Meeting Monday and Work Will Begin at Once.

The new Fort Wayne, Van Wert and Lima Traction company will open offices in Fort Wayne this week and at once take up the active building of the new interurban line eastward from Fort Wayne. Definite quarters have not yet been selected, but it is probable a suite of rooms in the Bank block will be chosen.

Early in the week, probably on Monday, a meeting of the stockholders in the big $20,000,000 company will be held in Fort Wayne, and at that time the organization will be perfected by the election of officers, the closing of contracts, and orders will be given to at once commence the construction of the road with all possible vigor.

Some little work has already been done at New Haven in order to comply with the terms of the Cable franchise, which provided that the work of construction must have commenced by August 1, but the force will be very greatly augmented during the present week. Deeds for practically all the right-of-way between Fort Wayne and Lima have been taken up by the new company.

Frank P. Edison, right-of-way man for the company, was in the city today. Mr. Edison says the entire route from Van Wert to Dixon has been purchased and paid for and options have been secured on the remainder of the line. Next week Mr. Edison will start eastward from Fort Wayne, taking up the deeds and paying for the right-of-way upon this end of the line.

LONG LIFE ENDED

MRS. NANCY LEWIS DIES AT ADVANCED AGE.

WEDDED SIXTY-FIVE YEARS

MICHAEL MEEHAN CALLED TO ETERNAL REST.

ULRICH BRAKE IS NO MORE

OTHER DEATHS AND FUNERAL NOTICES.

The golden ties of a wedding service solemnized more than sixty-five years ago were severed in the death of Mrs. Nancy Lewis, which occurred at the home of her son, W. E. Lewis, 528 West Main street, at 2 o'clock Monday morning. Despite the weight of more than eighty years of life which had been rounded out, the death of the aged woman came with almost startling suddenness.

Sunday evening while walking about the yard of the Lewis home, Mrs. Lewis suffered a rupture of a blood vessel in her head. Instant dizziness followed and the aged woman fell heavily to the ground, the fall bursting an artery. Medical skill was of no avail, and the patient declined steadily until the end came peacefully.

Mrs. Lewis was the wife of Jonathan Lewis, who, with five children, survives her. The aged husband, now bereft of his life's companion, is himself in frail health. Mrs. Lewis was born in Ohio, was wedded there sixty-five years ago, and came with her husband to Fort Wayne in 1882. They were the parents of seven children, five of whom are living: Mrs. Joseph Hedger, of Birch, S. D.; Mrs. A. J. Price, of Butler; James T. Lewis, of Mulhall, Oklahoma; Joseph Lewis, of Muncieville, and W. E. Lewis, of this city, a traveling salesman for Moellering Bros. & Millard. Mrs. Lewis was a member of the Wayne street M. E. church, devoted to her faith, a woman of lofty character and admirable disposition, and was held in the highest regard by a large number of friends. Her age was 80 years, 5 months and 18 days.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. S. Preston, of Wayne street M. E. church, will officiate.

ANSCHUTZ.

Philip Anschutz, 80 years of age, died at 9:15 o'clock Sunday evening at Hope hospital from peritonitis. The young man was a son of Philip Anschutz, sr., formerly a well known resident of this city, now living at Van Wert.

The deceased was a student at the Fort Wayne College of Medicine, and had completed the first year in that institution. He was assisting at Hope hospital during the vacation, and gave promise of an unusually brilliant career. He had been ill but a few days.

The remains were taken to Van Wert.

MEEHAN.

Michael Meehan, 82 years of age, and for thirty years a resident of Fort Wayne, died Sunday at his home, 734 East Jefferson street. Death was due to old age. He had been living a retired life for several years, and had been crippled since two years of age, when he sustained a painful fall.

Mr. Meehan was a native of Ireland, came to America in 1847, residing for a time at Piqua, Ohio, from which city he came to Fort Wayne. He was a moulder by occupation and was for many years employed at the Olds Wagon works. Mr. Meehan was a devoted member of the Catholic church, widely known and had many warm friends. His wife died about a year ago, and five children survive—John, James and Francis Meehan, and Mrs. J. Royhans, of this city, and Joseph Meehan, of Coldwater, Mich.

PEPPER.

Mildred, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Pepper, of 1530 Maumee avenue, died at 2 o'clock Friday morning of cholera infantum at the age of 5 months and 14 days. The little one was one of twin children.

BRAKE.

Ulrich Brake, a pioneer citizen of Fort Wayne, and for many years a well known contractor, died late Saturday afternoon at his home, 1620 Maumee avenue, at the age of 70 years. Mr. Brake's illness was a very brief one. He had been in usual health until Thursday, when he was overcome by the heat. No serious results were apprehended until Friday, when the patient began sinking and he declined steadily until the end came.

Born in Germany, Mr. Brake emigrated to America fifty-two years ago, coming directly to Fort Wayne, which has since been his home. His business life had been an active and straightforward one, and he leaves many friends. The surviving relatives include the widow and three children—Henry Brake, Ulrich Brake, jr., and Mrs. John Burlager, all of this city. The deceased was a devoted member of the Catholic church.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 8:30 from the residence and at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic church.

SORG.

Mrs. Josephine Sorg, wife of John Sorg, of 1104 Broadway, died at 8 o'clock Saturday evening from tuberculosis, at the age of 36 years. Mrs. Sorg's illness had been an extended one.

Surviving are the husband, two children, her mother, two brothers, Anthony and Edward Dierkes, and three sisters—Mrs. H. Koch, Mrs. J. Nohe and Miss Theresa Dierkes.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the residence and at 9 o'clock from St. Paul's Catholic church, of which Mrs. Sorg was a devout member.

FARKS.

Bertha, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Farks, of 2011 Gay street, died Sunday from cholera infantum, at the age of one year. The bereaved father is an employee of the Pennsylvania shops.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

PORTER.

Allen Porter, one of the most prominent farmers of Perry township, died Sunday afternoon at Hope hospital from exhaustion and heart failure, following a surgical operation for thyrocele.

Mr. Porter's home was in Perry township, eight miles north of the city, and few Allen county farmers were more widely known than he. Born in Allen county November 6, 1841, and residing here his entire lifetime, he acquired a competence and made countless friends to whom news of his death comes as a severe shock.

Mr. Porter was the son of John Porter, one of the prominent early pioneers who came to Allen county in the 30's, and his age was 60 years, 8 months and 27 days. He was united in marriage August 23, 1867, to Margaret Crawford, who, with seven children, survives him. The children are Andrew Porter, of Eel River township; George Porter, of Perry township; William Porter, at home; Mrs. Carrie Wallace, of Chicago; Mrs. John Runyan and Mrs. Rachel Beyerley, of Eel River township, and Miss Maggie Porter, at home.

Funeral services will be held from Robinson chapel, in Perry township, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Murray, of Churubusco, will officiate.

SHANNON.

Ora, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shannon, of Piqua avenue, died at 9 o'clock Friday morning of brain fever at the age of 11 months. The little sufferer was one of twin children.

ARMOR.

T. W. Armor, a fireman by occupation, died on Friday at his apartment in the Crescent hotel, on West Perry street, from consumption. He was about 40 years of age and came to this city a short time ago to receive treatment for tuberculosis, but the disease was so far advanced as to make his case hopeless. His wife has been at his bedside caring for him.

SINCLAIR.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Sinclair, of 1917 Harrison street, died Friday evening from exhaustion, at the age of one day. Funeral services were held today.

WOOD.

Frank C. Wood, widely known from his long connection with the Coombs hardware house, and whose every acquaintance was a warm and steadfast friend, died at Hope hospital at 11:50 o'clock Monday night. Mr. Wood's illness was but a brief one, and his death will come as a profound shock to countless friends who have watched with genuine solicitude his brave battle with disease in a conflict that from the first offered but little hope.

While on a trip for his firm, Mr. Wood was taken ill at Delphos, O., on Wednesday, and returned to his home at 933 Grace avenue Thursday evening a very sick man. During the night marked symptoms of appendicitis, complicated with peritonitis, first became apparent, and the patient was removed to Hope hospital Friday morning where a surgical operation was performed. It revealed a condition even more serious than anticipated and the attending physicians were able to hold out but little hope for his recovery. The complications rendered a second operation imperative, and this was performed Monday morning as the last resort. Through his suffering the patient was brave, cheerful and hopeful, but exhausted nature could not withstand the encroachments of disease and death was victor in the struggle.

Mr. Wood was a native of Fair Chance, Pa., 45 years of age, and came to Fort Wayne in 1880. He entered the employ of the J. M. Coombs Hardware house, remaining until the house went out of business in 1893. When E. H. Coombs organized the present house Mr. Wood accepted a position there and has remained continually with that firm. He occupied an important position with the house and was regarded as one of the most valuable men in this line of trade. He possessed rare executive ability and an attractive personality that won friends rapidly and retained them steadfastly. No man was held in higher regard by his acquaintances.

Two years previous to his coming to this city Mr. Wood was united in marriage in Pennsylvania to Miss Maggie E. Hertzog, who survives him, together with two sons, Brown F. and Edgar L., and a daughter, Mabel E., all of whom reside at home.

Harry M. Wood, the Fort Wayne soldier, who was killed in the massacre at Balangiga, Island of Samar, in September last, was another son, and the death of the young man bore heavily upon the father during the closing months of his life. Mr. Wood's aged parents are yet living in Pennsylvania, and there are several brothers and sisters. Edward Wood, a traveling salesman, well known in Fort Wayne, is a brother of the deceased.

The funeral services will be held from the residence, 933 Grace avenue, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. N. Field will officiate and the interment will be at Lindenwood. The pall bearers selected are William Lawson, J. M. Henry, G. B. Saylor, W. E. Doud, H. L. Askew and H. W. Stirk.

Mr. Wood was a member of the National union and carried life insurance to the amount of $4,000 in that fraternity.

IN NORTHERN INDIANA.

Huntington is making an effort to revive its fair.

Homer Hubler, of Mentone, had both legs and four ribs fractured in a runaway.

John Kline, a pioneer citizen of Huntington county, is dead at the age of 72.

The damage at Winona from Thursday night's storm has been estimated at $3,000.

The Lake City Gun club, of Warsaw, will give its eighth annual tournament August 14.

The Goshen & Indiana Traction company will probably increase its capital stock to $1,500,000.

Unrequited love impelled Miss Sadie Leliter, of Laporte, to swallow poison. A doctor saved her life.

Ira P. Hoke, of Oswego, Kosciusko county, pleaded guilty to practicing dentistry without a license. It cost him $35.80.

President James A. Chambers, of the American Window Glass company, is seeking a location for another large plant in the Gas belt district.

Ovid Peltier, of South Bend, ran into a clothesline and was thrown violently to the ground, injuring his neck and head and rendering him unconscious. He remained in that condition several hours.

John A. Singrey, for many years a prominent citizen of Noble county and long a county commissioner, died Friday afternoon at his home in Albion. He was a brother of J. H. Singrey, of Fort Wayne.

Scoundrels ruined the orchard of Charles Lynn, near Wabash, on Thursday night by circling every tree and removing the bark from a band six inches in width. Over forty trees were thus deadened.

While Aeronaut Calloway was making an ascension at Bourbon his balloon caught fire when 2,000 feet in the air. Calloway reached earth safely by means of his parachute, but the balloon was destroyed.

William Evans, whose home is near Leesburg, was arrested at Warsaw Monday on a charge of having deserted from the navy in 1901. He was on the gunboat Dixie and will be taken to Norfolk, Va., for trial.

Frank Zehring, near Peru, who weighs 200 pounds, fell into a well twenty feet deep, in which there were nine feet of water. No one was near to render assistance, but Zehring managed to climb up the pump stock to safety.

Charley McConnell, of Warsaw, didn't believe his revolver was loaded and handed the gun to Frank Snyder, snapping it several times as he did so. The surgeon dug the bullet out of Snyder's arm and says he will recover in due time.

An unusual case turned up at Lagro a few days ago when Frank McClannahan, seven years of age, was arrested and tried for assault and battery upon another lad aged fourteen. McClannahan was acquitted.

He is the youngest defendant ever arrested there.

James Frame, a well known Andrews citizen, is dead at the age of seventy-three years.

The six-year-old son of John Trovinger, of Huntington, swallowed a six-penny nail on Saturday.

Levi Decker died Monday in Thurncreek township, Whitley county, after a brief illness. He was 76 years of age.

The infant son of Frank Walters, at Lagrange, had a narrow escape from death, due to eating headache pills left as a sample by an agent.

Whitley county farmers held a meeting at Columbia City Saturday with the idea of organizing a cyclone insurance company, but nothing came of it.

While bathing in the river at Columbia City, Emmett Wagoner tried a high dive, with the result that he struck his head upon a sharp stone, cutting a dangerous gash in the scalp.

Relatives of Mrs. Susan Whittaker, of Portland, are making arrangements to have her returned to an asylum on account of her penchant for starting fires. She tried to burn the home of her son-in-law, Benjamin Martin, a few days ago, and on Sunday succeeded in burning his barn.

John Buzzard, 21 years of age, residing southeast of Bluffton, shot himself in the breast with a revolver at an early hour Monday, and will probably die. He made no statement as to why he wished to end his life, but friends said it was on account of having been jilted by a Miss French Sunday evening.

Thirty-two guests at a Markle wedding, including the bride, were made desperately ill, presumably from poisonous action of the large can in which the ice cream had been kept. All will recover.

Mrs. Samuel Roberts, also of Markle, was poisoned by eating sausage and lay in intermittent spasms for several days.

William Schoolcraft and Verne Keller, of Huntington, were in Columbia City Monday afternoon trying to dispose of a horse and harness at a ridiculously low figure, after having left the buggy in the east part of town. They were arrested, and later Schoolcraft confessed that the horse had been stolen from Enos Taylor near Huntington.

During a dance at the Feighner home at Huntington Saturday night William Landon wanted to dance with Lizzie Vernon, to which her escort objected, emphasizing his position by stabbing Landon twice with a knife. One wound penetrated Landon's lung and a riot followed, the crowd, armed with clubs and stones, chasing Landon's assailant for some distance, but he escaped.

Landon will recover. The man who did the stabbing is presumed to be from Wabash, but his name is unknown.

ADOPTS ALL THE ORPHANS.

Niles, Mich., Aug. 5.—An interesting example of what natural paternal love will do on occasions is found near South Haven, where Mr. and Mrs. John Shandrow have adopted a whole orphan asylum, twenty-two children in all. Shandrow's twenty-two children are not all infants—indeed, some of them are bright, rosy-cheeked youngsters, already old enough to attend school.

The benefactor has made more than a competence off his 100-acre fruit farm and tried to assuage a life-long regret for children never born to him by writing to the Smith foundling hospital in Minneapolis asking them to send him several children for a summer's outing, with the privilege of choosing from them in case he should want a boy. The Minneapolis institution is a small one, and the manager promptly forwarded the visible supply of children over 3 years of age—no less than twenty-two little boys and girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Shandrow are devout Methodists and when they discovered that part of the children had never been baptized the minister was promptly summoned and eight of the little ones christened in short order.

THE WALLACE CIRCUS BANDS.

For several seasons the Great Wallace Show has featured the musical portion of its entertainment. Mr. Wallace fortunately secured the celebrated "Bronson's Cornet Band" for a term of years. The director of this band is Prof. E. Z. Bronson, a prominent composer and an author of band music. Having been raised on music from his childhood and having had years' experience with the leading bands of the country, in serving in the capacity of First Assistant Director with Sousa, he is fully prepared to handle his fifty-four musicians with the Wallace Circus in a most satisfactory manner.

All who have seen the Wallace Shows know that the Bronson Cornet Band is one of the most prominent and attractive features any circus can have. For forty-five minutes preceding each performance, from the center of the stage, the band will render a program of the highest grade of classical and popular music. In Fort Wayne, Ind., on Monday, August 11th, the date of the exhibition of the Great Wallace shows in this city.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—September wheat opened $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ higher to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ lower at 70¢ to 69 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and for a moment held at 70 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ on several slightly bullish factors. Cables were higher in spite of a slump here; there still continued a discouragingly low run of contract grain arrivals and rains were general in the central west and in the Ohio valley. Trade was dull, however, and on the fair weather in the northwest (spring wheat needs this kind of weather most) an easy feeling developed. Receipts also were heavy. September sold back to 69 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and hung steady for a time. Local receipts were 548 cars; only 8 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 173 cars, making a total for the three points of 719 cars against 788 last week and 680 a year ago.

Depression due to heavy primary receipts and fine weather in the spring country took September wheat to 69 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. The close was weak, $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ down, at 69 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

Only 69 cars of corn to arrive today helped corn in its show of opening firmness. Selling, however, was liberal and the weather was considered favorable for the growth of the crops. As a result September corn, which opened $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ lower to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ higher at 57¢ to 57 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, sold off to 56 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

In spite of only 25 cars of corn to arrive tomorrow, heavy offerings were pressed in the pit. Stop-loss orders came out freely and September corn broke to 55 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and closed weak, $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ down, at 55 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

Oats held firm for a short time with corn. Rains were against the crops and grinding, but selling soon eased the market. September opened $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ up at 32 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and sold a shade higher, then it dipped to 31 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and hung near 32 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Receipts were very free at 316 cars.

Provisions dipped at the opening on liquidation and liberal receipts of hogs. The hog market, however, held steady and light support by the packers brought a rally. September pork opened 5¢ lower at \$16.67 $\frac{1}{2}$, dipped to \$16.62 $\frac{1}{2}$ and regained its opening price. September lard opened 5¢ down at \$10.77 $\frac{1}{2}$ and rallied to \$10.85 and sold at \$10.40 to \$10.42 $\frac{1}{2}$.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows: Wheat—Aug., 69 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; Sept., 69 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; Dec., 68 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 68 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢. Corn—Aug., 56¢; Sept., 55 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; Dec., 42 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 42 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢; May, 40 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 40 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢. Oats—Aug., 28 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; new, 35¢; Sept., 28 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; new, 31 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 32¢; Dec., 27 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; new, 30 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 30 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢; May, 31 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Pork—Aug., \$16.70; Sept., \$16.85; Oct., \$16.95; Jan., \$15.77 $\frac{1}{2}$; May, \$15.65.

Lard—Aug., \$10.75; Sept., \$10.85; Oct., \$10.32 $\frac{1}{2}$; Nov., \$9.75; Dec., \$9.32 $\frac{1}{2}$; Jan., \$8.85; May, \$8.70.

Ribs—Aug., \$10.42 $\frac{1}{2}$; Sept., \$10.47 $\frac{1}{2}$; Jan., \$8.15 to \$8.17 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.55; S. W., $1.47; Sept., $1.35; Oct., $1.30.

Rye—Sept., 50¢ to 50 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

Barley—Cash, old, 58¢ to 65¢; new, 53¢ to 55¢.

Timothy—Sept., $3.75.

Clover—Oct., $8.35.

RULE OF BAYONETS

Troops on Guard at Shenandoah, Pa., and Quiet Reigns in Place of Wild Uproar of Riot.

MITCHELL ISSUES A STATEMENT

Shenandoah, Pa., July 31.—State troops in large force have been rushed here, and where the wild uproar of riot ruled last night quiet and order reign today.

All the troops ordered here last night by Governor Stone are on the ground under command of General Gobin.

Today it is learned that the casualties of last night's conflict between strikers and officers are not so serious as at first reported.

Strikers throng the streets today, but there is no disorder.

MITCHELL ISSUES STATEMENT.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 31.—Shortly after noon President Mitchell, of the Mine Workers, issued the following statement:

"Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 31.—Complete and authentic reports furnished by national officers of our organization located at Shenandoah show that the stories of the riot at Shenandoah were greatly exaggerated and the facts much distorted. It develops that no one was killed or fatally injured, and that the entire trouble might have been averted had the deputies kept cool and used greater discretion. While I greatly deplore acts of lawlessness by anyone, particularly by those on strike, I am naturally pleased to learn that the trouble is not as serious as first reported. I have repeatedly warned the strikers that any violation of law on their part would militate against themselves alone, and I am hopeful that there will not be a repetition of trouble of this character.

"John Mitchell, President United Mine Workers of America."

ARRIVAL OF THE MILITIA.

Shenandoah, Pa., July 31.—Nearly all of the residents of this town were up all night awaiting with anxiety the arrival of the militia. It was noticeable that the pickets who have been guarding the approaches to the mines were not on duty this morning, but if they had been their vigilance would not have been rewarded, as no person was venturesome enough to run the gauntlet after the exciting experiences of yesterday.

Brigadier General Gobin, Pennsylvania national guard, accompanied by the Pottsville and Pine Grove companies of the Fourth regiment and all of the Schuylkill county companies of the Eighth regiment, arrived via the Reading railroad at 6:30 o'clock this morning. To an Associated Press correspondent he said that in addition to these two companies of the Fourth regiment, he has ordered out the entire Twelfth and Eighth regiments and the governor's troop. If he finds that the conditions here warrant it, he intends calling out two batteries of artillery. It is impossible to obtain the names of the wounded foreigners. Even the doctors who are attending them do not know their names. The physicians are looking after the wounds of twenty and have little hope for the recovery of at least two. Policeman Yacopsky is still in a precarious condition, but the other wounded policemen are doing well.

Joseph Beddall, who was reported to have died on the way to the Miners' hospital, is still alive at that institution, but small hope is entertained for his recovery.

IN FEAR OF BOYCOTT.

The order to the troops was issued after 1 o'clock this morning and details were sent to Pottsville, Minersville, Schuylkill Haven and other towns in this vicinity to summon the members of the Eighth and Twelfth regiments to duty. Although the guardsmen are scattered throughout the county, several commands were mobilized here in about two hours after the call.

Considerable delay was experienced in securing the necessary twenty signatures to the call upon the governor for troops. Most of the citizens declined to append their names for fear of the boycott likely to follow.

Councilman George W. Good, of Pottsville, was present when the first outbreak of riot occurred. He was seized by one of the rioters, but he succeeded in holding his place on the locomotive of the train he had taken to reach home. He burned his hand by grasping the steam chest. Two machinists of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company's shops were severely beaten and are in the Pottsville hospital.

W. W. Pasco, a deputy, while escorting a number of workmen at Merriam colliery, at Ashland, late last night, received a load of buckshot in his shoulder and he is now in the state hospital at Ashland. His assailant is unknown.

Joseph Beddall, who was so badly beaten last night that he was believed to be dead, is hovering between life and death at the state hospital at Fountain Springs. Dr. Bidle, the superintendent, stated today that he has little hope of the injured man's recovery. Beddall's skull is fractured, his nose is broken and he is injured internally. He is 38 years old, a nephew of Sheriff Beddall and a prominent business man.

ALL TROOPS THERE.

All the troops ordered out last night have arrived on the ground. The last to get in were the Lock Haven company of the Twelfth regiment and the governor's troops. These two commands reached here at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The soldiers spent the day in establishing camp at Columbia park. A provost guard has been established throughout the town. At 1 o'clock extreme quiet prevails. The streets of the town are full of idle men. They are watching the militiamen in their work of making camp. There has been no hooting or jeering of the soldiers.

All the members of the district executive board of the miners' union are holding frequent conferences with the local leaders. Miles Dougherty, the national board member from this district, had a long talk with President Mitchell, at Wilkesbarre, over the telephone during which he informed his chief of the situation here. The miners are incensed at the calling out of the troops, which action they say was unwarranted.

MESSAGE TO GOVERNOR.

In this connection the following telegram was this afternoon sent from here to Governor Stone at Harrisburg:

"We, the undersigned officials of the Ninth district of the miners' union, believe that the request made to you to send troops to Shenandoah was based upon exaggeration; and as we are confirmed in this belief we respectfully request you to send a personal representative into this town to investigate the conditions and after such investigation believe that you will learn that the presence of the troops in this town is unnecessary and that the order should be revoked."

A telephone message was received from New Philadelphia, a short distance from this place, to the effect that there was rioting there. General Gobin has been communicated with, but says he will not separate his command until the sheriff has exhausted his resources. He says the troops are not here for police duty and that they in no way relieve the sheriff of his duties.

John Debrow, a striker, was apprehended on the mountains near Merriam colliery today and taken to Sunbury jail. He is held for shooting Coal and Iron Policeman W. W. Cassell last night. The latter is in a critical condition.

CAUSE OF THE TROUBLE.

The trouble which has brought the troops here started about 8 o'clock last evening when Deputy Sheriff Thomas Beddall attempted to escort two non-union workers through the strikers' pickets. The workmen were dressed in their street clothes, but one of them carried a bundle under his arm, and this aroused the suspicion of the strikers. The bundle was torn from him, and when it was found to contain a blouse and overalls the man was taken from the deputy and beat almost to death.

In the meantime Beddall opened fire on the mob, which had gathered by this time, and emptied his revolver. Two of the shots took effect, one man being shot in the leg and the other in the foot. The deputy and the other strike breaker were now compelled to fly for their lives, and took refuge in the Philadelphia and Reading railroad depot.

The depot was soon surrounded by an angry mob of 5,000, which was becoming more threatening and demonstrative every moment. Joseph Beddall, a hardware merchant, and brother of the deputy sheriff, was seen making his way through the crowd in an effort to reach his brother, and the mob, divining that he was carrying ammunition to those inside the depot, seized him and beat him with clubs and billies into insensibility.

POLICE FIRED A VOLLEY.

Shortly after this the entire borough police force arrived on the scene and escorted the deputy sheriff and his man to an engine, which had been backed into the depot for that purpose. When the mob realized that their prey was about to escape they surrounded the engine and the engineer was afraid to move. In a few moments, however, the police fired a volley, dispersing the crowd for a brief period, and the engineer turned on full steam and got away with his men.

Stones were thrown thick and fast about the heads of the police, whereupon Chief John Frye gave order to fire. At the first volley the mob fell back and several were seen to fall. Their retreat, however, was but momentary. They turned, and with revolvers, stones and even a few shotguns, they charged on the little band of policemen and made them fly for their lives. The policemen turned in their flight at short intervals and fired volley after volley at their pursuers, but the mob seemed thoroughly infuriated and smoking revolvers seemed to have no terrors for them. When the Lehigh railroad crossing was reached, a passing freight train blocked the progress of the police, two of whom were caught and brutally beaten. One of them, Stiney Yacopsky, will die.

It is estimated that upwards of 1,000 shots were fired, and the wonder is that more fatalities did not result. More than twenty strikers, all of whom were foreigners, were shot, and at least two of them will die.

HAS DEPRESSING EFFECT.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 31.—The riot at Shenandoah last night has had a depressing effect at strike headquarters. President Mitchell was up early and asked for the newspapers. After reading the account of the trouble he was asked if he had anything to say for publication and he replied:

"I am very sorry this thing has happened; but until I receive some information from District President Fahy, I shall make no comment. Later in the day I will issue a statement."

The Ninth regiment, N. G. P., with headquarters in this city, is under waiting orders.

All the local leaders of the United Mine Workers deplore the shedding of blood and the calling out of the troops. They say the presence of the soldiers will encourage the operators to start up their mines and after the collieries in the Schuylkill district are put in operation it will only be a question of time until mines in other parts of the strike belt resume, for the miners of the Wyoming and Lackawanna valleys will not be content to remain idle while their brethren in other parts of the region are working.

TROOPS MEAN RESUMPTION.

It is the history of past coal strikes that the presence of the militia is almost always a sure indication of an early resumption of mining.

Those of the local operators who could be seen today are of the opinion that the backbone of the strike is now broken and that it will only be a short time until there will be a general resumption of mining. National Board Member John Fallon, who arrived at President Mitchell's headquarters today, would not admit, however, that the affair at Shenandoah, unfortunate as it was, would change the situation. He said the great bulk of the strikers were orderly and would continue peaceful. As long as that was the case the operators could have little hope that their old employees would return to work.

President Mitchell today issued the following statement:

"While I am not informed of the causes of the regrettable occurrence at Shenandoah and consequently not in a position to say whether the miners or the deputies are responsible for it, I am, nevertheless, much grieved to learn that there has been a serious violation of the law. I have repeatedly warned the miners that the person who violated the law was the worst enemy the strikers could have, and I have directed our local officers and committees to be constantly on the alert for any breach of the peace. Our efforts in this direction will be redoubled and I trust that judgment will be withheld until the responsibility of the trouble at Shenandoah has been properly located.

(Signed.) "John Mitchell, President United Mine Workers of America."

President Mitchell at 10 o'clock received an official communication from the district headquarters of the United Mine Workers at Shamokin, which states that the situation at Shenandoah is not as bad as painted. According to the report received no one was killed and no one fatally injured.

But twelve deaths occurred in Wash county during the month of June.

VIRGINIA MOB HANGS NEGRO

CHARLES CRAVEN LYNCHED AT LEESBURG.

Alleged Murderer Captured After a Long Pursuit—Protested His Innocence.

Washington July 31.—Charles Craven, the supposed murderer of William H. Wilson, a farmer living near Herndon, Va., was lynched this afternoon on the pike one mile east of Leesburg, Va. He was taken from the jail at Leesburg by a mob of 150 men, who overpowered the guard, broke in the outer door and then entered the cage, using hammers and crowbars. Little difficulty was encountered in this work. A noose was then thrown around the prisoner's neck and he was led down the pike in the direction of the scene of the murder. The party had proceeded scarcely a mile when the rope was thrown around a tree and Craven was pulled from the ground. As soon as the body was raised in the air the mob fired fully 300 shots at the dying man.

PROTESTED HIS INNOCENCE.

Before Craven was lynched he was given an opportunity to make a statement. He strongly protested that he was innocent of killing Wilson and also that he was innocent of burning Smith's barn, for which offense he had been sentenced to jail two years before. Men, women and children, who lined the road from the jail to the scene of the execution, lustily cheered the mob.

Governor Montague was appealed to by the officer of the commonwealth and he ordered the Alexandria light infantry to the scene, but the mob accomplished its work before the arrival of the soldiers.

CAPTURE OF CRAVEN.

Craven, who had been pursued by over 100 people and by bloodhounds, was captured today on a farm near Ashburn, Va. He was asleep in a hay rick and was seized by three of his pursuers, Ernest Norman, John Higgins and Henry Bryant, before he had time to offer resistance.

A large crowd quickly gathered and threatened to lynch the negro, but Sheriff Russell succeeded in getting his prisoner on to a train and lodged him in jail at Leesburg. He was there surrounded by a heavy guard and the sheriff announced his intention to furnish him with every protection.

POLICE CHIEF ARRESTED.

Muncie, Ind., July 31.—Samuel Cashmore, superintendent of the Muncie police force, was placed under arrest last evening on the charge of subornation of perjury, preferred by Patrick J. Heffernan, owner of a saloon in this city. Superintendent Cashmore is charged with causing Miss Lillie Ressler, a young girl, to testify that her sister drank beer served by Heffernan's bartender on the night of July 20.

Heffernan declares that this testimony, which brought about the conviction of the bartender on the charge of selling intoxicating liquor to a minor, was secured through the threat made by Cashmore that unless she, Miss Ressler, testified as she did, she would be sent to the Women's reformatory for perjury. Superintendent Cashmore was released on $500 bond. He will have his trial in the court of Justice Isaac H. Gray, on Monday, August 4.

GETS FINE PROMOTION.

Leon M. Allen, of Chicago, a brother of Mrs. H. B. Freeman, of this city, and who frequently visits Fort Wayne, has been advanced to the position of general passenger agent of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad, with headquarters in Chicago. Mr. Allen won his promotion by his excellent work as assistant general passenger agent, which he has held since 1898. He was born in Davenport, Ia., in 1863, and is a graduate of the University of Michigan. He entered the railway service in 1880.

SHOT DOWN BY A BOY.

Logansport, Ind., July 31.—As a result of a family feud of long standing, Albert Saunders, aged fifteen, yesterday shot Nokie Suter, aged forty, through the neck. Suter is in the hospital and may die. Suter's wife had assaulted Saunders' mother, and when he went to the latter's assistance Suter interfered, and after striking the boy with a hatchet was shot. Young Saunders used a toy pistol, but it held a 2-calibre cartridge. He is under arrest. The families live in Dunkirk, Logansport's western suburb.

ZOLLINGER ON STAFF.

Capt. George W. Zollinger, of this city, has been appointed mustering officer upon the staff of George F. Ogden, the newly elected state commander of the Sons of Veterans.

EARTH IS IN TREMOR

Southern California Convulsed by Repeated Earthquake Shocks and Buildings Topple.

PEOPLE FLEE FROM THEIR HOMES

Santa Barbara, Cal., July 31.—A stretch of territory in the upper portion of Santa Barbara county, in which are situated Lompoc, Santa Ynez, Ballard, Los Alamos and other smaller towns, was again visited by an earthquake early this morning. Much the heaviest of the shocks was reported from Los Alamos, where heavy damage was caused and where the inhabitants fled for their lives.

Other reports of damage are coming in, but thus far there is no loss of life nor serious injury to anyone. Telephonic communication with the district is interrupted this morning. A slight shock was felt at Santa Barbara.

The seismic disturbances at Los Alamos have continued during the morning, though none so severe as that at 1:20. A severe shock was felt at 10 o'clock.

PEOPLE AFFRIGHTED.

Los Alamos, Santa Barbara County, Cal., July 31.—The people of this city and vicinity are terror-stricken and are fleeing from their homes to places of safety on account of the increasing severity of the earthquakes that have visited this section since the night of the 27th inst., since which time it is estimated seventy-five distinct shocks have been felt.

Three distinct shocks were recorded between 7:25 and 7:30 o'clock this morning, the last one being the most severe yet felt.

President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, of the University of California, was communicated with by telephone and advised the people to quit the town as soon as possible.

ADVISES PEOPLE TO FLEE.

Scientists of the university were away on vacations, but President Wheeler advised that the people be ready to flee at a moment's notice and that the doors of residences and places of business be left open so that those indoors might escape to the streets without delay in the event of further disturbances. The advice of President Wheeler was communicated to the people at once and was immediately acted upon. It is impossible to estimate the financial loss at this time with any degree of accuracy, but it is believed that the disturbances of the last three or four days have damaged at least $30,000 worth of property. Reports from the other sections of the valley probably will increase this amount by many thousands of dollars.

No loss of life is yet reported.

THE EARLIER SHOCK.

Los Alamos, Cal., July 31.—The most severe earthquake in the history of this place occurred at 1:20 this morning. It is not possible as yet to estimate the damage, but it is very heavy. No lives are known to have been lost, though there were many narrow escapes. Every brick building in the town was destroyed or badly wrecked. In nearly every house windows were broken. The Presbyterian church, a large and handsome brick structure, was razed to the ground, and a similar fate befell the general store of W. S. Wickenburg, also a brick building. The shock seems to have had a spiral motion. Goods were hurled from shelves of stores and piled in the middle of the rooms. Even such heavy articles as desks were thrown about. Not a chimney is left standing in the town. All brick walls are badly damaged, but frame structures generally escaped serious injury. In the drug store not a single bottle escaped, and Kohn's saloon was flooded with liquor from broken bottles.

The whole town was aroused and people fled from their homes to the streets in panic. There have been several light shocks since July 27, when the first heavy shock occurred, but that of this morning exceeded in violence anything yet experienced. It lasted thirty seconds and threw people from their beds. Los Alamos is a town of about 600 inhabitants in Santa Barbara county.

The Western Union Oil company is the heaviest loser, two of its immense storage tanks being demolished, releasing thousands of gallons of oil. Shortly before 9 a. m. today two more distinct shocks were felt.

SANTA BARBARA SHAKEN.

Santa Barbara, Cal., July 31.—An earthquake shock lasting ten sec-an interurban car between Anderson and this city. The case has attracted unusual interest owing to the prominence of the parents of Miss Place.

LEASED FLICK HALL.

The trustees of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, have closed a lease of Flick hall in the new Flick building, on Wayne street, near Harrison, and services will be held there hereafter. The congregation will occupy the entire front hall for church services on Wednesdays and Sundays and the smaller hall in the rear will be used as a reading room and will be open every day. The two halls occupy the entire third floor.

FATAL ACCIDENT NEAR DIXON

GEORGE H. WARD KILLED BY PENNSYLVANIA TRAIN.

Was a Farm Workman About Whom Little is Known—Body is Frightfully Mangled.

George H. Ward, a farm laborer. 50 years of age, was instantly killed by a Pennsylvania train two miles west of Dixon shortly before 3 o'clock Thursday evening. The victim's body was frightfully mangled. Ward's head was crushed, his right arm broken off at the elbow, his left arm broken, both feet nearly severed and the abdominal region so fearfully torn that the intestines were strewn along the railroad tracks.

Little is known of the unfortunate man. He made his appearance in the eastern part of the county as a tramp about a month ago, but evidenced a desire to work, and was employed upon the farm of John Imier. At the close of work Tuesday evening Ward started to walk down the railroad tracks to the village of Dixon.

A freight train was approaching from the east, and to avoid this Ward stepped over upon the south track, directly in front of eastbound train 240, Engineer D. W. Wilbert, fireman C. A. Schroeder and Conductor H. B. McCordie. The warning whistle was promptly sounded by Engineer Wilbert, but Ward may have been confused by the approaching train, for he made no effort to get out of the way, and an instant later was overtaken by the eastbound engine.

Coroner Barnett was summoned and the remains were gathered up and brought to this city on a freight train, arriving at 1 o'clock Friday morning. The body was turned over to Undertaker Pettier, who prepared it for burial, but it was so fearfully mangled that immediate interment was necessary, and the burial occurred at Lindenwood Friday. The man's home was presumed to be in Pennsylvania, but he is said to have told persons at Dixon that he had a divorced wife in Illinois, and had been married several times. An effort is being made to locate relatives.

BARELY RESCUED CHILDREN

WHEN FLAMES HAD ENVELOPED THEIR HOME.

Farm Residence of Morgan Foulks, Near Sheldon, Totally Destroyed by Fire.

With barely time to rescue their two little children, aged two and four years, from a fearful fate, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Foulks, who reside near Sheldon, were compelled to stand helplessly by on Wednesday and see their home and its contents totally destroyed by fire.

The family formerly resided in Fort Wayne, where Mr. Foulks was a motorman on the Main street car line. He owns a fine farm near Sheldon and some time ago removed there and took up the pursuit of agriculture. The busy season is at its height, and Mrs. Foulks went Wednesday to the field to help her husband, leaving their two little children at home alone.

After a time both husband and wife noted the odor of smoke in the air, and glancing toward their home, they were horrified to see dense clouds of smoke rolling from the building. There was a hurried run to the house, only to find the flames had secured so great a start as to be beyond control. Hastily dashing into the room where the little ones were stricken by fear, they carried them out of the blazing house to safety.

There was no time to save any portion of the household goods, and both building and contents were a total loss. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The Bluffton city council has created a police board, to consist of the members of the council, and has elected Lem Stout chief of police. Stout was defeated for marshal at the spring election. Mayor Fiesinger has vetoed the appointment.

FORMED AT LIMA

BIG CONSTRUCTION COMPANY ORGANIZED TUESDAY.

WILL BUILD FLEMING LINE

S. B. FLEMING AND H. C. PAUL ARE STOCKHOLDERS.

CAPITALIZED AT $600,000

RENEWED ACTIVITY IN FORT WAYNE INTERURBAN PLAN.

The Ohio and Indiana Construction company, which has for its object the construction of the Fleming interurban line between Fort Wayne and New Haven, was organized at a meeting held in Lima, Ohio, on Tuesday.

The construction company will be incorporated under the laws of Indiana with a capital stock of $600,000, all of which is held by five well-known business men—L. J. Neesley and J. A. VanDyke, of Lima, S. T. Murdock, of Lafayette, Henry C. Paul and Stephen B. Fleming, of Fort Wayne.

While little stir has been made, preparations for the building of the Fort Wayne and New Haven line, a franchise for which was recently granted the S. B. Fleming company, have been going steadily forward. Countless details have to be attended to in the development of a work of this magnitude, and there is now evidence that within a short time all preparations will have been completed, and the actual work of construction will begin.

The company formed Tuesday has no connection with the S. B. Fleming company save in a business way—that it will attend to the building of the road. The incorporation of this S. B. Fleming company, which is to own and operate the line, will be consummated within a few days. No additional plans of the company, regarding probable extensions to the east from New Haven have been made public.

DEATH FOLLOWS DEBAUCH.

Des Moines, Iowa, July 30.—Firemen early today found one man dead and another dying in the Stoner Wall Paper company's building in South Des Moines, while trying to put out a fire which destroyed $50,000 worth of property. The dead man's name is David Watt, night watchman for the Stoner Wall Paper company. The dying man's name is I. P. Miller, night guard for the Long Shore mill. It is believed that the two men secured a quantity of liquor, repaired to the office of the wall paper company and after drinking the liquor went to sleep. In some manner the building was set on fire and before the firemen could reach the factory the flames had gained such headway that it was impossible to save much of the stock and machinery.

CONFESSES SHORTAGE.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, July 30.—C. W. Perkins, cashier in the district office of the Northwestern Life Insurance company, has confessed to a large shortage in his accounts, probably $25,000, and has turned over his fine residence and other valuable property to cover the deficit. Perkins, who has stood high in business circles for years, began his speculations several years ago. As he had the entire handling of the funds of the office, the truth was not discovered until disappointments and losses compelled him to make a statement to Agent Munger. Little is known outside as to the character of the speculations in which he has engaged, but it is said that he sunk a large sum of money in an olive plantation in Arizona, although he has had a big sale on olive oil. Perkins says he began to use the funds of the company when he was put in a position where he had to support three families and that he expected to realize on his ventures soon and replace the money he had used. Agent Munger is now in Milwaukee conferring with the general officials of the company. It is said that both Munger and the company will be losers.

HAS A CHANGE OF HEART.

Michigan City, Ind., July 30.—Much surprise was caused in this city yesterday when it became known that Miss Lillie Mattis, of Chicago, had filed suit in the superior court against Prof. Calvin Ewing, proprietor of the Michigan City business college, for $5,000 for breach of promise, alleging that Ewing had asked her to marry him, and that she had consented; that this was in June of 1900, and that although Miss Mattis had made all preparations, the professor had failed to carry out his promises. Miss Mattis was in the city yesterday, and seeking out Prof. Ewing, notified him of her intention to file suit unless he changed his mind. The interview ended unsatisfactorily, but last evening Ewing experienced a change of heart and it is announced that the wedding will take place today. Prof. Ewing formerly conducted a school at Evansville, where he met Miss Mattis. Prof. Ewing and his wife will make their home in this city.

LODENSLAGER NOMINATED.

Woodbury, N. J., July 30.—The contest in the First New Jersey district for the republican congressional nomination ended this afternoon in the selection of Congressman H. C. Lodenslager, who received 181 votes in the convention against 123 for J. Alphonse Vansant.

PLAN FINE ILLUMINATIONS

GORGEOUS DISPLAY FOR THE FALL FESTIVAL.

Twelve Electric Arches Will Adorn Calhoun Street—Plans for Each Day.

Elaborate electrical illuminations are planned for the fall festival, to be held in Fort Wayne the week beginning August 25. The committee in charge of this branch of the entertainment held a meeting last evening and decided upon the plan of the display.

Calhoun street is to be a blaze of light from Washington street to the base ball park, and in that space an even dozen large electric arches will overtop the fanciful designs wrought in electric lights along the way. Manager Sargent, who is directing the advance preparations, says the display will fully equal that of the famous fall festival at Cincinnati.

The general plan as outlined for the week is as follows: Monday is merchants' and manufacturers' day, and it will be inaugurated by a big industrial parade. Tuesday is set apart for the children, and all under 12 years of age will have free access to the attractions between the hours of 1 and 4 o'clock. Wednesday is farmers' day, and prizes will be given for the most meritorious exhibit of farm products. Thursday is Fort Wayne day, and a number of special street attractions will mark this event. Friday is Indiana day, and invitations will be sent to Governor Durbin and members of his staff to be present. Saturday is devoted to labor day, and it will have an appropriate special program.

HON. E. L. BARBER INJURED.

(Pierceton Record.)

One day last week Hon. E. L. Barber, of Larwill, fell down stairs in Fort Wayne and broke his thigh bone. He had been visiting his son, Edward, in that place for a short time and the two occupied rooms in the same building. Mr. Barber was passing through the hall on the way to his room when he was afflicted with dizziness. He lost his balance when he passed the head of the stairs and fell down, breaking his thigh bone and bruising himself up generally. He was taken to the hospital for treatment and is reported to be in a critical condition. Mr. Barber has many friends in this vicinity as well as in and around Larwill who will learn with regret of his misfortune.

GOES TO THE IDAHO NORMAL.

Franklin, Ind., Aug. 1.—Professor Horace Ellis has tendered his resignation as superintendent of public schools of this city. He has accepted the presidency of the Idaho state normal school at Albion, Idaho, and will leave here on Sept. 1. He came here two years ago from West Lafayette, Ind., where he was superintendent of schools. He is a graduate of the Indiana state university of the class of '96. The new position was unsolicited by him, but offered such inducements he could not decline. His successor has not yet been chosen.

FIND WORLD'S BIGGEST TREE.

Fresno, Cal., Aug. 1.—What undoubtedly is the largest known tree in the world has been discovered on the government reservation far up in the Sierras in this county. Six feet from the ground it took a line 154 feet 8 inches long to encircle the tree, making it over fifty-one feet in diameter.

YOUNG BARON WAS A FRAUD

VON MANTEUFFEL CAME TO GRIEF IN NEW YORK.

Skillful Swindler Who Cut a Wide Swath Tells of a Recent Visit to Fort Wayne.

Little more than a week ago there drifted into Fort Wayne a young German, polished of manner and faultlessly attired, who represented himself to be a son of General Baron Von Manteuffel, one of the most famous of modern German soldiers. His conversation gave evidence of culture and fine education, and he was kindly received by a number of Fort Wayne citizens, in once case being entertained at dinner. To another he shyly admitted that he was in financial embarrassment and secured a temporary loan of small amount, promising a remittance as soon as he reached New York.

The young man was a pleasing conversationalist, well versed in mechanics, and altogether made a most favorable impression here. But the alleged baron turns out to be a fraud of the most pronounced type, and a telegram from New York to the Chicago Chronicle today contains some surprises for the acquaintances the young fellow made in Fort Wayne. The story reads as follows:

"I probably shall do more work in the next six months than I have for two years past," said one of the prisoners who landed on Blackwell's island today, "but the exercise may do me good. When I come out, I think, I will have to start at something else or try to make an honest living."

HAD TRIED WORK.

"But I don't know. I tried that for four years and my family nearly starved, and after I found how easy it was to make a good living without work I didn't want to go back to it."

The prisoner was Hermann Wilhelm Truebner, whose beautifully engraved cards inscribed "Baron Von Manteuffel" and "Professor Wilhelm Von Humboldt" gained him audiences, hospitality, sympathy and cash gifts from such prominent persons as J. Pierpont Morgan, Charles M. Schwab, Mrs. Howard Gould, H. O. Havemeyer, William C. Whitney, Clarence H. Mackay, Jacob H. Schiff, Mrs. Grace Dodge, Seth Low and ex-Mayor Edward Cooper.

He operated in Chicago for a month last spring, where he passed himself off as a nephew of Von Humboldt, the famous scientist. He thought it best to leave when one of the German-American societies pressed its investigations too closely.

"I had to leave Chicago over the back fence," said Truebner with a smile.

"I had $7 left, and I walked to South Chicago and took a train to Fort Wayne to escape arrest."

"At Fort Wayne I met a millionaire who controlled the trolley railroads and the natural gas company and I represented myself as a gas engineer with a fine position in New York, but an empty pocketbook owing to my infatuation for a woman."

FEASTED IN FORT WAYNE.

"The old German laughed and said he was young once himself and took me to his house, where we feasted and drank in the old German fashion. I slept there all night. The next day he bought me a ticket on the Pennsylvania limited to New York and gave me the remainder of a $50 bill. The ticket cost $22.92."

Truebner said that while he was not really the son of General Baron Von Manteuffel, who was dictator of Alsace-Lorraine at the close of the Franco-Prussian war, the name really was his own and he had some claim to the title of baron. He did not insist on this point strongly, however, and he smiled shrewdly when he added:

"My passport was made out in that name when I came from Germany six years ago. They say they found that acid had been used on the paper to make changes in it, but I never used acid."

Then he smiled again and showed a set of perfect white teeth, in keeping with the rest of his appearance, which is refined. He has clear-cut, delicately-chiseled features, a tiny blonde mustache, and light hair, which is fine and wavy.

He admitted that he did not obtain his degree, but said he spent two years at the University of Heidelberg and got more than a smattering of college education. He speaks French, Italian, Spanish and German and his accent when talking in English is slight and that of a cultivated foreigner.

EASY TO REACH THEM.

"It's easy enough to reach wealthy men and women if you exercise ingenuity," he said. "I always was well dressed and carried a watch, and can talk very well. I am educated and I know quite a little about chemistry and engineering and literature and languages. I can talk about art and science more intelligently than most of the people I visited, and, of course, that impressed them."

"I think William C. Whitney and John Jacob Astor are the two hardest men to get at. I reached Whitney, but I never saw Astor. I had seen Mr. Whitney at the race track and I went to his country house at Roslyn. He gave me a check. I drove down to the station with him in his own carriage.

"When I went to Mr. Morgan's office a big officer stopped me, but when I said I had an appointment with Mr. Morgan he said: 'Oh, yes,' and told me he was out and would be back in a few minutes."

"I pulled out my watch and said I would be back in ten minutes, and when I returned I was ushered right into his private office. I told Mr. Morgan I was an engineer and chemist and that certain men had sent me to him to see if he could not get me employment."

FINDS MORGAN ROUGH.

"The names I mentioned were those of millionaires, but he was rough. He said he did not think he would have time to find anything for me. Then I told him about my distress at home and he listened impatiently and finally turned to a secretary and told him to write a check for me."

"It was like throwing a bone to a dog, the way he did it. Of course, he only wanted to get rid of me and thought this was the easiest and cheapest way. I used to feel sorry for imposing on some of the men who helped me, because they were so gentlemanly and polite. They would hand me the money in an envelope."

"Clarence Mackay is a prince. He had an appointment with me for 3 o'clock, and promptly on the hour he came out of his office and extended his hand to me and said: 'What can I do for you, baron?'"

"Yes, he helped me, but I was almost ashamed to take the money. That's second avenue slang, but I mean it."

"But I haven't enough nerve to make a big success in this line. I was working this way all the time for just money enough to pay the bills at home and support the family decently. My wife never knew anything about this. She thought I was selling a horse liniment. I always left every morning at a certain time and got home for dinner, and my wife thought I was honest."

"Well, I never got any money from anyone who couldn't well afford to lose it. And I never begged. I only borrowed money which I never repaid."

PLEADS GUILTY TO MURDER

AGED GRAND RAPIDS MAN TO GO TO PRISON FOR LIFE.

Herman Heuvelhorst, Who Slew His Sister-in-Law, Pleads Guilty on Arraignment.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 31.—Herman Heuvelhorst, aged 62 years, who shot and fatally wounded his sister-in-law, Mrs. Berinda Heuvelhorst, last Tuesday evening, was this morning arraigned in the superior court and pleaded guilty to a charge of murder.

The penalty is imprisonment for life.

Mrs. Heuvelhorst died yesterday afternoon.

Infuriated because Mrs. Heuvelhorst would neither marry him nor permit him to return to her home to board, Heuvelhorst discharged the contents of a shotgun into the woman's back as she fled from his presence.

MAY KEEP MEMENTOES.

Washington, July 31.—No question will be raised to prevent the acceptance by the officers of the army and navy of the mementoes bestowed by Prince Henry in appreciation of courtesies received by him during his American tour. The souvenirs which he gave are not looked upon as gifts bestowed by a foreign ruler within the inhibition of the constitution, but merely as tokens of personal esteem and appreciation. As a matter of fact the gifts mentioned yesterday in the dispatches from Berlin designed for distinguished Americans who participated in Prince Henry's reception in most cases were presented personally by the prince before his departure from this country.

USED INJUNCTION

CATS BULLS RESTRAINED BY CHICAGO COURT.

JUDGE CHYTRAUS' ORDER

MANIPULATORS OF CORNER LOSE IN SUIT.

BUSINESS IS NOT AFFECTED

THOUGH CLOSE IS MARKED BY SLUMP IN ALL GRAINS.

Chicago, July 31.—Judge Chytraus today modified the injunction issued yesterday restraining the Chicago board of trade and the board of trade operators, James Patten, Carrington Patten & Co., and Bartlett, Frazier & Co., from conducting a corner in July standard oats, by restraining the defendants from asking the president of the board of trade to endorse down margins deposited by the complainants, Waite, Thorburn & Co. to secure 55,000 bushels of short sales. The court held sessions before the opening hour of the board of trade in order that a decision might be arrived at before business was begun. So important, however, did the court consider the precedent of the case that the motion for a dissolution of the temporary injunction was not considered and the case will come up for further adjudication next week.

The effect of the action of the court is for the time being to protect the complainants against any alleged corner and is construed as working against the bull clique operators on the board.

Argument was brought to bear by attorneys for the board and for the defendant operators that inasmuch as both the complainants and the defendants were members of a tribunal which adjudicates controversies between its members, the injunction should be dissolved on the ground of want of jurisdiction. It was argued that the complainants were premature in asking for an injunction against a corner when no such corner was in effect and when the board of trade rules specifically prohibited corners.

ANSWER OF DEFENDANTS.

The defendant members of the board of trade in answer to the injunction denied the affirmation that July standard oats were worth not in excess of 85 cents a bushel and said they were worth more than that price. They also denied any conspiracy among themselves or with Jos. Bidwell, grain inspector, to corner July oats or to forestall the market in that commodity or to raise the price of July oats. They denied that they had given a fictitious value to the article and that they had made any purchases for July delivery since July 1. It was set forth that the elevator accommodation and railway facilities of Chicago were such that they would allow of delivery of fifteen times the amount of oats bought of Waite, Thorburn & Co. by the defendants and that frequently the defendants had bought ten times as much as their total purchases in this delivery. Following are the purchases made in July standard oats by the bull clique as set forth in their affidavit:

Bartlett, Frazier & Co., 900,000 bushels.

Carrington, Patten & Co., 100,000 bushels.

James A. Patten, 860,000 bushels. Attorney J. H. Monroe, for the defendants, in addressing the court, made sharp allusions to the complainants having been of a speculative turn of mind and sold something they did not have and when they did not have the means of obtaining for delivery. He said it looked as if the complainants were trying to make money by buying in property at a less price than that for which it had been sold.

Judge Chytraus, before modifying the order, told the attorneys he did not consider the injunction restraining the defendants from bidding, buying or selling or refusing to buy or sell July oats in the pit or from any of their accustomed business operations aside from those in connection with the complainants.

NO EFFECT ON BUSINESS.

There was practically no effect on business in oats from the injunction. The assurance by Judge Chytraus that ordinary business could be done by the defendants and other members of the board of trade acted as a check against any early violent fluctuations. A notice was posted on 'change interpreting the court action as a dismissal of the injunction against the board of trade, and stating that all business could proceed as usual, save in the matter of closing out deals with Thorburn, Waite & Co. The matter was considered held in abeyance.

July standard oats opened 1c higher at 64c and sold at 65c early. James Patten sent brokers into the pit to sell and about 100,000 bushels were covered early by shorts, July declining to 63½c. Sept. oats opened a shade up at 32¼c, but sold to 31¾c @31½c before noon in sympathy with July.

Speculators on the board were all inclined to comment unfavorably upon the appeal to the courts. The big bulls said if such a precedent were established there would be nothing but short selling. If prices went down deliveries would be made, but if the price went against the sellers there would be nothing to prevent them defaulting on their contracts.

Apparently intimidated by the possibilities of having to answer to the court if fictitious prices were pumped into July oats, all speculators allowed the manipulated July options in all grains to die with a flash in the pan. July oats were sold freely by the bulls and many of the shorts covered, bringing a closing price 1c up at 64c. The famous July corn deal ended in a slump of 3c and closed up at 58c. July wheat was delivered freely and prices slumped sharply, losing at one time 6c. The close was 5½c down, at 69¾c. Other deliveries were weaker, but not markedly so.

MINISTER WU WILL REMAIN

NOT TO RETURN TO CHINA FOR SOME MONTHS.

His Successor, Now in London, Must Return to China Before Coming to Washington.

Washington, July 31.—The announcement from China that Minister Wu is to remain here indefinitely is explained by the further announcement here that there has been a change of plans and that Liang Cheng, the newly appointed minister to the United States, who is now in London, acting as secretary to Prince Chen, instead of coming directly to Washington to assume his office, as originally intended, is going first to make a visit to China. This will consume from four to six months, so that Minister Wu probably will not be able to leave the United States this year.

It is stated at the Chinese legation that the embassy appointed by the Chinese government to represent China at the coronation ceremonies has changed its plans and will not be present at the coronation of King Edward VII. It is said that the embassy may be expected to arrive in this country within a fortnight.

The state department has been informed that Sheng, the Chinese viceroy at Shanghai has stated that the British and Chinese commissioners have fixed the duties on imports entering China at 12½ per cent, and the export duties at 7½ per cent, and have provided for the abolition of a like tax.

This dispatch is understood to refer to the British-Chinese trade treaty, which it was announced was concluded recently at Shanghai, and which will, in all probability, serve as the model for similar treaties to be negotiated between China and the United States, and other parties to the Peking agreement. It is understood that the increases contained in the British-Chinese treaty, to which Sheng refers, will not take effect as to British goods until the other commercial powers have made similar arrangements.

REV. P. F. ROCHE INJURED.

Rev. P. F. Roche, pastor of the Cathedral, was thrown from his buggy at the corner of Wayne and Lafayette streets Friday morning and painfully bruised. Father Roche was driving east on Wayne street, and when near the new Methodist church the bridle broke, and the horse broke into a gallop. The buggy was overturned at Lafayette street and Father Roche was thrown out. The horse ran to Berry street and then turned east. It was captured near the corner of Barr. Eddie Brennan, who was in the carriage with Father Roche, jumped out as the horse started and was uninjured.

BOUGHT AN AUTOMOBILE.

John B. Monning, acting for the Fall Festival association, has purchased a Buffalo automobile, which will be used for advertising purposes previous to the festival and will be given as a prize in a contest the last day of the carnival. The machine will arrive in a few days and will be placed on exhibition in one of the downtown stores.

SPOKE AT PORTLAND.

Lieutenant Governor N. W. Gilbert was at Portland Thursday in attendance at the fifth annual reunion of the Odd Fellows of Randolph and Jay counties. Mr. Gilbert was one of the principal speakers of the day.

Next Year Are Placed.

Honingsvaag, Norway, Aug. 1.—Evelyn B. Baldwin, the Arctic explorer, arrived here today. He reported all his men in good health and said:

"We have been baffled, but not beaten."

Mr. Baldwin continued as follows: "The year's work has been successful in that enormous depots of condensed food have been established by means of sledges, one in Rodolf land, within sight of the Italian expedition headquarters, another in latitude 81 degrees, 33 minutes, and a third at Kane lodge, Greeley island. These depots, together with houses and stores left at Camp Zeigler, will afford the means for a large polar dash in 1903."

HELD FOR INTENT TO KILL

ONE OF THE COLORED RIOTERS ARRESTED.

Jailed for Want of Bond—Bill Hochstetter and May Baughman Fed the Animals—Police News.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Judge Dreihelmiss had quite a miscellaneous crowd to deal with this morning and offenses of more or less gravity were found on his calendar.

Ellis Smith, colored, was most severely dealt with. Smith was arrested last evening on Grand street and is charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. He was one of the three colored men implicated in the shooting affair night before last, in which William Collins was shot in the leg by "Shorty" Milan, who is still at large. Smith, it is said, started the racket and proceeded to do some carving with his razor. Collins, who was a third and innocent party to the affair, got mixed up and stopped "Shorty's" bullets. Smith pleaded not guilty to the charge, said he wanted a lawyer and asked for a continuance. The case was set for August 7 and the prisoner was placed under bond of $2,000. Failing to secure a bondsman, he was sent to jail.

A STRENUOUS TIME.

Bill Hochstetter and May Baughman, or Bookman, were out for a high old time last night, and they had it. About 11 o'clock they raised more excitement along Columbia street and the territory north of the city than has been provoked there in a long time. Murder and riot looked like small change compared to what this worthy pair stirred up. They were in a buggy, and as they drove through the streets the woman screamed at the top of her voice, calling for police and help, while the gentle William insisted in stentorian tones that he would kill her this time, sure. Whether it was all a joke at the time does not appear, but anyway, they led the police a merry chase. The wagon went north on Clinton street, and Sergeant Harkenrider took a Lakeside car and finally gave up the hunt near the feeble minded institute. All the down town officers were on the lookout, and finally after midnight Officer Strodel ambled up to the station with the bibulous pair in tow. They were as affectionate as turtle doves, as drunk as owls and as indignant as vultures. They were locked up and this morning both pleaded not guilty to being drunk and wanted an opportunity to get attorneys. Their cases were continued until tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock and they were placed under $100 bond each, failing to give which both went below.

PUNISHED FOR THEFT.

Earl McMamery, whose arrest was noted yesterday, was charged with vagrancy and was sent over for 16 days. He was arrested for stealing a pair of driving lines from M. Baites & Co., but the charge of vagrancy was placed against him in order to give the officers an opportunity to make inquiries concerning him. He claims his home to be at Toledo, but tells many conflicting stories. He is about 17 years of age and there is a suspicion that he may be an escaped reform school lad. Mr. Baites identified and recovered his lines this morning.

Eddie Lassus, a young man out on parole from the Indiana reform school at Plainfield, was picked up yesterday for carrying concealed weapons. The officers at Plainfield were notified and the young man was held pending the arrival of a custodian who will conduct the boy back to his old quarters.

Frank Sweeney pleaded not guilty to a charge of vagrancy, but he went over for 16 days just the same. He has been out of jail only a few days, having been sent over June 25 for train climbing. He is supposed to be so crooked that he has to sleep in a tub. He was yesterday found peddling cheap jewelry and is supposed to be one of a gang of three "phony" ring men who have been operating quietly for about a week.

E. B. Jones, who is an Abbot township farmer, reported a stand on the city market, reporting yesterday that someone left a purse containing a small sum of money on his stand yesterday. He deposited the purse at the police station, where the owner can get it.

POLICE NOTES.

Officer White picked up a stray mare last night and stabled her at Weick's barn.

Blanche Kuffe, of 1604 West Main street, reports the loss of a purse containing a small sum of money.

E. G. Kampe, of 801 West Jefferson street, reports that someone stole a gardiner and some plants from his yard. The police have an idea that this theft was committed by the same party who carried away a rattan chair from the front porch of

DANIEL W. KANE MARRIED.

The Bloomington, Ill., Bulletin has the following account of the marriage of Miss Margaret Frances O'Neill, of that city, and Daniel William Kane, of Indianapolis, son of James M. Kane, of Fort Wayne:

"This morning at 7:00, at the cathedral in Indianapolis, occurred the marriage of Miss Margaret Frances O'Neill, of this city, to Daniel William Kane, of Indianapolis. High mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Clemmons, an intimate friend of the groom. The attendants were Miss Grace O'Neill, sister of the bride, and George Walsh. The bride was attired in white Paris muslin and carried American beauty roses. The bride is a vivacious young lady, of sunny disposition and very attractive. She is the daughter of Mrs. Mary O'Neill, of 904 North Center street, and one of Bloomington's most prominent families. Mr. Kane is traveling salesman for Kipp Bros., one of the largest wholesale houses in Indianapolis. He is the son of James M. Kane, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and a highly respected citizen. The bridal party left on a trip to the lakes. They will be at home to friends in Bloomington after August 15. Their many friends wish them much success in their new voyage. Mrs. O'Neill, mother of the bride, and son Owen, of St. Louis, attended the wedding.

WILL DOUBLE ITS CAPACITY

UNION MANUFACTURING COMPANY IS PROSPERING.

Leases Additional Room and Will Install Much Machinery—New Concern Grows Rapidly.

The Union Manufacturing company, whose factory is on Maiden Lane, is preparing to double its present capacity, and within a few weeks will install a vast amount of new machinery.

The company is one of the newer manufacturing enterprises of the city, but it is showing a phenomenal growth. The company is made up of Messrs. Julius Tonne, W. B. Phillips, W. F. Ranke and C. A. Singrey, and is engaged in the manufacture of working suits and overalls of special design.

The factory, at present employing more than fifty people, has always been a busy place, but the company has been unable to meet the demand for its goods. It has now leased an additional room adjoining its present plant, and has made a purchase of machinery that will double its present capacity. Within five weeks the new equipment will probably be in operation, with a hundred employees.

BUILDING DITCHING MACHINE.

A ditching machine will soon leave the Wabash shops in this city and be placed in service on the new line between Butler and New Haven. The plans for the machine were drawn by Leo Yarian, an apprentice in the mechanical department, upon lines similar to those followed in the construction of a machine which has been doing good work on the western division of the road. This ditcher has a capacity of making at one cut a ditch four feet wide and three feet deep and to do it quickly and perfectly. To make a wider and deeper ditch, extra "cuts" will be necessary. The machine can cover territory eight feet from the outside rail.

WILL PLAY PAULDING.

An excursion will be run from Paulding, Ohio, on Sunday, August 10, to this city and arrangements have been made for a game between the Paulding and Shamrocks at League park on that day. The Paulding team lays claim to the championship of Ohio, and they have defeated the Shamrocks a number of times. The game will be one of the best of the season and a large crowd of Paulding rooters will be here to endeavor to help their team to win.

COUNTER CHARGE

MITCHELL REPLIES TO THE CITIZENS' ALLIANCE.

DEFENDS MINERS' CONDUCT

ASSERTS A MINIMUM OF LAWLESSNESS BY STRIKERS.

SAYS ALLIANCE IS BIASED

GOOD ORDER PREVAILS AT SHE-NANDOAH.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 1.—President Mitchell, of the miners' union, today gave to the public his reply to the open letter addressed to him yesterday by the Citizens' alliance of Wilkesbarre, an organization made up of business and professional men and others. In an address at the convention of miners of the first district of the United Mine Workers, held at Nanticoke some weeks ago, Mr. Mitchell criticized the alliance because, he claimed, it was not consistent. It wanted to prosecute all miners who violated the law, he claimed, but overlooked the many violations of the law committed every day by the coal combination. The alliance replied in an open letter, in which they enumerated many outrages said to have been committed by strikers and others in the coal region since the strike began. Mr. Mitchell was called upon to define his position and to issue a proclamation to his followers warning them to keep on the side of the law and order. He made no reply to the letter. Yesterday the alliance issued another open letter to the labor chief and after consulting with his advisers, Mr. Mitchell decided to answer it. In his reply he takes the ground that he has always been a staunch defender of law and order and that his followers know it.

MR. MITCHELL'S REPLY.

President Mitchell, in the course of his reply to the Citizens' alliance, which communication he made public this afternoon, says:

"Permit me to say that I do not recognize your right to make demands upon me to specifically declare myself opposed to any special classes of lawlessness. As a citizen of the United States and the chief executive of the miners' organization, I have declared on innumerable occasions and in language not susceptible of misconception that I am opposed to lawlessness of every character; and I do not propose to alter my views to conform to the tenets of the Citizens alliance, namely, wink at capital crimes while inveighing against minor offenses. I have never in my life sought to condone an unlawful act. I have thrown the full weight of my personality and influence on the side of law and order; and I can say without egotism that the miners' union and its officers have done more for the conservation of peace than all the citizens' alliances that have been or could be formed by men like yourselves, whose sympathy with the poor and oppressed is like unto the friendship Brutus entertained for Caesar.

LESS LAWLESS THAN POLICE.

"I do not assume to say that there have not been some transgressions of law by members of the miners' union, but I do say, and defy you to successfully contradict the statement that there has been much less lawlessness on the part of the miners—and that which has occurred has been less serious—in proportion to their number than on the part of deputies and coal and iron police, who are charged with authority and are specifically commissioned to preserve the law, and against whom you have made no protest and your association taken no action whatsoever. And, further, the records in the police courts will demonstrate that a smaller number of miners have been convicted of crime in the anthracite mining towns during the progress of the strike than for a like period preceding it.

"Again, I have no hesitancy in saying that there never was a great upheaval, either industrial, political or social, in which there was as little real lawlessness as has existed in the anthracite region since the strike was inaugurated. As I said in my speech at Nanticoke—to which you took exception—the miners are as law-abiding, as patriotic, as liberty-loving as any other class of citizens in our country and I shall not permit you to malign them or defame the residents of this community either by direct charge or insinuation, without registering an emphatic protest."

Mr. Mitchell had nothing to say with reference to the suit in equity brought against him and other national officers of the United Mine Workers by a coal company in West Virginia.

THE ORDER FOR TROOPS.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 1.—Governor Stone's general order placing troops on duty at Shenandoah was made public today by Adjutant General Stewart. Orders were also issued today by Major General Miller formally placing General Gobin in command of the troops in the field.

The governor's address from the strike region are that everything is quiet and that there are no signs of further trouble. The governor's order follows:

"Unlawful assemblages of persons have congregated in some sections of the commonwealth, and by acts of violence and disregard of law, have taken human life and placed life and property in jeopardy. The civil authorities are unable to preserve the public peace, protect life and property and secure to citizens of the commonwealth their rights and privileges under the constitution and the laws. Lawlessness, disorder and conduct tending to disturb the public peace and the safety of life and property will be suppressed, and to that end such portions of the national guard as may be necessary to enforce the laws will be placed on duty to assist the civil authorities in restoring and maintaining peace and order.

"The sheriff of Schuylkill county, having advised the governor of his inability to preserve order and protect life and property, and the governor being satisfied upon investigation that tumult, riot and mob violence does exist, the major general commanding the division, National Guard of Pennsylvania, will place on duty such portions of the division as in his judgment may be necessary to properly assist the sheriff of Schuylkill county in restoring and maintaining peace and order.

"The major general commanding the division will report fully to these headquarters.

(Signed.)

"By order of W. A. Stone,
Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

"Thomas J. Stewart, Adjutant General."

HEAVY STORM VISITS STATE

TWO VICTIMS ARE CLAIMED BY LIGHTNING.

Crops Damaged and Railway Bridges

Washed Out—Cloudburst Deluges Winona Park.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 1.—Central Indiana was yesterday swept by one of the most severe rain and electrical storms of the year. Two persons were killed by lightning, half a dozen were injured and property and growing crops were damaged to the extent of thousands of dollars.

The dead:

Charles Sunderling, Cass county.

Louis Clawson, Tippecanoe county.

The injured:

James Sunderling, Cass county, stunned by lightning.

William Jeffries, Miami county, paralyzed by lightning.

A farm hand employed by Louis Clawson, near Heath, was prostrated by the bolt of lightning which killed Clawson and three persons were seriously shocked by a lightning bolt at Peru. A bridge on the L. E. & W. railroad near Peru was swept away by high water and a section of the C. R. & M. tracks near Converse was washed out. Many buildings were unroofed by the wind and in the storm-swept section growing corn is laid to the ground. The loss to buildings and growing crops will reach thousands of dollars. At Lake Winona the hotels and Auditorium are under water and at Warsaw pipes in the new sewer system burst, flooding the basements of many business houses. In the oil field many derricks were destroyed by lightning.

WARSAW IS UNDER WATER.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 1.—The heaviest rainfall in the history of Kosciusko county took place here yesterday, more than four inches of water falling in one hour. As a result the low grounds in this city and at Winona lake are inundated and the damage will be enormous. In this city the new sewer system burst in several places and the basements of a number of stores are flooded, damaging many thousands of dollars' worth of goods. At Winona lake the low ground is covered with water several feet deep and during the afternoon program at the Auditorium yesterday afternoon the audience was forced to climb on the seats to keep out of the water. The lower floors of both the Winona hotel and the Inn are flooded and no supper was served at either place last night. The assembly program will be postponed until the water settles. The damage in the county to buildings and the sewers will amount to many thousands of dollars.

BIG REALTY DEAL

PRETTY NEW SUBURB WILL BE PLATTED AT ONCE.

IS CALLED LAWTON PLACE

BARNETT ESTATE ON SPY RUN AVENUE CHANGES HANDS.

RIVER BOULEVARD PLANNED

ANOTHER BIG DEAL IS UNDER WAY AND PROMISING.

At half past 1 Friday afternoon the final papers in a transfer were executed which will give to Fort Wayne one of its prettiest suburban additions and one which will do much toward encouraging other improvements of a similar character to be made, provided the hopes and intentions of the promoters of the enterprise in point are realized. After completing the transfer and filling their deeds, "The Lawton Place Improvement company" forwarded their articles of incorporation to the secretary of state and upon the return of the certificate will record the same with the county recorder, where all the transfers of the deeds for the property in question have already been recorded. The incorporators of The Lawton Place Improvement company are George Jaap, president; James Goodfellow, secretary, and William Goodfellow, treasurer. The company is capitalized at $24,000, the money has been paid in and the property is in possession.

DEAL QUIETLY HANDLED.

This deal has been quietly handled and involves the ownership of a very desirable tract of land lying east of Spy Run avenue, which has been an object of covetousness among real estate dealers for a number of years. The plat commences at the first alley north of Riverside avenue and extends north 350 feet and eastward to the St. Joe river, including in its boundaries all of the Barnett estate lying east of the avenue. This piece of ground was once platted, but has been replatted and upon different lines. A fifty foot street will be extended eastward from Spy Run avenue, passing directly over the site now occupied by the old and for a long time untenanted brick house belonging to the estate. A tier of three lots on each side of this street, and fronting Spy Run avenue are followed by fifty other lots of forty foot frontage, ranging from 150 to 140 feet in depth, the difference in the depth being the widening of the street as it passes eastward, and which will be known as Lawton Place. After the first tier of lots facing Spy Run has been passed, provisions for two parks, oval in form and running the length of each of the two squares and thirty feet wide are provided for in the plat. The street on either side of the park plat will be twenty-five feet in width.

A RIVER BOULEVARD.

On the river end of the addition the greatest innovations are provided for and there a large sum of money will be expended by the company. The entire river front from Riverside avenue around through the street already opened and connecting with Spy Run avenue at a point opposite the Freeman homestead, will be paved and a magnificent river boulevard will be maintained. Before entering into the proposition the promoters consulted with and arranged for this improvement with the property owners there, consisting almost entirely of the heirs to the Freeman, the Shoaff and the Jones estates, and it was with the attorneys of the Jones estate that the final negotiations were completed this afternoon. The company will grade all the streets and alleys, will provide for fire protection and water service, electric lighting and all conveniences enjoyed within the city limits, but the greatest sum of money will be expended on the river front boulevard.

MONEY FOR IMPROVEMENT.

The $24,000 named in the articles of incorporation is designated as being for improvement only, the property having already been acquired. The same piece of ground has been viewed and negotiated for a number of times, but no arrangements for transfer were ever before perfected. To complete the title the deeds had to be sent to California to be acknowledged, and it was not until the acknowledgment of the deeds was telegraphed to the promoters and the last possible obstacle to the consummation of the deed had been removed, could any reliable information be obtained. "Lawton Place" was chosen as the name of the addition in honor of the late General Lawton and also on account of its close proximity to Lawton park.

BIG LAND DEAL ON.

An Indianapolis syndicate, in which Mayor Charles A. Bookwalter is said to be largely interested, has made an offer of $25,000 for the big farm owned by the Lutheran synod in the eastern part of the city. It is intimated that the trustees of the property will recommend a sale at the figure named and the matter is to be passed to the synod officials for final action. The cash for first payment upon the property is already deposited with a Fort Wayne gentleman who is acting for the Indianapolis men in the transaction.

The deal has been under consideration for several weeks and in their investigations the Indianapolis people looked at a number of tracts in various parts of the city—at least five being under inspection. They are most favorably inclined toward the Lutheran college farm of ninety-four acres, lying along Walton avenue and Pontiac street, in the extreme eastern part of the city. It is designed to plat the land, construct improvements and place the lots upon the market somewhat after the plan of the Lakeside land company.

JUDGE DURAND IS CHOSEN

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF MICHIGAN.

Free Silver Element Against Him—
Alleged Gold Democrat Though
Not a Bolter.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 1.—Yesterday's sessions of the Michigan democratic convention in Light Guard armory seemed to prove that harmony is not a virtue altogether unattainable in democratic ranks.

Judge George H. Durand, of Flint, who filled a vacancy on the supreme bench of this state during the year 1892 and who is generally credited with being a gold democrat at heart, although not a bolter in 1896, was nominated for governor late in the afternoon on the fourth ballot, when he received 573 votes, 508 being necessary to a choice.

After the first ballot the race was between Durand and State Senator Helme, of Lansing, Sligh, of Grand Rapids, and Hammell, of Lansing, being practically out of it.

The free silver element made a vigorous fight to defeat Durand, intimating that he would likely leave the party in the lurch and either refuse to run or conduct a lukewarm campaign. He did not attend the convention and authorized no one to use his name as a candidate.

JUDGE NOT PRESENT.

He was not even mentioned by his home delegation from Genesee county. His name was presented by ex-Congressman T. E. Tarsney, of Detroit, who formerly represented the Tenth district in congress. Judge Durand's son, who was here, refused to encourage any one who was booming his father's candidacy. It was stated that the judge was out on a fishing expedition somewhere in the northern part of the state and could not be reached by wire.

But, despite the absence of any definite assurance of acceptance from him and the constant repetition by the silver people of the suggestion that Durand might decline to run if nominated, the candidacy of the gold democrat from Flint started out strong and made steady gains, until he had landed the nomination.

After the nomination of Durand had been made unanimous on motion of D. J. Campau, of Detroit, the generally accepted leader of the silver democrats, State Senator Helme, declared from the platform that he was ready to put his shoulder to the wheel and work heart and soul for the nominee.

PLATFORM.

The platform adopted is devoted almost entirely to state issues, the only mention of national issues being an endorsement of the election of United States senators directly by the people.

The ticket was completed by the nomination of the following candidates, no opposition developing to any of the names presented: Lieutenant governor, John F. Bible, of Ionia; secretary of state, John Donovan, Bay City; treasurer, Wilbur F. Davidson, Port Huron; auditor general, David A. Hammond, of Ann Arbor; attorney general, William E. Knight, Grand Rapids; superintendent of public instruction, Prof. Woodbridge M. Ferris, Big Rapids; commissioner of land office, Charles F. Watson, Cheboygan; member state board of education, Charles F. Field, Hastings; justice of supreme court, to fill vacancy, Benjamin J. Brown, Menominee.

The convention adjourned sine die at 10 p. m.

HAS BIG CAPITAL

NEW INTERURBAN COMPANY IS INCORPORATED.

FT. WAYNE, VAN WERT & LIMA

WILL BE PARENT HEAD OF NEW ELECTRIC LINES.

CAPITAL STOCK IS $2,000,000

COMPANY EQUIPPED TO HANDLE LARGE PROJECTS.

The Fort Wayne, Van Wert and Lima Traction company, with a capital stock of $2,000,000, is to be the parent head of the new interurban line projected out of Fort Wayne to the eastward, and the preparation of the articles of incorporation were completed Friday and the document forwarded to the office of the secretary of state for proper record.

The personnel of the new company includes ten well known and responsible business men, Indiana, Ohio and New York being represented in the directorate, and the formation of the company is the outcome of the movement which has been in progress for some months. The title of the company would indicate that the Fleming line from Fort Wayne to New Haven is to be materially extended—at least to Lima, and perhaps a still greater distance.

The constructing company was organized at Lima during the past week and offices are to be opened in Fort Wayne within a short time. The gentlemen behind the big project have refrained from publicity and proceeded quietly and systematically with the organization of their plans. All the franchises have been secured and innumerable details looked after, so that when the actual work of construction is commenced within a very short time the line will be pushed rapidly to completion.

BOTTLE VENDORS ARE FINED

HUNTINGTON JUNK MEN ARE SENT TO JAIL.

Violated Statute of Which Both Professed Ignorance—The News in Police Circles.

Police court was rather protracted on Thursday on account of the volume of testimony introduced in several cases out of the usual order.

BEER BOTTLE CASES.

The most interesting and the unusual cases were those against Philip Simons and Ellsworth Reichert, both of Huntington, arrested yesterday afternoon for buying and selling proprietary beer bottles. The arrest was made by Detective Coling about 2 o'clock, and when arrested the men had several sacks filled with empty beer bottles, sixteen of which were branded with the name of the Centlivre Brewing Company. They were tried under the statute passed March 8, 1897, and this was the first case under the act ever tried in this county. The act is very explicit and very sweeping and provides for the punishment of any person buying or selling, or having in possession any bottles used for bottling beer, ginger ale, seltzer, cider mineral water or any beverage usually sold in bottles, when the name of the owner of the bottle is blown in the glass.

The law provides, first, however, that the owners of the bottles must file a description of the package and the inscriptions or letterings thereon with the county clerk and pay a stipulated sum for the registry. That being done, persons found selling or buying such registered bottles can be fined in a sum not to exceed $1 for each bottle for the first offense and $5 per bottle for subsequent offenses. While the men arrested had a number of bottles belonging to the Bergloff Brewing company and other breweries in their possession, the case was based on the bottles belonging to the Centlivre brewery alone, they being the only brewery that complied with the section of the act regarding registration to insure protection. J. B. Reuss, treasurer of the company was present in court and presented to the judge a certified copy of registration and other documents showing that his company had complied with all the requirements of the 1897 act.

The first case was that of Simons, who admitted that he had bought a number of bottles from parties and that last week he had bought 24 dozen from Charlie Lewis (meaning Charles Lushers) and that many of them were Centlivre bottles. He said that he was in the employ of Ellsworth Reichert, the other defendant, who is a junk dealer living at Huntington. He said further that he had made the purchase for his employer who knew of it and gave him the money to pay for the goods and that they paid six cents a dozen for the bottles. A load of these bottles was taken to Huntington, where they were sold to Hoch, a local brewer there. He did not know what Hoch did with them, but presumed he refilled them, although he could not positively testify to that statement. He was fined $10 and costs.

Ellsworth Reichert, the proprietor of the junk business was next called. He admitted that he had given Simons money last week to pay for bottles bought last week at Minsky's junk shop from Lewis or Lushers, but that he did not know it was against the law.

He also corroborated Simons' statement that the bottles had been sold to Hoch, the Huntington brewer. He was fined $10 and costs. The men did not have money enough to pay out, and were taken to jail. Meantime friends at Huntington were notified of the trouble the men were in and arrangements to pay the fine or stay the docket will be made.

HOCHSTETTER FINED.

The trial of William Hochstetter and Mary Boughman, continued from yesterday, also occupied considerable of the court's time. Hochstetter denied that he had been drunk last Tuesday night and said as much for his companion. He also denied having made any noise, having choked the woman, having been to any saloon that night, and was positive that Miss Boughman had made no outcry of any kind, and that, in short, the police department and persons living along Clinton street were mistaken in saying that they saw him or his companion, or that they made any noise, or conducted themselves in an unseemly manner. The evidence was all against William, however, and three disinterested witnesses corroborated Officer Strodel, who said Hochstetter was drunk when he arrested him. He was fined $5 and costs. With his partner it was different. Miss Boughman indignantly denied having been drunk that night, or any other night, and, as a matter of fact, she didn't drink half as much as the policemen do, which statement occasioned a ripple of laughter, which was speedily suppressed by Herr Lieutenant Lapp. There was no evidence of any kind to show that Mary was guilty as charged and she was allowed to go.

Charles Nash, a young Fort Wayne boy, was arrested by Detective Wilkinson for climbing on a moving Nickel Plate train. He pleaded guilty to the charge, and after a reprimand was allowed to go, his youth securing his release.

The trial of James Connell, charged with assaulting Henry Hirschfelder several nights ago, was again postponed, this time until August 6. Hirschfelder, it was represented, is not yet in condition to appear, hence the continuance.

POLICE NOTES.

George W. Ruhl, a traveling man, thinks that Fort Wayne is getting more metropolitan every day. Last week he set his valise down on the corner of Calhoun and Columbia streets while he was waiting for a car. He turned his head a moment to talk to a friend, and while thus engaged somebody got away with his grip, which he says is very much Chicago.

Two rather handsome satques and a fur cape were found on Columbia street last night and taken to the police station. They were evidently dropped from a wagon used in moving household goods.

SUBSTATIONS PROVE POPULAR

STAMP AGENCIES DO GOOD BUSINESS FIRST MONTH.

Postal Receipts from New Branch

Offices in the City Much Above Expectations.

The seven postal substations established in Fort Wayne just a month ago are proving very popular among the localities remote from the Fort Wayne postoffice, as is evidenced by the amount of business for the month of July. The figures below indicate the amount of stamp sales and number of money orders issued at each of the seven stations in the first month of their history:

Stamps.	M. O.
No. 1.....	$49.46
No. 2.....	19.29
No. 3.....	37.50
No. 4.....	27.56
No. 5.....	32.45
No. 6.....	31.48
No. 7.....	54.94

This is considerably above the estimates made for the opening month, and indications that as people become familiar with the location of the substations the business will be much larger. But ten letters were registered at the stations during July.

BARS REPORTERS

GENERAL JAKE SMITH WILL ALLOW NONE NEAR HIM.

WILL NOT BE INTERVIEWED

AUTHOR OF KILL AND BURN ORDER ARRIVES.

NOTIFIED OF RETIREMENT

HE REFUSES HIMSELF TO ALL VISITORS.

San Francisco, Aug. 1.—Gen. Jacob Smith arrived today from Manila on the transport Thomas. General Smith positively declined to say anything for publication and would not even allow reporters to approach him. Through his aide, Lieut. M. H. Shields, General Smith said he would not be interviewed, as he did not care to subject himself to further criticism.

Major Davol, of the transport service, delivered General Smith's order of retirement to him on board the ship. General Smith on landing went to the Occidental hotel and denied himself to all visitors.

HEARS BAD NEWS.

Standing on the bridge of the Thomas, eagerly waiting with the ship's captain for a glimpse of his native shore, General Smith was doomed this morning to first learn that the president had retired him from active duty. The pilot boat, which met the Thomas just outside the heads at 2 o'clock this morning, brought to General Smith the first news of the president's action. In the waning light of a binnacle lamp, the veteran read the message that apprised him of his fate. An hour later the dawn came and with it the sight of land, but General Smith had retired to his cabin, where, with his wife and chief aide, Lieutenant J. H. Shields, of the Twelfth infantry, he discussed the outcome of the long ordeal through which he had passed. Six hours later, when the Thomas reached the quarantine station in the harbor, Major Davol, of the transport service, boarded the ship with his secretary and met both General Smith and Lieutenant Shields at the door of the general's cabin. A sealed document from the war department was handed General Smith.

It contained the official notification of President Roosevelt's action and upon reading it General Smith retired, overcome with emotion.

General Smith was not seen again until the United States custom house tender, the Hartley, was ready to take the general and his party ashore. He denied himself to all interviewers, who were met by Lieut. Shields. Together with his wife and aide, General Smith proceeded to the Occidental hotel, repairing thence to army headquarters in the Phelan building, where he remained during the morning.

GENERAL MUCH WORSE.

General Smith, who is wearing civilian attire, appeared exceedingly nervous and worn. His sixty years are plainly read in his every action and his intimate friends fear he is breaking down under the severe strain to which he has been subjected in recent months.

It is not yet known when General Smith will proceed east. His sealed orders require him to report to the adjutant general at Washington and it is likely he will lose no time in starting for the national capital.

Repeated efforts made during the day to induce General Smith to discuss his campaign in the Philippines and his court martial failed entirely. He even declined to take up the subject with intimate friends.

The transport Thomas brings portions of the Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth infantry regiments and Tenth cavalry.

SECRET SOCIETY RAIDED.

Manila, Aug. 1.—A force of constabulary discovered recently an extensive Katipunan organization in Tayabas province and captured the headquarters and records of the organization. When the police attacked the headquarters the natives fled, leaving six prisoners and one dead man. A confession made by a prisoner and the documents taken revealed the existence of an extensive active organization.

The constabulary columns in Cavite have met again the bands of Felizardo and Montalio and scattered them in running fights. Captain Bagan, a bandit, was killed, and Felizardo was forced to abandon his horses.

DELUGE AT ROME CITY.

Cottagers at Rome City bring reports of an unusually severe rainstorm which visited the resort early Thursday afternoon, accompanied by much electrical disturbance. While the lightning was flashing several workmen employed in making improvements at the sanitarium are reported to have been considerably stunned and were thrown from the building, but not badly injured. The rainfall was excessively heavy.

GREAT BRITAIN'S NEXT QUEEN

VICTORIA MARY IS ESSENTIALLY ENGLISH AND SHE IS A WOMAN OF STRONG PERSONALITY.

When Victoria Mary seats herself in the gilded chair and receives the golden crown upon her head, the insignia of rank will fall upon one of the most interesting personages of modern history.

The world is so accustomed to the thought of old Queen Victoria, with her ways and her wisdom, and of the Queen Alexandra, with her bearing and her beauty, that the younger woman has, heretofore, escaped attention.

Yet none deserve it more than she. Her characteristics are more pronounced, her personality more captivating, her experience more varied than fall to the lot of many women, queenly or otherwise.

Victoria Mary came into the world in a pretty country house, Richmond Lodge, and when she came to the rea-every Sunday. Daily he strolls out with the babies. Every night he dines at home, unless at a state dinner with his wife along. He travels with her, quotes her, walks in York grounds with her and tells his mother how much he likes her. And if mortal man, be he king or huckster, could do more than this, then let him come forward and pick up the gauntlet of George V.

At one time it is said that the happiness of Victoria Mary was marred by gossip concerning the princess of Pless, who is accredited with being the handsomest woman in England. If this were so, the princess certainly hid her grief well, for she and George were seen daily together, and the princess of Pless was a visitor at their home and went out with them both quite frequently.

At home she is most interesting. Her favorite color is light pink and she wore a pink gown to church the last Sunday she and Queen Alexandra visited the royal chapel together.

Her favorite flowers are lilies and she carries them summer and winter.

She is fond of rings and has many feminine fancies; among them being the collection of book plates.

She is an expert tennis player, but has never golfed a great deal. She is no horse-woman, though she likes to drive in the pony cart, her son handling the reins.

In many ways the Princess May, as the English like to call her, is home-like and domestic; and the English people are glad that they are to have a queen whom they can like so well, and who is so much a part of them.

ITS HARMLESSNESS.

"Although we've had prohibition in this state for twenty-one years," said the landlord of the Atlantic and Pacific hotel at Boomopolis, Kan., in reply to the inquiry of a tourist from Connecticut, "it don't 'pear to have injured the inebriated rum traffic to any serious extent; and, besides that, it has been the means of inserting into office a good many otherwise hopeless failures, whom, in the ordinary course of events, we might have been compelled to support by private subscriptions. Nope! Prohibition ain't such a frivolous institution as you might think, if you just look at it in the right way!"—Puck.

THE EARLIEST BOOKS.

A Greek book of the age of Pericles, or a Latin book of the age of Caesar, was very unlike the books to which we are accustomed nowadays, says a writer in Harper's Magazine. The material on which it was written was papyrus, a fabric made out of the pith of the Egyptian water plant of that name. This gave a smooth and pleasant surface for writing on with the soft reeds which were then in use, but unfortunately it was not tough enough to withstand the disintegrating influences of time. In every country but one the ordinary trials of books—use, neglect, damp, insects and the like—have caused their complete destruction. It is only in the wonderfully dry climate of Egypt that they have been able to resist these tendencies. During the last century, and increasingly during the last twenty-five years, researches in the buried cities and cemeteries of Egypt have yielded great quantities of manuscripts upon papyrus—mostly fragments, it is true, but yet sufficient to restore to us several works of ancient literature which had been supposed to be hopelessly lost, and to show us by actual examples, dating as far back as the beginning of the third century, B. C., what an ancient book was like.

In another and more noticeable respect than material ancient books differed from modern. The papyrus was not cut up into leaves and bound into volumes like a modern book, but was manufactured in long rolls, which the reader unrolled as he progressed through the work he was reading. The length of these rolls might be anything up to thirty feet, but rarely exceeded this limit; the height would normally be about nine or ten inches. A roll of these dimensions would contain, in moderate-sized writing, an ordinary Greek play, or two books of the "Iliad," but collected editions of an author's work were impossible, except in the form of a great quantity of separate rolls. This fact goes far to explain why so many works by writers of the highest reputation have failed to come down to us.

The writing on a papyrus roll was divided into columns, the width of which was regulated by the length of the verses, if the work transcribed was in poetry, but in the case of prose works it rarely exceeded three inches. Papyrus continued to be the principal material in use for books of the best quality until the fourth century of our era, but about that time vellum, which had previously been employed mainly for inferior purposes, began to supersede it, and thenceforward the best copies of books were written upon this much more durable material.

A PHYSICIAN HEALED.

Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success." CARVED CARDIFF GIANT

The Sculptor Who Was Paid $15,000 for Making Barnum's Biggest Fraud.

(San Francisco Examiner.)

G. Fabricio Sala, artist and sculptor, who is at present in this city endeavoring to dispose of the statue of "Faith," that has been lying in the Mechanics' pavilion for a number of years, claims to have been the maker of the late P. T. Barnum's "Cardiff Giant," a figure on which the showman is supposed to have made $1,000,000 and hoaxed more people than by any of his other numerous and novel attractions.

The figure, to the many people who visited Barnum's shows in those days, was supposed to represent the petrified form of a prehistoric man. It was twelve feet long, four feet broad and weighed three and one half tons. It was supposed to have been dug out of the earth at Cardiff, N. Y. This, to a certain extent, was true, but the fact that it was carved out of gypsum and interred less than a year before by the clever ones was kept a profound secret. That it was one of the cleverest hoaxes ever perpetrated was proven by the number of sculptors, archaeologists, antiquarians, clergymen and others of the learned professions who were "taken in" by the figure, and gave more or less profound explanations of its origin.

Mr. Sala is an elderly man, who has made his reputation over the world as a sculptor of considerable merit. He said he simply undertook the work in a professional way, having been employed by a Mr. Taylor, who was at that time, 1868, a sort of silent partner with Barnum.

"Yes, it was I who carved the Cardiff giant," said Mr. Sala, "and Mr. Taylor paid me the handsome sum of $15,000 for the work; subsequently he often gave me $500 whenever his receipts were exceptionally good. I carved the giant in a barn near Quincy, Ill. The slab of gypsum was obtained in the vicinity. Of course, I had nothing to do with the statue after it left Quincy, but I know that from there it was shipped to Chicago, then by water to Buffalo, and finally by canal boat and team to Cardiff, N. Y., where it was buried. The nature of the package was, of course, kept a secret."

A number of the Popular Science Monthly published in 1878 bears out Mr. Sala's statement in some details, but mentions a Mr. Edward Salle, a German, as one of the sculptors, and the other as a Mr. Markham, an American. Mr. Sala claims that the Salle referred to can be no other than himself and the use of the name is a mistake on the part of the writer.

Before the burial of the giant in the old well at Cardiff the figure was subjected to long and "careful" rubbing with sand and water, which produced the water-worn appearance so often cited as incontrovertible evidence of extreme antiquity. The pores of the skin were carefully imitated by picking the entire surface with leaden hammers faced with needles, giving the peculiar "goose flesh" which puzzled so many. As there still remained an appearance of freshness, the figure was given a sulphuric acid bath to give it the desired appearance of age.

"A year afterward," the same publication says, "it was accidentally unearthed by well diggers, the arch engineer of the hoax being given as a Mr. Hull, a Binghamton tobacco-nist. It had been carefully arranged and there were many neighbors around to spread abroad the news of the extraordinary find of fossil remains. The crowd soon swelled to thousands from all parts of the neighboring country, and on the following day four medical men of the neighborhood, with scientific pretensions, investigated the giant and accepted the hoax without the least hesitancy. Later it was examined by a Dr. Boynton, of Syracuse, a man possessed of some antiquarian knowledge, and he came to the conclusion that it was a statue made some 300 years ago by the Jesuit fathers. He at once offered $10,000 for it."

By way of an advertisement invitations were sent to Prof. Agassiz, Prof. Hull, state geologist; S. B. Woolworth, secretary of the New York State university, and a large delegation of scientific men from different parts of the state. The state geologist pronounced the figure to be a statue of great antiquity. Prof. Ward, who filled the chair of natural science in Rochester university, said: "Although not going back to the stone age, it is nevertheless deserving of the attention of archaeologists." A prominent clergyman wrote: "This is not a thing contrived by a man, but it is the face of one who lived like all the earth; the very image and child of God." Many scientific societies took the matter up and expressed their gullibility more or less strongly in resolutions.

The man to first puncture the hoax was Prof. Marsh—O. C. Marsh, of Yale—who made a point by asserting that gypsum was soluble in 400 parts of water, yet the face of the giant was smooth and little dissolved, though surrounded by wet earth, proving that the burial must have been of very recent date.

It is estimated that $3,000,000 was made out of the hoax before Barnum introduced the petrified man to his circus. While the figure was being exhibited in Boston, Mr. Sala says that to his own knowledge the drawings amounted to about $4,000 a night for a considerable time. Notwithstanding Prof. Marsh's findings and other hard blows the hoax received from other quarters, it survived for nearly two decades, when it may be said to have died a natural death.

WORK AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Aside from the president's salary and the expense of keeping the white house in repair, it costs the government only about $65,000 a year to operate the establishment. Of this amount $50,000 is expended in the salaries of the thirty men on the executive pay roll. These range from the secretary to the president, with a salary of $8,000 a year, down to messengers and doorkeepers, whose pay is in some instances perhaps one-tenth that sum. The remaining $15,000 defrays all the other expenses—the replacing of worn-out office furniture, typewriter repairs, stationery and feed for the half dozen horses in the white house stables. Of course, the executive office has the benefit of many economies beyond the reach of the thrifty merchant. For instance, all official mail is franked, saving approximately $20 a day. Special telegraph and cable rates are also secured.—World's Work.

LUCKY BOYS OF TODAY

"What would the boy of fifty years ago have thought," said the middle-aged man, "if he had seen in the store window some day when he was going in for a stick of candy a sign setting forth that ice-cream sandwiches could be bought there for a cent?" says the New York Sun.

"Been surprised? Well, I guess so; but they add that now to the list of things that children can buy in the stores for a cent. It's been on the street, to be sure, for two or three years, but it is to me no less a wonderful thing to be sold in penny stores—and yet nobody winks."

"The fact is that you can buy so many luxuries now for a cent that one more or less, even so remarkable a thing as the modern ice-cream sandwich really is, does not count."

"Before the war, when the cent was a big copper coin of twice the diameter and four times the weight of the present cent, about all you could get for a penny was a stick of candy (peppermint, lemon or wintergreen), a paper of mites (sugared caraway seed in a paper tube with a narrow strip of gold or silver paper running around it spirally, like the stripe on a barberpole), a cent's worth of jubilee paste or a popcorn ball; and you could get a cent's worth of tamarinds."

"Now look at the variety of things you can get for a cent. Why, penny candies in these days are made in literally hundreds of varieties, with novelties coming out all the time."

"Manufacturers devote their wits and skill and capital to the devising of penny candies that will sell; a good seller in such goods is something decidedly worth having. And in such a state of things the ice-cream sandwich for 1 cent appears in the penny stores simply as another novelty, and in these days it never makes a ripple."

"But, while to the children of the present day the present day's variety of things to choose from when they go to invest their cent has no special significance, because they have always been accustomed to it, to one who can recall the meagerness of the old-time assortment of such things it is mightily significant; nothing, in fact, illustrates to me modern advance more vividly."

NEVER CAME BACK.

The following conversation recently took place between a steamboat pilot and one of Cook's excursionists, who, not satisfied with the information concerning the various places of interest passed on the journey given by the guide, decided to try to find out things "on his own."

"That is the Black mountain?"

"Yes, sir—the highest mountain above Lake George."

"Any story or legend connected with that mountain?"

"Lots of 'em. Two lovers went up to that mountain once and never came back again."

"Indeed! What became of them?"

"Went down on the other side."—London Answers.

RUINED CITIES OF ARIZONA

PREHISTORIC TOWNS PUZZLE ARCHEOLOGISTS—SMITHSONIAN.

IAN SCIENTISTS INVESTIGATE.

Remains of the oldest and least-known prehistoric cities in America lie buried in the sands of the desert of South Arizona. Very few Americans familiar with the wonders of prehistoric exploration in Asia Minor and Northern Africa have any idea that within their own country are remains of a strange and marvelous people, who built enormous temples, constructed extraordinary irrigation canals and tilled fields before an Egyptian pyramid was piled up, and who vanished from the earth centuries before Columbus was born. A dozen Smithsonian scientists have tried to penetrate the mystery of the ages that enveloped these dwellers in pre-Columbian America. No one knows the origin of the great population that once occupied the now burning wastes. No one knows enough about these prehistoric Americans to connect them with any other race. Some ethnologists call them Toltecs, some Aztecs, while other scientists say they were an even earlier and different race.

On a broad sloping plain, beginning at the confluence of the Gila and Salt rivers, some 50 miles south of Phoenix, lie the finest ruins of the buried aboriginal towns. Dr. Bonyne, of Oxford, England, believes these were occupied some 8,000 years ago. The outlines of the city walls, traceable among the cactus and drifting sands, give explorers reason to believe that 40,000 or 50,000 people once lived in each city. The population had engineering skill. Huge trees were transported there from mountain forests over 100 miles away; great blocks of stone were hauled there from quarries miles distant.

MILES OF RUINS.

For about 90 square miles the Gila valley is an aggregation of ruins. Irrigation canals, the oldest known in the civilized world, seam the region. The largest canal has been sadly torn to pieces in the last few years by ranchmen, but still shows its wonderful construction. It has an average depth of seven feet, is 65 miles long and terminates in a reservoir about a mile square. Think of the brawn and sweat spent in constructing such a canal and reservoir with stone implements, and of transporting the excavated earth away in wicker baskets! But this is only one of the 17 distinct prehistoric irrigation systems in the region.

These canals give some idea of the scale on which these unknown people conducted agricultural operations. They made an artificial river to water their farms. Their chief crop was probably corn, and they raised beans and two or three varieties of squashes. Prof. McGee, of the Smithsonian institute, thinks it probable that they kept the guano in domestication and evidences are found that they had turkeys.

Adolphe Bandler and Frank H. Cushing have each searched and studied among the ruins of the buried cities, but they lacked large financial resources necessary for satisfactory scientific investigation. Upon a broad upland, known as Mesa Grande, the Cushing party found relics of a community, which scientists have named Las Acequias. The adobe walls of the city (originally 10 feet thick) may be traced amid the sand hills, and from these remains one is led to believe that the ancient pueblo covered five square miles. The vast quantity of broken pottery found among the sage brush and cactus, leads to the opinion that here once lived some 50,000 people, dwelling together compactly in communal houses. Water for the farms of the people of Las Acequias was had from the Gila river, 18 miles distant.

CUT THROUGH ROCKS.

The main canal from the river was cut through ledges of rock 11 feet wide and 8 feet deep. Where depressions in the earth occurred, these ancient American engineers constructed aqueducts of cedar logs ingeniously joined together. Frank H. Cushing believes that these canals were not only for irrigation, but for transportation of building materials from the mountains to Las Acequias. An army of men and women must have spent years in constructing the main canal from the Gila to Las Acequias and its numerous laterals. Only the crudest stone implements were used for excavation, and the enormous quantity of rock and earth was carried away in baskets on the backs of the workers. Millions and millions of cobblestones were used in the retaining walls, and today they lie imbedded in the clay where the prehistoric Americans placed them long before the Christian era. The main canal terminated in a reservoir a mile long and half a mile wide.

Mr. Bandler's explorations show clearly that these prehistoric towns extended along the sides of the main canal for a great distance, in proportion to their width, and were situated on the outer edge of the cultivated tract, which included all the intervening land to the river.

All the towns contained enormous central citadel or temple buildings within clusters of dwellings in walled enclosures, which in turn were surrounded by the thatched huts of the common people. Stone and sun-dried adobe bricks were used as building material. The main earth walls were formed within a framework of timber and wattled cane. The best preserved walls show that the houses were in large communal blocks 300 or 400 feet long by 200 feet wide, and possibly larger, built three or four stories high of adobe bricks without admixture of straw. They were situated near the canal or its branches, were sometimes provided with a special reservoir, and in all cases had one or more pits or ovens for cooking purposes. The citadels are thought, from the thickness of the walls and the quantity of debris, to have been several stories high, and in war times to have been used as places of refuge.

TEMPLES WERE OVAL.

Each city had also a large public edifice, oval in form, 40 or 50 feet in diameter, and it is conjectured these were temples of the sun.

All the buried towns were inhabited contemporaneously. A succession of earthquakes or other phenomena probably led to wholesale migrations, in which the houses and all they contained were deserted without seeming preparation. From the posture in which the skeletons have been found and from the fact that the walls of the buildings opened outward in falling and that household utensils are discovered, it is supposed that an earthquake led to the abandonment of the towns.

The relics taken from the exhumed houses, citadels and tombs by the explorers include pottery, stone implements, turquoise and other stones held in esteem, shells and shell ornaments, human and animal remains. Many inscriptions have been found on the rocks throughout Central Arizona. They are of religious significance, showing characteristic attitudes of the people at certain festivals and sacrifices and disclosing nothing of a narrative or historic nature. They give no idea of the ordinary manner of dress or of the textile fabric used, but show the priestly gown to have been a long robe. A few fragments of cotton cloth have been found preserved from decay and also several specimens of basketry. The pottery is largely obtained in pyral mounds and graves. As many as 200 urns have been found in a single mound. The designs are still in use among a few Indian tribes in the southwest.

ORNAMENTS OF METAL.

The stone axes are nice in detail and show a degree of ingenuity not found among any American tribe nowadays. Many articles of personal adornment show that the mysterious race was entering that transition period which borders on the metallic and stone age. Some of these articles are shells identified as coming from the Gulf of Mexico. A few are of metal. Skillfully inlaid articles were made by coating a shell with black cement obtained from the gum deposited by insects on greasewood twigs on the desert and then imbedding mosaic fragments of turquoise and shells in the matrix. After the surface had been rubbed down smooth it made an ornament of merit. Of the same gum from greasewood twigs was made a lacquering preparation for preserving the color of basketry.

Representations are found in the rock inscriptions and in terra cotta images of an animal that was undoubtedly used as a beast of burden. This beast resembled the llama of South America. Spanish writers at the time of the conquests by Cortez and Pizarro speak of the existence of woolen cloth among the Pueblo Indians, and as nothing has been disclosed indicating contact with the whites, it is supposed that these people had domesticated the llama. The skeletons that the Cushing expedition secured show that the people were small in stature and that their skulls were brachycephalous (or broader than long), like those of the Peruvians. Some of the skulls have a little extra bone in the back part of the head, a peculiarity of the Incas, and known as the Inca bone. This fact indicates some relationship between the mysterious race in Arizona and the ancient civilization in South America.

LIVED FOR RELIGION.

Mr. Bandler believes that religion was the main purpose of life among these people. Each action appears to have been vested with a significance of its own, even the location of the public structures being determined by certain mythological indications. These people worshiped the sun and had lodge rooms in the temple. Sacrificial stones have been lization of anything she knew that she was a second cousin of Queen Victoria, and that her fourth and fifth cousins were the little English princes, Clarence and George.

VICTORIA MARY, PRINCESS OF WALES.

She knew that, sometimes, when there was a holiday she could go to Marlborough house and play with them, and she knew that, at home, she was desperately poor, with two little brothers, and a mother so charitable that all the family income went to the infirmaries and outdoor reliefs.

The little Princess May, of Teck, grew up very pretty and strong; and when she was 19 her cousin Edward, who was then the duke of Clarence, proposed to her.

Clarence expected to be king of England some day, and May accepted him.

She said that she did so because she loved him, not because of his position.

The invitations were sent out and the wedding gifts were in when Clarence died and the princess was left all but wedded.

The next year George, Clarence's brother, sought her hand, and after all the delay that goes with royal weddings they were married.

July 6 marked the ninth anniversary of their wedding, and in the nine years that have passed the people have come to know the "Princess May," as they have always called her, better and to like her more and more.

And they always did like her, for she grew up among them, and where other queens came from Germany, from Denmark and from Austria, this queen-to-be came from Richmond Lodge, an English home, and she was English to her finger tips.

Victoria Mary, after her marriage, went to live in York house, and there she bore her children, there she brought them up, there she drove and walked and received her friends, and there she lived the plain life of an English matron, absolutely without ostentation, absolutely without foreignisms of any kind.

Queen Victoria loved her. Queen Alexandra and King Edward adored her. She was an ideal daughter-in-law. She was the best of wives.

On the day when George, who will be known in history as George V., married the Princess May, he said to his mother: "I have the handsomest wife in England."

If he thought so then, he thinks so now. In the kingdom there is not a man more devoted. He takes her everywhere. He buys her gowns and jewels. He drives daily with her. He goes to church with her Alas, how hard it is to be a king! And how fiercely does the light of publicity beat upon the royal throne. Who could stand before its rays! And how fortunate the king-to-be, whose peccadilloes number only one.

During the nine years in York house the Princess May has been raising a family. Four little children were left by the stork in rapid succession.

They are Edward, Albert, Victoria and Henry, the latter being only 2 years old.

Prince Edward, heir to the throne, is 8 years old and a big boy for his age. He will be King Edward VIII., and some day his crowning will be the talk of the world.

It has been the wish of his mother that the boy should see the coronation exercises, so that, when the day comes, he will remember how his father and grandfather were crowned and be able to follow all the lines of precedent without the fatigue which wore King Edward VII. out.

The English look at their next queen with fond eyes. She is young. She is pretty. She is very English in manner and speaks no language except English, for her French is poor and her German is halting. She is popular with the Kaiser, who sends her gifts. She is liked by the czarina, who has visited her. She is very domestic. She is well bred. She has no peculiarities and neither writes verses nor composes music. She does not paint pictures and has no ambition beyond bringing up a future king for England's throne.

Yet she is not commonplace. Indeed, England has not had a more intelligent queen. She reads a great deal, is quite a botanist and has ably seconded the Princess Christian in her floral researches.

She has founded a school for nurses. She has endowed a home for crippled children. She has opened a floral charity at Richmond. She has established scholarships in the schools of design for women. She maintains a large Christian charity, upon which she works twelve months in the year, and she employs two secretaries to conduct the correspondence.

In fact, it is said that the wife of George gives all her money away, and there was a rumor that the only difficulty that ever arose between Queen Alexandra and her daughter-in-law was over the prodigality of the latter where a charity bazaar was concerned.

So England's next queen will be liked by the people. She is a uniquely romantic personage, because of her history, with its sidelights lived out

A Gift of God.

Arora, Ind. Pastor Koenig's Nervine Tonic has effected such a wonderful cure with my daughter, I cannot but thank God for the valuable remedy. During the period of a year my daughter Mary had 32 attacks of falling sickness with all the accompanying dreadful symptoms, and I even began to fear that she would lose her mind. Rev. Morik recommended the use of the Nervine. After the first dose an improvement was noticeable and continued. The cure was effected under his direction by the use of this place sent entirely to it, and this great relief of modern medicine.

Miss M. Vidoureck. I have sent a circular of this Nervine Tonic to Europe, so that it may become known there and will have it published in my home paper in Austria.

ROSALIA VIDOURECK. A valuable book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge. This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1854, and has cured under his direction by the use of this place sent entirely to it, and this great relief of modern medicine.

ding up in several spots, but the nature of the sacrifice has not yet been determined. The burial customs shed some light on the social and religious ideas prevalent at the time. Adobe sarcophagi, supposed, from their extra decorations, to contain the remains of persons of exceptional note, have also been found in upper stories of the citadels. It is inferred from the fact that two bodies are occasionally found together that man and wife were interred side by side. Like all nature worshippers, these people endowed each object with its spiritual counterpart, and either buried or burned the individual's belongings beside his body that they might accompany him on his spiritual journey. Likewise, the buried urn was "killed" by cracking or perforating its side in order that the soul might escape.

Nothing has been found to suggest any contact of the aborigines with the old world. The race was agricultural. The civilization was that of the stone age, more definitely called the neolithic, the distinctive features of which were the use of polished stone implements, as distinguished from the chipped ones, and the beginning of the use of metals. A few samples that have been discovered indicate that this race had a crude knowledge of the smelting of ores and their subsequent treatment with stone hammers or terra cotta blowpipes. The metals were worked into articles of personal adornment, but not into implements of use.

EMPLOYMENT DIVIDED. Exchanges were carried on by a system of barter and the co-operative irrigation customs lead to the conclusion that the people must have appreciated the advantage of a division of employments. To distribute a large volume of water over a territory many miles in extent so as to divide it equitably among the different sections, and at the same time husband the supply, requires executive ability and indicates a people willing to subordinate their private interests to the public weal. Their communal and co-operative character is also demonstrated by many other customs. The walled block was, on the contrary, a distinctive tribal building. In the vicinity of each block are found large pits, with a vitreous lining, that were used as baking ovens in common by the entire clan. The different fetiches or amulets they held sacred are of concretionary stone of high natural colors and of peculiar shapes. Individual amulets are found in the pyral mounds, family ones in the ruins of dwelling rooms; clan amulets in the urban houses and tribal in the temples.

The ancient city of Los Muertos, south of Tempe, had a population of more than 65,000 before the days of the Pharaohs. The city is laid out north and south, at least in a majority of instances the streets run to these cardinal points. The walls vary from this rule. In fact, they are crooked in places, as if they might have been constructed for the support of bastions or towers. This city and another containing an old fort, further down the Gila river, are the only ones in which any evidence of preparation for war have been found. It seems as if the race who had lived in this Gila valley was either so numerous that it feared no attack or had no enemies.

CITY OF RUINS. Near Tempe are the ruined corrals in which the animals of the inhabitants were kept. Many finds prove the purpose for which they were used. What the animals were is not determined. On the slates found in the ruins south of the Salt river are splendid figures of llamas. Interesting ceramic specimens have been found. Ollas of all shapes and sizes, urns containing the ashes of the dead and jars partly filled with parched corn and beans are found in a remarkable state of preservation. It seems as if the entire city had been swept by a flood and the earthen houses melted down or shaken by an earthquake into fragments.

Few of the skeletons show signs of mutilation. The people appear to have died of suffocation or some natural cause that left no mark upon the frame. In several spots where bones have been found deeper digging has brought to light large quantities of bone dust as fine and light as gunpowder. In one spot near Tempe several tons of bone dust have been recently found lying in what once appears to have been a trench some seventy feet long and two feet deep, nine feet below the surface of the sunbaked earth. The edges of the depository of bone dust were broken and uneven, so that it could not mark a sepulchre. Is it the remains of animals or human beings? If the latter, was it the result of funeral rites or were the bodies deposited there by some cataclysm that came over the land?

OFFICERS FLAGGED A TRAIN.

(Wabash Plain Dealer.) Last evening when Conductor Brownlee came into the city on west-bound passenger train No. 5, he told Deputy Marshal Eckman quite a sensational story, while his train waited at the station. Mr. Brownlee stated that his train was flagged when about three miles west of Fort Wayne by three policemen, and the engineer fearing trouble ahead, applied the brakes and brought the train to a standstill at the point where the officers were standing. Seemingly knowing their business, the trio rushed by the engine and tender on back to the baggage car, where they covered two negroes who were riding "blind baggage," with their guns, and commanded them to "crawl down." The men obeyed and were escorted back to Fort Wayne. Mr. Brownlee said the men were participants in a shooting affray which occurred early in the evening and that the victim of the trouble, a white man, was reported then dying, as the result of the assault by the negroes. His information was gleaned from the Fort Wayne officers.

DECLARES HIS WIFE A MAN

FRED WESTFALL'S REPLY TO CHARGE OF DESERTION.

Man Arrested at Elkhart Makes Startling Announcement Concerning His Garrett Bride.

Elkhart, Ind., Aug. 2.—Fred Westfall, who was arrested Thursday morning on a warrant charging him with having deserted his wife, made the startling announcement to Judge Blake and Sergeant Whiteman that his wife is a man, and that being the case, does not make a fitting life partner for him.

Westfall was married on July 5 and went to work as a farm hand for Miles Blake, living on the Mishawaka road. He alleges that he discovered at once that his wife was what to the best of his belief he considered to be a man, but that he lived with her for two weeks. He then quit the employment of Mr. Blake and told the person he had married he was going to Syracuse to work. He told him or her to meet him there, but neglected to give any money with which to travel. The result was that Mr. Blake was compelled to care for Mrs. Westfall until a few days ago, when she went to her parents at Garrett.

Westfall denied that he intended to desert his wife, even after he discovered that she was a man.

Sergeant Whiteman saw him walking on Main street shortly before noon and arrested him. He was arraigned and pleaded not guilty this afternoon. His bond was fixed at $50 pending the arrival of his wife.

Mrs. Westfall's maiden name was Agnes Frederick and she is the daughter of a well-to-do merchant of Garrett, who, however, has separated, it is said, from Mrs. Westfall's mother. He supported both of them, however, until Mrs. Westfall's marriage.

Charles Griswold, near Peru, had about four hundred cords of wood cut ready for next winter. Then Thursday's cloudburst came and the last Mr. Griswold saw of his wood it was floating down the Wabash river.

A BLANKET ORDER

SWEEEPING INJUNCTION ISSUED BY JUDGE KELLER.

MITCHELL INCLUDED IN IT

BILL FILED BY COAL COMPANY IN WEST VIRGINIA.

ORDER PROMPTLY GRANTED

PURPOSE TO PREVENT UNLAWFUL CONSPIRACIES.

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 1.—President John Mitchell has been enjoined. A bill in equity was filed in the federal court here yesterday by the Chesapeake and Ohio Coal Agency company, a New Jersey corporation, which has its principal offices in the city of New York, in which fifty coal companies operating in the New River fields, the Chesapeake and Ohio River Railway company, G. W. Pursell, W. B. Wilson, John Mitchell, J. W. Carroll, J. A. Richards and about 150 members of the United Mine Workers of America are made defendants.

The bill sets up that the complainant is engaged in selling coal and coke and has a contract for the output of the collieries made a party defendant and a contract with the defendant railroad company for the shipment of the coal so purchased.

TERMS OF COMPLAINT.

It is stated that the coal is resold by complainant under contracts to manufacturing concerns, etc., and to the United States government for fuel on naval vessels; that because of a strike in the field embraced by the various companies mentioned, which has existed since June 7 last, the coal companies have failed to live up to the contracts for deliveries of coal; that there exists a secret organization known as the "United Mine Workers of America," of which John Mitchell is president and W. B. Wilson is secretary, under the orders of which the men employed in the mines who are members of this organization have quit work and refuse to do their duties, and in addition thereto assemble in marches and meetings and so conduct themselves as to intimidate employees of the various companies, thus preventing them going to the work which they desire to perform, and the said defendants occupy the tenement houses of the various companies and fail and refuse to vacate them at the request of the coal companies owning them.

KELLER ISSUES ORDER.

The bill, which is a very lengthy one, was presented to Judge Keller and he made an order that a temporary restraining order be allowed, restraining and prohibiting the defendants, G. W. Pursell, W. B. Wilson, John Mitchell, J. W. Carroll, J. A. Richards and others (all of whom are named in the order), and all others associating or acting with them from in any way interfering with the management, operation or conducting of said mines by their owners or those operating them, either by menaces, threats or any character of intimidation used to prevent the employees of said mines from going to or from said coal and coke plants or from engaging in the business of mining in said mines or laboring upon said coke plants.

HEARING SET.

The motion for a permanent injunction is set down for hearing at Charleston, November 18, 1902.

The court appears to have taken no cognizance of the request to have the defendant coal companies force the defendant individuals to vacate the tenement houses.

This morning the Fort Wayne and Southwestern road was granted a right-of-way over the Big Four grounds in this city. Until today the work on the road has been confined strictly to the grounds owned by the company, but immediately after a lease was secured over the Big Four territory this morning workmen commenced grading for the roadbed on their grounds. The Fort Wayne and Southwestern company own their roadbed to a point about three hundred feet east of where the

SHE SLEPT AWAY

MRS. HARVEY YARYAN ENDS LIFE WITH CHLOROFORM. HAD INHALED DEADLY FUMES WAS FOUND LIFELESS UPON BED AT NOON TODAY. HUSBAND MADE DISCOVERY WOMAN WAS LAST SEEN ALIVE ABOUT 9 O'CLOCK.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The lifeless body of Mrs. Allie Yaryan, 36 years of age, was found lying upon the bed in her room at the Whiteman boarding house, 720 Barr street, shortly after noon today. Her face was buried in the pillow, and beside the body lay a two-ounce bottle, uncorked, containing chloroform. This instantly explained the cause of death, but the exact circumstances surrounding it may never be known.

The dead woman was the wife of Harvey Yaryan, a woodworker employed at the City Carriage works, and the horrifying discovery was made by the husband as he returned to the house for the noonday meal. The room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Yaryan was the front room upon the ground floor, and on reaching the house today Mr. Yaryan found both front and rear doors to the apartment locked. In some alarm he forced an entrance through a window at the side of the house.

Inside the room the fumes of the chloroform were stifling. Beside his wife upon the bed he noticed the bottle of chloroform and a book which she had evidently been reading. Efforts to arouse the woman failed and Mr. Yaryan called to other residents of the house. Dr. Harriet Macbeth was also summoned, but the attempt to resuscitate the woman were futile. It is believed death had ensued at least an hour before.

LAST SEEN AT 9 O'CLOCK.

Coroner Barnett was called and he at once began work upon the case. The bottle found beside the body originally contained two ounces of chloroform, but at least two-thirds of the drug was missing. Mrs. S. D. Whiteman, wife of the proprietor of the boarding house, which is the old White homestead, was the last person to see Mrs. Yaryan alive.

The latter arose this morning as usual, made a visit to the public library to exchange a book she had been reading, then ordered some groceries for Mrs. Whiteman and returned to the house at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Whiteman had a brief conversation with her at that time, but the woman was in her usual spirits, and there was no indication in her manner of contemplated suicide. She entered her room and locked the door. Three hours later the lifeless body was found.

The family came to Fort Wayne three years ago from Crawfordsville, and consisted of the husband, wife and one son, Herbert, who is employed at the Stafford printing house. For a short time it is said Mrs. Yaryan was employed as a demonstrator of food products at several grocery stores in the city.

There is a possibility her death may have been accidental, for it is said that members of the family have known for some time that Mrs. Yaryan was in the habit of occasionally using some drug to induce sleep, but she repeatedly refused to tell the nature of the medicine. Her death under the circumstances today might tend to support the theory that the narcotic used was chloroform, and that so great a quantity of the drug was unintentionally used today that fatal consequences ensued.

TRAIN HITS INTERURBAN CAR NEAR ANDERSON

Anderson, Ind., July 30.—An interurban car was struck by a train near Yorktown this afternoon. It is reported that two persons were killed and many injured.

JAMES H. LAKE DEAD.

Rome City, Ind., July 30.—(Special.)—James H. Lake, for many years a prominent farmer near this place, died at 3:20 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the age of 69 years. Mr. Lake's illness had been an extended one. He had been a resident of Noble county for about fifty years and was widely and favorably known. Surviving are the widow and an only child—Mrs. W. P. Denny, of Fort Wayne. The funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the residence.

AGED VICTIM OF AN ASSAULT.

South Bend, Ind., July 30.—Mrs. Josefa Janowiak, a widow, aged 60 years, while returning to her home shortly after 11 o'clock Monday night, was hailed by a young man in a buggy and asked if she did not want him to take her home in his carriage. He spoke in Polish, and Mrs. Janowiak accepted his offer. He drove through the city, past the woman's home, threatening her life if she made an outcry. In the dense woods south of the city he threw her from the buggy, and after assaulting her, took her money and medicine and disappeared, leaving her about two miles from her home. Although terribly injured she managed to drag herself to the residence of John Shearer, in the vicinity. She reached the house about 1 o'clock, but was too exhausted to awaken the family, and was obliged to pass the night in a stupor on the porch. She is in a critical condition. Her assailant has not been apprehended.

MAKES OLD NAVIES USELESS

A NEW AND POWERFUL EXPLOSIVE IS A SUCCESS.

Experiments With a Time Fuse for It Give Uncle Sam a Big Hunch on Other Powers.

New York, July 30.—A new time fuse, for use on armor-piercing shells loaded with a recently discovered secret explosive of great power, has been invented by war department ordnance experts and will, according to a New York American dispatch from Washington, revolutionize foreign warship building.

Tests of the explosive and fuse have been made, and so long as the United States government holds the secret foreign battleships either must double their steel walls or be as wooden frigates against the new destroyer.

General Crozier, chief of ordnance, is quoted as having said that a test of the new explosive has been conducted with eminent success at the Sandy Hook proving grounds, that the shell carried its contents through the thickest armor, and that the fuse lived long enough to have exploded on the interior of a ship of war. The greatest penetration secured was that of a shell fired from a twelve-inch gun. It pierced fourteen-inch Krupp armor before detonation. The heaviest shield now in use is said to be only twelve inches thick.

BISHOP GETS AN EAGLE.

Bishop Alerding has received a handsome present from Rev. Father Benedict, of near Whiting, in the shape of a handsomely mounted specimen of an American eagle, measuring eight feet from tip to tip. While out hunting Father Benedict was attacked by the bird and he succeeded in capturing it after a hard struggle, in which he was badly clawed and pecked. Father Benedict turned the bird loose in his hen coop, having no other place to put it, and it killed off his entire stock of poultry. The bird was shot a few days later and Father Benedict had it mounted and presented it to the bishop.

BURIED IN A CAVE-IN.

A number of boys were playing in the gravel pits in White's addition Tuesday afternoon, when one of them, John Larb, living on Fletcher avenue, stumbled and fell into one of the pits. As he did so a portion of the bank caved in, completely burying him. The lad's companions fortunately had sufficient presence of mind enough to dig him out, and although nearly suffocated, he soon came to. In the fall the boy's right collar bone was broken and he received other injuries. Dr. J. W. McCausland reduced the fracture.

HIS SIGHT THREATENED.

"While picnicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Ia. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is sure cure. Relieves piles at once. Beware of counterfeits. Meyer Bro. & Co.

Bluffton people are much discouraged over their effort to secure a right of way from Montpelier to that city for the Muncie, Hartford City and Fort Wayne electric line. Many farmers are holding their land at a prohibitive figure.

CONSUMPTION THREATENED.

"I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption," says C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill. "I tried a great many remedies and I was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since." Sold by Dreier & Bro. and Pellens & Polster.

DENY TRUST TALE

WORLD-WIDE OIL COMBINE IS CALLED A MYTH.

WHAT STANDARD OIL MEN SAY

ROCKEFELLERS, ROTHSCHILDS AND OTHERS UNITED.

RULE WORLD'S OIL SUPPLY

A LONDON JOURNAL LAUNCHES THE STORY.

New York, July 30.—Regarding the cable report that the Standard Oil company has entered or will enter into an agreement with the Rothschilds and Nobel interests to control the world's oil production, M. F. Elliott, the attorney of the Standard Oil company, today made the following statement:

"I am authorized to say that the story has absolutely no foundation in fact. It is false from beginning to end. Furthermore, the Standard Oil company has at no time considered a plan of this kind, and at no time has that company entered into negotiations about this matter."

ANOTHER DENIAL.

London, July 30.—James MacDonald, general representative of the Standard Oil company and manager of the Anglo-American Oil company, denies the story printed in the Daily Mail to the effect that the oil interests of Rockefeller, Rothschilds and Nobel have entered into a working agreement. Mr. MacDonald said to a representative of the Associated Press:

"Nothing of the sort has been accomplished or contemplated. The rumor must have sprung from the fact that the Shell Trading company, which handles much Russian product in the east, was negotiating in the direction of securing the export trade of the whole Russian output. There had been some slight negotiation towards taking over the Shell business by the Standard Oil company, but this was without result. It is improbable that the Standard Oil company will depart from its policy of handling the American product only, so long as that remains sufficient to supply the trade."

DETAILS OF THE REPORT.

London, July 30.—The greatest trust the world has yet seen, a combination which will have absolute control of the trade of Europe, America and Asia, sprang into being today when a semi-official announcement was made of the merger of the interests of Rockefeller, Rothschild and Nobel. This combine has unquestioned proprietorship of the great oil fields in the United States, in Russia and in Siberia, and can dictate to the world the terms it needs for its commodity.

The Daily Mail, which has hinted before that negotiations were proceeding in Moscow, in its issue of this morning states unequivocally that the agreement has been reached and that "thus, without any publicity, the greatest trust that the world has ever seen has sprung into being."

CZAR FORCED TO THE WALL. This combination has also been forecast in messages from Batoum, and it has more clearly shown in the offers made to Russian oil exporters by representatives of the Nobel and Rothschilds' interests for the absorption of the whole of their output.

The exporters have been forbidden to sell through the agencies of these interests at a price arranged by them or to fight the combined forces of the three oil giants. This offer was made openly and with the idea of maintaining prices and it has been refused, the Russian exporters preferring to fight.

It was doubtless this combine, continues the Daily Mail, which induced the Russian government to issue invitations to an anti-trust conference. The spokesmen of the great combines declare it means a fight to the death and that the independent exporters cannot hope to win.

DR. H. G. MERZ HOME.

Dr. Henry G. Merz, who has been spending the past month in Denver for rest and recuperation, has returned to the city and resumed his practice. Dr. Merz says the trip was a most delightful one and his health is much improved.

HIS INJURIES ARE SERIOUS.

H. H. Long, the Nickel Plate brakeman who had his back injured by a fall from a car at McComb, O., two or three weeks ago, is in St. Joseph hospital for treatment for concussion of the spine. He went to his home in Bellevue about a week ago, hoping to improve by the treatment received there, but he was disappointed and he came here as stated last evening. In order to prevent him from being a cripple for life, Mr. Long will have to wear a plaster cast for a month. Mr. Long Pittsburg, Pa., July 30.—The engine of the westbound fast mail No. 11 on the Pennsylvania railroad jumped the track near Packardville about 11:30 o'clock today and plunged over a 250-foot embankment, taking with it the mail cars. One man was killed and five injured.

The dead:

John Kemmerling, engineer, aged 51, of Altoona, Pa.

Injured:

S. M. Kinsley, fireman, 24, Altoona, Pa.; will die.

J. F. McGinnis, brakeman, Harrisburg, slightly injured.

J. S. Wills, mail clerk, Harrisburg, slightly injured.

H. H. Wert, mail clerk, Harrisburg, not dangerous.

J. R. Maurer, mail clerk, Harrisburg, slightly injured.

The train was made up entirely of mail cars and was fifty-five minutes late. It was running at a high rate of speed when the accident occurred. All the cars were wrecked.

The cause of the accident is not yet known. A relief train has been sent from Pittsburg to bring the mail here.

JOLTING CAUSED HEMORRHAGE

Oliver Waters, a young farmer living near Academie, was stricken with a hemorrhage Tuesday afternoon and for a time it was thought he would not recover. Waters was riding on a binder and when stooping over to adjust some of the machinery, blood gushed from his mouth and nose, and in the fainting spell which followed he narrowly escaped being thrown in front of the knives of the machine. Waters was carried home and Dr. J. D. Chambers was called from this city to attend him. It is thought the hemorrhage was caused by the jolting of the binder. Young Waters comes of a rather unfortunate family, his father, Stephen Waters, having been killed on Wells street some years ago, falling from his wagon and breaking his neck.

CHARGE OF DESERTION.

(Huntington Herald.) Mrs. Henrietta Sell, accompanied by her attorney, G. W. Stults, appeared before Prosecutor Mitchell this morning and filed a suit against her husband, George Sell, for desertion. Mrs. Sell is a daughter of Philip Erlenbaugh and with her husband once resided in Fort Wayne, at which place he owned a saloon.

In the complaint Mrs. Sell alleges that her husband left her about the first of April and ever since has been out of the city. She claims that he has for some time failed to support her and she had to depend upon herself for a livelihood. It is thought Sell will be arrested some time today, as it is known he is in Fort Wayne.

When the family came here the husband accepted employment on the Erie, but later secured a situation on the traction line. He is said to be a hard drinker and spent all his money for liquor.

SHATTERS ALL RECORDS.

Twice in hospital, F. A. Gulledege, Verbena, Ala., paid a vast sum to doctors to cure a severe case of piles, causing 24 tumors. When all failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve soon cured him. Subdues inflammation, conquers Aches, kills Pains. Best salve in the world. 25c at Dreier & Bro.'s drug store.

MOB WANTED TO LYNCH HIM

A LAPORTE COUNTY MAN SUSPECTED OF WIFE MURDER.

Her Disappearance Inflames Neighbors and Man's Removal Became Necessary.

Laporte, Ind., July 30.—The town of Westville, twelve miles southwest of here, is in the throes of excitement over the supposed murder of Mrs. William Tolton by her husband, and the attempt made by a mob to lynch the man for his alleged crime. The stand taken by the officers and the cool-headedness of a few citizens is all that saved Tolton from being strung up.

Because of alleged previous remarks that he would dispose of his wife, the neighbors of Tolton Monday morning mistrusted that something was wrong when she failed to make her usual appearance around the house. Inquiries of Tolton as to his wife's whereabouts were met with evasive answers. The news spread that Mrs. Tolton was missing and soon the excitement was so intense that John Herrold, a merchant of the town, made affidavit before Justice Brewer that Tolton had murdered his wife. Marshal Herman Warnke arrested Tolton, who made no effort to escape, and he was arraigned before a justice. He pleaded not guilty to the charge, and the case was postponed until evening, so that further evidence could be procured, Tolton in the meantime being given his freedom on his own recognizance.

At the preliminary hearing in the evening Tolton, when pressed for information as to his wife's whereabouts, claimed that he had sent her to Chicago on the 5 o'clock morning Wabash train for the purpose of entering a hospital, but he was unable to tell what hospital. Investigation showed that no one had seen her depart and as the station is closed at night she did not buy a ticket in Westville, if she departed on the train. Later on Tolton said his wife had gone to her sister's home in Chicago, but he could not tell the woman's name nor give her address.

The excitement in the crowd continued to grow until about 11 o'clock Monday night, when the ring leaders of the mob procured a rope and were about to get Tolton to string him up in order to make him tell what he had done with his wife when Marshal Warnke and some aids warned them that any show of violence would be met with armed resistance, and any attempt to take away Tolton would mean the officers opening fire on the mob. Sheriff Small was appealed to for assistance and Deputy Wells and an assistant at once left for the scene. They brought Tolton to this city early yesterday morning. He is now in the county jail. He protests his innocence. Sheriff Small is endeavoring to unravel the mystery.

GOOD WORK

DONE DAILY IN FORT WAYNE—MANY CITIZENS TELL OF IT.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Fort Wayne still continues, and our citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had than the experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case:

Mr. C. J. Noll, of 115 Barthold street, butcher, employed at H. Strodel's meat market, says: "When I was working in Frenchtown an attack of kidney disorder got hold of me and though I tried every known remedy I was unable to get rid of it. I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at Meyer & Co.'s drug store. Before I took these pills I was greatly troubled with backache. I could not rest at night in only one position and when I was up it was almost impossible to stoop. The kidney secretions were discolored, had a bad odor and at times I grew very dizzy. I commenced feeling better as soon as I started taking Doan's Kidney Pills and by the time I had finished the first box I was entirely cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
